

MULE RECORDS BROKEN AT BAUGHMAN'S SALE

GREAT CROWDS PRESENT AT TWO BIG SALES OF LINCOLN COUNTY STOCK.

Old sale men, mule and horse buyers of many years' experience say that they have never seen such a sale as that of James H. Baughman held here Wednesday. There have been other sales in Kentucky where more money in the aggregate was realized, but none wherein as large an amount of superlative class stuff was offered and brought such uniformly high prices.

And to cap the climax of an otherwise remarkable sale, two records for mule prices were smashed when W. N. Griffin, of Gallatin, Tenn., paid $265 for a suckling mare mule colt at its mother's side and Lon Hudson, of Atlanta, paid $395 for the "Roman Nose" mule, Mr. Baughman's crack three-year-old horse mule, which has only been beaten once in his class in a fair ring, and has probably won more blue ties than any mule in Kentucky. Both of these mules will be continued in their fair careers by their new owners. Great interest was aroused in the sale of the suckling colt, and the bidding was very spirited. Dr. J. D. Arbuckle, of Madison county, being the runner up against Mr. Hudson. When the $250 figure was reached the big crowd broke into a cheer, for it was said that that figure was the highest hitherto paid for a suckling mule colt.

In addition to the sale of the two mules mentioned, Gentry, Thompson & Duvall paid $550 for Mr. Baughman's crack mare mule which is conceded to be the best out this year. Mr. Baughman was anxious to have all his finest stock retained in Kentucky, but much of it goes to Tennessee and other states where so much richer premiums are hung up for mule rings at the fairs.

Mr. Griffin bought privately from Mr. Hudson after the auction, the "Roman Nose" mule for $400 and will take him to Tennessee to show with the others he got, at the big fairs at Knoxville, Memphis and the State fair at Nashville.

The total sum realized from Mr. Baughman's sale of mules is over $20,000.

Not in a quarter of a century has a crowd of such magnitude been seen at a Kentucky sale. Many estimated it at from 2,000 to 3,000 people. Burgoo dinners were prepared for 2000 and the supply was hardly enough. The sale was held under the big show tent, which was a wise provision for the day was broiling hot.

Col. T. D. English and I. W. Dunn, of Danville, cried the sales and made every animal go the limit.

Some valuable household furniture was sold by Col. Chandler before the stock sales. Isaac Shelby paid $70 for a handsome old sideboard.

The principal sales of the day were:

William J. Yager

SUCCUMBS TO BRIGHT'S DISEASE AFTER LINGERING ILLNESS.

Mr. William J. Yager, one of the best known and most successful traveling men out of Louisville, died at the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. W. M. Bright, yesterday afternoon, after a long illness of kidney trouble and complications.

About 15 years ago Mr. Yager married Miss Mary McKinney, of this county, and for a number of years they lived in Louisville, where Mr. Yager held a lucrative position as traveling salesman for Fischer-Leaf & Company, a big wholesale house.

Some time ago his health began to fail and with his family he moved to this place, where he had but recently bought property on Danville avenue, but on account of his enfeebled condition had not taken possession of it. He deceased was born in Taylorville 43 years ago, was a member of the Broadway Christian church at Louisville and was held in high esteem by the firm for which he traveled and by a legion of friends everywhere, who will be deeply grieved to learn of his untimely death.

Besides his wife, Mr. Yager is survived by two boys—W. J. Yager, Jr., and Houston Yager, aged 13 years, and 6 years, respectively, and his mother, Mrs. Margaret Yager, and one sister, Mrs. J. T. Short, of Louisville.

Only a few months ago his father passed away and now his family is bowed down again with grief over the death of him who had so much to live for. May God in His infinite love and wisdom comfort the sorrowing ones by this sad hour.

The funeral services will be conducted by Rev. D. M. Walker at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mr. Bright, after which the remains will be consigned to Mother Earth, there to await the judgment morn.

INCENDIARY FIRE IN CASEY COUNTY

RAW DEAL FROM A SEED MERCHANT—MILTON McCORMACK IMPROVING.

