MRS. GEO. P. BRIGHT DIES ON MONDAY

END COMES PEACEFULLY TO BE-LOVED WOMAN AFTER YEARS OF SUFFERING.

Mrs. George P. Bright is dead. This was the sad intelligence that went from lip to lip Monday, for just as the noonday sun sent forth its most radiant light, the sweet Christian spirit of this dutiful wife and mother passed to a higher world that is brighter than the sun which shone on the meek sufferer in the last hours of earthly life.

Mrs. Bright was 63 years of age and for 40 of those years, she had been, as only a Christian wife could do, the husband who is now crucified by the weight of sorrow. To them were born four children, three of whom survive. They are Greenberry Bright, and Mrs. Susan Yeager, of this city, and Mrs. J. E. Johnson, of Pittsburg, Pa., and they with many relatives were gathered at the bedside and witnessed the peaceful passing away of this good woman.

Many years ago the deceased suffered a fall from which she never fully recovered, and this, aggravated by rheumatism, caused her to become an invalid. Her sufferings had been intense, yet with calm and Christian fortitude she bore her pain with the benign and unflinching confidence that in the end all would be well. Ever bright and cheerful, ever thoughtful of her friends, her life though often dark to her, was always a source of joy and comfort to those who surrounded her. In this sad hour every heart beats in sympathy with the husband who was ever kind and patient, thoughtful and true.

A life that was long and useful, filled with Christian virtues and worthy of emulation, has come to a peaceful close. Let not her loved ones weep, for the reward of those who live in God's grace is rich and everlasting—and truly this is hers.

After a short service at the home on Lancaster street at 3 o'clock this afternoon, conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. J. Dickey, of the Methodist church, the remains will be tenderly consigned to mother earth in Buffalo cemetery, there to await the judgment morn.

Respected Citizen Gone

HENRY BLANKENSHIP PASSES
AWAY AT PREACHERSVILLE

Henry Blankenship one of the best known and ones of the best respected citizens of the Preachersville section of the county, passed away at his home there Monday. Aged 78 years. He was born and reared in Lincoln county and had spent his long and useful life in its borders. He was a faithful and consistent member of the Baptist church and departs for the brighter shore with the benediction "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

Mr. Blankenship lost his wife a number of years ago, but is survived by children, who are Mrs. James Burk, Mrs. J. W. Lunsford, Mrs. Jack Kirby, Mrs. Nancy Morgan, James, John, Joe and Miss Kitty Blankenship who with a wide circle of friends and loved ones have the sympathy of the entire community in their loss.

Final arrangements had not been completed for the funeral at the time the I. J. went to press, but it will probably be held Tuesday afternoon, with interment in the family burying ground at Preachersville.

Dead in Field

AGED CASEY COUNTY WOMAN
FOUND NEAR JUNCTION CITY

The body of Mrs. Elizabeth Pemberton, of Casey county, was Monday found in a field two miles south of Junction City. She was 70 years old. No marks of violence was observed on the body, but her hat and shoes could not be located.

Last Friday while returning from a visit to Bedford, Ind., she got off the train at Junction City by mistake and being unable to find a conveyance started to walk to Moreland four miles away, where members of her family came to meet her. Upon her failure to arrive and the information she had gotten off at Junction City, a search was then instituted for her. It is thought that she had been dead since Friday night. A coroner's inquest will be held.

Enjoyable Afternoon

AT FACULTY RECITAL OF STAN-FORD PUBLIC SCHOOL.

The matinee recital given by the faculty of the Stanford Graded and High School was one of the most attractive events had in years by local talent. The fair sized audience was greatly pleased as the rapid attention showed.

Miss Ellen Ballou in the voice from Chopin and Rhapsodie from Liszt displayed her usual skill as a pianist and her many friends were gratified to hear her again. She is always good. Sept. J. W. Ireland supplied for Miss Fetter who was suffering from a severe cold. He gave two numbers, "Sing Me to Sleep," accompanied by violin and piano and "Asleep in the Deep" and as usual delighted everyone with his splendid bass.

