White-Holman POPULAR STANFORD GIRL WEDS FORMER LINCOLN MAN.

The marriage of Miss Louella White of this city and Mr. Charles Holman of Mobile, Ala., was quite a surprise to their Stanford friends. The bride is one of the attractive daughters of W. W. White of this county, and is well known and admired here. The groom was formerly of Crab Orchard and is now a prosperous young business man of Mobile.

Their wedding took place in Jellico, Tenn., on Thursday, where they will remain for about two weeks the guest of Mr. Holman's brother there. Mr. and Mrs. Holman will then go to Mobile to make their home.

Mrs. Sidney Dunbar PASSES TO HER REWARD EARLY SATURDAY MORNING

Hubbie, July 24.
On Saturday morning at 7 o'clock the entire community was veiled in sadness by the death of Mrs. Nancy Dunbar, at her home on the Danville and Lancaster pike. She had been an invalid for 15 years, but bore her sufferings with great fortitude. She was a kind, patient woman, had a kind word for everyone.

Mrs. Dunbar was 45 years of age, and was a daughter of John R. Grieves of Virginia. She was married to Sidney Dunbar in December, 1888, and moved from Russell to Lincoln county in 1884. She is survived by her husband, two brothers and two sisters. Funeral services were held at the residence at 2:30 o'clock Monday by Rev. C. F. Cook, pastor of the Danville Baptist church, of which she was a member. After services at the home, the remains were followed to their last resting place in Bellevue cemetery, in Danville, by a large number of friends.

LANCASTER

There was a small crowd in town on Monday, County Court day, as everybody is waiting to come in to the fair this week.

John L. Francis sold a three-year-old saddle horse to C. F. Davis, of Whitley county, for $200.

Mattie Anderson, a colored woman employed as cook by Mrs. J. D. Guiley dropped dead while at work in the kitchen. Dr. Wm. Burnett bought a shoats of Russell Floyd for $22.50.

Elder D. T. Broadway and family, of Canadian, Texas, are here for a stay with Garrard relatives. Mr. Broadway, who is a Kentuckian, began a revival Sunday, at the Christian church at Rebe.

Information has been received here by relatives of the serious illness of Miss Bessie Price, of Clark county, the pretty young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cicero Price former residents of Lancaster.

Coleman Guiley, the courteous manager of W. I. Romans' picture show, is just now wearing a beaming smile and the reason is that a handsome little son is now a welcome visitor in his home.

Miss Norma Elmore invited the Woman's Club to meet Mrs. R. A. Whiteside, of Louisville, and Mrs. C. C. Brown's honored guest. A dainty and inviting menu was served.

Messrs. Joe Haselden and Ollie Wallace are proving themselves hustling real estate men in the sales they just held at Crab Orchard and Junction City. They sold 86 lots at the former place and 77 at the Junction realizing $40 per lot at the two sales.

Theodore Curry, of this city, was united in marriage to Miss Harriet Fleetwood, in Rome, Ga., the Christian church minister officiating. They made a short bridal trip to Chattanooga and are, now at the groom's home on Lexington street, being congratulated with congratulations, both by every popular.

A. A. Lear, Lancaster's enterprising stock trader, exported three carloads of hogs from here, Saturday, the following being some of his purchases from Jesse Saunders, 20 140-pound hogs at 6 1/4c; from Judge A. D. Ford 25 200-pound porkers at 5c; from W. T. Atton 40 200-pound hogs at 6 1/4c.

Mr. Lear lately exported two cars of lambs having bought them as follows: from C. A. Robinson 22 70-pound lambs at 5 1/2c; from C. E. Flannery 19 70-pound lambs at 5 1/2c; from J. P. ## Republican "Protection"

An American who has settled in the Australian province of Victoria, a man of high rank in the engineering profession, sends an item of information which ought to interest American voters. It is as follows:

"The unpalatable fraud and rascalities of the tariff shows more plainly here (in Australia) than at home. I bought some haymaking tools last week. They are manufactured at Springfield, Ohio. To get here they travel more than half way around the world, pay 5 per cent duty and the agent's commission, yet I get them for one-third less than the Ohio price.

