

WAR IMMINENT WITH MEXICO

President Calls Out Militia Of All The States For Duty On Border Where Danger Threatens

Washington, June 20.—Upon Gen. Carranza's reception of a stern refusal to heed his demands for recall of American troops from Mexico hinges the question of a Mexican war in the opinion of President Wilson's close advisers. They were prepared Monday night for the possibility of open hostilities after the note which was sent to Carranza Tuesday.

No indication has come that the First Chief's attitude of implacable hostility would be shaken by the reiterated declaration of the latest communication that the United States has no aggressive or war-like purpose toward Mexico but is firmly resolved to protect her borders and end brigandage in the border states.

While the diplomatic steps were in progress Monday, the nation was stirring throughout its width and its breadth with the movement of national guardsmen mobilizing to guard the border. At least 100,000, and possibly a far larger number, were preparing for active service under President Wilson's call. For the present their mission will be purely one of defense, but should war come they will be ready for that also. They will not be assigned for border duty until mustered into the federal service. Even when mobilization is completed only such units will be ordered south as Gen. Funston desires to fill the gaps in his 1,800-mile guardline. The remainder will rest on their arms at the state mobilization camps for the present awaiting the turn of events.

Official reports from many quarters show that a flame of popular feeling against the United States is being kindled throughout Mexico. Apparently it is being done with the sanction of Gen. Carranza, for the act in many cases are those of his authorized military or civil agents. From Juarez to the west coast of Mexico posters have appeared calling the people to arms and asserting that the United States is preparing to hurl its armies into Mexico. Chaotic conditions prevail everywhere, it is said. Clashes such as that between Mexican troops and American blue-jackets at Mazatlan Sunday show that relations are strained to the breaking point. The act of a subordinate commander anywhere may bring on fighting that will result in war. So far as officials at Washington are aware, Gen. Carranza is taking no strong measures to curb his soldiers and people. Upon this fact many of them found their belief that he is determined to force matters to an issue unless the American troops are withdrawn.

Neither state department officials nor members of the diplomatic corps at Washington have been able to satisfy themselves as to Gen. Carranza's motives. There are some, however, who believe he hopes to ride into popularity on a diplomatic triumph over his powerful northern neighbor, or upon a war wave which might establish his tottering government in popular estimation. Once the war was on, and the certain defeat of his armies foreshadowed, these observers say, Gen. Carranza might sue for peace, trusting to the magnanimity of the Washington government to leave him in power.

Increasing uneasiness over the plight of some 5,000 American civilians now in Mexico was manifested in official circles. Approximately 1,200 of that number are in Mexico City, despite warning after warning through American consuls and other officials. Another emphatic message advising them to leave Mexico immediately was sent by the state department a day or two ago.

Officials do not believe the Carranza Government would sanction an attack upon American residents or that other foreigners would be involved in any case. A weapon of terrible possibilities is being forged in Mexico, however, with the attempts to incite the ignorant peon population to a warlike feeling against the United States. Mobs formed by half-starved natives, who have been told that all of Mexico's accumulated troubles are traceable to the Americans might well precipitate a situation beyond the control of the Government.

Kentucky Troops to Mobilize.

Brigadier General Roger D. Williams, commanding the Kentucky brigade, telegraphed General Hugh L. Scott yesterday morning that the Kentucky National Guard is ready for service and that its companies are all well equipped.

General Williams said that the present strength of the Kentucky National Guard is about 2,200, but that he did not believe that the Kentucky troops would be ordered from their mobilization camp to the front until their strength had been recruited up to four or five thousand. He said that would mean that the troops would be in camp, becoming hardened to camp conditions for sixty or ninety days.

The Washington order calling out the Kentucky brigade, National Guard, specified Ft. Thomas as place of mobilization, or "such other point as the commander of the Department of the East may designate." After a conference Adjutant General Ellis wired the War Department asking that Earlinton be substituted for Ft. Thomas because of its geographical position and the larger space.

The order from Washington requires that companies be mobilized at peace strength, sixty-five men, and that they can be recruited up to war strength of 150 men. Adjutant General Ellis sent a message to Washington asking whether the militia should be mobilized under the existing contract or whether men should first be re-enlisted under the new law.

