Tom Ferril

DIES AFTER SHORT ILLNESS OF COLITIS.

After a short illness of colitis, Thomas Ferril, died at his home on the Lancaster pike Tuesday and was laid to rest in the Buffalo cemetery after services at the grave at four o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Ferril had been engaged in farming for a number of years. He was born in Madison county but had spent most of his life in Lincoln and was liked by all for his open-hearted generosity and other good qualities. He never married. He was a son of the late Woodson Ferril and is survived by a brother, Mack Ferril, and another brother, Bright Ferril having preceded him across the dark river a short time ago.

READ SEVERANCE'S BIG AD DON'T CONFUSE THIS SALE WITH OTHER SALES. THIS IS THE ONE GREAT SELLING AND SAVING EVENT OF THE YEAR.

A Paris cablegram to the New York World says that Mrs. E. R. Thomas, who was formerly Miss Linda Lee, of Louisville, is on Paris and is getting ready to sue for absolute divorce.

STANFORD BUTTER TAKES FIRST HONORS

EXHIBIT OF CREAMERY COMPANY PRONOUNCED BEST AT EXHIBITION IN LEXINGTON.

Stanford has the best court house of any county town in the state. It is to have the best depot of any small town in the state. It is one of the best towns in the state and now additional honors have been heaped upon it, by having its Creamery Company win first prize for the best butter produced in the state.

At a butter show held at the State University Experiment Station at Lexington last week, a pound of butter exhibited by the Stanford Creamery Company, and made under the supervision of Fred Bauman, was awarded first prize over a very large field of competitors.

The grand sweepstake prize will be offered by the Experiment Station at the State Fair which is held in Louisville in September. The Stanford Creamery will have a splendid exhibit on hand then and it is believed it will have a splendid chance of taking the first honors then.

Lawn Party

GIVEN BY MISS ELIZABETH HIGGINS MONDAY EVENING

Miss Elizabeth Higgins entertained most delightfully for her young friends with a lawn party. Refreshments were served. Among those present were: Mr. Tom Bright and Miss Berta Jean Penny, Mr. Tom Coleman and Miss Mary Moore Raney, Mr. Al Phillips and Miss Emma Hays, Mr. Howard Newland and Miss Mary K. Dudderar, Mr. Harris Coleman and Miss Kate Raney, Mr. Will McCarty and Miss Nancy Yeager, Mr. Joe Hill and Miss Mary Elizabeth McKinney, Mr. John M. H. Waters and Miss Virginia Mahony, Mr. Wallace Singleton and Miss Lacie Holtzclaw, Mr. George Hopper and Miss Lottie Carson, Mr. Morrison Bright and Miss Mary Morrison Matheny, Mr. Russell Brown and Miss Verna Rout, Mr. Will Huey, of Somerset, and Miss Lorraine Campbell, Mr. Will Yeager and Miss Anna Chancellor, Mr. Joseph Hopper and Miss Mary S. Cook, Misses Margaret Hopper, Pattie Alcorn, Mary Higgins and Elizabeth Allen.

Dick Hampton

PROMOTED TO REGULAR PASSENGER RUN ON L. & N.

R. G. Hampton, who has been running a freight engine on this division for several years, has been promoted to the regular passenger run on the Greensburg branch of the L. & N. from Greensburg, to Louisville, and left last week to take charge of his engine. This change comes as a most deserved promotion to one of the most efficient and most popular engineers in the service of the L. & N.

Dick Hampton has made good where ever his road has placed him, and his host of friends in Stanford and elsewhere in the state will be glad to know that he has taken one step higher up the ladder. Mr. and Mrs. Hampton will now be located permanently at Lebanon Junction, much to the regret of their many friends here, who had hoped that they would be able to keep headquarters in Stanford.

12 Additions

TO GOSHEN CHURCH IN REVIVAL JUST ENDED.

The revival services which have been conducted by Rev. B. J. Pinkerton, of Lexington, assisted by Rev. J. G. Livingston, at Goshen Christian church for the past two weeks, came to an end Sunday. There were 12 additions to the church during the meeting and great good resulted to the membership. Dr. Pinkerton went to Hustonsville, his old home, for a short visit Monday, after which he will return to Lexington where he is connected with Campbell-Carman Co.

