

T. R. TO STOP HERE

ROOSEVELT TO MAKE SHORT SPEECH HERE WEDNESDAY

"Greatest Handshaker Ever Seen" Spoke For Democracy At Danville and Lancaster Monday

Of course, the biggest thing in politics this week in this section will be the appearance in Stanford Wednesday afternoon about 4:30 of a check of Theodore Roosevelt, ex-president of the Progressive party, who later disposed of as much of it as he could control, to Wall street and the "interests" which he fought so vigorously in 1912. No matter what any citizen thinks of Roosevelt and his betrayal of the Progressive cause to the "Old Guard Wolves" as Parker, the Progressive candidate for Vice President, calls it, he is one of the most distinguished citizens of the world today and will undoubtedly be greeted by a throng of people who will stop here for a brief speech. Local Republican leaders got very busy when they found out that Roosevelt would pass through Stanford from Corbin to Louisville on his special train Wednesday. The republican managers are trying to get him to have the train stop at Stanford about 4 o'clock, or perhaps a little later. Roosevelt has agreed to make a speech here on behalf of Hughes. He should be heard especially by the good citizens of German extraction and sympathy in this section who are talking of voting for Hughes on the ground that Wilson has discriminated against Germany. Roosevelt is the most bitter anti-German man in public life in America. He has repeatedly said in his speeches that the German government is a "Lusitania," he would have seized all of Germany's ships which are now interned in this country, and then put the next step up to Germany, which everyone believes would have meant war, with Germany sure and certain. What a magnificent speech about this will of course be interesting, as well as all that he has to say.

Gov. Brough Makes Big Hit

The greatest handshaker, who has been seen in these parts in a long time, made a speech for Wilson Democracy at Danville Monday afternoon and at Lancaster that night. He was Gov. C. H. Brough, of Arkansas, who is proving one of the most effective orators on the stump in the present campaign. Great crowds greeted him at both appointments. The courthouse was filled to capacity at Danville, and at Lancaster at night, very few were vacant. Congressman Harvey Helm introduced him at both appointments, and each time the speaking was delayed a little while Gov. Brough shook hands with his friends, who heard every word and a pleasant smile for every man in the house when he shook hands with each one, and "got next" to them in a way not usually done by campaigners anywhere. It can easily be understood why he won his great fourth democratic nomination for governor of Arkansas so handsomely. In addition to being the prize handshaker, however, Gov. Brough is a scholarly and eloquent speaker in every way. He handled the issues of the campaign in a smooth, easy and convincing style, and appealed to the intelligence of his hearers. He showed that the Democratic administration has done and how popular are the Republican criticisms against this great work. Time and again he was interrupted by applause. He greatly impressed the crowd at Danville, and sent the workers away with enthusiasm and renewed energy for the battle on Nov. 7th. Gov. Brough made a big hit, and has proven himself one of the big campaigners on the stump for Democracy in this campaign. He predicted the certain victory of Wilson, declaring that in addition to Kentucky, Missouri and, of course, all the southern states, he will carry, Ohio, West Virginia, Indiana and Wisconsin. Monday was a big day for Democracy in Danville and Lancaster without a doubt.

McCHESNEY AT HUSTONVILLE

Hon. H. V. McChesney, of Frankfort spoke at Hustonville Friday evening on behalf of the Democratic ticket and was heard by a good sized crowd. He came from Liberty where he spoke to a good audience Saturday afternoon. Democrats of the West End are solidly united for Wilson and the major ticket and will roll up a good majority in the Hustonville precincts.

Speakers all over the county are being greeted by unusually large audiences in this campaign and the sign seems right for Lincoln county to return to a 200 or 300 majority for Democracy, which she gave in 1914.

RAGSDALE AT CORBIN

Prof. George T. Ragsdale, one of the leading Progressives of the county, is going to speak at Corbin Saturday night next, and should be heard by everyone there who goes to hear Roosevelt Wednesday for he is still true to Progressive principles, which Roosevelt has deserted to return to Standpatism.

PIE SUPPER AT WHITE OAK

The pie supper which was given at the White Oak school house on last Friday evening was a great success. There were 28 pies, bringing $25.10. The most popular girl, who was Miss Laverne Nevius, of Lancaster, won a large box of candy. $21.66 was realized from this contest.

Rural Credits Investors

Interested in Taking of Depositions in Lexington Court.