Pershing Taking Every Precaution.

Columbus, N. M., June 20.—Gen. Pershing is taking every precaution to prevent a clash with Carranza troops being precipitated by some trivial incident, according to reports from the field yesterday. Detachments which for the past few weeks have been operating within a few miles of the camps of the troops of the de facto government, have been withdrawn, while scouting patrols have been given orders to ride their territory with extreme caution. All of the soldiers of the American command have been warned to exercise great care in distinguishing bandits from Mexican soldiers.

BRODHEAD BOONE BOOSTERS

The Stanford Chamber of Commerce received a letter Monday from the Secretary of the Brodhead Commercial Club, to the effect that a Road Booster Committee will visit Stanford Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. They are out with the Rockcastle Fiscal Court inspecting the Boone Way, and are making every effort to get it connected at the Lincoln line. They have invited all who will go to ride with them to Danville and return. A reception committee is being planned for these visitors at the court house on that afternoon. All business men are asked to be present to welcome Stanford's neighboring townsmen in this great work of road building. Bear this date and hour in mind and be there to emphasize the welcome which Stanford extends to Brodhead.

SALVATION ARMY IN TOWN.

Capt. Charles McDonald, of the Salvation Army, at Danville, is in Stanford this week with his worker, Lieut. Jordan and Babry Bryam in the interest of the work in this territory and they ask the public to cooperate in this work for the betterment of humanity and the extension of God's Kingdom among men.

GARRARD KILLING OVER OLD GRUDGE

Report from Nina Neighborhood Says Ashley Sebastian Shot Zach Simpson to Death Saturday

News was received here Monday of a killing in the Nina section of Garrard county which took place Saturday and is said to have been the result of an old grudge. Ashley Sebastian shot and killed Zach Simpson according to the report received here. It was said that Simpson was in his tobacco field at the time Sebastian came with his gun and shot him to death. Reports also were to the effect that Sebastian had a mule which came home the night before riddled with buckshot. He is said to have then secured his gun and to have approached Simpson with the remarks that "Now is as good a time as any to settle this matter," and to have slain Simpson when he fired. Both men were well known farmers of what is also called Spoonville neighborhood on Paint Lick creek. Just who was at fault and the details of the trouble are expected to be brought out at the examining trial of Sebastian.

WED IN DANVILLE SUNDAY

Miss Verna Rout and Robert Carter Take Friends By Surprise.

Miss Verna Rout and Robert Carter, two of the best known and most popular members of the younger set of Stanford, motored to Danville Sunday, where Dr. E. M. Green, pastor of the Presbyterian church, said the words which united them in wedlock's holy bonds. There was no objection on the part of anyone to the nuptials, and their many friends had been expecting such a happy culmination for some time but were surprised just when it did occur, few being taken into their confidence. The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rout, and Mr. M. S. Baughman, accompanied them, and after the ceremony the happy pair went to Lexington where they will spend their honeymoon for several days before returning here to make their home. The bride is one Stanford's fairest and beloved daughters, attractive and accomplished and beloved by all who knew her. The man of her choice is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Carter, a splendid young business man, and esteemed by everyone. Both have the heartiest good wishes of a host of friends for every happiness.

CHAUTAUQUA MANAGER

Dr. W. J. Mahoney.

NEW STORE AT CRAB ORCHARD

Harry and Isador Sprintz, brothers-in-law, of H. Routenberg, of McKinney, have rented S. J. Tatem's store-room at Crab Orchard and will open a big stock of dry goods, clothing, etc., in it about Sept. 1st. The gentlemen now live in Philadelphia where they have a good business, but prefer to come to Kentucky and get rich like their clever brother-in-law has. Before coming, however, Harry Sprintz will go to Union, S. C., and take unto himself a wife in the person of Miss Rosa Fred, who used to live here. She is the attractive daughter of Morris Fred, who for several years had charge of Dudderard's Dix River Mills.

STRAWBERRIES PROVE FATAL.

