STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1910.

NO. 104

HUSTONVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Riffe visited relatives in Stanford Saturday.

Mrs. Paralee Murphy is spending this week with Wm. Mullins and wife, near Lebanon.

As a prophet the ground hog of Kentucky, where they are plentiful, is sure the limit.

About the only one on the sick list near here now is Mr. J. W. Powell, who has a severe cold.

Tom Cooper was arrested Saturday for assaulting the 12-year-old grandchild of Lucy Baldock, also colored.

Some night prowlers have been visiting chicken houses out in the country. Guess they are boycotting the meat trust.

Several candidates are taking degrees in our Masonic Lodge. The work was continued Saturday evening until near midnight.

G. W. Coppage has bought the stock of goods of B. W. Edgington & Co., on the Fork at Jacktown, and has taken possession.

Frank Vaughn returned Saturday from a business trip through Marion county in the interest of Myers and Vaughn, live stock dealers.

Rev. W. S. Willis' subject at the Christian church, Hustonville, Sunday morning will be "Hypnotism and Cautiousness." No services at night.

A large crowd is assured the play, Tony the Convict, at Alcorn's Opera House Friday night, 25. Better get reserved seats early from Crit Riffe.

Mr. and Mrs. Dowd McCauley left Tuesday for their home at Okolona, Miss., being completely disgusted with the fierce ground hog weather in Kentucky.

Dr. Cook, the Arctic explorer, having been fired from the club he founded, has left Chili on another expedition, and they do say that he is headed for Kentucky.

Before another advance some exceptional bargains can be secured in some fine blue-grass farms, with improvements. Call on or write for particulars to W. R. Williams & Co., Hustonville, Ky.

The Hustonville Christian church is planning for a great meeting to be held by the noted evangelist, James Small, of Kansas City, and the great singing evangelist, A. W. Shaffer. The meeting is to begin Aug. 28th and will run over three Sundays. The church and the minister desire the co-operation of all the churches in the West End in this meeting. They hope all will note the time and avoid arranging any conflicting meetings that all the surrounding country may hear these famous evangelists. Let all plan and also work and pray together for a great revival in our midst. W. S. Willis, pastor; C. W. Adams, secretary.

A trio of country boys visited Junction City recently and one was so profoundly crazed by the stuff imbued that offensive aggressiveness provoked a gentleman to turn loose a battery and the one decorous member of the three caught a bullet, but fortunately the wound is slight. The youngster who provoked the shooting was still running steadily the next morning fully ten miles from the scene. His first halt was made with a plunge against a door of a country store with such force as to break the fastenings. He, however, had sense enough to realize the danger, and stagger off for aid to repair it. It is currently reported that a good girl is ready to be married to him just as soon as he can find a home which he can rent.

An article in a late issue of the Louisville Post headed, "Trouble Ahead for Camnitz" is certainly the limit on fake news. The statement that Camnitz "had not been sent or even offered a contract" is either an intentional misstatement of facts or the dope of a cheap fan that is prejudicial because of the fact that Kentucky furnished the champion ball pitcher of the world in 1909. On Feb. 7 Mr. Dreyfuss handed Camnitz a contract to sign at a real nice advance in salary over last year. After showing the contract to friends and thoroughly considering the offer, he returned it unsigned and asked for a little further advance. Mr. Dreyfuss says regarding the Cuban trip that Mr. Camnitz was not in his employ at the time, and he had a right to go where he wanted, but that a ban will be in future contracts cutting out such trips.

Struck A Rich Mine.

S. W. Beards, of Coal City, Ala., says he struck a perfect mine of health in Dr. King's New Life Pills for they cured him of Liver and Kidney trouble after 12 years of suffering. They are the best pills on earth for Constipation, Malaria, Headache, Dyspepsia, Debility. 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

Three men were killed, two instantly, when yard engine No. 3 of the Louisville & Jeffersonville Bridge Co., attached to a train of 17 cars, jumped the track in the yards at Preston and Washington streets, Louisville.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Abraham Ringold, aged 76, is dead at Harrodsburg.

George Vaught, aged 25, is dead at his home in Junction City.

Era Burge, of Louisville, suicided at Lawrenceburg while on a visit to a friend.

Perry Langford, a well-known citizen of Science Hill, Pulaski county, is dead, aged 30.

David Owens, aged 81, and a Mexican soldier, is dead in the Bourbon section of Pulaski.

Milton, four years old, son of T. T. Covington, of Richmond, died after a brief illness.

The home of Joe Noe, in the Forkland section of Boyle, burned, together with most of the contents.

James Steely, aged 22, had his leg cut off by a freight train near Williamsburg. He was "hobbing" and slipped in attempting to get off.