"That is the kind of protection the Ohio farmer votes himself.
"Owing to our rapid growth the State works could not build locomotives fast enough. Twenty were bought in America and twenty in England, all made after Victorian design. The American engines are cheaper than the British by fifteen per cent. Why, then, should the Baldwin Works be protected?"—San Francisco Star.

Public Sale

On account of my going away, I will sell at public auction on JULY 22, at 1:30 P. M., one pony, buggy and harness, cow and calf, sow and pigs, about 300 chickens, corn, corn and corn field just laid by. House hold and kitchen furniture. Terms cash. Luke Carpenter, Hustonville. One mile on Liberty Pike 58-2p

LINCOLN HAS 12 VACANT SCHOLARSHIPS

SPLENDID CHANCES FOR BRIGHT BOYS AND GIRLS TO ATTEND STATE UNIVERSITY.

Lincoln county has 12 vacant scholarships in the State University at Lexington, which ought to be filled. The Woman's Improvement Club has received a letter on the subject which is of interest to every parent in Lincoln who has a child to educate, and to every boy, or girl, who is seeking after higher things. It reads as follows:

Lexington, Ky., July 22
My Dear Mrs. Dickey—

As a member of the Educational Committee of the State Federation and as President of the Woman's Club of State University I appealed to the State Federation of Woman's Clubs which met in Louisville May 2, to assist in filling all vacant scholarships in State University.

Since the State Federation inaugurated the movement for educational betterment in Kentucky, it is gratifying to note the improvement which have resulted. Better laws have been enacted, a sentiment has been created and educational enthusiasm has followed. With Professor T. J. Cones, State Supervisor of Rural Schools, with the Louisville Commercial Club interested in them, with the State Grange working for them and with Mrs. Charles P. Weaver our State Grange, working for them and with Mrs. Charles P. Weaver our State Organizer of Schools Improvement Leagues, laboring in the same field, the prospects for our rural schools are good.

The High Schools likewise are provided with an able supervisor in the person of Professor McHenry Rhoades who has his headquarters at State University.

It is highly gratifying to know that the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs set this educational in motion; but there is yet work which we must do, and this time it is for the head of our educational system, the State University. It is possible to keep 1250 students there on scholarship all the time. This year 800 students matriculated and only 500 of these held appointments. These appointments are issued by the County School Superintendents in proportion to the number of white children of school age in the county any persons between the ages of 14 and 24 being entitled to them. These appointments are good for a period of four years and entitle the appointee to free tuition, room rent, fuel, light and one round trip ticket on the railroad. Our boys dormitories are supervised by Mrs. Alfred Marshall, a woman of culture sympathy and refinement, and the girls at Patterson Hall have the estimable advantage of being under the control of Miss Anna J. Hamilton Dean of Women, who was formerly President of the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs.

Lincoln county has still 12 vacant scholarships for 1911.

As a still further concession, a recent rule grants free tuition without examination to all High School graduates. While we are clamoring for better education in Kentucky it seems to me we should take advantage of these splendid opportunities which are absolute, free and ours for the asking. Will the Improvement Club see if there are not boys and girls in Lincoln county who would be glad to come to State University this fall?

Under separate cover I am sending you some literature for use and distribution and I ask you to keep account of every student you secure for State University and keep me posted for I want the Kentucky Federation to get full credit for what it does in this great work.

For any further information desired address Judge W. T. Lafferty, State University, who is chairman of the Committee having charge of this work.

With best wishes for the success of your Club for the coming year, and assistance which I am counting on, I am very sincerely your co-worker in this educational cause.

W. T. LAFFERTY,
418 E. Maxwell St.,
Lexington, Kentucky

Small Farm For Sale

Game And Fish Going

WHOLESALE DESTRUCTION SHOULD BE STOPPED

Unless something is done in the near future to prevent the wholesale destruction of fish and game in and out of season, Kentucky fields will be bare of birds and streams without fish. Even now there is but little use for the gun or pole and line, and the scarcity of game and fish is a constant indictment to violation of law in the shooting of game out of season and in the use of dynamite and seines.

Two things are necessary for the preservation of the game and fish. One of these is the protection of the game now existing, and the other is the stocking of streams and fields by means of fish hatcheries and game preserves.

