Reader Cures His Constipation—Try it Free

Simple way for ANY family to retain the good health of all its members

The editors of "Health Hints" and "Questions and Answers" have one question that is put to them more often than any other, and which, strangely enough, they find the most difficult to answer. That is "How can I cure my constipation?" Dr. Caldwell, an eminent specialist in diseases of the stomach, liver and bowels has looked the whole field over, has practiced the specialty for forty years and is convinced that the ingredients contained in what is called Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has the best claim to attention from constipated people. Its success in the cure of stubborn constipation has done much to displace the use of salts, waters, strong cathartics and such things. Syrup Pepsin, by training the stomach and bowel muscles to again do their work naturally, and with its tonic ingredients strengthening the nerves, brings about a lasting cure. Among its strongest supporters are Mr. John Gravine of 88 Milwaukee Ave., Detroit, Mich., Mr. J. A. Vernon of Oklahoma City and thousands of others. It can be obtained of any druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, or if you want to try it first a free sample bottle can be obtained by writing the doctor. Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample address him Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 602 Caldwell Building, Monticello, Ill.

Charles Lutes shipped six car-loads of export cattle from Maryland to Baltimore last week, which he bought at from 5 1-2 to 5 3-4 to. He bought most of them from J. H. Baughman and Forests Reid. These exporters weighed from 1400 to 1450 and were in fine shape being one of the best lots shipped from this point in some time.

Charles Rose, a Clark county farmer, bought a steer the past week, at 5 3-4 cents per pound, that is probably the largest animal of the kind raised in the Bluegrass region for a number of years. The Livine weighed 2,100 pounds, and measured 19 hands in height. It was of the Shorthorn breed, and was sold at the Cincinnati Stock Yards, where it was shipped, to have been the largest beef ever received upon that market. The animal was 3-year-old, and if fed for a longer period would likely have increased in weight to 2,700 pounds.

Charles Lutes, one of the best known and most expert horse and mule men turned out in old Lincoln, leaves this week for Goldsboro, N. C., where he will be the head of a big horse and mule trading company. He will spend all of the winter in the south and will return in the spring to resume his cattle and stock raising in this part of the country. Mr. Lutes' best of friends will wish him much success in his new field.

HEED THE WARNING.

Many Stanford People Have Done So.

When the kidneys are sick they give unmistakable warnings that should not be ignored. By examining the urine and treating the kidneys upon the first sign of disorder, many days of suffering may be saved. Sick kidneys expel a dark, ill-smelling urine, full of "brickdust" sediment and painful in passage. Sluggish kidneys cause a dull pain in the small of the back, headaches, dizzy spells, tired languid feelings and frequent rheumatic twinges. Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only. If you suffer from any of the above symptoms you can use no better remedy. Stanford people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. John H. Wren, E. Main St., Stanford, Ky., says: "I know from experience that Doan's Kidney Pills are all that is claimed for them. Off and on for several years I had severe attacks of lame back. I often did work that required stooping and at such times the trouble became worse. There was also a too frequent desire to void the kidney secretions both day and night. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me and have never failed to benefit me when I have taken them since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

ASHAMED OF HER FACE

"I was ashamed of my face," writes Miss Pickard of North Carolina. "It was all full of pimples and scars, but after using Dr. D. D. F. Prescription for Eczema I can say that now there is no sign of that Eczema and that was three years ago." This is but one of thousands of cases in which Dr. D. D. F. has simply washed away the skin trouble. Dr. D. D. F. cleanses the skin of the germs of Eczema, Psoriasis and other serious skin diseases almost instantly, and when used with Dr. D. D. F. soap the cure is permanent. Nothing like Dr. D. D. F. for the complexion. Trial bottle 25 cents, enough to prove the merit of this wonderful remedy. We can also give you a full size bottle for $1.00 on our absolute guarantee that if you use first bottle fails to give you relief it will cost you nothing.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of George Lee Terry who died November 13, 1911. Once a fair sunny darling, Came into this world to dwell Why God called him home so quickly There's no earthly tongue can tell. He was always bright and happy. And won all our hearts to him And when e'er his name is spoken, Our eyes with tears grow dim.

Do the Angels up in heaven, Know how many tears we've shed, How our hearts sunk deep in sorrow When we knew Georgie was dead.

Yes I think the Angels knew it, And that too, they heard us say God knows best and in our sorrow We will turn to him and pray.

One more little Angel around the throne, One more little soul to its Saviour gone, One more little voice in Angel land, To sing forever in that glorious land.

Oh, grieve not ye loved ones, That your darling is no more He is with his loving Saviour On the bright celestial shore. EFFIE B. FARMER.