Central University by defeating Vanderbilt by the score of 52 to 28, is the undefeated Southern champion of the intercollegiate basketball.

A splendid residence in Danville, owned by Miss Jean Warren and occupied by Harold Hays, burned. Only $2,000 insurance was carried.

The annual 22d oratorical contest between the Chamberlain and Deionological Literary Societies of Central University was won by Jack McChord, of Springfield.

John S. Van Winkle, Col. I. M. Dun and H. D. Stiles have formed a partnership and have broken ground for a monster loose leaf tobacco warehouse at Danville.

Circuit Clerk Ben Casey Allen, of Harrodsburg, is being urged by his friends to make the race for clerk of the Court of Appeals on the next democratic ticket, and it is more than likely that he will make his formal announcement within the next few days, says a dispatch.

Hon. Ben Lee Hardin, of Harrodsburg, had a narrow escape from having his eyes put out by the explosion of a cartridge in a pipe he was smoking. While enjoying his favorite cob pipe an explosion took place in the bowl, blowing it from his mouth and singeing his face. By some mistake a short 22 caliber cartridge had been placed in his tobacco jar and he loaded the same in his pipe with the tobacco.

The sudden and shocking death of Engineer Dudderar in the wreck at Waddy caused universal sorrow to his many friends in this city. A man of excellent parts, brave, resourceful and thoroughly reliable, his death comes as a most deplorable misfortune both to his family and to the company for whom he so devotedly labored for over 20 years. Zan Dudderar was exceptionally intelligent and thoroughly companionable. His record as an engineer was most excellent and his untimely end, brought about by an open switch, is all the more deplorable. He was a member of the Christian church and the Masonic fraternity. Peace to his ashes.—Anderson News.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Services at the Methodist church Saturday night, conducted by Rev. D. W. Robertson.

Elder Granville Lipscomb, one of the most prominent ministers of the Christian church, died at his home in Nashville.

The services at the protracted meeting at Logan's Creek church will begin at 7 o'clock Monday night next, and continue through the week.

Rev. Hiram Johnson, an aged and well known Baptist preacher, is dead in Laurel county. He was the grandfather of County Attorney H. J. Johnson, of that county.

Rev. J. J. Dickey will go to Richmond tomorrow, Saturday, to supply the pulpit for Rev. D. W. Robertson, presiding elder, who will officiate in sacramental services here Sunday.

Elder J. N. Henson, who recently resigned as cashier of Bank of Marshall county, at Benton, to enter the ministry, has been called to the Baptist church at Gilbertville and accepted.

Rev. W. O. Stanley, father of Congressman Owsley Stanley, of Henderson, has accepted the pastorate of the Christian church at Barksboro, Cumberland county. He was for many years pastor of the Christian church in Danville.

Preparations are being made for an all-day laymen's meeting to be held in Danville March 2. On the Tuesday night preceding, a banquet will be given to all laymen in the city interested in mission work. The meeting is the outgrowth of the great laymen's meeting held in Louisville. Several speakers of note will deliver addresses.

There will be held at McCormack's Christian church on March 5th and 6th a Sunday school institute under the auspices of the Kentucky Christian Bible School Association. Walter E. Frazer will be in charge and will give a stereoscopic lecture on the life of Christ. The public is cordially invited to attend all of these meetings. P. W. C.

NEWS NOTES.

Clay Clement, the noted actor, died suddenly in Kansas City.

Despondency caused Belford Owens, a Winchester stone mason, to end his life.

The government building at Lexington will be improved to the extent of $80,000.

It is possible to accommodate comfortably 300,000 persons in the New York hotels at one time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Craft, of Larue, this State, have 50 living grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Lee Sutton, traveling salesman of New Carlisle, O., died at Richmond after a short illness, of pneumonia.

Two boys were shot in riots in Philadelphia growing out of the street car strike, and are not expected to recover.

The pattern storehouse of the Minnequa plant of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Co. was destroyed by fire. Loss $1,000,000.

The Supreme Court of Appeals handed down a decision debarring Negroes from using the title "Knight of Pythias" in Georgia.

Mrs. Maggie Arms attempted to build a fire with coal oil at her home near Paris, when the oil exploded and burned her to death.

Joe Stanley, utility outfielder, and Del Howard, utility infielder of the Chicago National League Baseball Club, were sold to Louisville.

The 45-round championship battle between James J. Jeffries and Jack Johnson on July 4th, for a purse of $101,000, will be fought in San Francisco.

Two persons were killed, two fatally injured and 20 others slightly hurt in a collision of a Union Pacific passenger train and a street car in Denver.

