J. D. EADS,

The truest pen-picture that could possibly be drawn of Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, is painted by Ex-Gov. J. C. W. Beckham in a public card to the democrats of Kentucky, the major portion of which we reproduce in other columns. Watterson replies in his paper by calling Beckham "a diseased liar," and his card "the fulmination of a coarse blackguard and illiterate blatherskite," and because Gov. Beckham expresses himself as favoring Woodrow Wilson for the presidential nomination, Watterson denotes him "a Kentucky crook in partnership with a New Jersey crook."

And all this, too, after Watterson has subjected Beckham to the most virulent, venomous, lying and depraved attacks in the past several weeks that a private citizen ever had to take from a self-imposed demagogue who happened to have a newspaper at his control through which to spew his baleful bile upon the objects of his displeasure.

What a sight! What a spectacle! To what further depths of infamy will this miserable old man descend? God save the democratic party of Kentucky if he and his minions are to control the state convention on May 27th.

SUFFERED EVERYTHING

For Fourteen Years. Restored To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elgin, Ill.—"After fourteen years of suffering everything from female complaints, I am at last restored to health. I employed the best doctors and even went to the hospital for treatment and was told there was no help for me. But while taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began to improve and I continued its use until I was made well."

—Mrs. HENRY LEISBERG, 743 Adams St. Kearneysville, W. Va.—"I feel it my duty to write and say what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered from female weakness and at times felt so miserable I could hardly endure being on my feet. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and following your special directions, my trouble is gone. Words fail to express my thankfulness. I recommend your medicine to all my friends."—Mrs. G. B. WHITTINGTON.

The above are only two of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which show clearly what great things Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound does for those who suffer from woman's ills. If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

(Louisville Herald)
Shelton Saufley, who aspires to represent Lincoln County in the next General Assembly, should not experience much trouble in corraling votes. Live Democrats, like Shelton, usually get anything they want.

(Todd County Progress)
Shelton M. Saufley, the brilliant and lovable editor of the Stanford Interior Journal is a candidate for the legislature from Lincoln county. He should be nominated by acclamation and our money goes on Saufley.

(Cadiz Record.)
Editor Saufley, of the Interior Journal of Stanford, is a candidate to represent his county in the next Legislature. The many thousands of Democrats over the state who enjoy the acquaintance of Shelton Saufley hope to see him elected.

Mr. Shelton M. Saufley, editor of the Interior Journal, was in this city Monday mingling with his many friends. If the good people of Boyle county could vote for him in his race for the Legislature in Lincoln, he certainly would receive a handsome majority as he is very popular here and all know that he would make a creditable representative.—Danville Advocate.

(Lancaster Record.)
Mr. Shelton Saufley, Editor of the Interior Journal, has announced that he will be a candidate before the people of Lincoln county at the primary election in August 1913 for the nomination for the Legislature, subject to the action of the democracy. While it would be a blow to journalism to lose brother Saufley from its ranks, yet if he would make one half as good a lawmaker as he does an editor, the good people of Lincoln county would do well to give him not only the nomination, but the election.

(Somerset Journal.)
Our good friend, Shelton M. Saufley, of the Stanford Interior Journal has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Representative from Lincoln county to the next session of the General Assembly of Kentucky. We predict that "Shelt" will have no opposition for the nomination and that he will beat the stuffin' out of any Republican who may be willing to be offered up as a sacrifice lamb. "Shelt" is a splendid newspaper man, a born right man in the right place; and that he will grace the halls of the state capitol and do honor to Lincoln hustler, possesses plenty of ability. Is a gentle, suave, courteous and congenial gentleman, and without appearing to be nosing into the affairs of our sister county on the North, we would suggest to the Democracy of that county that he is the county goes without saying.

Chappell's Gap.

Mrs. Arch Anderson's family are all able to be out again. We are getting awfully tired of waiting for the wedding bells to ring.

Mr. A. Noakes' family are able to be out again. Mrs. Will McKinney and little son, are the guests of her father. The Farmers' Union are hearing fine speaking around here.

Miss Stella Frazier is staying with her grandmother, Mrs. Kate Dishon, who is very sick. The little son of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Middleton is quite sick. Miss Hattie Fogle attended the Farmers' Union last night.

Mr. W. H. HIGGINS.

Dear Sir:

I have been using corn planters for years, and the J. I. Case Planter I bought of you this year is the most satisfactory piece of machinery I have ever used. It is simple, easily handled, correct in dropping, and I take pleasure in recommending it to any one wanting a planter.

Very respectfully,
MAT MYERS.