Local stockholders of the defunct Kentucky Rural Credit Association are much interested in the court action taken last week in Lexington. The Lexington Herald said of the matter: Depositions in the petition of John M. Bourne, of Owenton, against the Kentucky Rural Credits Association were taken by William Worthington, referee in bankruptcy, yesterday. The witnesses were heard and a fifth, B. H. Thompson, of Spars, will be heard today at 11 o'clock, which will include the testimony taken here. The referee and the attorneys in the case will go from here to Corinth, Grant county, for additional testimony, to be submitted later in the hearing of the case in the Federal court.

The attorneys for the plaintiffs are H. M. Bourne and Judge J. W. Cammack, of Owenton, and A. M. Baker and J. A. Edge, of Lexington, while the association is represented by W. W. McDowell, of Louisville, and Chester Adams, of Lexington, and the receiver, R. J. Colbert.

The attorneys for the plaintiff say that Receiver Colbert has denied them access to the books and records of the Rural Credits Association. The matter will be taken before Judge Kerr this morning. The attorneys for the plaintiff say that they were at first allowed to inspect the records at will but later this privilege was denied to them. The first witness examined yesterday in the referee's court was Lee Congleton, of Madison county, a prominent lumberman, who said that he had bought stock in the company for the purpose of obtaining loans and later finding that the agent of the company had misrepresented the company's financial standing, and that they could not pay him the loans asked, he disclaimed being a stockholder and desired to be a creditor of the company.

J. B. Eads, next to take the stand, said that he had applied for a loan after being told by the company's agent that the company was prepared to loan $1,000 for each $100 worth of stock taken. He said he had paid 75 per cent of his stock subscriptions when he discovered that the company was insolvent; that the company's agent had made false representations to him and that the company's officials were receiving fabulous and enormous salaries. He then repudiated his contract and wished to be a creditor of the company, he said. Dr. Eads applied for $3,500 and offered as security a farm appraised at about $24,000, he testified.

Garman, and other prominent local Masons went to Louisville Monday to attend the annual session of the Grand Lodge of Masons of Kentucky. At this meeting Mr. Saunders will be honored with the highest position, secretary of Masonry, that of Grand Master, which his brethren here feel is well deserved in every way.

DRAMATIC ART CLUB

The Dramatic Art pupils of Miss Esther Whitley Burch were organized into a Dramatic Art Club at a meeting Thursday afternoon. The purpose of the organization is to develop in the student a knowledge of his own powers of expression and to bring the public in close touch with the work. Through the influence of Miss Burch and the efforts of the Club Henry L. Sorin, of the Emerson College of Oratory, will give readings here the first week in December. Those who had the pleasure of hearing Dr. Southwick last year will be even more anxious this year to hear him for he justly bears the reputation of being one of the most accomplished Shakespearean scholars and teachers of the present time. The Club for the present is working on several small plays which they will present to the public the middle of November. Mrs. W. K. Warner was elected President, Miss Ballard, Secretary, Miss Adams, Treasurer, and Miss Nancy Yeager, Press Correspondent.

WILL SPEAK IN STANFORD WEDNESDAY

EX-PRESIDENT THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

Beautiful Young Girl

Related and Beloved Here, Queen of St. Louis Carnival.

Th St. Louis Republic last week printed a very handsome picture of Miss Mary Jones, daughter of Breckinridge Jones, of that city, who was chosen Queen of the Velled Prophets' Carnival. This is one of the most notable social events of the season, and that Miss Jones should be chosen for the queen was considered very fitting and appropriate for she is one of the beauties of St. Louis and a great favorite in society. Her mother was a sister of Dr. Hugh Reid, Mrs. John B. Foster and Mrs. Bessie McKinney, of Stanford, and those who saw the picture of this beautiful young girl were greatly reminded of her mother, who was a Kentucky beauty herself, and beloved by all here and at her home in Missouri before her death a few years ago. The St. Louis paper said of Miss Jones and her qualities: Miss Mary D. Jones, newest Queen of the Court of Love and Beauty, was a vision of loveliness as she ascended the throne last night in a beautiful creation of silver cloth and cloudy tulle. The round, full skirt ruffled with the misty tulle was made after the prevailing style, each tier of tulle edged with tiny bands of misty tulle and silver with crystal and brilliants in attractive design. The long court train of broad satin was embroidered in a silver design of exquisite pattern and lined with cloth of silver. The whole majestic appendage, falling in the graceful sweep, depended from the shoulder. The tulle skirts, reaching to the waist, formed a beautiful flower, in the petals of which were brilliants glistening like dew drops. Over the train trailed a gorgeous coronation robe of ermine, the habiliments of her rank. Straps of brilliants encircled the snowy shoulders. The graceful young queen carried an immense cluster of purple orchids with streamers corresponding in shade to the delicate blooms. She was escorted to the ballroom on the arm of N. A. McMillan.

