Cummins & Wearen,

STANFORD, KENTUCKY.

HUSTONVILLE.

Rev. W. S. Willis and wife visited friends in Lexington and Shelbyville this week.

Spring plowing is being pushed with vigor and a decided increase in tobacco acreage is assured.

Lair's bloodhounds returned from a long trail near Columbia, with fresh laurels and satisfaction to their caller. Further particulars later.

Miss Georgie Newburn arrived home last week for a few weeks' vacation from her arduous duties and is being given the glad hand by her numerous friends.

D. S. Carpenter, who has been sick with double pneumonia, is much better. Dr. O. S. Williams and Howard Carnitz will return from Pittsburg, Pa., Tuesday.

Riffe & Tucker, while buying cattle and hogs, are buying many thousands of pounds of wool, for which they are paying 30c and the rise from now on to shipping time.

Gustie Reyburn and wife, living near Kidd's Store, awoke Wednesday morning about 1 o'clock to find their infant dead. The child was apparently well when put to bed.

Cleve Dunn had charge of the bloodhounds trailing the Cam Gooch murderers. The trail led to Durham's store at Jumbo and was followed back without a bobble, telling the facts conclusively.

The Brown Comedy Co., a strictly high class combination of entertainers, will hold the boards at Alcorn's Opera House on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights next at popular prices. An entire change of program each evening.

The meeting of the ladies of the C. W. B. M. at Mrs. John Allen's Thursday was very interesting to the large number of members present. Mrs. W. R. Williams was leader for the exercises and a most excellent program had been arranged, but illness prevented her attending, and she secured Mrs. McCormack to act for her, and the thanks of the society is tendered for her able and efficient work.

The attempt of the Hustonville Telephone Co. to raise the rate for residence phones from $1.25 to $1.50 or $1.75 per month, has not only raised a storm of indignation throughout the community, but has caused a large number of subscribers to order their phones taken out, and the list is still growing. LATER.—It has been decided to let the residence phones remain at $1.25 and business phones will be $1.75.

Last Saturday at a country store, the proprietor and a customer being slightly antipathetic, clashed. A gun play was introduced but resulted in no harm because of unsteady aim, and was soon suppressed by friends. One of the belligerents adjourned home and assaulted his wife's nonagenarian father. The patriarch was drowsily hovering over a fire when his attention was attracted to the rear just in time to snatch a poker and fell the frenzied son-in-law, before he could strike with an uplifted chair. The old man, 93 years of age, fled to a neighbor's and is still afraid to return home.

If you can not leave your family To the polar wastes to go You at least can be a hero When its time to shovel snow.

It's a question hard for a farmer's wife to decide these nights. Shall she sleep with her head on her purse or an egg? Berry Citizen.

Richmond Normal School.

On January 24 quite a number of Lincoln county delegates boarded the train at Stanford for the E. K. N. S. The rest of the passengers faded into insignificance before the crowd whose cry was "On to Richmond!" Upon our arrival we were met by Prof. Boothe, a member of the faculty. We found the school building all that could be expected, but in order to get to Sullivan Hall we had to be transported in mud boats.

We were met by a warm reception from both faculty and students. The two halls and several cottages are full to overflowing with young women, while the young men very generously gave Memorial Hall to the young women and sought boarding places in the town. We are delighted both with our courses of study and especially the board.

We were honored on the 5th inst. by a visit from a number of the members of the Board of Regents and of the State Legislative committee. Dinner was served to them in Sullivan Hall, after which the meeting was held in the chapel.

The object of their meeting was to investigate the needs of the school. They seemed to be very forcibly impressed with the special need of a boys' dormitory and walks on the campus. If the Legislators will vote as they left the impression with us that they would, we feel that the school will get the much needed appropriation. We have no doubt but that our own Senator and Representative will do all in their power for the passage of the bill.

With best wishes for Lincoln county friends and the I. J., LINCOLN COUNTY GIRLS, E. K. N. S.

HIGHLAND.

J. M. Bastin has sold his 20-acre farm near Greasy Ridge to Mr. Skelton from Henry county.

O. G. Speak is moving his sawmill from near Eubanks to Jarret Berry's near Hall's Gap. Adams & Hyatt have begun sawing since the cold weather has broken.

