DANVILLE FAIR ON THIS WEEK

Lincoln County People Will Go Over In Droves for Splendid Attractions Offered.

With the Harrodsburg fair an unqualified success last week, interest this week centers on the rejuvenated Danville fair, and some good, old-fashioned times are expected on the beautiful old fair grounds. The Mt. Vernon fair and the Blue Grass fair at Lexington come next week, and the week after the great Broadhead fair will be held. Then comes the Great and Only K. P. Fair at Stanford the week following.

A host of Lincoln county people will be in Danville this week for the fair there, and to boost the fair here. A splendid premium list is offered and with the weather turned slightly cooler the attendance should be record-breaking. The famous Littlejohn Show, which are so popular here, are furnishing the midway features at Danville. ## HEAD SPLIT OPEN WITH CORN KNIFE

Renzo King Fatally Wounded by Jim Baker Near Moreland Sunday Morning.

Citizens of the West End of Lincoln are considerably aroused over the wounding of Renzo King a prominent resident of the Moreland section by James Baker, a thresher hand Sunday morning. Mr. King lies at the point of death with a wound in his skull eight inches long, made by a corn knife.

Baker, his brother, Wm. Baker, and Levi Kelly, who were with Mr. King at the time of the unfortunate affair, were arrested and the man charged with the crime was brought before Judge Bailey for examining trial Tuesday morning. On account of the serious condition of Mr. King, the Commonwealth, which was represented by Attorney K. S. Alcorn in the absence of County Attorney W. S. Burch, announced that it was not ready, so Judge Bailey fixed the trial for next Friday morning.

Jim Baker when taken to the jail afterward and asked by an I. J. representative if he cared to make a statement for publication, said in substance this: "I had been working on a thresher all week, and Sunday morning had gone to the depot to get some 'tricks' (grub, he explained). When I went over to where they were (meaning Mr. King, his brother Wm. Baker and Levi Kelly) King caught me around the waist and began jabbing his fingers into me. I pulled myself loose from him and asked him to stop. But he grabbed me again and again and punched me in the side and body with his fingers. That's all there was to it." Mr. Baker said that this was what led up to the trouble with Mr. King.

After the cutting was taken place near Mr. King's orchard, Wm. Baker and Kelly went for a doctor. The trio had endeavored to carry King to town but could not do so, and then sent for a physician. No effort was made by any of the men to run away, and when Sheriff J. G. Wetherford and Kelly and Wm. Baker were held as witnesses, and Wm. Baker was released by Judge Bailey under $250 bond as a witness. It was given by his mother. Kelly was also released on bond.

Mr. King has been unconscious most of the time since the affair, but soon after physicians got to him, he roused, and told Wm. Burdick, co-Deputy Sheriff John Moser, reported here Tuesday, that one of the Bakers had held him while the other one cut him. Since then, it is understood that he has been unconscious and unable to talk.

In an effort to save his life an operation was performed on his head Monday by Drs. J. R. Cowan, of Danville, W. J. Childress, of Hustonville and M. L. Pipes, of Moreland. It was found that the wound received from the heavy corn knife had penetrated into the brain at several points and very little hope for his recovery is held out by the physicians.

Mr. King has been living at Moreland for the last few years and has a splendid reputation, and is well esteemed by all who know him. He came there from Casey county and is a brother-in-law of Sheriff J. D. Taylor, of Casey, who was present here Tuesday morning when Baker was brought before Judge Bailey. Baker's bond was fixed by Judge Bailey at $1,000.

LIGHTNING IN ADAIR. In Adair county last week I. R. Jensen was in the barn of his father, Mr. C. C. Henson. A storm came up and lightning struck the top of the barn, the bolt running down a post, splitting it to pieces. Young Henson was standing near the post. He was knocked down and senseless. When found he did not know how long he had been unconscious, but stated that he felt he had just been awakened from sleep. He was not injured and no damage was done to the barn save the splitting of the post.

After Rural Credit Subscribers. An order was entered in the Fayette Circuit Court this morning authorizing Receiver Richard J. Colbert to collect unpaid stock subscriptions to the Kentucky Rural Credit Association and to dispose of mortgage notes belonging to the association at par with accrued interest. Of these $17,000 are in 6 per cent five year notes, and, and $100,000 are over are in 5 per cent, twenty-year notes. These notes, according to President R. A. McDowell, are abundantly secured and a ready market for them is expected.

