PERSONALS.

Mrs. G. T. Ashlock is quite sick. Miss Dollie McRoberts is with Richmond friends. Mr. R. E. Lee Sims returned to Tusculum, Ala., Sunday. Mr. Levi Elder, of Crab Orchard, is in town.—Richmond Register. Mr. Jones Baughman and his handsome bride were here from the West End with friends Friday. Misses Sadie and Bessie Baughman, of Hustonville, are with Misses Elizabeth and Peachie Baughman. The Young Married Peoples Social Club will meet with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wearen Friday evening at 7:30. Mrs. L. C. Lee, of Knoxville, and Miss Bodie Jones, of Milan, Tenn., were guests of Mrs. Mattie Nevius. Mrs. L. M. Westfield and children, who have been with Mrs. M. D. Elmore, returned to Livingston Friday. Mrs. J. H. Reid and sons, of Hustonville, took Saturday's train for Corbin to visit the husband and father there. The Young Ladies' Thursday Afternoon Club will meet with Mrs. J. G. Carpenter, Jr., Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Smith Penney and daughter, of St. Joseph, Mo., are with her father, Mr. John K. Baughman, in the West End. Dr. W. N. Craig went to Middlesboro Friday. He took along his optical goods and may fit a few spectacles during his absence. Saturday's Courier-Journal contained a good picture of W. K. Shugars, Jr., the handsome son of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Shugars, of Brodhead. Mrs. W. P. Givens and daughter, Isabella, leave Sunday night for Hendersonville, N. C., where they will remain for 10 days.—Advocate. Mr. Logan Montgomery, who lived in Lincoln county many years ago, was elected sheriff of Shasha county, California, on the democratic ticket. Mr. Logan R. Hughes had the misfortune to step on a nail which penetrated his right foot to a painful depth. He now belongs to the limping brigade. Mr. Will Soden, who has a good position with the City Flouring Mills in Knoxville, was the guest of his grandparents, Col and Mrs. W. H. Duderar. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Holland, of Paducah, Mrs. Mattie Graham, of Lebanon, and Miss Johnnie Beard, of Hopkinsville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Reinhart. John Bright, Jr., went to Somerset yesterday to take a position with The Waddle Grocery Co., wholesale and retail dealers. Earl Withers has succeeded him in Mr. George D. Hopper's. James I. Hamilton, of Lancaster, who did yeoman work for Gov. Beckham in Garrard county before the primary election, was here on his way to North Dakota on a business trip.—Frankfort Journal. Messrs. J. M. Alverson and K. H. Coffey returned last night from a visit to Mr. James T. Menefee at Alton, Ill. While gone they also visited St. Louis and Memphis friends, where they were also delightfully entertained. Misses Mattie Mae and Lillian Leavell, of Bryantville, are guests of Miss Tevis Carpenter. The latter sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" very sweetly at the Christian church Sunday morning. She has a charming voice and remarkable control of it. Mr. Geo. L. Penny, a prominent druggist of Stanford, was here on business. Mr. Penny takes a prominent part in politics in his section and was much pleased at the nomination of Judge Hager for governor. He called on him in his office and offered his congratulations.—Frankfort Journal. Egbert Wallin has resigned his position with W. J. Sparks and accepted a position as Special Agent for the Southern railroad with headquarters at Somerset. Conn Brown has abandoned his trip to Alaska and is now telegraphing for the Southern Pacific railroad in California.—Mt. Vernon Signal.

MR. B. F. SLAVIN, a prominent citizen of Boyle, died Friday. He was in fine health until the Sunday before, when he suffered a stroke of paralysis. He lived in Garrard until some six or eight years ago and was as much liked there as he was in Boyle.

NOTICE.—The Fiscal court of Lincoln county will convene in special session on Thursday, Dec. 20th, 1906, and all turnpike contractors who have completed their contracts and want any Christmas money will file their claims with the clerk on or before that day. R. C. Warren, judge Lincoln county court. Nov. 19, 1906.

HAPPY OCCASION.—The children and relatives of Mrs. Mary C. Givens gave her a royal dinner Sunday in celebration of her 80th birthday. Some 25 guests were present and it was an occasion that will not soon be forgotten by them. Mrs. Givens was in very good health and enjoyed the day as much as did her children, grandchildren and relatives. Each of her children brought a present which will be cherished by the aged mother during the remainder of her life. The dinner table was a thing of beauty and a joy for the while. In the center was an immense marshmallow cake, brought by Mrs. G. C. Givens, and on which 80 tiny candles burned. The menu included turkey, oysters, quail on toast, old ham, etc., and ices of several kinds. The house was prettily decorated with white and yellow chrysanthemums. Among the guests were Drs. Steele Bailey and J. G. Carpenter, who were Mrs. Givens' physicians during her illness of a year ago.