Miss Bertha Jackson the head of the department of expression and physical culture pleased the audience with two most satisfactory numbers, "A set of Turquois," from Aldrich "A trying Situation" from Mark Twain in these selections her versatility powers of expression were evidenced in the interpretation and skill with which she gave them. Her vocal power and dramatic expression displayed itself in a superb manner and she captured the audience.

Miss Bertha Jean Penny showed marked ability in her violin productions. The skill with which she played the sextette from Lucia evidenced her training and in the Ninth Concerto of Debussy she displayed with wonderful power her mastery of the violin. The different movements Allegro, Maestoso, Adagio and Tando, were brought out with much force and power. The remarkable sweetness of the tone thrilled those who were fortunate enough to hear her.

This recital will doubtless stimulate a patronage of these departments by many who have heretofore overlooked this fact that such superb advantages were afforded in our own Stanford Graded and High School.

Some Bird This

ANCIENT PEAFOWL NEAR GLAS-
GOW OVER 100 YEARS OLD.

(Glasgow Times.)

A good many years ago the Times wrote up an account of an ancient peafowl when living on the property of Mr. Tom Lambert, of near Peafowl school house on the road between Sulphur Well and Center. On a visit just concluded to Metcalf county, inquiry was made as to this famous bird and the surprising reply was made that it is still living. By the very best of authority, this peafowl is considerably over one hundred years old. In 1810 Mr. Horatio Thompson came from Virginia and settled in what is now Metcalf county, on the place originally known as the Horatio Thompson farm, afterwards as the Clark homestead, and now as the George Price residence, being the home occupied by Judge George R. Price at his tragic death a few years ago. In 1826 Mr. T. G. Shuffett born a small boy, was promised a pair of peafowls by Mr. Thompson, and when he went after them, was told by Mr. Thompson that the male of the pair given him had been brought from Virginia by him in 1810. It was then a mature bird, some where between five and ten years old. Mr. Shuffett kept the peafowl as long as he lived and at his death it passed into the hands of Mr. Tom Lambert, a son-in-law of Mr. Shuffett, who has owned him ever since. During this period he has remained in the same family. And there is not the slightest doubt as to his identity. For 75 years this peafowl roosted on the same limb of a large oak tree until the tree was finally cut down. He is said to be somewhat shrunken in size and his feet a little affected by the frost and freeze of over 100 years of his life, but outside of this, is just as active and as full of life as ever.

Locally the great old bird is famous and known all over the country, and Peafowl School in Metcalf county—within a few hundred yards of which he makes his home—is named after him.

There is no doubt whatever that this bird is from 105 to 120 years old and that he has brought from Virginia in 1810. Tradition says that peafowls do not frequently live to a much greater age than this but this is the only authenticated instance coming under the Times' observation. May he live long and prosper and his age increase.

Many school children suffer from constipation, which is often the cause of seeming stupidity at lessons. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are an ideal medicine to give a child for they are mild and gentle in their effect, and will cure even chronic constipation. Sold by Penney's Drug Store.

GOES TO LAW FOR EXTRA PAY

CONTRACTOR KRUEGER SUES
FOR $4,787 AND CITIZENS
SUE TO FIGHT HIS CLAIM.

Suit for $4,787.75, the amount which Contractor F. Krueger claims is still due him for work on Lincoln county's new court house was filed on his behalf by Attorneys George B. Florence of this city and C. C. Williams, of Mt. Vernon, in the office of Circuit Clerk J. D. Swope last week. This is the amount which was awarded Contractor Krueger by the Arbitrators Loomney and Elder, when his claim for excess of about $5,000 over the contract price was filed with the Fiscal Court. The court however refused to accept this agreement of the Arbitrators, and the suit is the result. The amount claimed by the contractors for "extras" on the court house, such as concrete floor in the basement and other details ordered out side of the specifications included in the original contract.

