HEARD ABOUT TOWN

"The Martin's Wedding," a novel home talent play that delights everyone. Bright, clean, full of music and good hearty laughs you will find in the home talent play Monday evening. J. C. Stanley, who left Lincoln county three weeks ago and has been making his home near Richmond, Indiana, will back here early in the week on a visit to friends. He will go from here to Corbin to remain a short time. William Hues, an old Stanford boy, was here this week calling on the trade and shaking hands with his many friends. He is traveling out of Milwaukee for a manufacturer of ladies' hosiery. He says that as soon as the fall of having being made, his line he'll have the swiftest job in the world. Gov. McCreary will speak at Lancaster, Monday, May 25th court day, in the interest of his candidacy for the U. S. Senate. Judge James P. Bailey, Sheriff J. G. Weatherford, Ed. Wilkinson and other of his supporters in this county will probably head a delegation from this county to hear him. Bourne Goggin, of Chicago, was in this section this week visiting relatives and friends, and receiving a hearty welcome. He has been connected with the National Publishing House, of Philadelphia for the past 20 years and holds one of their most responsible positions. I. W. Peak, the well-known farmer near Turnersville, recently returned from a visit to Hardin county, where he spent several days on business and visiting friends. Peak says that the democrats of the county say that Beckham will sweep it for senator by a large majority. A coop full of Italian bees was transferred from one train to another here Thursday morning and attracted much attention at the depot. Apiarists pronounced them Italian bees. They were being shipped from a farm by the name of Brown & Berry, of Haynesville, Ala. to A. N. Finkins, of Wofford, Ky., and were enclosed in five compartments in fine mesh netting. His friends are glad to know that Dr. A. S. Price is so greatly improved upon him that his very competent trained nurse, Miss Katherine Brummett, was able to leave him Thursday. She went up to Crab Orchard to spend a few days with her father, Col. R. H. Brummett and family, before returning to Lexington, where she makes her home. There has been lots of sickness in this part of the county. The people around here are very busy this pretty weather gardening. Mrs. Bettie Youcum was the guest of her sister the latter part of last week. Mr. William Eason attended court Monday at Stanford.

W. P. Kincaid, local agent for the Indiana silo, unloaded his first carload shipment here this week. John B. Anderson, on the Preachersville pike, who lost his silo by fire last year, got the first one as he says he doesn't intend to be without an Indiana any longer than he can help. There were seven in the first shipment. Mr. Kincaid sold 10 silos during the month of April and will begin deliveries at once. "Col. Joe" Goodie went to Broadhead Thursday to put up some bills for the speaking of Congressman Stanley there on May 23, having been engaged to do this return by local Stanley leaders. Upon return he told the fact that the democrats there almost ran him out of town, when they learned his mission, and he says that he never saw so many people for Beckham in his life before as he found around Broadhead. Judge James P. Bailey spent a few days in Louisville with friends this week. During his absence, Attorney George D. Florence was selected by attorneys in a small case in county court to preside as Acting County Judge and acquitted himself with honor and dignity, and strange to say, with perfect satisfaction to the attorneys on each side of the suit. Some judge, sure.

CRAB ORCHARD. Miss Ida Judl and Shirley Gover, Miss Myrtle Murray and Clara Thompson attended church at Broadhead last Sunday. A most delightful picnic dinner including all delicacies of the season was enjoyed at old Dripping Springs a few days ago by the following merry party of youngsters: Misses Ellen Holmes, Jewel Goodman, Susie Bitts, Bird Perkins, Mrs. Anderson, D. Jones, John Stephenson, Boyle Singleton, Willie Thompson, George Given and Bud Collier. Mrs. Robert Thompson and Miss Tanner visited her mother, Mrs. Poyner at Mr. Vernon last week. Miss Belle Arnold made a short visit to our town this week. Mrs. W. D. Dunn is much improved and able to resume her house work. Miss Lucile Morgan is at home from Richmond, where she has been a school. Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Cherry spent last Sunday with Mrs. Cherry, sister, Mrs. Hilton at Stanford. Mrs. Fred Garnet, of Stanford, who has been quite sick is much better. Her many friends here will be glad to know. Mrs. Claudia Holdman has been quite sick for a week, but is some better at present. Frank Holdman came home from Jellico and is also sick. Dr. R. L. Willis has returned from a pleasant visit to his daughter, Mrs. Dave Howard of Versailles. Mrs. Edward Anderson will leave in a few days for a visit to friends in Richmond and Versailles. Messrs. John S. Robinson and James Guest attended the Derby in Louisville last week. May and Orlene Anderson are the guests of their grandfather, Sam Anderson in Nicholasville. Mrs. Rubie Bronaugh and Mrs. Wallace Gover were in Stanford shopping this week. Mr. S. M. Noel, of Frankfort, was at Springs Hotel this week. Mrs. Mary Richart has returned from a most delightful visit to Mrs. J. R. Bailey at Burgin. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Sanders visited Mr. Coy Sanders at Coy this week. Mrs. John Todd, of Palmyra, N. Y., spent the week end with her husband at Crab Orchard Springs. Mrs. L. A. Banks and daughters, Misses Lillian and Dorothy are at the springs for the summer. Miss Hancock, of Shepherdsville, is with her father, Prof. Hancock and furnishing the splendid music for the Commencement exercises of the Graded School. Misses Floyd and Cox, teachers, during the past term of school here left Thursday for their homes. They leave a large number of friends here who regret to know that they will not teach here another year. Mr. Charles Singleton, who has been in North Carolina, for several months, was brought home Tuesday very sick. We have not learned the trouble. Mrs. Hannah Steger is daily getting stronger and will soon be well again. Her physician, Dr. Jones, says she has been one of the most patient sufferers he ever knew, which has greatly assisted his efforts for her.