Another Wilson Club

Democrats at King's Mountain Getting Busy and Enthusiastic

King's Mountain, Oct. 17. A Woodrow Wilson club was organized here Thursday night, Oct. 15th, for the purpose of awakening the people of this community to the sense of their duty on Nov. 7th. Dr. C. M. Thompson was elected chairman and V. G. Gilliland, secretary. We now have an enrollment of over 50 members and will increase the number to 200 before election. We are sure of a large majority for Wilson here and by the help of some of the influential Republicans whom it is reported are also working hard for our country's Gallant Leader, we will with easy sailing show that we appreciate a good thing when we have it.

GARRARD FARM SELLS AT $123.50

James Rankin last week sold to G. V. Pence his farm of 165 acres located on Bright's Bend in the northern section of Garrard county at $123.50 an acre. Possession will be given the first of the year. This is regarded as a splendid piece of land, and sold right.

Heard About Town

Col. Henry George, keeper of the Old Confederate Home at Pewee Valley, who is spending several days at Crab Orchard Springs, was in this city Monday and paid the I. J. office an appreciated call. He was accompanied to this city by Capt. and Mrs. Willis and Col. John Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cones and little daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Boyd are making their headquarters here at the St. Asaph hotel for about three months, while the two gentlemen with Messrs. Tiffany and Conner are introducing the Elgin sewing machine in this section of the state. They came here from Lebanon.

Earl Withers has received letters from his brothers and sisters, Messrs. Dale and Les Withers and Misses Sallie Mae and Nettie Withers that they are nicely located at Redlands, California, near Los Angeles, where they will spend the winter. They went out for their health and like the country and climate fine. Both young men have secured nice positions in the large fruit packing houses, where top wages are paid.

Luke McLuke said in the Cincinnati Enquirer Sunday: The Q. & C. Bugs at Danville, Ky., secured a computing machine and set down to help Luke fill the column. They have figured out that if a man had placed a one-dollar bet on the game in which the Giants started their recent famous winning streak, and had bet his winnings back on the next game each day as the money doubled, up to and including the twenty-sixth game, would have won the insignificant sum of $67,108,864. Figure it out yourself if you don't believe it.

There will be a pie supper at the Neal's Creek school house Saturday night, Oct. 21. The proceeds obtained will be used to buy books for the school. Everybody is invited to come.

Killed In Auto Accident

One Danville Man Dies And Son Of Col. Dunn Is Badly Hurt

A horrible automobile accident occurred on the Danville and Lexington pike when a car turned over, killing one of the occupants, a young man named Robert Heathman and badly injuring the other and driver, English Dun, son of Col. and Mrs. I. M. Dunn. The Danville Advocate tells of the tragedy, which occurred last Friday night, as follows: Danville was thrown into great excitement Friday night not after 6 o'clock when the information was telephoned in from the home of Mr. John Baughman, on the Lexington pike, that a bad automobile mishap had occurred near his house. Several automobiles were at once dispatched to the scene to render every possible aid, but before they reached the place Mr. Lynn Turner, son of Dr. Horace Turner, and Mr. Stanley Dickson, of Paris, who were driving along in a car stopped and got the injured men into their car and rushed them to the City Hospital. Mr. Heathman, who was critically injured, expired just after he reached the hospital, only drawing one or two breaths. He never regained consciousness. His head was mashed in and it is believed also that his neck was broken by the terrible impact.

Mr. Dunn was found seriously hurt, though he had a gash over the eye that was stitched up and several other minor bruises. He will be all right in a few days, though he is suffering much from the great shock of his nervous system. It is not known exactly what caused the accident, except that Mr. Dunn, who was at the wheel was running at a terrific speed. The car, which turned turtle, was badly demolished.

