GENTRY & MYERS, the Depot street liverymen, will have a sale of their livery outfit at 2 o'clock Saturday, May 16. The sale will be made for the purpose of dissolving the partnership now existing.

MR. J. B. HIGGINS has rented the store-room on East Main street formerly used as a laundry and will open a full stock of groceries soon. This will give that end of town three stores. The East End of Stanford is booming.

PROF. H. K. TAYLOR, president of Kentucky Wesleyan College, will deliver an address to the patrons and pupils of the Crab Orchard Graded school on Monday evening May 11th, at the Christian church. Everybody is invited.

GENTRY.—Gen. W. H. Gentry died at Lexington Tuesday, aged 68. He was related to the Lincoln county people of his name and lived in this county when a boy. He was born in Madison. Gen. Gentry was a clever, hospitable citizen and was greatly loved by the people of Lexington and Fayette county. He is survived by his wife and two sons.

LAYTON.—Mrs. Mary J. Layton died at the home of her son, Mr. O. T. Layton, in Garrard, aged 80 years. She was the mother of the deceased wife of Rev. R. R. Foel, of this place, and is survived by two sons—the one above mentioned and Mr. James S. Layton, of Covington. The burial occurred in the Lancaster cemetery after services by Rev. F. M. Tinder.

THE great Kentucky Derby was won at Louisville Tuesday by Stonestreet, a rank outsider, in the slow time of 2:15. The track was ankle deep with mud, the day was an inclement one but fully 25,000 people were present notwithstanding. Sir Cleghes, the favorite, came second, and Dunvegan third. A large number of Lincoln county people witnessed the classic event.

DYNAMITING IN BOYLE.—Dynamiters visited the farm of Mr. Joe F. Ware on the Shakertown pike and blew up his tobacco beds which were located in the immediate vicinity of his residence. The charge was so heavy that it not only blew up the earth but jarred window lights from the residence. Mr. Ware announced to-day that he positively would make no further attempt to raise tobacco but would submit to the night riders. He also stated that his farm is for sale and that he will move away from this locality.—Advocate.

HOCKER.—Miss Margaret Hocker died at her home on West Main Street at 11 o'clock Monday night. She had been ill for some time but her condition was not considered very serious and her death came somewhat as a surprise. Deceased was 62 years old and had been a consistent member of the Christian church since her childhood. She was a daughter of the late Mr. William Harrison Hocker and since his death and that of her mother she had lived with her sister, Miss Jennie Hocker, and brother, Mr. J. Warren Hocker. The three were very devoted and this further breaking up of the family circle causes great sorrow in the household. Much sympathy is felt for the survivors. Miss Hocker was a kind, gentle woman and was greatly loved by all who knew her. Rev. Joseph Balou preached a brief funeral discourse at her grave in Buffalo Cemetery at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, after which the body was laid away to await the resurrection morn.

MAY ADAMS, charged with setting fire to and burning the cabin in Macksville occupied by Green Hansford, was tried before Judge Owsley and held over to circuit court in $200, which she was unable to give.

THE Stanford ball team went to Hustonville Wednesday afternoon and defeated the team there 9 to 4. Wesley Embry, Stanford's crack pitcher, struck out 12 men. Mike Penny's catching and batting were features of the game. The Stanford club has been defeated only once this season.

JOHN S. BAUGHMAN, who served most satisfactorily as deputy sheriff of Boyle county, seeks the nomination for assessor. He has always been a strong party worker and is a good citizen and fully worthy of the position.—Advocate. Mr. Baughman is a relative of the Baughmans of this county, is a fine young man and would fill the assessor's office with much credit.

SUN BROS.' circus seems to play small towns only, such as Danville, Moreland and Kingsville. Only Barnum & Bailey and other such aggregations visit cities of Stanford's class.—INTERIOR JOURNAL.

Never mind, Stanford. Don't you cry—You'll be a city In the sweet bye and bye.—Advocate. So sorry we can not speak such words of encouragement for Danville.

ON complaint of a number of people that whisky was being sold in Macksville, Sheriff T. J. Hill and Chief of Police B. D. Carter searched a number of houses in that suburb yesterday morning but found no signs of whisky, beer or "croke." The searching will be kept up from time to time and every other effort will be made to stop the illegal sale of booze. We congratulate the above officers on their efforts to bring to punishment those who so disregard the law. Let them continue in the good work and let the good people stand by them.

HELM.—The Gazette congratulates Representative Helm, of the Eighth District, on his nomination for a second term in Congress, and we congratulate the district upon the fact that it is to give a good man this endorsement. Mr. Helm has won a high place at the bar, and while he has yet had but little opportunity in Congress, he has satisfied his constituents that he will make them a capable representative. He is recognized as one of the foremost of the younger men in Kentucky politics, the sort of men in honoring whom Kentucky honors herself.—Lexington Gazette.

Mrs. S. Joyce, Sullivan St., Claremont, N. H., writes: "About a year ago I bought two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It cured me of a severe case of Kidney trouble of several years' standing. It certainly is a grand, good medicine, and I heartily recommend it." Penny's Drug Store.

The Atlantic battleship fleet steamed into the harbor of San Francisco Wednesday, being welcomed by many thousands of people on the passage through the Golden Gate.

The court of appeals sustained the injunction of Judge Kirby, restraining the Louisville authorities from interfering with lawful wagers at Churchill Downs.
