

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXXIV.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1906.

NO. 76.

KINGSVILLE.

Miss Bertha Gooch, of Somerset, is with relatives here.

Bud Haggard's house burned Friday together with all the furniture except a sewing machine and organ. No insurance.

Rev. Bradford, of the Methodist church, delivered a beautiful sermon at the Christian church Thanksgiving evening to a large audience. He was educated in Boston and is regarded as a very fine preacher.

Mrs. Belle Burgess and son, Fred, of Lexington, Mrs. Carrie Shelton, of Rowland, Mrs. John Burrell, of Atlanta, and Miss Mary Elizabeth McKee, of Danville, spent Thanksgiving with the family of Mr. J. A. McKee. Miss Nannie Dunn has returned from a visit to relatives in Cincinnati.

Virgil Bastin and Miss Dora Rigney surprised their friends by going to Stanford Tuesday and being united in marriage. Mr. Bastin, whose home is at Science Hill, is a Q. & C. operator and is an excellent young man, while the bride is a pretty blonde, petite of figure and possessing a sweet disposition, which makes her very popular. The happy couple have our best wishes for a lifetime of happiness.

Rev. W. C. Mitchell delivered an interesting lecture at the Methodist church Monday evening. He entertained his audience with moving pictures of the magnificent scenery at Yellow Stone Park with a comprehensive description of same. Rev. Mitchell is a highly educated, cultured gentleman of extensive travel, principally in the Western States, spending three years in Colorado. He is a highly entertaining and instructive lecturer and the Methodist elders are to be congratulated on securing for this community such a treat in the way of lectures.

County Attorney Burch was here Saturday. F. M. Dunn has gone to Grant county to visit relatives. Wm. Lane left Tuesday for Cincinnati and Dayton, O., on business. Revel Gooch was here this week taking up ties. Mrs. Dee Baxter was the guest of relatives here. Little Miss Della Rigney visited her sister, Mrs. Craig Butt, at Somerset, and aunt, Mrs. Marion Williams, at Eubanks. Mrs. Lillie Frisby, of South Fork, visited her brother's family here last week. Mrs. C. D. Evans went to Lexington Wednesday. Little Miss Marion Evans went to Nicholasville Wednesday to visit relatives.

Died on the 27th, Miss Bertha Jenkins, aged 19, of a complication of troubles. She was the daughter of Joe Jenkins and a grand-daughter of Rev. J. A. Singeton, of this place, and a lovely christian, being a member of Pleasant Point Baptist church and a Sunday school worker. She had many friends among the young people—in fact all who knew her loved her. A large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives followed the remains to their last resting place. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. W. R. Davidson, of Danville, after which the remains were laid to rest in Pleasant Point cemetery.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is no other medicine manufactured that has received so much praise and so many expressions of gratitude as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is effective, and prompt relief follows its use. Grateful parents everywhere do not hesitate to testify to its merits for the benefit of others. It is a certain cure for croup and will prevent the attack if given at the first appearance of the disease. It is especially adapted to children as it is pleasant to take and contains nothing injurious. Mr. E. A. Humphreys, a well known resident and clerk in the store of Mr. E. Lock, of Alice, Cape Colony, South Africa, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to ward off croup and colds in my family. I found it to be very satisfactory and it gives me pleasure to recommend it." For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

"Did you marry me for my money or my good looks?"

"If your mirror won't answer that question for you, I shan't."—Houston Post.

New Cure for Epilepsy.

J. B. Waterman, of Watertown, O., Rural free delivery, writes: "My daughter, afflicted for several years with epilepsy, was cured by Dr. King's New Life Pills. She has not had an attack for over two years." Best body cleansers and life giving tonic pills on earth. 25c at Penny's Drug Store and Lyne Bros.

"They pay per year 400 plunks," said Parson Jones in tones morose.

And Mrs. Jones unpacked the trunks, "That call," quoth she, "is much too close."

Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup, the new Laxative, stimulates, but does not irritate. It is the best Laxative. Guaranteed or your money back. Penny's Drug Store.

