BRODHEAD.

A. E. Albright received a letter a few days ago from Judge R. G. Williams, of Covington, containing a handsome donation for the graded school at this place.

We are told that the bells will ring for two weddings in our town about Christmas. We are almost sure that this is a fact, but will withhold names for a while.

Rev. John Jamison, of Livingston, will preach at the Baptist church Friday night. Elder Campbell, of Lebanon Junction, will fill the pulpit at the Christian church Sunday.

The Hamilton Society will give an entertainment here Christmas night entitled "The Squire's Daughter." The proceeds will go for the benefit of the Christian church. The Baptist Sunday school will have a tree Xmas eve.

Fred Hahn, a German, came to this county from Ohio about 25 years ago and bought a poor and almost worn out farm in the Freedom section for $700. Mr. Hahn had but little capital to begin with and could scarcely speak a word of English, but by hard work, scant living and good judgment he made out of the old farm one of the best in the county, which he sold last week to a Mr. Hilton, of Madison, for $3,650. Mr. Hahn is now moving his feed and farming implements to his recently purchased farm near Crab Orchard and will move his family there at an early date.

Mrs. Richard Shivel and children are visiting at Rockhold, Whitley county.

Wm. Upchurch of Glen Oak, Okla., was an exile from home. Mountain air, he thought, would cure a frightful lung-racking cough that had defied all remedies for two years. After six months he returned, death dogging his steps. "Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery," he writes, "and after taking six bottles I am as well as ever." It saves thousands yearly from desperate lung diseases. Infalible for Coughs and Colds, it dispels Hoarseness and Sore Throat. Last Tuesday week was the first anniversary of the killing of Senator Edward W. Carmack, of Nashville, by Duncan Cooper and Robin Cooper. In honor of his memory, the I. J. has been asked to print this tribute to the South, delivered by Senator Carmack during a speech in the United States Senate:

"The South is a land that has known sorrows; it is a land that has broken the ashen crust and moistened it with tears; a land scarred and riven by the plowshare of war and billowed with the graves of her dead; but a land of legend, a land of song, a land of hallowed and heroic memories.

"To that land every drop of my blood, every fiber of my being, every pulsation of my heart is consecrated forever.

"I was born of her womb; I was nurtured at her breast; and when my last hour shall come, I pray God that I may be pillowed upon her bosom and rocked to sleep within her tender and encircling arms."