A companion suit for this was filed here by E. P. Woods and G. W. Carter as taxpayers of Lincoln county, seeking an injunction to prevent the payment of this sum by the court. Attorneys, P. M. McRoberts, Robert Harding and Emmett Puryear represent these taxpayers.

There are but two of the many suits which have been filed for trial at the November term of the Lincoln circuit court. All together there are 30 equity and common law appearances to come up at the next term, which will be called by Judge Walker, Monday, November 7th. Judge Walker is in Winchester this week holding a special term of court.

There are 25 indictments brought in by the last grand jury for trial at the coming term of court, also.

Bright Ferrell

PASSES AWAY AT ROWLAND AF-TER SHORT ILLNESS

Bright Ferrell one of the best-known government storekeepers and gunners in the Eighth district died at his home in Rowland Sunday morning at 5 o'clock. He had been confined to his bed for only about a week, but had been in failing health for some time and his death hardly came as a surprise to his many friends and loved ones, though a great shock to them.

Mr. Ferrell was fifty years of age, and is survived by his wife and several children. He had been in the government service in this district for many years, and accounted one of the most efficient men on the list. His passing away will be sincerely and deeply mourned by a wide circle of friends.

Mr. Ferrell was laid to rest in the little cemetery at Waynesburg, where a number of his children are buried. After short services at the grave, on Tuesday. He was a member of the lodge of Maccabees, in which he carried a comfortable amount of insurance.

Croup is most prevalent during the dry cold weather of the early winter months. Parents of young children should be prepared for it. All that is needed is a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Many mothers are never without it in their homes and it has never disappointed them. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

Another Elopement

ROWLAND BISHOP AND MISS VER-
MILLION SURPRISE FRIENDS

Another romantic wedding occurred at Jellico, Tenn., Sunday morning which is beginning to rival Jeffersonville as a popular Gretna Green for eloping couples. Rowland Bishop one of the best-known young men of the West End of Lincoln and Miss Georgia Vermillion, of Boyle county, slipped off, accompanied by Mr. Cleve Dunn and Miss Janie Wood Fox and were made man and wife. They returned home Monday and will make their home with Mr. Bishop's father, Mr. Josiah Bishop, at present.

Mr. Bishop is a prominent young farmer, and will be heartily congratulated by his many friends upon winning such a charming bride. She was awarded several prizes at the county fairs this year for being the prettiest girl on the grounds.

Blue Corn

SAM DUDDERAR PERFECTS A
NEW VARIETY OF SEED SELECTION.

W. A. Hatcher brought to town Saturday a wagon load of blue corn, and it is noted much attention in town, many declaring that it was the first of the kind that they ever seen. Mr. Hatcher said that he had secured the seed for this from Sam Dudderar, who had finally brought out the entire blue corn by careful seed selection, this proving again the contention of the advocates of scientific corn growing that seed selection will prove the more important factor in the production of corn.

Mr. Dudderar had noticed that in many ears of ordinary yellow or white corn, one or two grains would be found of a bluish color. He carefully picked these out, and for the past eight years has been planting them and securing more blue grains every year. Each time he would plant the blue grains again, until he has at last been able to produce an entire field of the blue corn, with most of the ears showing not a white grain on them. They have proved very good producers, Mr. Hatcher securing a barrel of corn to the shock from the new variety.

Just what the advantage is producing this blue variety except as a curiosity and example of what can be done by careful seed selection, is not known, but a thorough test will be made of the meal and other qualities of the new colored crop. Mr. Hatcher left a good sized ear of the peculiar colored corn at the I. J. office on exhibition.

Turnersville

Mr. Will Reynolds has moved to Moreland. Mr. George Lunsford has moved to Shelby City, and Mr. Wade Watson is going to occupy the house Mr. Lunsford left.