An indictment against the Latonia Agricultural Association, charging it with permitting gambling at its race-track, was dismissed at Covington.

Two women were killed and one man fatally injured when the California Limited train on the Santa Fe railroad crashed into an automobile near Los Angeles.

The resignation of Adj. Garnett Ripley, of the First Kentucky Regiment, has been received by the State Military Department, and accepted by the Governor.

Mrs. Emma Clendenning Perkins, former president of the Kentucky State Federation of Women's Clubs, dropped dead in the dining room of the Burnet House in Cincinnati.

The State of West Virginia won a substantial victory in the Supreme court over the State of Maryland in their dispute over the boundary line between the two States.

By reversing the decision of the Supreme court of Alabama, the Supreme court of the United States declared unconstitutional the Alabama statute levying an annual franchise tax on foreign corporations doing a business in the State.

At Waco, Texas, Charles Franks, a barkeeper, shot and killed Josie Donovan, fatally wounded Roy Anderson and Lulu Holt and then killed himself. Franks entered the building and saw Anderson talking to the Holt woman, and mistaking him for another man, opened fire.

Out of 56 men who returned to their homes in Boyle county after the Mexican war, only two are now living. They are Col. L. H. Rousseau, who was colonel of the 12th Kentucky in the Civil War, and Capt. Caleb Tartar, both of whom are 85 years of age and reside in that county.

The Supreme Court of Ohio, in a case brought up from Guernsey county, handed down a decision to the effect that all saloonists in "dry" counties who are selling "near beer" must pay the Aiken liquor tax of $1,000 a year. About $1,000,000 is involved throughout the State, and the decision is admitted to be a blow at the liquor interests.

Ad Wolgast, of Cadillac, Mich., wrestled the lightweight championship of the world from Battling Nelson in the 40th round of a scheduled 45 round battle at Richmond, Cal. Referee Ed Smith saved the erstwhile champion the stigma of a knockout by stopping the contest after Nelson had received a beating such as old-time ring followers maintain never before was seen in a prize ring. Nelson was on the verge of a collapse when the bout was stopped.

Life on Panama Canal

Has had one frightful drawback—malaria trouble that has brought suffering and death to thousands. The germs cause chills, fever and ague, biliousness, jaundice, lassitude, weakness and general debility. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malaria troubles. "Three bottles completely cured me of a very severe attack of malaria," writes Wm. A. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C. "and I've had good health ever since." Cures Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles and prevents typhoid. 50c. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store.

MIDDLEBURG.

W. F. Wall tracked 13 pole cats to a den last week and captured them without difficulty. As fur is high, he got a nice sum for their pelts.

Our roads are too bad to write about, to say nothing of traveling over them. Why don't our authorities take them in hand and stop the heavy hauling over them when they are wet and soft?

As a weather prognosticator the ground hog seems to have taken the cake, and should have taken the bakery as well. We have no recollection of having seen a more "measley" spell of weather than the one we have just passed through.

The graded school here is about the best thing this town ever had. The trustees are highly pleased with the work that is being done and the patrons speak in the highest terms of its efficiency. The school is full up and has been ever since it opened last September. With a splendid school building, well equipped for teaching and a faithful corps of teachers, Middleburg has a school of which her people are justly proud.

Some Nice Things Papers are Saying Over the State of the Sale Of the I. J.

Shelton M. Saufley, a member of the Frankfort News staff, one of the "lively" young newspaper men in the State, has purchased the Stanford INTERIOR JOURNAL from E. C. Walton. He will take charge of the paper at the close of the Legislative session. Judging by the splendid work he has done on the Frankfort papers, the people of Lincoln county may look forward for a big improvement in the Journal when he takes hold.—Shelbyville News.

Shelton M. Saufley, who has been engaged in newspaper work in Frankfort for a number of years, has bought the INTERIOR JOURNAL, of Stanford, and will take charge of the paper in a few weeks. Mr. Saufley is one of the most prominent newspaper men of the State and is sure to continue the INTERIOR JOURNAL as one of the leading papers of Kentucky.—Cadiz Record.

Staggers Skeptics.

That a clean, nice, fragrant compound like Bucklen's Arnica Salve will instantly relieve a bad burn, cut, scald, wound or piles, staggers skeptics. But great cures prove its a wonderful healer of the worst sores, ulcers, boils, felons, eczema, skin eruptions, as also chapped hands, sprains and corns. Try it. 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

During 1909, according to a statement received from the auditor of public accounts by County Clerk Paton, dogs destroyed sheep in Bourbon county valued at $1,146.24. The amount of money collected for dog tax was 63 per cent. of the total, which is now ready for distribution.
