MR. W. H. MURPHY bought of Mr. C. E. Tate a block of First National Bank stock at $151.25.

CHIEF B. D. CARTER is doing good work in cleaning up the streets. We hope he will keep it up.

We have farms in Hardin county in 50-acre tracts to 900 acres, and prices from $300 to $11,000. These lands produce fine Burley tobacco. Stanford Real Estate Co.

AT a meeting of the directors of the First National Bank Friday afternoon, Mr. Clarence E. Tate declined to serve longer as a director and Mr. W. H. Murphy was chosen in his place.

LOST.—Between Jas. G. Carpenter, Jr.'s and Crab Orchard a hand-bag and purse with several dollars; also some letters. Finder please leave with Mr. C. or at this office and be rewarded.

HON. FONTAINE FOX BOBBITT will speak in the meeting house at Rowland, Thursday night, March 3, 1910. Subject, miscellaneous one of much interest to the people. Ladies invited and requested to be present.

A LITTLE son of Robert White accidentally shot the ten-year-old son of T. G. Napier, at Crab Orchard Sunday. The children were playing with a 22-caliber rifle when the weapon was discharged. The Napier boy received a painful wound in the neck.

THE democrats of Kansas City have announced that their candidate for mayor will be former Circuit Judge Andrew F. Evans. Judge Evans studied law here and is a brother of Mr. W. L. Evans, of Hustonville. He is a fine gentleman and the coming man of his adopted city.

STOCK in the Waynesburg Deposit Bank is climbing. Several shares changed hands last week at $115. President L. G. Gooch and Cashier Stanley McIntosh are making a decided success of their institution, which is proving a great help and convenience to the people of the southern end of Lincoln.

NARROW ESCAPE.—William Emenegger, one of the men putting the roof on the court-house cupola, fell from the top of the cupola Thursday afternoon and lighted on the roof below, some 25 feet. He was badly stumped, but no bones were broken and he was able to work Saturday. Emenegger's home is in Louisville.

MR. LOUIS WHITT, while here from Stroud, Oklahoma, had the remains of his father, Mr. Calvin Whitt, removed from the family grave yard on the old James Hays farm to Pine Grove church. He will return to his home today. By the way, we are glad to know that Mr. Whitt is prospering in his adopted home.

THE C. W. B. M. will meet in the lecture room of the Christian church at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon.

I HAVE for sale as agent, several shares of stock in the Hustonville National Bank. E. C. Walton.

THERE were three burials in the Lancaster cemetery yesterday; Mesdames A. B. Brown, Sr., Belle Austin and John Black.

THE Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church will meet in the lecture room of the church at 2 o'clock sharp Saturday afternoon.

SAM ROBINSON has supplied his store with some very modern clothes racks and when he gets his new shelving in his store will be indeed a thing of beauty.

THOSE indebted to the estate of Dr. L. B. Cook must settle at once or I will be compelled to collect the accounts by law. Mrs. L. B. Cook, admx. L. B. Cook.

MRS. REID's class in physical culture and elocution will give their Delsarte entertainment at Walton's Opera House on Friday evening, March 11, which promises to be one of the best we have ever had.

ISAAC HUBBARD, a nephew of Mr. Isaac Hubbard, of this county, died in Lexington and was buried at his home at Richmond Saturday. He was a son of Mr. B. F. Hubbard, was 27 years old and married. Messrs. Isaac and J. W. Hubbard attended the burial.

80-ACRE farm about seven miles from Stanford. Land all cleared and in good state of cultivation; six-room cottage, barn, double crib, etc. Right on pike, close to good school house and church and in good community. Well watered and fenced. Price $2,000. Stanford Real Estate Co.

THE First National Bank has placed an order with a Milwaukee concern for a large number of 1911 calendars which will bear on them a beautiful picture of the new court-house in duotone. The design is an expensive and beautiful one and the calendars will no doubt be much sought after.