Mr. J. N. Cash is preparing to build a concrete store and a shop where the Lutes Bros. and burned some time back.

We are glad to see that the people of Gilberts Creek are still awake and we would be glad to hear from them every week.

Mr. James Peak's children continue ill. Mr. A. D. Root is some better. Mr. E. Arnold foreman, of Louisville, is visiting friends here for a few days. Mrs. Lucy A. Carter of Moreland is visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Moser visited in Shelby City Sunday.

Mrs. Hubble, of Stanford, has moved to her farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hubble, of McKinney visited here Sunday.

Mr. Walter Moser visited friends here.

Mr. Jerry Toombs was in McKinney on business last week.

The Sandusky children have the whooping cough. Mrs. Bettie Helm continues very sick.

Sad news was received here last week of the death of Hardin Gooch of King's Mountain. He was a son of John Wesley Gooch of this place.

Mrs. Mattie Bradshaw returned home Friday from a visit to her sister Mrs. Ward in Lexington.

Mr. John Moser, of Missouri has been visiting his nephew John Moser.

Mrs. A. D. Root's sister of Colorado, is visiting her and also Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Carter, of Lexington.

Rev. J. W. Whitehead resigned his care of the flock at the Turnersville church and was followed by Rev. Moore who filled his appointment Sunday Oct. 23. On Sunday night the services were disturbed by a set of cold hearted, frivolous-minded young people who it seems came for the sole purpose of creating a scene. Thoughtlessness is no excuse for such actions and the culprits should and will prosecute the full extent of the law, if they are repeated.

This stock was carefully selected and it will meet the wants of this or any other vicinity. I will sell it as a whole if an opportunity should present. CORA S. LIPPS, Hustonville, Ky.

CASWELL SAUFLEY TO WED MISS O'REAR

STANFORD BOY WINS PRETTIEST
GIRL AT THE STATE CAPITAL.

The Courier-Journal in its Frankfort letter contained this announcement, which will be of much interest here, for the prospective groom is a son of Mrs. Sallie R. Saufley, of this city. His bride to be is considered the prettiest and most attractive girl at the Capital City. She is a daughter of Judge E. C. O'Rear of the Court of Appeals. The dispatch from Frankfort said:

At a beautiful luncheon yesterday afternoon given at her country home, "Glen-Ayr," Miss Helen O'Rear announced her engagement to Ensign Richard Caswell Saufley, U. S. N. At the same time that Miss O'Rear told her happy secret to intimate friends Ensign Saufley gave dinner on board his battleship the Kansas, to his brother officers, and told them of his approaching marriage to the young Kentucky beauty.

The dining room and table decorations were in white chrysanthemums and from this radiated white satin ribbons to each guest's plate with the place cards attached. The cards told the story; it wasn't necessary to speak the happy news. A small picture of the bride-to-be was in the upper left hand corner and love knots and cupids pointed to the name "Ensign Caswell Saufley" in the other corner. The fees carried out the announcement idea and were unusually attractive, being candies and candlesticks, which were brought in lighted, and before blowing them out the guests made a wish for the happiness of the prospective bride and groom.

The guests were Misses Margaret McChord and Hettie Belle Fuqua, of Louisville; Miss Elise Dandridge, Miss Gertha Scott, Miss Virginia Gray; Miss Virginia Hoge, Miss Annie Mason, Miss Isabel South and Miss Hazel O'Rear.

The wedding will be solemnized in the early spring.

New Grocery

TO BE OPENED THIS WEEK BY COFFEY & COLEMAN.

A new grocery establishment will be opened in Stanford this week by Robert H. Coffey and Earl Coleman, who have been the popular assistants in Penny's drug store for the past several years. They have leased the store room on Main street recently purchased by D. M. Elmore from H. C. Haughman, and are installing an up-to-date and complete line of the latest fancy and staple groceries. Both of the proprietors are young men of energy and ability and are hustlers from the word go. Their friends are confident that they will make good and win a deserved success.