Orville, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Franklin, died on the Irvine and Richmond pike, near the latter city, while being rushed to a Richmond hospital by automobile for treatment. The child took suddenly and seriously ill, supposed to be caused by eating strawberries, and the attending physician advised an operation. The child, accompanied by his parents and Dr. Edwards, had proceeded to within two miles of Richmond when the child was overcome with hemorrhage and expired.

FIRE IN HIATT SECTION.

The two-story residence of Chint Lear, on his farm near Hiatt in Rockcastle, was destroyed by fire last week, most of the contents of the first floor being saved. The building was partly covered by insurance. This loss falls pretty heavy on Mr. Lear as the building was a good one.

CHAUTAUQUA BEGINS TOMORROW

Woman's Club Has Completed All Arrangements and Splendid Program Starts Wednesday.

With the arrival of the large tent and its placement on the lot in the rear of the College building, today, everything will be in readiness for the opening of Stanford's First Annual Chautauqua tomorrow, Wednesday.

The members of the Woman's Club, in charge of local arrangements, have worked unceasingly. They deserve the greatest credit for what they have accomplished in the face of the greatest difficulties. They made an advance sale of tickets, which almost covers the full cost of this great enterprise and entertainment. They have advertised it well. Seven automobiles loaded with local ladies, and decorated with Chautauqua pennants and flags, made a circle tour of Hustonville, Danville, Lancaster, and Crab Orchard Saturday afternoon, and saw to it that no stone was left unturned in advertising the fact that Stanford is going to offer a great attraction to her neighbor cities this week.

Dr. W. J. Mahoney, said to be an attractive speaker and ideal Chautauquan will be here today to have active charge of arrangements and the program during the week.

The Woman's Club has made arrangements for a rest room for the ladies and children, who attend the Chautauqua. A portion of the college building, close to the Chautauqua tent, has been secured and all the conveniences needed will be provided. A maid will look after the wants of all who visit it. People who live in the country and who want to attend afternoon and evening sessions of the Chautauqua can bring lunches with them and eat them in the rest room, if they desire. The program for the season of most attractive entertainment before the people is as follows, beginning at 3 in the afternoon and at 8 at night:

MELTON—STEPHENSON.

The marriage of Miss Bertha Melton, of Lebanon and Mr. William T. Stephenson, of Lebanon Junction, was quietly solemnized Friday evening, June 16, at the home of the bride's friend, Mrs. William Votler, Louisville. The ring ceremony was used, the Rev. Chas. A. Humphrey, of Lebanon, said the words that made them man and wife, in the presence of the immediate families. The bride was gowned in a rose-colored messaline and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. She is the daughter of R. F. Melton, a popular business man, of Lebanon, and is a pretty and attractive young lady, as well as accomplished, as she has been a teacher in the Lebanon graded school and her friends are numbered by her acquaintances. The groom is a former Lincoln county boy, his father being, Mr. W. P. Stephenson, the popular and efficient postmaster at Maywood. At present he is located in the gent's furnishing business at Lebanon Junction. There is no one who stands higher in the community as a Christian gentleman than Mr. Stephenson. He is a fine young man, sober, industrious and honorable. The happy couple, after spending a few days in Louisville, will return to Lebanon Junction, where the groom has a home arranged to go to housekeeping.

OIL STRUCK ON SCHOOL LAND.

Fifty Estill county public schools will benefit $18,000 a year as a result of an oil strike on a school lot at Gum Springs. Officials plan to build a better school house, increase teachers, salaries and erect a county high school.

Bilious Attacks

When you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. They only cost a quarter. Obtainable everywhere.

NOBLE WOMAN GOES TO REWARD

Mrs. R. H. Bronaugh Passes Away at Her Home in Crab Orchard After Long Illness.

Mrs. Vina Hays Bronaugh, wife of Col. Reuben H. Bronaugh, one of the East End's most prominent and foremost citizens, died at their home in Crab Orchard Monday morning. Mrs. Bronaugh had been in poor health for several years, but the end came suddenly and almost unexpectedly to the many friends and loved ones who did not realize that her condition was so serious. Only a few hours before had dangerous symptoms developed, and none had anticipated that the end was so close to a beautiful life. She became seriously ill Sunday and dissolution followed fast, even before some of her children, who lived in nearby towns could be summoned to her bedside.