WE congratulate Chief of Police W. Logan Wood, of Danville, on taking the lead against the blind tiger operators and arresting some 20-odd of them. He, of course, was assisted by detectives and citizens of the thriving little city, but his work was largely instrumental in the success of the undertaking.

THE George Washington birthday hop at Walton's Opera House Friday night was a swell affair and was heartily enjoyed by the belles and beaux of Stanford and many neighboring towns. Saxton & Trost, of Lexington, furnished excellent music and Harriett Salter set a fine supper in Miss Florence Trueheart's dining room.

MR. DAVID THOMPSON, one of Garrard county's wealthiest men and best citizens, died at his home near Lancaster Friday morning after an illness of a month or more. He is survived by two sons, Messrs. R. E. and Booth Thompson, the former of the Crab Orchard section, and several brothers. His wife died a number of years ago.

A DISPATCH says: The officers of Danville, headed by Chief of Police W. Logan Wood, raided the "blind tigers" of the town, capturing 28, all of whom landed in the workhouse. Bunk Raum, a Negro, who was fined $1,200, which he paid a few weeks ago, was caught in 52 cases. Four detectives, one white and three Negroes, have been working on the cases for two months.

RIFE OLD AGE.—Mr. S. H. Shanks and his four sisters have all lived to a ripe old age and they yet give promise of many years' sojourn on this mundane sphere, we are glad to say. He is 75 years old, Mrs. Margaret Hocker, mother of President J. S. Hocker, is 82, Mrs. Nan Logan, of Missouri, is 77, Mrs. S. J. Embry is 72 and Mrs. Virginia Grimes, 70. Their ages aggregate 376 years. Is there another family in this section of Kentucky with such a record for longevity?

WANTED, to trade lumber for barn patterns for corn and hay. C. J. Sipple, London.

WINTER is over and good old Spring is now in our midst. Now for a little Spring weather, Mr. Weatherman.

LOST between Penny's Drug Store and my home, watch fob with "E. R. C." on it. Reward, E. R. Coleman.

LOST—On Wednesday, Feb. 23d, between Shelby City and Milledgeville, a mink muff with two heads on it. Finder please return to Mrs. N. W. Pipes, at Hustonville, Ky.

CLAIBORNE WALTON will conduct a rink at Walton's Opera House Friday night. Those desiring to skate had best bring their own skates as there are very few left to rent, he informs us.

MRS. REID's entertainment is new and novel, and her drills the most beautiful we have ever seen.—Frankfort Daily Call. See her class in elocution at Walton's Opera House Friday evening, March 11.

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors, especially Mr. Wm. Cordier and family and Mrs. Mollie Manuel, for their many deeds of kindness during our recent bereavement. S. S. Elmore and family.

ONLY a few orders have been signed in the circuit court since last issue, no cases at all being disposed of. Mr. H. Rowan Saufley, of this office, was appointed master commissioner of the Lincoln Circuit Court. He will hold the office until his brother, Mr. George B. Saufley, recovers from typhoid fever.

SOME 25 or 30 friends of Mr. Richard G. Hampton, who was married Wednesday night, caught him up town as late as 7:30 Friday evening and after warning him not to be out so late again, escorted him to his home on Logan Avenue to the music of several dinner bells, tin horns, tin pans, etc. Cigars and fruits were passed around by Mr. Hampton and bride and after the crowd had given him still another warning about his late hours, it dispersed very peacefully. The clever gentleman may never know what a narrow escape he had.

A. W. CURD, AUCTIONEER,
Burgin, Kentucky.

I am a graduate of Jones' National School of Auctioneers, Chicago, and have had experience in the big cattle sales at the Union Stock Yards, Chicago, where we sold some thoroughbreds as high as $1,000. Also in horse sales where 800 sales were made each day. Auctioneering is a science and I have studied it with this idea. See or phone me before you arrange for your sale. I can make sales to your advantage. PHONE 28-R
