

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXXVII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1909.

NO. 74.

BRODHEAD.

Rev. Jamison will preach at the Baptist church Friday night. Rev. Sipple, of London, filled the pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday.

Matt Coffey and a little daughter of Gran Hasty, of the Hiatt neighborhood, have typhoid fever. A little son of Malachi Hopkins has pneumonia.

Our barber, Matt Bowling, and Clero Wheeldon, the Livingston barber, have exchanged shops. Mr. Bowling left us and Mr. Wheeldon came to us Monday.

Henry W. Plum, of Owenton, and John Lawrence, of Georgetown, were here this week. The former was looking for mules and the latter buying tobacco.

W. P. Hilton, aged 28 years, and an invalid for 17 years, died Saturday and was buried Sunday afternoon in the Methodist cemetery. Rev. Pike conducted funeral services.

Conrad Hiatt, the hustling farmer and merchant of Hiatt, sold to Sam McHargue a farm of 90 acres at $40. Mr. Hiatt will quit farming and give his attention to his store.

Some cowardly person fired two shots at Rupert Menefee from ambush Friday night. One of the bullets almost touched his right ear. A bloodhound from Hustanville was brought here but failed to do any good. It is a mystery who the would-be assassin is.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Cornelius, of Durango, Colo., are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jarrett. Miss Verne Jarrett, of Aztec, N. M., is here visiting her relatives. Mrs. J. R. Cass visited in Mt. Vernon this week. Mrs. Robert Albright, of Rowland, is with her mother, Mrs. Bettie Brown, in the Sayers section. Mrs. W. E. Wilnot has returned from an extended visit to relatives at Williamsburg. Master Delmas Owens is visiting his sister, Mrs. Virgil Martin, in the country. John Isaacs, of Gravel Switch, is here taking lessons in banking under Cashier Hutchison, of the Citizens Bank. Mr. Isaacs will be the cashier of the bank to be started at Gravel Switch. Mr. Marshall Stone, one of Stanford's gallant beaux, was here calling Sunday.

Dr. Edward Everett Hale was a foe to long sermons. He used to tell a story of a long-winded preacher and the minor prophets, which the Washington Star reprints:

This preacher once preached over an hour on the four greater prophets, and then, when his congregation thought he was through, he took a long breath, turned a fresh page and leaning over the pulpit said: "We now come to the more complex question of the minor prophets. First, let us assign to them their proper order. Where, brethren, shall we place Hosea?"

An irascible old gentleman in a back pew rose, took his hat and stick, and said, as he departed: "Place him here if you want to. I'm going home."

FORCED INTO EXILE.

Wm. Upchurch of Glen Oak, Okla., was an exile from home. Mountain air, he thought, would cure a frightful lung-racking cough that had defied all remedies for two years. After six months he returned, death dogging his steps. "Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery," he writes, "and after taking six bottles I am as well as ever." It saves thousands yearly from desperate lung diseases. Infalible for Coughs and Colds, it dispels Hoarseness and Sore Throat. Cures Grip, Bronchitis, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough. 50c and $1, trial bottle free, guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store.

While Arthur Everton, self-styled "professor" and traveling hypnotist, sobbed in his cell, three calm medical men witnessed a weird performance in the morgue of the Somerset, N. J., hospital. There William A. Davenport, secretary to the mayor of Newark, and a student of hypnotism, vainly tried to bring back signs of life in the rigid body of Robert Simpson, who apparently died after having been put into a hypnotic trance by Everton. Davenport failed. Simpson was declared officially dead and an autopsy was held.

POLITICAL.

Richmond, Va., a city of over 100,000 inhabitants, only polled 4,500 votes at the last election.

Representative W. F. Blair, of Lexington, denies the report that he will be a candidate for Speaker.

Gov. Willson has appointed O. H. Waddle, of Somerset, to sit as special judge in Kenton county to try the contested election case of Tracy against Shaw.

"Health Coffee" is the cleverest imitation of real coffee ever yet made. Dr. Shoop created it from pure parched grains, malt, nuts, etc. Fine in flavor—is made in just one minute. No 20 or 30 minutes tedious boiling. Sample free. Penny's Drug Store.

CHURCH MATTERS.

There will be preaching at the Baptist church here Sunday morning and night.

Rev. W. S. Willis will preach at the Christian church, Hustonville, Sunday morning on the "Lesson of the Leaves" and at night his subject will be "Habits." The latter will be the first of a series of sermons on good morals.

The largest amount of money in cash ever raised at one time in Owensboro was secured by Rev. C. C. Carroll, pastor of the Third Baptist church. The money wipes out the church debt. Ten thousand five hundred dollars was turned in by the members of the congregation. The church originally cost $47,000.

The various churches of Stanford worshiped with the Methodist congregation Sunday night and arranged for their representatives to give addresses of welcome to the new pastor, Rev. J. J. Dickey. Some notice of their plan was published in the I. J., but it escaped Mr. Dickey's attention and he supposed that the overflow house was a demonstration in honor of Rev. J. B. Harris, who was to preach, and he consequently failed to give the representatives of the other churches an opportunity to deliver their fraternal messages, or to say anything himself in appreciation of their coming. He wishes now to express his very great pleasure at this kindly expression of brotherly love and he heartily reciprocates the sentiments which this act expresses.

