Read What Mr. Eargle Says

and then come in and let us show you the superior qualities of the "OLD HICKORY". You will find just as Mr. Eargle did that these wagons are stronger and more durable, because they are made from better material and are better finished than other wagons and that's why they give such complete satisfaction. Come in and see us.

E. T. PENCE
 Stanford, Ky.

MORE THAN 32 YEARS
 of satisfactory service; the stamp of approval of hundreds of thousands of wagon users; and the highest laurels a wagon can win are back of every "OLD HICKORY". The only way such a splendid record could possibly be made is just the way it has been made for the "OLD HICKORY" by putting the very best quality of wood stock into every part, ironing them perfectly and painting them handsomely and durably. You make no mistake in selecting the "OLD HICKORY" wagon.

 Sheriff B. G. Fox, of Danville, was in Harrodsburg court day and purchased 63 head of yearling mules. Are you ready for the K. of P. fair? If not, I can supply your wants in harness, saddles, fine driving and riding bits, whips, spurs etc. J. C. McClary, Stanford.
 For Sale.—Old corn, A No. 1 carriage and general work horse. Also a No. 1 buggy horse. A. W. Carpenter, Moreland, Ky. 63-1f.
 Over in Boyle J. C. Johnson shipped a car load of hogs to Cincinnati last week. They averaged about 190 pounds and were purchased from Col. L. M. Dunn at 7 1-2 cents. There were 83 in the bunch.
 Col. S. T. Harris, the popular Stanford citizen, got his share of blue ribbons at the Danville fair this week in the mule ring. He took the grand prize over nine entries and landed both blue and red. Mr. Harris is not only one of the cleverest gentlemen in Central Kentucky, but one of the best mule men in the land.—Danville Advocate.
 O. T. Frye, Sr., the well known hog raiser of Boyle, sold last week to Dr. M. F. Powers, of Powers, a nice boar pig two months old, for $25. He had just returned from Georgetown, where he had exhibited some of his best hogs, taking four blue and two red strings. He will take his stock to Lexington and later to the State Fair at Louisville.
 C. R. Martin the popular Danville butcher bought last week from Robert Burke, also of Boyle, four calves, weighing 140 to 160 pounds each at five cents per pound. He bought six head of steers and heifers weighing 800 to 1,000 pounds of various parties at from four to five cents per pound, and four hogs from Chas Everett at 6 1-4 cents per pound.

HERE'S THE HOG

BOURBON REMEDY CO.
 Lexington, Ky.
 Expelled and photo of hog that was cured of cholera with your Bourbon Remedy. This hog was almost dead before using the medicine, and then was entirely cured, except loss of hair, tail, etc. The hog is owned by Mr. Shiles Furling, of Bowling Green, Ky. He will be glad to give you a testimonial, and we can get several more if you want them.
JENKINS-SUBLETT DRUG CO.
 Bowling Green, Ky.

Stray sow came to my place. Owner can get same by paying for keep and this ad. Jas. Messer 65-3.
 For Sale.—Aberdeen Angus cattle both sexes from colts to four year olds. Thoroughbred Duroc boars ready for service. R. H. Crow, Shelby City, Ky., phone 8 2-rings, Junction City Exchange. 64-6.
 Tim W. Hutchison, sold a four-year-old work mule to Will Shanks last week, receiving $125 for the hybrid.
 Carroll Shanks sold a bunch of 49 ewes to B. D. Holtzel last week receiving $4 a head around for them. Mr. Shanks also delivered a couple of cows and their calves to him for $40 a pair.
 Senator R. L. Hubble is getting a small bunch of cattle together to feed this fall. He bought eight of them last week from Brown, Broyles and Latham, of Rockcastle, at about 4 1-2 cents a pound.
 Jim Messer, out in the Knob Lick pike, delivered seven shoats to B. D. Holtzel last week, for which he got 7 cents a pound. He also sold Mr. Holtzel a couple of calves at $10 a piece. This buyer also bought 10 or 15 heifers from Henry Brown, at the market.
 T. W. Jones & Co., shipped a load of sheep and lambs to Louisville from here last week, most of which they had purchased from Granville Lutes at from 3 to 5 cents. They sent a load of cattle and hogs to Cincinnati, bought from various parties, the hogs at 7 cents and the cattle at from 3 to 4 1-2 cents.
 S. G. Brown, of Eubanks, who was here court day, reported the sale of 140 head of sheep to H. C. Brown, the Mercer buyer, at $3.75 a head. Mr. Brown sold 15 head of cattle, which he had bought of different parties, at from 4 to 6 cents.
 T. W. Jones and Co., had delivered to them a bunch of 156 sheep from Russell county early in the week, which they sent at once to the Bourbon stock yard at Louisville. W. T. Selby, who buy extensively in the lower counties, drove the flock through and was paid $4.80 a head for them.
 The Rankin brothers, near Hubble, are preparing to feed a large number of mules for the fall market. They have commenced buying already and are generally rather heavy buyers from now on. Lee Rankin bought from S. G. Brown, of the Eubanks section, in the south end of the county, a nice pair of six year old mules one horse and one mare, for $400. He also got a pair of 15-hand horse mules from Davy Jones, of Garrard, which cost him $240.