Mrs. Hannah Steger is daily getting stronger and will soon be well again. Her physician, Dr. Jones, says she has been one of the most patient sufferers he ever knew, which has greatly assisted his efforts for her.

W. P. Kincaid, local agent for the Indiana silo, unloaded his first carload shipment here this week. John B. Anderson, on the Preachersville pike, who lost his silo by fire last year, got the first one as he says he doesn't intend to be without an Indiana any longer than he can help. There were seven in the first shipment. Mr. Kincaid sold 10 silos during the month of April and will begin deliveries at once. "Col. Joe" Goodie went to Broadhead Thursday to put up some bills for the speaking of Congressman Stanley there on May 23, having been engaged to do this return by local Stanley leaders. Upon return he told the fact that the democrats there almost ran him out of town, when they learned his mission, and he says that he never saw so many people for Beckham in his life before as he found around Broadhead. Judge James P. Bailey spent a few days in Louisville with friends this week. During his absence, Attorney George D. Florence was selected by attorneys in a small case in county court to preside as Acting County Judge and acquitted himself with honor and dignity, and strange to say, with perfect satisfaction to the attorneys on each side of the suit. Some judge, sure.

CRAB ORCHARD. Miss Ida Judl and Shirley Gover, Miss Myrtle Murray and Clara Thompson attended church at Broadhead last Sunday. A most delightful picnic dinner including all delicacies of the season was enjoyed at old Dripping Springs a few days ago by the following merry party of youngsters: Misses Ellen Holmes, Jewel Goodman, Susie Bitts, Bird Perkins, Mrs. Anderson, D. Jones, John Stephenson, Boyle Singleton, Willie Thompson, George Given and Bud Collier. Mrs. Robert Thompson and Miss Tanner visited her mother, Mrs. Poyner at Mr. Vernon last week. Miss Belle Arnold made a short visit to our town this week. Mrs. W. D. Dunn is much improved and able to resume her house work. Miss Lucile Morgan is at home from Richmond, where she has been a school. Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Cherry spent last Sunday with Mrs. Cherry, sister, Mrs. Hilton at Stanford. Mrs. Fred Garnet, of Stanford, who has been quite sick is much better. Her many friends here will be glad to know. Mrs. Claudia Holdman has been quite sick for a week, but is some better at present. Frank Holdman came home from Jellico and is also sick. Dr. R. L. Willis has returned from a pleasant visit to his daughter, Mrs. Dave Howard of Versailles. Mrs. Edward Anderson will leave in a few days for a visit to friends in Richmond and Versailles. Messrs. John S. Robinson and James Guest attended the Derby in Louisville last week. May and Orlene Anderson are the guests of their grandfather, Sam Anderson in Nicholasville. Mrs. Rubie Bronaugh and Mrs. Wallace Gover were in Stanford shopping this week. Mr. S. M. Noel, of Frankfort, was at Springs Hotel this week. Mrs. Mary Richart has returned from a most delightful visit to Mrs. J. R. Bailey at Burgin. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Sanders visited Mr. Coy Sanders at Coy this week. Mrs. John Todd, of Palmyra, N. Y., spent the week end with her husband at Crab Orchard Springs. Mrs. L. A. Banks and daughters, Misses Lillian and Dorothy are at the springs for the summer. Miss Hancock, of Shepherdsville, is with her father, Prof. Hancock and furnishing the splendid music for the Commencement exercises of the Graded School. Misses Floyd and Cox, teachers, during the past term of school here left Thursday for their homes. They leave a large number of friends here who regret to know that they will not teach here another year. Mr. Charles Singleton, who has been in North Carolina, for several months, was brought home Tuesday very sick. We have not learned the trouble. Mrs. Hannah Steger is daily getting stronger and will soon be well again.
