

THE FARMERS

We have a buyer for a farm of about 100 acres well improved and on pike. If you have anything near this, list it with us. Hughes & McCarty, Stanford.

Wanted.—To rent a farm of 100 to 150 acres, and pay grain rent, if suits; corn land if possible. A. L. Thompson and Bro., R. D. No. 3, Stanford, Ky.

Lost.—A pale red cow weighing between 850 and 900 pounds. Had small bell on; slit in left ear and V. C. brand on left hip. Please return to Owsley McWhorter, Kidd's store, Ky.

Quite a number of Lincoln county men attended the Richard Cobb sale at Danville last Wednesday.

The bidding was spirited. Capt. T. D. English was at his best, and kept the crowd in a good humor from beginning to end. The double standard Polled Durham cattle sold were of the very highest breed. Mr. Cobb had an over-production of this high class stock, and decided to make the sale. While the prices were not so high as years ago, the sale was perfectly satisfactory. The cattle were weanlings, yearlings, and matured ones. Crawford brothers, of Lebanon, were the largest buyers taking thirteen at prices from $50 to $115. J. P. Barbee, of Paris, bought three at $70 to $102. Dr. J. G. Carpenter, of this city bought a cow and calf for $100. Sloan Eastland bought three. Granville Cecil, Jr., three Thompson & Son 2 nice calves. Sam Cohen a colored mare, bought an extra good one. The remainder bought by various parties.

Messrs. R. E. and Henry E. Jackson of Duck Mill, Mass., who have been looking through Kentucky for young saddle stallion bought at Glenworth Stock Farm, from Allen S. Edelen, the chestnut yearling colt registered as Red Pepper Burns, by Bohemian King and from the Peavine mare, Barney May; dam by Black Squirrel and 3rd dam by Peavine, for which they paid $750.—Danville Messenger.

It is predicted sent out from Washington come true we may in the future see dollar corn. They predict corn will go to eighty cents because of the law of supply and demand and then predict further that it is likely to go to a dollar "because of manipulation." According to Secretary Wilson's latest corn bulletin, the corn crop of Argentina is short, and demands will be made on the United States for the amount necessary to make good down there, and throughout the world, in the light of his best information, the corn crop of the United States will total 2,700,482,000 bushels, less by 356,000,000 than the crop of 1910 while the corn crop of Argentina and other corn growing countries is, practically, gone to the demitition bow-wows.

W. B. Burton made his 4th shipment of stock last Friday to the Wilson N. C., Live Stock Co. The shipment was composed of 13 head of horses which cost on an average of $168 per head and 12 mules which averaged $183 per head. This brings the number of stock shipped by Mr. Burton to this farm this season up to 100 head and he is still buying for them. W. B. Burton reports the following purchases of stock recently: of J. R. Knox of Danville, one 5 year old mare mule for $290 and one harness horse for $125, of J. J. Consett of Parksville 1 pair of five year old mare mules for $425; of J. A. Allen of near Danville one pair of 5 year old mare mules for $410; he purchased at Fox's sale three mules, paying therefor $505, and of Mrs. Parmelia Ross, of this county one 5 year old harness horse for $135.—Lancaster Record.

Over in the Rolling Fork section of Casey James D. Baxter sold his farm of 143 acres to John F. Hogan for $10,000. Whitehouse & Baxter bought of several parties a car load of fat hogs at $5.75 and some fat cattle at 3 cents per pound.

At the sale of Mrs. Elizabeth Melvin east of Ottenheim, horses brought from $50 to $75, milk cows $25 to $35, hogs $5.70 to $5.80 per hundred, farming implements sold low. Col. J. P. Chandler cried the sale.

B. D. Holtzclaw bought of J. B. Jones 19 export cattle 1,200 to 1,500 pounds at 5 1-4 cents. He then sold to Mr. Jones 20 feeders at 4 1-2c.

J. H. Goggin leaves this week for the south with a car load of mules which he and David Rankin will sell to the cotton growers. They took down a particularly nice lot of animals and believe they will find a good demand for them.

Jones & Cross bought up a lot of hogs in Lincoln recently and have been shipping them to the Cincinnati market. They bought 23 from Dr. J. P. Peyton; 13 from Joe Si Anderson, and 15 from G. W. Spangler. They paid from 4 cents to a nickel a pound for them.