The killing off of the game was a result of a prejudice against game laws, based on the belief that game laws were advocated solely for the benefit of city hunters, but the people now realize that good game laws are for the benefit of everybody.

The Kentucky Fish and Game Protective Association is now trying to get every hunter and fisherman in the State interested in the passage of better laws along this line. One of its plans is for the State to charge a license of one dollar per year to every man who hunts on other men's land, and to charge non-residents of Kentucky at least ten dollars per year for hunting in this state. Similar laws are now in every State in the Union except Kentucky and about three other States.

Under such a law sufficient funds could be raised to employ men to see that the fish and game laws are enforced, and to provide stocks of fish and game for every field and stream in the state. Of course, if a man doesn't care a dollar's worth about hunting he wouldn't have to have license and the burden would fall on those who would be glad to pay so small a sum for so much pleasure.

One of the big benefits to be derived from the farmer would be the enforcement of the poaching laws and keeping trespassers off of their lands. Under the present conditions, a great many farmers allow themselves to be imposed upon rather than drive hunters away, but a paid game warden would have no such feelings in the matter.

In order to make the employment of wardens non-political, it is proposed, selected by the Senate and two by the House under the supervision of a non-partisan commission of four, two to be selected by the Senate and two by the House of Representatives, who shall serve without compensation except for necessary expenses.

PLAN TO BRING BRO. BARNES' BODY HOME

DANVILLE FRIENDS START MOVEMENT TO RAISE FUND FOR THAT PURPOSE

Danville Ky., July 22 '11
Editor of the Interior Journal.

Those who hold in sacred memory the name of George O. Barnes, will be interested to know that there is on foot a movement to raise a fund for bringing his body and Mrs. Barnes' home to Kentucky for final interment among their kindred and friends according to what is known to have been one very dear wish of theirs, and earnestly desired by Miss Marie some money has already been pledged and some already paid in Danville and it is sure that the friends in Stanford will be glad to participate in this worthy cause. It is not unlikely that the property in Florida where they were temporarily buried will sooner or later pass into hands strangers to the family and so the history of most family burying grounds will be repeated by a gradual obliteration of all markings of the graves. Will not the Interior Journal mention this and then constitute itself a committee to whom such money may be paid in Stanford and the writer will answer for Danville papers doing the same at this end of the line.

This is not authorized by Miss Marie, but it is sure that nothing could touch her more deeply than would such a testimonial from her father's friends and her mother's than would this. A FRIEND

Against Law Enforcement

(Lexington Herald)

Governor Wilson was elected Governor because of the belief on the part of a majority of the votes that he would bring to the discharges of the duties of Governor trained ability and a high sense of duty. Profound disappointment has been felt because of his course in many instances. We know of none who have criticised some acts of his more severely than have we, but neither we nor any other man in the State, so far as we know, has ever questioned the sincerity of his purpose to serve the state to uphold and enforce the law. The successful candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor made a desperate fight to prevent the endorsement of the present state administration and succeeded in preventing the name of the Republican Governor of Kentucky from being mentioned in the platform. It is against Judge O'Rear's desire and over the protest of his supporters that there was included in the platform a plank, saying:

"We approve and endorse the Republican administration of the affairs of the State, and we approve and endorse all means employed by that administration for the preservation of law and order, and favor the passage of such additional laws as may be necessary for that purpose."

Judge O'Rear denied an endorsement only of the Republican administration of the business of the State. He did not desire an endorsement of the efforts of the Governor to suppress lawlessness and to protect the citizens of the state from outrage. In words he declared himself in favor of the enforcement of the law. His influence in the past has been thrown on the side of the lawless, and he opposed the adoption of the plank in the platform endorsing the efforts of the present Governor to maintain the law and pledging his party to the passage of laws that will prevent acts similar to the outrage committed by the night riders. The jurist-candidate, has been by members of his own party, designated as the candidate of the night riders. The history of the influence he has exerted and the course of his adherents in the Convention, justify that characterization.

Protesting with blazing eye and wagging tongue against the lobby; denouncing with flaming words the liquor interests, yet with uplifted hand proclaiming that Senator Bradley was elected in spite of, and not on account of, the liquor interests, this same candidate for Governor of Kentucky proclaims himself in favor of law opposed to the efforts of the present Governor to maintain peace and enforce law.
