The Elizabethtown News is making a strong claim for the honor of being the first paper in the state to advocate the nomination of Gov. Wilson for the presidency. It says that it first picked him in June, 1911 and asks who can beat that. Well, as we have modestly declared before, the Interior Journal, we believe, was the first to champion his cause, and we can beat the News' first date several months. On February 28, 1911, we said that the excollege president would be the democrats, strongest candidate to fill the more exalted presidency, and declared ourselves for him. Come again, Col. Harry, or any of you original Wilson papers.

TWO PLEASING WIRES

Received Here Monday Morning By Mr. and Mrs. Menefee

Mr. John N. Menefee, Sr., received a couple of telegrams Monday morning, each of which made him feel mighty good. One was from Spokane, Washington, and told of the birth of Imogene Gibson Cowan, to Mr. and Mrs. George Cowan, the mother having been the attractive Miss Lucile Menefee before her marriage to Mr. Cowan. The other wire said that Mr. Menefee's son-in-law, Judge E. B. Ritchie had won his fight for the democratic nomination for representative at Mineral Well, Texas, in the primary which was held Saturday. Judge Ritchie married Miss Annie Menefee. He has always been prominent in democratic politics in the Lone Star state, and has yet to be defeated for office.

To The Voters of The Thirteenth Judicial District

In order to contradict reports which are being circulated detrimental to the character of Emmett Puryear, candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney in this District, and to convert any "election day stories" which may be started to injure his candidacy, the undersigned citizens of Boyle County, among whom he has lived, take pleasure in saying to the people of this District that Mr. Puryear is a sober, moral and honorable gentleman, and will, we believe, make this District a conscientious and capable prosecuting attorney.

We have known Mr. Puryear for a number of years and have never even heard of him being accused of being under the influence of liquor. He is not that kind of man.

NOW A MILLIONAIRE
John Smith, Who Started His Career in This Town, Returns to the Scene of His Youth.

FORTUNE BUILT FROM SAVING.

Thirty years ago John Smith was a messenger boy in this town. Starting to save the sum of a dime a week, which he increased as he grew older he accumulated enough to buy a new business for himself. With the habit of saving he was able to buy a small store, in which he was employed as clerk as he had to open his eyes all over the country. The progress of the country finally attracted the notice of the bankers in New York. The Mr. Smith has now returned to his native town to live on his magnificent new estate on South Avenue. We are proud of him. He is a model of what the young boys will do.