LINCOLN ROADS BOULEVARDS. Mr. and Mrs. John B. Foster, Mrs. H. J. McRoberts, Mrs. J. B. Paxton and J. S. Owsley motored through the country to Franklin, Simpson county, in western Kentucky to visit Mrs. Owsley, who is there with her mother, Mrs. McElwain. Mr. Owsley says they found the roads generally in fearful shape, and that Lincoln county's roads are boulevards compared to most of the roads in that section of the state.

Dependency Due to Indigestion. "About three months ago when I was suffering from indigestion which caused headache and dizzy spells and made me feel tired and despondent, I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets," writes Mrs. Geo. Hon. Macdon, N. Y. "This medicine proved to be the very thing I needed, as one day's treatment relieved me greatly. I used two bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and they rid me of this trouble." Obtainable everywhere.

RECOMMENDS CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY. "I never hesitate to recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Sol Williams, merchant, Jesse, Tenn. "I sell more of it than any other preparations of like character. I have used it myself and found it gave me more relief than any other thing I have ever tried for the same purpose." Obtainable everywhere.

ALCORN—MONCREIFF

Popular Hustonville Girl Weds Chicago Man in Lexington Saturday.

The marriage of Miss Larry M. W. Alcorn, of Sandusky, of London, England, which was solemnized at Lexington, on Saturday, came as quite a surprise to her many friends and relatives at home. The bride is a splendid young woman in every way. She has taught in Chicago for a number of years and it was there that she met the man who became her husband. A host of loved ones will extend congratulations and all good wishes. The Lexington Leader's society column Sunday had the following account of the wedding that was there:

The marriages of Miss Larry M. W. Alcorn, of Sandusky, to Mr. John George Moncreiff, of London, England, and Chicago was celebrated Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hill Spalding in Campsie Place, Mrs. Spalding is the sister of the bride.

The wedding was a very quiet affair on account of the recent bereavement in the Spalding family. Dr. Edwin Muller was the officiating minister and the only members of the family were present. The house was decorated with golden glow, palms and ferns. The bride wore her traveling suit of blue silk and her bouquet was of killarney roses. She is a daughter of Dr. Edward Alcorn, of Hustonville, and is a charming and brilliant teacher, who spent a number of years in Chicago.

After the wedding trip the bridal couple left on a trip to the Pacific coast to spend the rest of the summer. They will live in Chicago. Mr. Moncreiff is recently from London, England and is president of the Great Northwestern Insurance Company, of Chicago.

HUNG HIMSELF WITH FENCE WIRE

Adged Farmer of Ottenheim Section Takes His Own Life While Mind Was Unbalanced.

Adolph Hertel, aged 67, was found dead in his barn by one of his sons about noon Sunday. He had hung himself with a No. 12 fence wire and had evidently committed the deed only a short while before. Insanity is given as the cause of the act. A year or more ago he suffered a sunstroke and since had been in bad shape mentally. He had lucid moments, however, and only late last week he went to Crab Orchard and attended to business affairs, including the making of a deposit at the Crab Orchard Banking Co.

The deceased came to this country some 10 or 15 years ago and had lived most of the time on the Anderson farm, to the South of Crab Orchard and near the old cheese factory. He was a widower, but two sons, including Oscar Hertel, the merchant here, the home, and a daughter survive. The burial occurred Monday at the Catholic church at Ottenheim.

PRIMARY ELECTION SATURDAY. Democrats and Republicans Both Name Congressional Candidates.

Interest appears to be rather light in the primary which will be held Saturday in the Eighth congressional district. Both of the democratic candidates have been using considerable printer's ink in an effort to make friends and arouse their friends to action, and have been traveling over the district extensively.

The republican candidates have been making a more or less still hunt for votes. It has been reported that Dr. R. L. Davidson, of this city, who is opposed to the republican nomination, say he is a sure winner, but are taking no chances. In regard to the democratic nomination, both candidates feel confident it is sure. A light vote is expected in both parties.

The election officers who will hold the primary in Lincoln county are as follows:

Stanford No. 1. Judge—James Harris. Clerk—George Crawford. Sheriff—J. E. Lutes.

Stanford No. 2. Judge—K. L. Porter. Clerk—J. W. Williams. Sheriff—Ed Davis.

MRS. HARVEY McBEATH DIES

Prominent Young Matron Succumbs Near Hubble—Garrard News.

