Had Enjoyable Visit.
Mr. George P. Bright returned Saturday night from a protracted visit to his daughter, Mrs. Joseph E. Johnston, and her husband at Pittsburg, Pa. He had a most delightful visit, he says, and found things in good condition in the Keystone State. "Times are good there and the mills are running full time. I heard no complaint of hard times and people generally are pleased with Wilson's administration," he says. Mr. Bright told us of the endorsement given the administration by the Union soldiers who held a big meeting while he was in Pittsburg. There were 500 or 600 of them and they are said to have lauded our President to the skies in their resolutions they passed. Mr. Bright did not attend the meeting, he having fought on the other side, but the papers were full of what was said of the greatest president the present generation has ever seen.

WHAT CATARRH IS
It has been said that every third person has catarrh in some form. Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the body; and local treatments in the form of snuffs and vapors do little, if any good.
To correct catarrh you should treat its cause by enriching your blood with the oil-fish in Scott's Emulsion which is a medicinal food and a building tonic, free from alcohol or any harmful drugs. Try it.

For Sheriff: C. A. HARRIS, of Mercer County; CHAR. C. FOX, of Boyle County.
For Judge: E. V. PERRY, of Boyle County; J. S. OWEN, Jr., of Boone County.
For Auditor: W. F. HARRIS, of Mercer County; J. E. NEWMAN, of Boone County.
For Clerk: JESSE D. WEARN, of Boone County; MARSHALL E. NEWMAN, of Boone County.
For Representative in Legislature: W. G. GORRIE.

Under the caption "Walton Kuningham," the Lexington Leader published this morning a gentleman well known in this section, whose best years of his life were spent: "Col. W. P. Walton, of this city, the doughty candidate for the Democratic nomination for Secretary of State, has been up in Northern Kentucky campaigning the past week, and judging from the cordial reception that he received in Campbell county he is 'in good' with the Democracy of that section. The Lexington Leader was the guest of the Campbell County Democratic club, which has a membership of 800, at Newport, and spoke in the interest of his candidacy. Macaulay, the great English historian, once said of Oliver Cromwell, the celebrated Irish poet and novelist, that 'He wrote like an angel, but talked like poor Poll.' Col. Walton yields a most facile pen, as everybody knows who has been reading his brilliant editorials for years; but he says that he is not much of a campaign orator. However, he gave the Campbell county Democrats the 'best in his shop' when called upon for a speech and the enthusiastic way in which they cheered made him feel mighty good, he says. Col. Walton is making friends wherever he has been in his canvass, and his supporters assert that he is gaining ground daily, all of which makes him sanguine of his nomination."

Former President Taft outlined a plan for the formation of a peace league which he believes would be effective in bringing the nations so closely together that war in the future will be next to impossible. Mr. Bryan has been busy since his resignation telling of the ways and wherefores of the war and the methods by which it might be stopped. The celebration of the thirty peace treaties with other nations which he signed while in office Mr. Bryan obtained experience and knowledge of value in pursuing any peace program that might be proposed. These two bulky Americans, the two Williams, might perform a great service to the world should they come together and discuss a plan for the establishment of permanent peace among the nations. It would be a notable achievement if that other distinguished American, Colonel Roosevelt, were lassoed and brought to hoof in the cause, which he now violently opposes.

Judge J. C. Bach is dead at Jackson. He was a prominent figure in Eastern Kentucky and a leading member of the bar. Judge Bach appeared in many of the noted trials in Breathitt county and was known all over the State. He was educated for a preacher but later decided to study law and made a success of it. He was an authority on the vexatious question of "land titles" and was a big man in many ways. Bright's disease caused his demise.

The constitutionality of Louisville's segregation ordinance, designed to prevent the people of color from white or negro races from occupying for a home or as a place of assembly a building located in a block where a majority of the residents are of the other race, was upheld in a decision by the Kentucky Court of Appeals.

"Skirts will be shorter this summer," reads a line in a fashion journal. All right, if the women can stand it the men will try and do so, but if the thing keeps on somebody's modesty is going to be shocked.

Thomas Head Dead in Pulaski.
Thomas Head, a well-known and respected citizen of Plato, Pulaski county, passed away at his home there on June 13th, after a long illness. Mr. Head had a severe attack of grip about two years ago and never fully recovered from it. Deceased was the father of Mrs. J. H. Bustle, of this county. The interment occurred in the Mt. Pleasant cemetery on Tuesday, after funeral services conducted by Rev. Carmichael, pastor of the Baptist church of which Mr. Head was a devoted member. The deceased was 80 years old. He is survived by the following children, Mrs. J. H. Bustle, of this county; Mrs. S. L. Myers, of Plato; Mrs. B. R. Hubble, of Ellisburg; Mrs. J. L. Head, of Dabney; J. M. Head and Henry Head, of Plato.