Albert Heathman was the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Heathman, of Danville. Had he lived until the 8th of November he would have been 39 years old. He went to work for Mr. C. N. Smith at the age of 17 and had worked for him continuously for 21 years—a record that bespeaks industry. He was a very good man who had many friends. He was always kind and considerate of others and honorable in all of his dealings with his fellowman, and his death has caused genuine sorrow among them. His untimely death came as a great shock to the entire city. The funeral service was held Saturday afternoon at three o'clock at the home of his parents, on North Third street, and the interment followed at Bellevue cemetery. The service was conducted by Dr. F. W. Eberhardt. This is the first fatal automobile accident that has occurred near Danville, and consequently the people were not prepared for the shock. This is a sad lesson and let us all hope that a recurrence will never happen.

News of the Churches

Mid week service at the Presbyterian church on Wednesday night at 7 o'clock. The revival meeting to be held at Fairview Baptist church will begin Monday, Oct. 23., at 7 P. M. The meeting will be conducted by Rev. George Childress, pastor and assisted by Rev. George W. Owens, pastor of the Pleasant Point church—W. S. Cash, Clerk.

The Billy Sunday's Detroit meeting is one of the most marvelous ever held in this country. The "auto city" has been wild with excitement, and the largest tabernacle ever erected in this country for religious purposes has been crowded to overflowing and thousands have been turned away unable to get even standing room. It is said that, conservatively speaking, over 40,000 people heard Mr. Sunday in the tabernacle on Sept. 10th. The house was packed long before the time for the service to begin. Out of a population of 700,000 there are only 60,000 Protestant Christians.

Latest War News

Although the Rumanians have been unable to check the advance of the Teutonic allies in Transylvania altogether, determined counter attacks at several points have given them the advantage. German trenches in the Thoral region of France have been taken by the British, and near Guendourt the line has been advanced. Berlin admits these gains. The Serbians have made further gains along the Cerna, and the French have cut the railway line south of Ceres.

Sentences Cut Short

When Officials Remit Their Parts of Fines Against Women

Mrs. J. E. Johnson and Mrs. Mary Tyree, of the Waynesburg section, finished their seven days' term in the county jail here, for refusing to send their children to school, Saturday and were released on Saturday by Jailer DeBorde. Both women were profuse in their praise of the treatment accorded them by the popular jailer and his wife while they were in his charge. Their stay was cut a little short by the generosity of several of the county officials, who agreed to remit the balance of the costs which would have accrued to them as fees. Mrs. Welch interested herself in the cases on behalf of the women and secured concessions. It is probable that both women will move to Indiana. That Lincoln county is not the only county in the state where violations of the state's compulsory attendance law are being prosecuted is shown by the following from the Barbourville Advocate: "Thomas G. Hammons, county judge, has just issued forty-three warrants for parents and guardians who have failed to send children of the right age to the public schools in this county. He did this upon information furnished him by the teachers of the county. The laws of the State of Kentucky are very plain. Parents or guardians are made to pay the penalty if they fail to put the children under their charge in school."

Deaf Boys Too Heavy

And Defeat Stanford High School At Football by 50 to 6

The local high school football team was badly beaten by the Deaf boys last Friday afternoon. The Deaf boys had the heaviest team and piled up an enormous score. Notwithstanding the fact that the Danville boys won by a large score our boys were always fighting and put up a good game from start to finish. Several times during the fight it looked as if the Stanford lads were going to rally and kept the others going some to keep them down.

Barron, the star half back of the D. & D. eleven was the outstanding feature for them. He "bucked" the line for successive gains during many periods of the game and made the majority of the touch downs. Whenever the Stanford boys would get too close to their goal he would interfere and start things the other way. He was very hard to stop and made excellent interference for his team. All our boys played a good game but were a bit weak in interference. The backfield men played heroically but could not gain when there were not any holes. Captain Perkins at quarter played a good, hard fought game from start to finish and Manager Tucker at full hit the line with terrific force, for good gains, while the other backs, Anderson and Cash were conspicuous both in running and tackling. Noe, an end received a good pass and once broke through the opponents line and caught the backfield man who was fixing to throw a forward pass in his track. He afterwards was laid out and a substitute put in, which was a heavy loss to the team. Embury at the other end received good passes and made long gains with each of them. He received one pass in midfield and eluding about six of the opponents carried the ball within a few yards of the goal. Perkins then backed the line and the oval was placed over the goal and he broke through the line held stubbornly but a few being a bit light let their man through several times. They were good in tackling and many times the deaf boys failed to gain thru them. The deaf boys were very short of wind and had not been very long in the game but they broke through the men it might have been a different story altogether. Once when the ball was within a short distance from the goal and the local lads failed to gain on line plunges they resorted to a short pass over center, but Barron intercepted the pass and heaved it into the air and carried the ball about three-fourths the distance of the field before our boys were able to down him. Before the whistle sounded for the end of the game, the Deaf boys had 50 points to their credit while Stanford could only account for 6. The defeated, our squad played a good game and one that was worth seeing.