James I. Hamilton and Wood Burnside sold a farm of 80 acres on Broadside branch, in Northwest Garrard to James Wren for a price ranging near $65 an acre.

Dr. R. C. Rose of Bryantsville, bought a combined mare from Mr. Rubie of North Garrard for $300.

M. J. Farris, Jr., sold a cottage and lot off his land on the Stanford pike near Danville to J. M. McGraw for $1,500.

S. E. Owsley sold seven hogs to V. A. Lear last week at 5 1-2 cents. Powell & Depp of the West End, sold to J. H. Baughman a nice pair of four year old mules weight 2,550 pounds, for $450.

E. G. Gilliland, sold three suckling calves to J. M. Roberts, the cattle buyer of Pulaski for $50; he also sold two calves to Meredith Francis for $35.

Hamilton Bros., Mexico, Mo., bought of J. B. Burwell, Auxvasse, Mo., the yearling saddle colt, Prince Henderson 4736—sired by Raven Dure 1284 from Katie Henderson 2542 by Prince Rose 243, son of Montrose 106. Also from R. S. Scudder, of McKinney, the 2 year-old saddle stallion, Golden Chester 5253 by Chester Peavine 3184 from Bell Ware 9045 and the 2 year old stallion, Dr. Hockaday 5254, by Rev Peavine 1796 from Bessie Shear or 6466 by Lynn Boyd 44, 2nd dam by Peavine 85.

At Shelbyville, last Tuesday, a meeting of growers was held and the ten-year pool discussed. W. L. Brown, one of the largest growers in Shelby county was the only one who signed the contract.

David M. Look, a Kentuckian, by birth and native of Louisiana, who has become a millionaire in New York has bought the magnificent Castleton estate of James R. Keene the veteran New York financier, near and will retire from business and return to Kentucky to make his home at Castleton. Mr. Look will not continue the breeding of thoroughbred horses, but will use the place primarily as a home, but will devote some of the broad acres to raising a few trotting horses and to the breeding of blue-blooded cattle. The farm contains 1,058 acres.

The price paid for Castleton has been kept private but is said to be more than $200 an acre, or nearly a quarter of a million dollars.

She was 76 years of age at the time of her death and was loved by all who knew her.

COME BACK HOME.

Tennessee Farmer Makes Expensive Trip to Washington.

(Murfreesboro, Tenn. Journal.)
Last fall Mr. Jacob Robinson, who owned a fine farm near Florence, in this county and who says he was doing well, sold his farm, stock, household goods, etc., and emigrated to the state of Washington to get rich quick in those widely advertised and much boasted farming lands in that section. He located at Bellingham on the west side of the state, bought some upland with timber on it, because it was cheaper than the valley land, and proceeded to make a home. It cost him $150.00 an acre to clear the land. Shortly after his arrival he saw that he was in for it and began his preparations to leave. The residents there told him he was going too soon; to stay and unload on some easterner, who would in time, come and buy. Mr. Robinson knew of a number who had been waiting for a long time to catch a sucker and were impoverished by the wait, concluded he would get out while he had some money still left.

So last week they arrived here and Mr. Robinson is looking for a farm. He says, that he knew when he had enough. He says that it is a first rate country to go for one's health but to go there and live as a farmer it would be sheer folly. Fruit grows in abundance but is specked with the seal and unfit for market. He further says it does not pay to grow timothy hay that brings $12 a ton on $300 an acre land. The price of eggs there is high but the hens don't lay.

Mr. Robinson's experience cost, he says about $3000 and he is back in old Ruthford to make what he lost to the land sharks of the glorious state of Washington.

This experience is a true one and should give an impetus to the "Back Home" movement now working in the South. Those who left their homes in the southern states should come back to see how the country has improved and how easy it is to make a living on the farms that were once red clay, worn out and washed hills.

Come on back boys, come "back home."

Lost, strayed, or stolen from Mr. Wm. Shanks, farm on day of sale a brown or blackish brown weanling mare mule bought from J. M. Reynolds, of Waynesburg on day of sale and left in Mr. Shanks' new barn. Said mare mule had a calico or percale string tied around her neck. Reward. Address Mr. J. M. Reynolds at Waynesburg, Mr. William Shanks, Stanford, or X. Y. Z., Lock Box 161 Stanford, Ky.