It is rumored in Washington that J. Sherman Cooper, collector of Internal Revenue at Danville Ky., is slated for early removal and that either Winston Wiseman or Jackson Morris will be appointed by the President.

It is said that six coal concerns in the Middleboro district are to be consolidated.

Without Bond

WALTER CARSON HELD OVER AT LIBERTY—SALTER CASE

Walter Carson, of the West End, who shot and killed Edward Cochran last week in Casey county, was held to await the grand jury next week, without bond. Hons. Boyle Stone, of Liberty, Robert Harding and W. J. Price, of Danville, have been engaged to defend Carson.

Without Bond.
At the examining trial of Fie'ds Salter, the negro charged with shooting Mukes Reid, also colored, to death, last Friday night, Judge Bailey held Salter to await the action of the grand jury under $300 bond. Testimony showed very clearly that Salter accidentally shot Reid while he, Salter, was firing at Will Lee, another negro, who was advancing upon him brandishing a knife. The evidence seemed to indicate that Lee and Charlie Baughman had gone up to the dance for the purpose of "getting" Salter, and he was defending himself when he shot at Lee.

Shaft Broke

A shaft breaking as they came down the hill on the Somerset pike Monday evening caused the horse Harry Reinhart was driving to swerve against the side of the pike, and the buggy overturned, throwing out Mr. Reinhart and two ladies who were in the vehicle with him. They were Misses Effie Baughman and Miss Fox of Danville, were on their way to the reception given by Miss Higgins that evening.

Luckily the horse broke loose from the buggy. He ran on down Somerset street and was caught soon after turning into Main. The young man and young ladies were shaken up considerably but not badly hurt and were able to return home.

Crab Orchard Springs

GREATLY IMPROVED BY NEW OWNERS FOR THIS SEASON.

(Danville Messenger.)

Mr. John S. Robinson, now one of the principal owners of Crab Orchard Springs, was in town Sunday and told a reporter for The Messenger that there are already about 75 people at the famous old resort. A vast sum of money has been spent on the place by the new owners, and today the property is in strictly first class condition. New roofs, fresh paint and paper, the installation of sanitary closets and water works are some of the improvements that have been made. There is no disputing the fact that Crab Orchard Springs is the most healthful place in the south, the several waters found there being unsurpassed. Now that the resort is owned and managed by Kentucky people, the public is sure to receive the accommodations desired, and a record breaking crowd will go there this summer.

PREACHERSVILLE

Master William Blankenship captured a monster butterfly which measured over six inches from tip to tip of wing. Two feather like plumes, about an inch long, which glistened in the sunlight like silver, were upon its head. The insect was of a beautiful drab color with blood red crescent spots.

Miss Mary Edmiston, of Modesto, county, Ill., is visiting the families of Levi Bell and John Richardson. Miss Edmiston has been a recent guest of her cousin, Mrs. J. D. Anderson, at Crab Orchard. Her father, Robert Edmiston once lived on Gilbert's Creek in Garrard.

M. H. Baker, of Mt. Vernon, has been visiting his daughter Mrs. J. J. Thompson. Rev. K. F. Jordan, of Corbin, was a recent guest of his son, Walter Jordan. W. H. Cummins has gone to Kentucky river on a fishing trip.

George W. Beck, whose mother was a Cress, now president of the Cress Family Reunion, whose home is at West Milton, O., and H. L. Cress, of Cincinnati, with Wm. Cress, of Monticello, Ky., are visiting J. M. Cress and family.

There will be services at Becon Grove church Saturday and Sunday, near White's Mill.

Your correspondent went to the Willow Grove section of Boyle county last week on business. We called on our long-time friend, Mr. A. J. Thompson, formerly a citizen of this place, and was pleasantly entertained by that gentleman and his agreeable family. Mr. T. has one of the best and largest farms in his country which is conducted in an up-to-date manner. Some idea can be gained when it is known that there are 125 gates on his farm, with numberless other conveniences.