Rev. J. M. Cook bought a cow from A. C. James for $32.50. H. C. Brown, of Mercer, and A. C. James, of this place, are buying all the hogs they can find in this section.

Born, to the wife of David Goodpaster, a girl. Mrs. Alonzo Skidmore has been quite sick for some time. Mrs. C. M. Young is somewhat improved. Arch Bastin has two very sick children. Moving time is here again. Mrs. Lizzie Bastin has moved to the Cogle property. S. S. Bastin to the place she vacated, and Delmar Adams to the home Mr. Bastin left. Michael Floyd has moved into a house on Tom Baughman's place and Andy Gesler into the house Floyd left. Mr. and Mrs. James have returned from an extended visit to Mercer county relatives and friends. Mrs. Patrick A. Moran, of Danville, was here to visit her parents. David Elder, of near Bee Lick, was here visiting his daughter, Mrs. N. L. Wright. His grandson, Essie Wright, went home with him. Mace Goodpaster, of Lexington, spent several days with David Young. Rev. Coker and wife and Harvey Jenkins were guests of Wm. Jenkins.

Representative Macon, of Arkansas, attacked the Immigration Commission vigorously in the House and charged that the members of the commission had been grossly extravagant.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

V. M. Staples, a prominent citizen of Columbia, is dead.

Woodson Arnold, a prominent stock man of Boyle, is dead.

Squire George S. Gaines, aged 72, is dead in Anderson county.

Near Lawrenceburg John T. Moffett accidentally shot and killed himself.

Dunn & Adams, the Danville real estate men, have dissolved partnership.

J. P. Simmons, aged 60 years, one of the best known farmers of Madison county, is dead. He was sheriff of the county one or more terms.

A delegation of citizens from Somerset went to Frankfort to protest against the passage of the bill providing for a new county composed of portions of Pulaski, Whitley and Wayne.

D. C. and C. J. Sipple are building a foundation for a warehouse 30x70 feet. In the basement of this building they will have an up-to-date dairy and during the summer they will manufacture ice cream for the wholesale trade.—London Democrat.

An unexplained explosion in Mine No. 1 of the Stearns Coal Co. Wednesday, caused by what is known as a "windy shot," killed six men outright. The dead, all white, are: A. B. Thrasher, Edward Thrasher, G. W. King, Rich'd Grundy, Fred Compton.

Eleven bodies have been recovered from the Jefferson and Clearfield Coal and Iron Company mine at Ernest, Pa., where a terrific explosion occurred. The explosion, the officials say, occurred in the most remote entrance, and all the men in other headings made their escape before the fire reached them.

MATRIMONIAL.

Dr. Geo. S. Brock and Miss Nancy E. Fouts were united in marriage at London.

Miss Nannie Rogers and Robert Powell, both of Lancaster, were married Tuesday.

Lee Young, of Danville, and Miss Bertha Bodner, of Junction City, were married at Danville Wednesday.

John L. Sullivan, the erstwhile pugilist, was married again this week, this time to Miss Mary Martnett in Roxbury, Mass.

Mr. E. C. Walton has sold the Stanford, Ky., INTERIOR JOURNAL, with which he has been connected 30 years, and of which he has been editor and owner for the past 10 years, to Shelton M. Sausley, a capable young newspaper man. Ed will feel like a fish out of water when not taking in ducats for his "Cheapest and Best."—Ashland, Va., Herald.

Sensation followed sensation in the inquest at Independence, Mo., into the death of Col. Thomas M. Swope. A few days before Col. Swope died, Dr. B. C. Hyde asked the millionaire's nurse to try to persuade the patient to name him (Hyde) as one of his executors, according to the testimony given by Miss Pearl Kellar, the nurse.

Tenderfoot (aghast) — You're not lynching that man? Arizona Ike — Well — or — we don't refer to it in that unrefined way. We call it showing him the ropes.

Lyman Bolton murdered his father-in-law and mother-in-law, seriously wounded his wife and committed suicide at Sunbury, O.