Hustonsville, Sept. 8. News was received here today that the residence of Mrs. Rader, a widow, was burned to the ground on Jonathan Fork, 10 miles from Middlesburg in Casey county last night. The bloodhounds of Marshal Lair, of Hustonsville, were quickly called to the scene and placed upon the trail. The building and all contents were destroyed. The family was away from home when the burning occurred. The hounds trailed to Eubanks this morning. It was learned there that two suspicious characters bought tickets for Danville and the investigation will be continued to that point. The belief is that the house was robbed and then burned.

There is an inspired adjuration to "beware of the man of whom everybody speaks well; likewise suspect the man who after long tooting his own bassoon" has exchanged it for a megaphone in fishing for suckers. A suit for damages by each victim should assure prompt restitution. Here is the case: The past season has been the most disastrous season to our melon growers that even veterans ever experienced, aside from unprecedented expense of cultivation in necessary hoeing and hand weeding. A certain seedsman of Philadelphia, who advertises and charges more extravagantly than the least scrupulous competitor, supplied our growers nearest town a lot of bum seeds, which have produced a crop of hybrids that do not average up with good pie pumpkins in flavor. This seedsman not only issues a most seductive catalogue with cuts of mammoth crops grown by his customers, but annually has a list of novelties worth their weight in diamonds, and issues a supplement to his catalogue called "Practical Farmer," whose corps of editors pass up no opportunities that are presented or made to push his goods—that fail to do what is claimed for them—hence the damage.

Miss Hettie Floyd, one of our highly accomplished young ladies, left on Monday for Globe, Arizona, where she goes for the third year to teach in their splendid city school.

Charles Wheeler, Dr. J. C. Barker and others made good speeches to the very large audience at the opening of our high graded school last Monday. Every indication whispers in melodies the charming evidence of a splendid school, thoroughly organized in every department for a most successful year's work.

George Cunningham bought from T. A. Kynierson 40 head of 1050 cattle at 5c. James Yowell bought from various parties 100 1100-pound cattle at 4 1-2 to 5c. J. C. Johnston bought of W. O. Rounton 45 lambs at 5 1-2c and a lot of nice heifers to fill a car at 4c.

J. Q. Yowell, of Rush Branch, Marion county, spent several days last week in our city, the guest of Mr. Frank Vaughan.

West Main street on Saturday night was made hideous by the riders of running horses, yelping and shooting as they ran rapidly towards the fork. The parties are known and it would be best for them to come up and settle at once.

D. C. Allen shipped an assorted car to Cincinnati last week of hogs, cattle and lambs, for which he paid 7 1-4, 3 1-4 to 4 and 4 to 5c respectively.

Harry Williams sold a good family horse to Mrs. Janie Russell for $250.

Mrs. E. J. Willis, of Kirksville, Mo., a near relative of Rev. W. S. Willis, pastor of the Christian church here, died last week and was buried at Sipsyville, Shelby county, Kentucky, on Friday last in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives.

Cleve Dunn's "left paw" twirls and curves defeated the Bloomer Girls' team at Junction City on Saturday. The attendance, Cleve says, was like a circus day and drew a big crowd. The score was 8 to 5 in favor of Junction City.

Miss Alice Burgin, of Mercer county, Miss Denny, of Lexington, and Mr. Alex Robinson, of Garrard county, are guests of Mrs. Alice Lusk and sister, Mrs. Minnie Robinson, at the Kaufman home on Danville avenue this week.

The ladies of the Hustonsville C. W. B. M. will meet on Thursday evening in the Christian church. All members are especially requested to attend.

Rev. Isaac M. Yonas, of Persia, will speak at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening.

BURGLARS MAKE HAUL AT MORELAND

PUBLIC SCHOOL HONOR ROLL AND LIVE NEWS FROM WEST END CITY.

Moreland, Ky., Sept. 8.—Mr. Divine's store here was robbed last night. Half a stalk of bananas, some cigars, smoking tobacco, lemons and oranges were taken. They waited until late in the day before sending for Lair's bloodhounds of Hustonsville, and as they had swept out the dogs could not get the scent, so the thief or thieves have not been located.

On Friday, Sept. 16th there will be held at the Moreland public school building the second public exercises of the year. Those will consist of recitations, compositions, readings and a debate; "Resolved, that it is Right for a Man Without Children to Pay School Taxes." All are cordially invited to attend. Exercises begin promptly at 1:30 p. m.