We spent a pleasant hour in the apiary of Mr. C. S. Lyon, proprietor of the Riverside Mill, situated on the beautiful Hanging Fork, near the old Lytle post office. We were shown through a number of hives, filled over flowing beautiful three-banded Italian bees, gent e as kitten; and requiring only a little smoke for their handling. Neither Mr. L. nor the writer was protected by a veil or gloves, and not a single bee attempted to sting. Dan and Seth, little sons of the apiarist, were present and as interested as yours truly, who has had 14 years experience with the genus apis. Mr. L. rears his own queens after nature's own methods, and when a queen does not come up to the standard in profi tness, or her progeny is not uniform in marking or shows she has mated with blacks or common bees, or are not gentle in handling, then her head is pinched off and a successor placed in her stead which possesses the desired qualities. The writer believes the bee-keepers of Conarag Kentucky will do well to insist on Mr. Lyon that he raise queens for the trade next season. His years of experience with his fine location for that branch of industry, would insure a superior grade of queens and at a much smaller cost than they are bought from some distant breeder. After a week's journey in a cage in a closed mail box we have never seen a queen bee as fine as this one, and our advice to type or master's list. Get the Italian bee.

Mrs. Doss Crutcher died last Sunday night at 12 o'clock from tuberculosis. She was buried at Harris Creek cemetery on Tuesday morning and her funeral will be preached at the church on next Sunday morning. She was a faithful church member and much sympathy is felt for the bereaved father and seven children.

Tevis Pravel, a young man near 18 was killed near Bowen by a Q. & C. freight on last Saturday morning. It was supposed he was asleep as they found a morphine bottle near him. His parents live in Tennessee and he was visiting his uncle Mr. Johnson near Bowen. He was buried at McKinney, Sunday.

My home which was burned May 14, was insured by W. J. Campbell, of Hustonsville. The prompt payment and courteous treatment accorded me inspires me with confidence in the West End insurance agency. Signed, John S. Murphy, McKinney.

WILL LINCOLN

GO FOR O'REAR?

INTERESTING TIME PROMISED WHEN REPUBLICANS HOLD CONVENTION JULY 8

After Saturday when the democratic state primary is settled, political interest will center upon the Republican county conventions which are to be held in every county or the state to select delegates to the republican state convention which will nominate the republican candidate for governor.

Friends of O'Rear are claiming that he will get enough instructions to nominate him on the first ballot, but a powerful fight is being made against him by the friends of Franks and Cox, and a battle royal is promised. The republicans are split up over their gubernatorial nominee just as much as the democrats are over their fight.

In Lincoln county it is probable that a hard fight will be made for the instructions. The county republicans in general seem to be in favor of Judge O'Rear but the politicians of the party led by Dr. R. L. Davison, who is county chairman, are strong against O'Rear. Dr. Davison will lead the fight here for Hon. E. J. Franks, Lieut. Gov. Cox, has a number of supporters here, but it is believed that the fight will center between the Franks and O'Rear forces. An interesting convention is promised here on the 8th, for if the friends of O'Rear come to town, they will probably be hard to down.

Shelby City

Miss Leila Bell Jones and her charming visitor, Miss Lonnie Goode, of Stanford are visiting their aunt Mrs. Tucker of Danville. Mr. Delbert Morgan has been visiting relatives at Brumfield.

Mrs. Lucy Reynolds of Waynesburg is visiting her sister Mrs. William Moser at McCormack.

Mr. Raymond Chasteen who has been serving in the army came home a few weeks ago and after a few days stay he was accompanied back by his wife and two sons.

Miss Algie Myers has been visiting her sister Mrs. Greeley Lutes at Turnersville.

Miss Gay Short of Middleburg, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. John Moser for a few weeks returned home this week after a pleasant visit. She was accompanied home by her cousin Walter Moser, who will spend a few days with her.

Miss Margaret Rout and Miss Lula Belle Rout, visited Mr. and Mrs. George Route at Moreland.

Mr. Joe Vanhook was in Danville last week.

Mr. Burke and Mr. Hodge both old men have recovered from a severe attack of illness and also Mrs. Sam Young is a little better.