CRAB ORCHARD.

Mr. David Street has moved his stock of groceries to the store room occupied by the late Milton Estes.

There will be a union Christmas tree at the Baptist church Christmas eve. There will be preaching at the Baptist church Saturday evening and a business meeting after the services; also preaching Sunday morning and evening at the usual hours.

After an illness of several months, Mrs. Grove Cook passed away Thursday evening. Her funeral was preached at the Baptist church by Mr. Wm. White Friday morning, after which the remains were buried on Cemetery Hill. She is survived by her aged husband and one son, Mr. S. Cook, and one daughter, Mrs. S. Estes.

Dr. Doores has returned from Paint Lick, where he went to attend the bedside of his brother, Mr. James Doores, who was paralyzed. Mrs. Kittie King is visiting her son, Samuel King, at Birmingham, with a view to locating there. Miss Mattie Estes, of Lancaster, is visiting relatives here. Mrs. Anna Greer, of Denver, Col., is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Emma Payne. Samuel Higgins, wife and little daughter, of Somerset, were here with his mother, Mrs. Rhoda Higgins. Mrs. B. Duke and little son have gone to Thomasville, Ind., to visit relatives. Mrs. Alice Newland and daughter, Miss Annie, visited Mrs. Henry Newland here Sunday.

The most enjoyable social events of the week were two church entertainments given for the benefit of the Christian church at the Springs Hotel. The ladies and gentlemen who are guests there contributed greatly to the success and pleasure of the evening. Music, recitations and a delightful luncheon were included in the program. Misses O. B. and E. Young and Johnson, of Richmond, Bessie Elkin, of Louisville, Dove Embry, Edna Schlegel, Lexington; Messrs. Ike Shelby, Shelby City, R. M. Newland and T. M. Pennington, Stanford, and Heath Willis, Crab Orchard, all performed their parts perfectly. Mr. and Mrs. Willis, Dr. and Mrs. Dick, Mr. and Mrs. Monk did all in their power to make everything pass off pleasantly for the large crowd present.

PREACHERSVILLE.

The Masons met last Saturday night. Mrs. Dan Naylor is convalescent. Miss Nora Smith is quite ill of throat trouble. Oliver Naylor continues in a precarious condition.

Word has been received here from Texas that Mrs. Susan Green, relict of the late James Green, is dead at the home of her son. She left here two years ago.

Perry Ballard had a fine $130 horse to die very strangely. J. S. Turpin sold some corn to B. D. Holtzclaw at $2, and bought a Jersey heifer for $17 from same party. John B. Anderson sold his corn at $2.

Hog killing is the order of the day at present. Levi Bell has two hogs so large that it will require an extra sized box to scald in. These porcine prodigies are estimated by competent judges at 900 to 1,000 pounds each.

The Baptist brethren at their Saturday meeting called Rev. H. M. Shouse, of Middleburg. He is said to be a most excellent divine. This church has been without a pastor since the resignation of the late Rev. John C. Carmical.

Miss Katie Payne visited the family of her brother, Mr. J. F. Payne. Mrs. Menefee Elmore visited her mother, Mrs. W. H. Cummins. Master Spoonamore, of Rowland, visited his brother, George Spoonamore. Thos. Lunsford returned home from Illinois to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Lunsford. Mrs. W. P. White had as her visitor Mrs. George Spoonamore.

No Opium in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is not the least danger in giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to small children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. It has an established reputation of more than 30 years as the most successful medicine in use for colds, croup and whooping cough. It always cures and is pleasant to take. Children like it. Sold by Stanford Drug Co.

Secretary Wilson has rendered an opinion to the effect that mixtures composed of whisky and neutral spirits together with coloring matter can not legally be labeled either "unblended whiskies" or "blended whisky."

Danger in Asking Advice

When you have a cough or cold do not ask some one what is good for it, as there is danger in taking some unknown preparation. Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs, colds and prevents pneumonia. The genuine is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. Penny's Drug Store.

The president, in his special message on Panama, will call attention to the inadequate salaries paid skilled labor there.