Lancaster, Aug. 1. Mrs. Anna Jones McBeath died at her home near the west Garrard boundary in the Hubble section on Sunday after a rather brief illness due to dysentery, aged about 31 years. She was the daughter of Mr. Mack Jones, the merchant at Hedgeville, and leaves a husband and two small children. She was a sister of Mrs. Boone Sanders, of Hedgeville. Her husband, Harvey McBeath has the sympathy of many friends in his bereavement.

Mr. Hignite, an 80-year-old citizen of northeast Garrard, who has been making his home with Mr. and Mrs. Lemue Teater of that district, was struck by a wagon a few days since, and from the fall sustained a broken thigh-bone. His son, young Hignite, a well-to-do citizen of Barbourville, came for his aged father who previously preferred to live in Garrard county, and took him back with him to the Knox County Capital, where he will have every attention bestowed upon his aged sire.

The Garrard County Teachers' Institute is in session here this week, and the town is given over to the visiting pedagogues. The assemblage is held daily in the graded school auditorium under the direction of Superintendent Miss Jennie Higgins. Dr. McDougal of the Richmond Normal School is serving as Conductor. One of the attractive features of the institute will be an address Wednesday at 2:30 by Dr. Ganfield, of Danville. Mrs. Dillingham of Mercer county, has charge of the musical program throughout the sessions.

Mr. Donaldson Jones, of the Nina locality was stricken with appendicitis, and submitted to a successful operation, for the dread malady.

Miss Iva Pendleton, daughter of Mrs. Bud Pendleton of the Markersburg district, had the horse which she was riding, frightened by a passing automobile, and was thrown by the frantic animal; while she sustained many cuts and bruises by her fall, she was not seriously injured as was at first reported.

The union service was held Sunday evening at the Christian church, the Rev. H. S. Hudson, pastor of the Presbyterian membership, delivering a most interesting discourse.

Miss Margaret Cook gave a handsome social affair on last Friday evening in honor of her house guests, Misses Helen Elizabeth and Chastine Sprague and Hope Gardner, of Hustonville, there having been about 50 guests present.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker Gregory, Mrs. Ramsey and Miss Jennie Luckey enjoyed a motoring trip to Danville, last Friday afternoon.

Mrs. John Anderson, of Lexington is here on a visit to her many relatives at her former home.

Mr. G. M. Lyons and Mrs. Lyons left last Monday in their machine to visit in various sections of Indiana. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Scott motored over Saturday from Lexington and were guests for several hours of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lloyd.

DELIGHTFUL AFFAIRS

On last Saturday afternoon, Miss Ruth Fields gave a picnic in honor of her guests, Misses Josephine Proctor, Alpha Fowle, Mary Hill Garman, Frances Cornney, Iva Pepples and Ruby Spears. They went to Rocky Cliff on the Bradfordsville pike. The lunch, which was the most important feature of the outing was enjoyed by everyone. Upon their return to Hustonville, they went to the home of Misses Ella, Blanche and Edith Barnett, who entertained in honor of their visitor, Miss Lane. At a late hour delicious ices and cakes were served. Those present besides Miss Fields' guests were: Misses Lovey Lane, of Gravel Switch Pearl, Grace and Ruth Fields, Ella Blanche and Edith Barnett, Messrs. John and Marion Fields, John and Roger Hicks, and George Barnett.

MARRIED A LINCOLN GIRL. Rev. J. G. Livingston, near Crab Orchard, has received the sad news of the death of his son-in-law, C. C. Leete, at Tipton, Indiana last Friday after a long illness of a complication of stomach and liver trouble. Mr. Leete married Miss Margaret Livingston about five years ago and for several years they made their home in Washington state, where he requested his body be taken for burial. He was a splendid young man in every way, a member of the Christian church. His widow has the sympathy of a host of loved ones in her great bereavement.

The Clerk Guaranteed It. "A customer came into my store the other day and said to one of my clerks 'have you anything that will cure diarrhoea?' and my clerk went and got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy, and said to him, 'if this does not cure you, I will not charge you a cent for it.' So he took it home and came back in a day or two and said 'he was cured.'" writes J. H. Berry & Co., Salt Creek, Va. Obtainable everywhere.

her sister, Mrs. David C. Sanders. Dr. T. J. Hood has gone on a recuperative trip to Crab Orchard Springs.

Mrs. S. H. Pollitt and three little children are at home after a month's visit to her mother near Vanceburg.