Miss Bryant of Science Hill is visiting Mr. Sam Bishop.

There has been a few days revival at the Moore Schoolhouse, which was of great interest. A young elder from Wilmore was the preacher.

A dispatch from Memphis, Tenn., was received here of the death of Mike Pershannon. The remains will arrive here to-morrow and then be laid to rest in the Catholic burying ground. He left here a few years ago and was a carpenter at Memphis, and the cause of his death is not yet known.

Mrs. Doss Crutcher died last Sunday night at 12 o'clock from tuberculosis. She was buried at Harris Creek cemetery on Tuesday morning and her funeral will be preached at the church on next Sunday morning. She was a faithful church member and much sympathy is felt for the bereaved father and seven children.

NEGRO LOAFERS

MUST GET TO WORK

WILL LEE GIVEN 30 DAYS FOR VAGRANCY—COLORED CITIZEN DISCUSSES SITUATION.

Will Lee, one of the negroes who was mixed up in the affair at the negro dance last Friday night when Fields Salter shot and killed Mukes Reid was tried on charge of vagrancy before Police Judge Menefee Monday and given a sentence of thirty days in jail. Charley Baughman, Lee's pal, was also locked up. He has been at large for some time, although he has a sentence of sixty days in jail hanging over his head on a similar charge. This sentence was suspended by Judge Menefee, however, on condition that Baughman leave the city. He remained away for a time but came back for the last term of court, and has been here ever since. Lee, Baughman, Salter and one or two other negroes belong to the gang of young negro bucks who wear better clothes than any white man in town but are never seen at work. They are said to be bootleggers and those who know say that they ply a profitable trade. All have bad reputations.

Stories told by respectable colored people concerning the killing last Friday night when Reid, a quiet and respectable young negro, was shot, were to the effect that Lee and Baughman went up to the dance to take it. They are said to have been at "outs" with Salter, and he is said to have done the shooting when they went "after" him, his aim being bad, and barely grazing Lee, catching Anderson Carr, Jr., in the jaw and killing Reid who had no hand in the affray at all.

A well-known colored citizen of Stanford, who stands high in the community and has the respect of the white race and of his own, said to the Interior Journal concerning this affair: "There are a bunch of bad young negroes in this town who are running things with a high hand. They are selling whisky and beer and are not bothered by anyone. Everyone knows the business they are engaged in but there seems no disposition to stop them. Two or three times lately, an inoffensive negro has been killed accidentally when these tough negroes got to fighting and shooting among themselves, and they manage to get off some way or other without serious punishment. Unless something is done to restrain them and stop them in their career, they will keep on and on and some of these days a white man will happen to get killed and the good people will raise up and clean out this bunch. It would be a mighty good thing to clean out this bunch before it is too late. The good colored people of the town deplore this state of affairs as much as you white people do and we do not countenance any such doings, but it is up to the officers to put this gang out of business."

Mayor A. E. Florence stated to the I. J. Tuesday that he intends to break up this gang of loafing and law-breaking negroes if it is possible to do so. He will issue warrants for every negro who is not actually at work in the city, on vagrancy charges and keep at it until it gets too hot for them.

Champ Clark

TO SPEAK IN KENTUCKY FOR DEMOCRATIC TICKET

Washington, June 19
Speaker Champ Clark will stump Kentucky this fall. He reached the determination Sunday morning when he learned that Senator Thomas H. Paynter had withdrawn from the contest for the United States Senate sbrip, and that Representative Ollie James would receive the nomination at the Democratic primary July 1.

The big First Kentucky District Congressman has been one of the most loyal Clark men in the house. Before it was assured that Clark would be elected Speaker James was one of the most active men in his behalf. All through James' campaign for the Speakership Speaker Clark has been greatly interested and the Missourian is going to lend every assistance possible for the election of a Democratic Legislature which will ratify the choice of the Democratic primary.

The Supreme court of the United States announced that hereinafter protection of trusts must be governed by the rule of reason. There is an impression that they are governed by the rule of something else besides reason.—Glasgow Times.