Several buyers were after the crack walking mare of Capt. T. B. Robinson, of Garrard here Monday, but none was quite willing to reach the figure of $300 he puts on her. This mare is just three years old. She is royally bred, being by Rex Peavine and out of Silver King mare. Capt Robinson calls her Antomi, and she has a world of action and goes like a house afire.
 Granville Lutes, the local cattle buyer, who buys with his partner, R. M. Sharpe, of Yosemite, extensively in Casey county, bought six steers and seven lambs from J. Wat Brown of that county, last week. He gave from 3 to 5 cents for the cattle and $3 a head for the sheep. Mr. Lutes bought four young bulls from J. N. Cash, of the Turnersville section, at 4 cents a pound. He also got 30 sheep from R. L. Murphy, below Liberty, at 4 cents a pound for the lambs and $3 a head for the ewes in the bunch.
 R. C. Arnold, who is constantly in the market for good market cattle and live stock, bought a cow from Major Reynolds last week for which he paid $35. He paid W. M. Stout, of the Crab Orchard pike, $35.50 for a couple of young steers, from Josh Swope, five miles out on Dix river, he got a couple of cows and three calves, giving $80 for the bunch; from Bob Bruce Mr. Arnold bought a bunch of hogs which weighed up at about 140 pounds each, at 6 cents a pound.
 President James H. Woods, of the big Knights of Pythias fair, to be held here next week, is going after the Mule Colt Futurity, for which the association has hung up an attractive premium. Mr. Woods has a three-months' old mare mule colt which is said by many to be the finest thing in the mule younger line seen in these parts in many a day. She is just three months old but is already four feet three inches in height and as shapely as a model. After starting her at the local fair, Mr. Woods plans to take her to a number of the Central Kentucky fairs, which are hanging up good money in the mule colt stakes. She is sired by his great jack, Russell.
 Bailey Holtzel is as shrewd a cattle buyer as will be found in this part of the state, and knows how to buy 'em right. He bought 35 nice exporters from John B. Foster last week, and turned around and sold them to Frazier, of the Jewell firm, of Lexington, to go in 60 days, and to be corn fed until delivery. Just what he bought them at and the figure he realized for them were not told by Mr. Holtzel, but he cleanup a nice profit on the trade. He contracted to deliver 70 exporters to the shippers, which will weigh about 1,300 pounds at time of delivery. Jas. W. Williams will furnish him with 35 which will be added to the Foster herd.

 B. G. Gover, who is devoting much attention to his Southdown flocks, sold a couple of nice bucks this week to breeders who are seeking some of the old Sam McKinney strain to build up their flocks. He got $12.50 for one buck from Jack Beazley and sold another to Gus Geiszl, of the East End, for $15.
 W. P. Kincaid, the popular tobacco buyer, who is one of the cleverest judges of horse flesh in this part of the state, as a side line, sold a nice mare Monday, to Ingram, of the firm of Fox & Ingram, for $150. She was a five-year-old, and a splendid prospect, and, of course, Mr. Kincaid had her in first class shape.
 The peach and apple crop in Lincoln county has been unusually successful this year. Some splendid peaches have been brought to town by Mr. E. F. Lewis, who has made a great reputation for the quality of the fruit that he raises on his farm in the Highland section. He always has a demand for everything he can raise. Apples are also very plentiful, especially in the Highland orchards, in some places being allowed to rot on the ground for the hogs to consume.
 J. F. Cook, of Lexington, was here on Monday, court day, looking for some high class stuff for his business at Lexington. He is shipping an immense amount of stuff from his farms near Lexington. Last week he sent to Havana, Cuba, for various parties on the island, a carload, which contained a team of harness horses, two driving horses, three saddles, a jack and thirty deer hounds. Since his big shipment of high class Kentucky horse flesh to the president of Cuba several months ago, Mr. Cook has built up a very satisfactory trade with the big island planters and officials.
 R. M. Arnold, the hustling buggy man, of Danville, was here Monday meeting his many friends and selling his popular buggies. He has built up a splendid Lincoln county trade and admits that he owes much of it to his extensive advertising in the Interior Journal. Of course, also, he has the goods to back up his ads, without which no advertising is worth a cent.

