COLLIER'S ON TAFT.

So far as we can remember, Collier's Weekly has been radically wrong on but one great public question. That was its treatment of the Caleb Powers case, also its special correspondent, sent to Kentucky to investigate and write it up, spent nearly all of his time getting the facts from Powers himself in his cell at the Georgetown jail. We were working on a Frankfort paper at the time, and know the facts. As we said, this has been the only position taken by this great publication, which we have not fully endorsed. We want to commend now most emphatically what it says about President Taft. Practically all democrats will endorse it, and we know a great many republicans who do too. Listen to what it says in its current issue:

Incredible!
"President Taft's indorsement of Boss Cox's ticket is the final horror. To support it at all (on the urgency and assurance of a Cox politician!) was terrible enough, but to support it against so fitting and courageous a candidate as Hunt—really, words fail, and we are driven to punctuation and italics.
"What is the President coming to? After such an exhibition can he be even nominated? If there were an election tomorrow, would not Woodrow Wilson carry Ohio against him overwhelmingly? We have been patient with Mr. Taft. The Payne-Adrich tariff, the Ballinger iniquities, the use of patronage against insurgents, the wool veto, the retention of Secretary Wilson and Solicitor McCabe, the turning of the Post-Office Department into still more rigid political machine, the ruin of our relations with South America—in spite of the hope that the President would improve sufficiently to have a general balance of usefulness to his country. For sheer imbecile lack of backbone this last outrage is the worst."
Collier's will rejoice along with all others who stand for decency and better things, that the good people of Cincinnati completely repudiated Taft and Boss Cox by electing Hunt by a splendid majority.

Right here we want to deny the intimation in Collier's of a week or so ago, that most of the State Central Committees of the interior states are against Woodrow Wilson for the Democratic nomination for president. It may be that some of the ardent congressional friends of Speaker Champ Clark will seek to influence their committeemen in favor of the Missouri statesman, but we firmly are of the opinion that Kentucky's Committee, if left to settle the question itself, would be found solidly behind the New Jersey governor.

The tenor of the country press of this state is overwhelmingly for Wilson; the great mass of Kentuckians are for him; and by this we do not mean the democrats alone, for he will undoubtedly draw tremendous strength from the progressive republicans of Kentucky. If we have a presidential primary—and we should have one—you may county Kentucky in the Woodrow Wilson column. But whether a primary or not, we do not believe there will be a chance to take Kentucky away from him.