The following is the roll of honor of the Moreland public school for the first reviewing ending Sept. 2:

Grade 8—Myrtle Morgan, leader 88; Elette White 86; Ellen Hughes 84; Katherine McClure 82; Zella Clark 81.

Grade 6—Lula Routt and John Best, leaders 87; Sadie Mills 86; Ben H. Pruitt 85; Willie Southerland 83; Cleve Routt 82; Bertie Baker 81.

Grade 4—Josephine Compton, leader, 96; Annie Harmon 95; Mack Clarkson 94; Hazel Singleton 92; Frank Feistritz 91; Keith Ellis 83; Joseph Driesler 80.

Grade 3—Dudley Peyton, leader, 90; Lee Mills 88; Charles Singleton 85.

Grade 2—Irene Morgan 86; Hazel Dabson 83; Sarah Muser 81.

Grade 1—Wm. R. King, 94; Thelma Owens, 93; Grace Ellis, 90.

Enrollment to date 44 boys, 54 girls, average attendance 62. E. L. Rubba, principal, Miss Fannie Spears, assistant.

Miss Sallie Hawkins is the guest of Miss Mary Routt.

Mr. Horace Nicholson, of Burnside, is the guest of Mrs. Dodd Routt.

Mr. Frank Timberlake and wife, of Lexington, are visiting Mrs. G. T. Timberlake.

Mrs. Perkins, of Faulconer, has just returned from a visit to Mrs. G. T. Timberlake.

Miss Addie Coffey and her daughter, Miss Catharine Coffey, are visiting relatives at Burnside.

Mr. Jesse Routt, of Danville, was with home folks Sunday.

Mr. David McChord, while braking on the L. & N. near Mt. Vernon, was knocked off a car by a tunnel and severely hurt Monday night.

Mr. James Merriman, who has been very ill of typhoid fever, is now better and we hope he will soon be out.

Dr. Carpenter gave a lecture on tuberculosis last Sunday in the Moreland Union church.

Mr. C. S. Pruitt, of Junction City, is visiting his brother, Mr. M. E. Pruitt, of Burnside.

Miss Elizabeth Cox will leave Moreland next Friday for Middlesboro, where she will start to school on Monday. Her aunt, Miss Cox, of Junction City, is teacher there.

Miss Catherine Hanson and the Misses Ada and Minnie Pruitt attended the Somerset fair Thursday. They spent Thursday night in Burnside with Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Pruitt.

Mrs. C. K. McClure and her aunt, Miss Emma Fitzpatrick attended the fair Friday. They spent a night with relatives in Somerset. Miss Fitzpatrick will remain for a few days.

Four couples from Somerset were married last Thursday. All but one couple were runaway matches.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Pruitt with two children attended the Woodman's picnic at Burnside Monday.

Miss Ellen Hanson, of Moreland, returned to her home Monday after a few days' stay with friends in Somerset.

Mr. F. E. Hughes, Jr., of Winchester, and little son, Woodford, will be the guests of his parents Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Hughes.

Mr. James Hubbard, Miss Bertha Singleton, Miss Bertie Hughes and Mr. Geo. Hubbard attended the Jumbo camp meeting Sunday.

A RELIABLE MEDICINE—NOT A NARCOTIC

Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says Foley's Honey and Tar saved her little boy's life. She writes: "Our little boy contracted a bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells, and he got well in short time. Foley's Honey and Tar has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house." Mrs. Sallie Good

PASSES TO CHRISTIAN'S REWARD AT WEST END HOME.

Mrs. Sallie Myers Good, wife of Mr. Ben F. Good, died at her home near Turnersville from the infirmities of old age. She was 82 years old and her long and useful life had been spent for the most part in Lincoln county. Over 60 years ago Mrs. Good was married to the husband, who, with three children are now left to mourn the loss of a dutiful wife and devoted mother. The children are Mesdames W. T. Ward, of Fayette county; W. P. Bradshaw, of this county, and Mr. W. B. Good, also of Lincoln. Since early childhood the deceased had been a member of the Christian church and her life at all times had been that of a faithful and consistent follower of the meek and lowly Nazarine. Let not her loved ones weep for the reward of those who live in God's grace is rich and everlasting, and truly this is her's. The funeral services will be conducted at the Turnersville Christian church tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. J. W. Whitehead, after which the mortal remains will be laid to rest in Buffalo cemetery.