 Mr. G. W. Koger returned from Whitley county, Saturday with a car-load of nice steers, which he purchased from different parties at 4 and 4 1-2 cents.
 James Rogers, of the East End, bought a six year old mare mule on Monday from M. Pike, a well known German, back of Ottenheim. He paid $150 for her and then turned around and cleaned up $10 profit by getting $160 for her from Centers of Garrard.
 Center Bros., of Garrard, shipped a carload of cattle from Point Leavelle to Cincinnati last week, having bought ten head of 700-pound steers from Virgil Gastineau, also of Garrard, at 5 cents, and a bunch from T. R. Slavin at the same figure.
 W. S. Carrier, of Garrard, bought one head of 800-pound heaves from Davidson and Doty, of Lancaster, at 4 1-4 cents, a cow and a calf from J. I. Hamilton for $40 and a heifer from James Sutton for $30.
 V. A. Lear, the Lancaster buyer, continues active in the hog market, having sent to the cities two carloads from Lancaster last week. He got them from the following: from Sweeney Morgan 200 200-pounders at $8 a hundred; from Mr. Rice 40 head of 200-pound porkers at $7.90; from Bob Barker 22 190-pounders at $7.35; from Alex Dean 17 100-pound shoats at $6; from Jesse Sanders 22 140-pound pigs at $7.25; from Judge A. D. Ford 15 200-pound hogs at $7.50 and from Bob Thompson eight 165 pounders at $6.50.
 T. C. Rankin, of the Hubble section, has bought a number of mules lately to add to his feeders for the southern market. He got a pair from Mr. Dunn, at Richmond court for $235; a pair of 6-year-old ones from Sam Prather for $310 four 5-year-old hybrids from Thomas Cross, at from $125 to $175 a head; three mules from W. H. Brown for $400 and a pair from A. W. Kavanaugh, for $300.

Top hogs were $8.45 at Cincinnati Monday.
 For Sale.—12 head of Southdown bucks, one and two years old. B. G. Glover. 65-2.
 Now is the time to give your order for fertilizer. I have Swift, Armour and Globe. Get prices, E. T. Pence. 65-3f.
 There were almost a thousand estate at Nunnely's Stock Yards Monday, county court day and trading was very brisk, a big crowd being present. Buyers were here from far and near after the offerings, and the bees found a ready market at from 4 to 6 cents according to the grade offered. Buyers were here after mules and horses but found them very scarce. There was a good trade in sheep and lambs, and hogs were in demand.

For Sale or Rent.

A fine blue grass farm four miles from Stanford, Ky., in high state of cultivation, adaptable to raising hemp and tobacco, corn, hay and all kinds of small grain. This farm has on it a nice new cottage, a large tobacco and stock barn and all necessary outbuildings. Plenty of everlasting water, is on good pike one mile from church house and store, and four miles each way from the railroad, and in a good neighborhood. The land lays well, in fact you can stand in the yard and see nearly all over the farm. It contains 141 acres. If sold, will give very liberal terms. If not sold by August 20th, will rent for years 1913-14. For further information call on B. D. Carter, Stanford, Ky., or write C. L. Carter, Greensboro, N. C. 60-12

Ben Bright and Monte Fox, of Danville, were here Monday looking for mules, but found the market mighty tight on the hybrids.

PRIVATE SALE OF FINE BLUE GRASS FARM

As I wish to quit farming, I will offer for sale privately my highly improved farm of 200 acres, lying on the Liberty turnpike one mile south of Hustonville, Lincoln county, Ky. The land is very fertile, will grow anything to perfection, and is cultivated in Central Kentucky. In the best neighborhood in the state.
 The place has on it a mansion house of ten rooms, with all necessary outbuildings, conveniently located. There are two comfortable tenant houses. There are 3 large cisterns, 3 wells and numerous never failing springs. There are 3 stock barns, and two tobacco barns. The fencing is first-class and much of it new. Also a silo of 180 tons capacity, a first class scales. Two hundred acres are now in grass. Good orchard. Terms easy.
