FORMER LINCOLN MAN

Back From Cuba Where He Sold Fine Horse Flesh

The Lexington Herald published the following about a trip a former Lincoln man has just made to Cuba with a big consignment of fine horsefiesn:

Mr. J. F. Cook, the well-known horseman, has just returned from a trip to Havana, where he went to take some blooded stock for Gen. Jose Miguel Gomez, president of the Republic of Cuba. The horses were two stallion, Alican, by Roosevelt, and Lord LaFayette, by Bourbon King, and eight registered mares. Besides these Mr. Cook took three other fine horses for Mr. Justo Vera one of the largest planters and ranchmen of the Island.

Mr. Cook was very much pleased with his trip to Cuba, which, he says, is a great and rich stock country, with fine pastures, and if the people will use care in selecting fine blooded animals and keep the stock up, they will be able to raise as fine mimals as any found in any other

While in Havana Mr. Cook had ceasion to visit some of the biggest ngar plantations and ranches on the Island, as well as the agricultural station at Santiago de las Vegas, some twenty miles form Havons, where he saw many fine specimens of fine blooded stock, a ceremony. The groom is a prominumber of them bought by the Cu- nent young man of Pulaski, while ban government last summer at the

Mr. Cook had the pleasure of meeting President Gomez, who he says is a very fascinating man and a great fancier of fine stock. The president owns more than 20,000 Rev. J. A. Herald Wednesday evneres of land, most of it stocked ening. with eattle. He is doing a great deal to encourage the raising of fine animals on the island and has already ordered the creation of a stud book for the registration of saddle mares.

A very unique growth in the way of a tadish was found in the garden belonging to Mr. Trumbo, at Camp Dick Robinson sometime ago. In appearance it was like a human foot, a large white radish forming the body, with 5 smaller radishes placed in systematic order around the body resembling toes. The heel and concave portion of the faot are almost perfect.

Lambs which were bought in early spring are being delivered today to Messrs, Brown & Lawson, Clate Arnold and Vick Lear. Price ranging from 6 to 7 cents.