Mrs. Bronaugh was in her 62nd year. She was a native of Pulaski county, a Miss Hays, and a member of a prominent family. Thirty-eight years ago she became the wife of Col. Bronaugh and since then had made her home with him in Crab Orchard, where they raised a family, and gathered about them a circle of friends and loved ones who will join their tears and sorrow with that of the devoted husband and the children at the loss of a splendid wife and mother and noble Christian character. Mrs. Bronaugh in early life joined the Baptist church, and was ever faithful to its tenets and the teachings of the meek and lowly Nazarene.

In addition to her husband she is survived by the following children: Dr. J. M. Bronaugh, of Lexington, Reuben H. Bronaugh, Jr., of St. Louis, Miss Anna Bronaugh, of Pineville, Miss Catherine Bronaugh, of Lexington, and T. Hays Bronaugh, of Crab Orchard.

The remains of this good woman were laid in their final resting place Monday afternoon after short but beautiful services conducted at the home by Mr. J. C. McClary, of this city. A host of friends and loved ones followed the body to the grave in the Crab Orchard cemetery and mutually testified to the loss which will be felt in the whole community over her taking away. Her husband and loved ones have the sympathy of all in their hour of sorrow.

LOST INFANT DAUGHTER

Rev. and Mrs. D. M. Walker have the sympathy of a host of friends in the loss of their infant daughter, who passed away Saturday. The child was born Thursday, but survived only a few short hours.

DANVILLE COURT DAY.

A fairly good crowd attended Danville court Monday, but trading was slow. There were very few cattle on the market, but the supply was equal to the demand. A few choice ones sold close to 8c. Butcher stuff was slow at 5c to 6c. Several horses changed hands at $100 to $140. There was a demand for good mules J. H. Baughman, formerly of this county, selling one to W. T. Robinson for $250. Mr. Robinson paid $235 for another. Both of the Congressional candidates were present and did a lot of handshaking. Mr. Montgomery left about noon for Lawrenceburg, but Mr. Helm spent the day. Both gentlemen seemed satisfied with their prospects in Boyle.

BREAKS LIMB IN FALL.

Mrs. E. S. Fisher sustained a broken limb last night as a result of a fall while returning from calling on a neighbor. She had been across the way to the home of Mrs. J. R. Powell and when returning home she missed a step leading from the front porch and fell on the concrete pavement. All of her weight was thrown on her right limb, breaking it between the hip and knee. Doctors were summoned and the injury dressed but it proved to be very painful and will no doubt keep Mrs. Fisher in bed for some time. There are many of her friends who will regret to learn of her misfortune and who hope that she will soon recover.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

This is a remedy that every family should be provided with, and especially during the summer months. Think of the pain and suffering that must be endured when medicine must be sent for or before relief can be obtained. This remedy is thoroughly reliable. Ask anyone who has used it. Obtainable everywhere.

The Lyceum Ladies' Orchestra A Treat Too Rare to Be Missed

THE LYCEUM LADIES' ORCHESTRA.

This city is fortunate indeed in that we are to have with us at the Chautauqua the famous Lyceum Ladies' Orchestra. This organization is composed of attractive and talented young ladies who have been organized and trained by the world's most noted experts in the musical training business, together with their manager, Mr. Septimus E. Barbour, well known as a teacher, pianist and baritone soloist. In their tours all over the United States they have made for themselves thousands of friends and enthusiastic admirers among those who appreciate the best in music. The universal appreciation of their work throughout the south during their recent tour has caused the Alkaleph to engage them for another tour, and it is with great pleasure that their friends and admirers look forward to the opportunity to hear them render vocal and instrumental solos, duets, quartets, etc., giving such a variety to the program as to make it one of complete enjoyment, and those who were not so fortunate as to hear them during their former tour of the south will all avail themselves of this opportunity to enjoy a treat which is too rare to be missed.
