

GREAT CLEARANCE SALE!

OF
F. M. WARE, at McKinney, Kentucky.

Having combined two Stores I find myself overloaded in many lines and needing the money invested in them I have decided to clean them out and do it quick. I will therefore beginning

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1911,

Run a clearance sale that will enable me to convert $4,000 or $5,000 worth of merchandise into ready cash. Now I fully realize just what it will require to accomplish this these dull times, but my mind is made up and I am determined to make it a go. The stock consists of everything usually found in a general store, consequently it will be impossible for me to name prices on everything so will just quote enough to give a general idea of the great slaughter I am making in order to fully succeed in my undertaking. In the clothing line I shall offer:

Mens $12 Suits at	$5.99
$10 Suits at	$4.99
$8 Suits at	$3.99
$6 Suits at	$2.99
$5 Suits at	$1.99
Choice of Mens' $3 and $3.50 pants at	$1.49
$2 and $2.50 pants at	99c
All dollar and dollar and a half pants at	49c
Choice of my entire line of mens' overcoats $3.99 former prices running from $6 to $12.

Boys Overcoats from $1.99 down to 50c.
 In ladies' and childrens' shoes will offer choice of 100 pair at 39c a little out of style but many of them good ones and worth more than five times the price. Come and see them and be your own judge I will have three other lots one at 39c, one at $1.49, one at $2.49. These three last lots are all clean, up-to-date stock. The majority of them $3 to $4 goods. A few pairs $3 hip boots $1.99.

All mens' boys' and childrens' shoes cut in like proportion, also a large line of mens' womens' and children rubber foot wear of all description. See the prices on these and supply yourself for the winter as you can save from 15 to 25 per cent on them. All dollar and dollar and twenty-five cent overalls cut to 79 cents 75c to 90c grade to 59 c. 50 and 60c grade to 39c. Overall jackets of same grades at same price. Mens' heavy duck coats sold everywhere from $2 to $2.50 at 99 cents. $3 slickers at $1.99. In mens' heavy undershirts I will have them from 15 cents up, all heavy mens' fleece lined at from 25 to 39 cents in all colors.

In mens' dress shirts I will have a counter choice for 29 cents. many of them dollar goods, some of them not latest style but the first man, to them will take a years' supply, or if these are not stylish enough for you take a peep at the 39c, 49c and 79c line where you will find all the new up-to-date styles.

In the dry goods line I can only ask you to come and see what I have in the store for you. All calicoes from both stores will go at from 3 1-2 to 4 1-2 cents; all apron check gingham of which I have just secured a large assortment which will not be opened until the morning the sale begins, will go at 5 cents per yard also for the first time a beautiful line of outing flannels 5 1-2, 7 1-2 and 8 1-2c; these are all this season's goods and are the 7 1-2, 10, 12 1-2 cent goods. You will appreciate this cut of more than 25 per cent and right now when you want them. In the dress goods line I have made my deepest cut which will average a full one half reduction clear through. In the lot are many remnants 4 to 8 yard lengths of different colors and grades some very fine goods. Among this lot you will find some of the best bargains in the sale. I will have a counter of mens' and boys' caps at 15c, mens' hats at 25, 50, 79, and 99 cents and $1.49 for the best hat in the house former prices up to $3.

My entire line of furniture will be marked down to absolute cost and carriage.

All the 10 cent grade of mens' womens' and childrens' hose cut to 7 cents and all other grades in proportion. I will have 10, 15 and 25 cent counters, most everything on any of these at half and less than half the usual prices. I shall offer nothing except just such things as are right now in demand, no spring or summer goods will be offered and all I ask of the people in reach of McKinney is to come and form your own conclusions don't take my word for it or anyone else's word but begin now to save up money as such an opportunity has never been offered before in McKinney and is sure not to be offered again soon. Come and take advantage of it and don't wait until many of the best bargains are gone. I will try to have clerks to wait on you properly, but if you are detained over dinner time and spend as much as $10 with me I will see that you get the best square meal that can be had in McKinney free of charge to you. Everything will be marked in plain figures and will be the same to all, not a cent deviation will be made to anyone. I will kindly ask everyone to make their purchases just as rapidly as they can as I will be crowded all over the floors with counters, and can admit only a limited number of customers at the same time. Please examine everything carefully before you buy as nothing will be exchanged or taken back and nothing will be permitted to leave the house until paid for.

I shall not make any prices on staple groceries but have a full and complete line all at reduced prices. I want to call especial attention of the LADIES to my line of cloaks and jackets. I have a complete line of new up to date styles for ladies misses and children that I will sell at exactly cost. I want every lady customer to see them whether they want to buy or not. I also have about 25 old style cloaks that will practically be given away, many of them fine all wool goods that will make fine and comfortable winter wear for good honest ladies that care more for comfort than style. Remember these goods will all be remarked and ready for your inspection WEDNESDAY MORNING OCTOBER THE 25TH 1911.

IN ORDER TO GET EVERYTHING IN THE BEST POSSIBLE SHAPE I WILL BE COMPELLED TO CLOSE MY DOORS FOR TWO DAYS PRECEDING THE DAY OF THE OPENING WHEN EVERYTHING WILL BE READY.

I mean business and such an opportunity will be fully appreciated by the grand public, and I will be the better able to run my business with the amount of goods out of the way and in the hands of the people that need them and all will be happy.

COME ONE COME ALL!

F. M. Ware, McKinney, Kentucky.
