11 A YEAR STRICTLY IN ADVANCE

Entered at the postoffice at Stanford as second class mail.

With the state election out of the way, now watch the candidates for county offices come a running. The I. J. has refused to announce a number who have been in the field for some time, because it believed that every candidate ought to be working for the interest of the state ticket at that time rather than his own race. As far as the I. J. is now concerned they can come full tilt. Each can rest assured he is going to get a square deal as far as we are concerned. Our advertising columns are going to be open to each and every one alike and at the same price. All announcements of candidates cards and addresses to the dear voter are going to be cash in hand with no deviation from this rule. So come one, come all, and the more the merrier.

FREE RAILROAD TRIP TO CINCINNATI

A. E. Burkhardt, the International Fur Merchant, who is making Cincinnati famous as one of the world's great fur centers, extends an invitation to all the citizens of Stanford who intend to purchase furs for this season to visit Cincinnati and inspect his enormous plant, where furs are manufactured and sold direct "from Trapper to Wearer," thus eliminating all "middlemen's" profits. They are the largest purchasers of raw skins in this country, being exporters and manufacturers and their low prices on furs of all styles and varieties for women's wear are positively beyond all possibility of competition. This is the generous proposition he makes:

Go to Cincinnati, look over A. E. Burkhardt's enormous stock in the two six floor buildings at the corner of Main Streets and Third Ave., select just what you want, and the cost of your railroad fare, for BOTH WAYS, will be paid by the firm, providing it does not amount to more than ten per cent of the purchase price of the article. All goods are marked in plain figures and you need not mention that you wish railroad fare refunded until AFTER making your purchase.

We advise our readers to take advantage of this liberal offer.