The church building at Pulaski was set apart for the worship of God on Nov. 7. The weather was ideal, the crowd large and Dr. W. D. Powell, of Louisville, at his best. All indebtedness was accounted for. This church has a history. Twenty-seven years ago the Presbyterians occupied it as a mission under their evangelist, J. E. Triplett. Dr. Guerrant preached the sermon. They expended $1,000.75. This last Spring they abandoned the field and sold the church to the Baptists. Rev. R. R. Noel was called upon. He, backed by the State Building Board under Dr. Powell and a host of friends, has raised and expended about $500, giving them a house worth $1,200. The names of those who helped so laudable and enterprise and who have stood by me upon former occasions are: Ed Caldwell, $1; James Holdam, $1; W. S. Burch, $1; Dr. Peyton, $1; George McKinney, $1; Harvey Helm, $1; W. L. McCarty, $1; J. C. McClary, $1; Robt. Lyle, $1; W. K. Shugars, $1; Denham Bros., $1; Dr. T. W. Pennington, 50c; T. H. Shanks, 50c; W. H. Shanks, 50c; J. W. Aey, 40c; Robert E. Gaines, $1; Mrs. E. L. Reinhart, $1; A. C. Carman, $1; J. M. Cress, $1; George L. Penny, $1; J. D. Wearen, 25c; J. Murray Taylor, $1; M. S. Baughman, 60c; E. P. Woods, $1; F. M. Ware, $2; J. W. Acton, $1; Double Springs church, $12; Eubanks church, $10; McKinney church, $2 50; E. C. Walton, $1; James McSee, 25c; and many others at Brodhead and other places, to all of whom we most gratefully acknowledge thanks in helping us out in the struggle, especially Dr. W. D. Powell, of the Baptist Building Band of Kentucky. R. R. NOEL.

MIDDLEBURG.

C. C. Rogers did service as grand juror at Liberty last week.

A girl was born to the wife of John Bates at Yosemite Tuesday night while John was keeping tally on the vote in the booth here.

J. H. Purdom, the Moreland tobacco buyer, was here a few days since and bought nearly all the weed in this section at 9 to 14c.

It is probably not generally known, but it is a fact that Jason Lawhorn was elected coroner. He and Gus Bastin made the race, but neither name was on the ballot and their friends voted for them by writing their names on the ballot. Jason will qualify and discharge the duties of his office.

The election is over and perhaps there are very few who are not glad. Even those who were defeated breathe easier than when the storm was on. Things did not go to our liking here, but we are not kicking because it would do no good. We had a good ticket and made a manly fight, but went down in defeat. Only three democratic magistrates are left out of the wreck. This was not a democratic year in Casey, though it seems to have been in nearly every other county in the State. So we have much to be thankful for and we will fight 'em again some day. I pulled through by the skin of my teeth in the race for magistrate, and in this connection I wish to say that I will ever feel thankful to my friends, both democrats and republicans, here and at Waltham for the fight they made for me. The two precincts gave last year nearly 50 majority for the republicans, but by the help of my friends I pulled through by the narrow margin of six votes. T. S. B.

Walter DeBord was acquitted of the murder of Eliza Burton in Pulaski.

NEWS NOTES.

Ignate Novikow, a Russian laborer, shot and killed Mrs. F. A. Schultz, wife of a wealthy rancher, and her daughter in the Ferry building at San Francisco, and then killed himself. No cause for the shooting has been learned.

Troops were sent to the home of Ben Longnecker in Mason county to trap night riders. They remained on guard three nights, but no riders appeared and the soldiers, who had been sent from Lexington, were ordered home.

The body of a woman, well dressed, was found in White River at Indianapolis by a fisherman. No woman has been reported to the police recently as missing from her home or the hotels and the identity of the dead woman is a mystery.

Miss Annie Pelley, a clerk in a dry goods store at Cairo, Ill., was murdered, the crime being revealed when children found her stripped and mutilated body in an alley. An examination showed that she had been attacked, gagged and then choked to death.

At Versailles Judge Robert L. Stout dissolved the temporary restraining order against the sale of the Frankfort and Cincinnati railroad to the Louisville and Nashville, inasmuch as the sale had been consummated before the suit was filed. The decision requires court sanction for future action in regard to the property.

That oral betting does not constitute bookmaking within the meaning of the so-called anti-racetrack gambling laws is in effect the decision of the New York Court of Appeals, affirming an order of the lower courts for the discharge from custody of Orlando Jones and Sol Lichtenstein, who were indicted in Kings county on a charge of bookmaking.

In a head-on collision at Leinerts, Tenn., between a fast passenger train on the L. & N. running between Knoxville and Cincinnati, and a freight, Marion O. Pierce, a freight engineer, R. E. Bowman, a freight fireman, and L. O. Lemons, fireman on the passenger, were killed. The wreck is said to have been the result of failure of a flagman to protect the passenger train, he having been sent out ahead of a disabled freight train.