LOST.—Hound pup, lemon spots and one mealy ear. Reward for recovery. M. V. Keeton, Danville. 2t.

I WILL be absent from my office for a few days. Watch for notice of return in the I. J. W. N. Craig.

WATCH out for W. H. Mueller's big "ad" next issue. He will tell you something about Xmas presents.

THE Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church will meet with Mrs. John B. Foster at 2 P. M. Saturday.

C. L. ASHLEY, of the Turnersville section, found a grip which the owner can get by describing and paying for this notice.

TURKEYS wanted this week at highest market price to be delivered not later than Saturday. H. B. Northcott, J. E. Buck, manager.

THERE will be a musical entertainment at the Graded School on Wednesday evening of next week. The program will appear in Friday's paper.

CARD OF THANKS.—Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Anderson wish to extend their thanks to the many kind friends who ministered help and comfort to them during the sickness and death of their son, Willie. And also to the faithful physician who patiently watched with them to the last.

LANCASTER has one of the best florists in the state in Mr. John Christman who has erected large up-to-date green houses on Richmond street, near the railroad crossing. He has quite a number of growing flowers, and many potted plants which he sells at the very lowest prices.—Lancaster Record.

THE Somerset Republican says that Eld. Joseph Ballou, of this place, made an excellent talk there in advocacy of local option. That paper says of this splendid old gentleman: "He has become aged and gray in good work, but has about the same vigor and energy in his speaking as he had 25 years ago. He touched vigorously upon every phase of the drink traffic and every sentence had a telling point against the business. Every argument he made was strong and unanswerable and was forcibly impressed by suitable illustration or anecdote."

NOTICE.—To the people of Lincoln county and towns of Stanford and Crab Orchard: We are taxed to death and the weight of taxation is more than we can stand and I shall commence my crusade against unholy taxation at Neal's School-house next Thursday night, Nov. 22, and at Sautley School-house Friday night, Nov. 23, and will continue from night to night until I speak at every school-house in Lincoln county. I am no candidate but wish to abolish unjust and oppressive taxation in order that both the white man and Negro be free. FONTAINE FOX BOBBITT.

LATER.—Owing to the inclemency of the weather, a very severe cold, and being engaged in a homicidal trial that may continue for the week, I withdraw for the present my appointment at Neal's Creek School-house and Mat Martin's School-house for next Thursday and Friday nights.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Judge B. F. Roach, in a lengthy opinion, decided Saturday morning that the city council of Stanford did right in not granting saloon license after the county had gone dry under the Unit law and of course refused to grant the mandamus asked by Attorney George B. Sautley, who represents the "wet" side. Hon. P. M. McRoberts is the attorney for the "drys." Both made able arguments before Judge Roach. The decision upholds the constitutionality of the Unit law. The case will be appealed. John Hurzog was fined $180 for keeping a disorderly house. Ike Cunningham caught $20 in one case and $50 in another for illegal traffic of whisky. Jake Wilson was acquitted of carrying concealed weapons but caught a $50 fine for giving liquor to a minor.

The case of James H. Kennedy for killing T. Milt Estes at Crab Orchard on election day now has the attention of the court. A portion of the jury has been secured and it is likely that the taking of evidence will begin to-day. Judge M. C. Sautley and Messrs. Geo. B. Sautley and C. C. Williams, the latter of Mt. Vernon, represent Mr. Kennedy. Hons. Harvey Helm and R. H. Tomlinson are assisting Commonwealth's Attorney C. A. Hardin.

SALT.—Four ear-loads of salt just arrived, both for retail and wholesale trade. J. H. Baughman & Co.

AFTER three days of hard rain, the sun is shining this morning but it is too warm to stay clear long. The past week's weather has been the worst ever.

SOME scamp broke into the Graded School building Friday or Saturday night and appropriated a lot of pencils, tablets, and other school children's paraphernalia. An effort is being made to locate the guilty party.

In New Jersey they put men in jail for failure to pay their poll tax. One is now serving a term for failure to pay the tax and costs of $2.50.

Passengers are being carried free on river packets between Wheeling and Parkersburg as a result of competition between rival lines.