Lansing, Bryan's Successor.
Robert Lansing, of New York, has been selected as Secretary of State by President Wilson. This was learned from the highest authority. Mr. Lansing's appointment will be announced shortly, and the President, who leaves for New Hampshire on Wednesday, will rest the entire situation in the hands of the President. Mr. Lansing is at present acting secretary and was counselor of the department under Mr. Bryan. He is a native and resident of Western New York.

Ought To Know.
In a signed statement published in the Lexington Herald of Saturday Miss Ella Bush, of Lexington, denies the published reports of her marriage to Mr. Jos. Cantodi, of Lexington. The announcements had been published in all the papers throughout Central Kentucky and first came to light through a press dispatch from Chicago. But Miss Bush surely ought to know.—Paris News.

'Twere Ever Thus.
Sing a song of Europe,
Highly civilized;
Four and twenty nations
Wholly hypnotized.
When the battles open
Bullets start to sing;
Isn't that a silly way
To act for your king?
Kings are in the background
Issuing commands;
Queens are in the parlor
Perfuming their demands.
Bankers in the counting house
Busy multiplying;
Common people at the front
Doing all the dying.—Life.

TO THE VOTERS OF LINCOLN COUNTY:

The following orders were entered by the Fiscal Court at its meeting on June 17:
"The Lincoln county Fiscal Court, regarding the condition of the various pikes, and dirt roads in Lincoln county, and further realizing that no pikes and dirt roads are deteriorating and that a bond issue is absolutely necessary to save both the pikes and dirt roads, and further realizing, that new pikes are badly needed in certain parts of the county; therefore, on motion by Squire Fields, and seconded by Squire Betsey, which was duly made, seconded and carried, the said Fiscal Court makes the following recommendations:
The court earnestly endorses a movement for a bond issue of $130,000, as an increased bond issue can in no event increase the county levy as the levy is now at the limit, and the tax rate cannot be increased.
In the event said bond issue carries, this court would spend as much as $35,000 of said money realized from the sale of the bonds, for the purpose of building the following new pikes:
A pike from Crab Orchard to the Pulaski County line at Bee Lick, a distance of ten miles.
An extension of the "Boone Highway," to the Rockcastle County line, near Gum Sulphur, a distance of about three miles.
An extension of the Stanford and Somerset pike to the Pulaski county line, near Eubanks, a distance of about three and one-half miles.
The completion of the Chappell's Gap pike, from the foot of Chappell's Gap to the Stanford and Somerset pike, near Carter's Store, a distance of about seven miles.
$80,000 of the money so realized, for the purpose of reconstructing and resurfacing all the present pikes of the county, so that all of them may be placed in first class condition for public travel.
And $15,000 of the money so realized, on the dirt roads of the county, would buy an engine and grader to be used exclusively on the dirt roads, would employ some one whose duty it would be to look after the dirt roads, and no others; said grader and engine to be run entirely on the dirt roads; but the court does not mean to discontinue the present method of working the dirt roads, but the work herein mentioned to be in addition, to the other work.
In addition to the above money to be spent the court would respectfully solicit, and expects subscriptions from the citizens who reside on the roads to be built, reconstructed, and graded.
The motion being put, all the magistrates voted for same.

On motion duly made, seconded and carried, it is ordered by the fiscal court of Lincoln county, that all obstructions, of every kind and description, on the various roads of the county, both in the ditches, or any part of the road, such as fences, bushes, culverts (when obstructing the ditches), lumber, old wagons, wood piles, etc., be moved at once. And the county attorney, is directed to prepare any notices that may be necessary, to carry this order into effect, and to issue warrants for the arrest of any person, or persons so offending, and he is further directed to prosecute any person, or persons who fail to so move obstructions.

Read About the Bond Issue.
The fiscal court of Lincoln county issues a statement which appears in another column of this paper and which you are invited to read. The statement is a clear, concise one, telling the facts as they are without going into unnecessary detail and is a strong argument for the bonds. The fact that the bonds, if voted and issued, can not raise the rate of taxation, is a great relief to you. Don't make up your mind to vote against the bond issue until you have read the article and given the matter some thought.

FAMILY AVOIDS SERIOUS SICKNESS
By Being Constantly Supplied With Theford's Black-Draught.
McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years, with sick headache, and stomach trouble. Ten years ago a friend told me to try Theford's Black-Draught, which I did and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old. I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel ill, I give them a few pills, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried. We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."
Theford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to require no strength of digestion, no relief of indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.
It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.