The next game of the season will be on the gridiron here, next Monday when they meet the Richmond Normals. The Richmond squad gave this team a bad beating up there in the first game of the season and the home boys have determined to take their number down here. They are as big as giants, averaging about 175, but the S. H. S. boys say they are going to walk all over them. Since their defeat at Richmond new material has been introduced and an entirely different line-up will go up against the boys from Richmond. This will be open of the best games this season so be sure and come out and see what a real high school football game is like.

HOW ABOUT THIS, BOB?

While in Cincinnati, Friday attending the Printers' Convention, Bob Elkin, of the Lancaster Record, complained to the police that his wife had been robbed of her purse containing $30, when stopping. If the story gets out in Lancaster that Bob had that much money at one time in his family nobody will ever say subscriptions again.—Cynthia Dem.

HOW CATARRH IS CONTRACTED

Mothers are sometimes so thoughtless as to neglect the colds which their children contract. The inflammation of the mucous membrane, at first acute, becomes chronic and the child has a chronic catarrh, a disease that is seldom cured and that many prove a life's burden. Many persons who have this loathsome disease will remember having had frequent colds at the time it was contracted. A little forethought, a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy judiciously used, and all this trouble might have been avoided. Obtainable everywhere.

TUCKER SCHOOL PIE SUPPER.

The pie supper at the Tucker school will be held on Friday night, after all and no change in date made. Mr. M. H. Johnson, the auctioneer, will help entertain the crowd with his humorous singing and whistling. The Highland singing class has been invited to sing too. The girls of the neighboring schools are especially invited to bring pies and know the boys will come with money. There will be a cake sold for the most popular girl.—Fannie Young, teacher.

The remains were taken back to her old home near Liberty church, over the Pulaski line for interment.

BURGLAR CAUGHT

YOUNG MAN MADE TWO ROBBERIES NEAR MAYWOOD.

Posse Trails Him to Town After Burglary of Store and Catches Him With "Goods On."

Some little excitement was caused in town Sunday afternoon when a posse composed of a number of well known citizens of the Cedar Creek and Maywood sections of the county trailed a burglar who had robbed the store of S. Logan Stephenson at Maywood Saturday night, to town and caught him in the barn at the rear of the residence of Spears Fisher on Creek Main street. The burglar is a young white man, about 21 or 22 years of age and gave the name of William Cunningham when hailed before County Judge Bailey, who placed him under $300 bond for his examining trial at the time he had been in the Reform School some time and as he had no one to care for him decided to shift for himself.

Two charges of burglary are held against Cunningham. Last Monday while Mr. Theo. Nolan, of the Cedar Creek section was in town, some one entered his home and stole a suit of clothes and other small articles. The suit which was taken from Mr. Nolan was found in a grip which Cunningham carried. No trace was found of the man who robbed Fisher on Creek Main street, but after the store of Mr. Stephenson at Maywood had been robbed Saturday night, neighbors received a report that a suspicious looking fellow had been seen on the railroad coming toward Stanford. He showed up at the house of Mr. Nolan, Mr. Henry Catron, and other gentlemen of that section organized an informal posse and started after him. They repeatedly found traces of him as they came toward Stanford. Cunningham evidently came in direct on the railroad. He showed up at the house of the fisher and it is believed spent the night in Mr. Fisher's barn. He begged something to eat and seemed famished. Mr. J. R. Powell noticed the man at the barn and thought he was acting suspiciously, so when the posse got in from Maywood Tuesday, he was there and they went to the place and caught Cunningham and brought him to the court house soon after noon Sunday.

An examination of his grip showed a lot of articles, jewelry, etc., which he had stolen from the Stephenson store. He had a number of keys in his pockets and seemed fairly well equipped in that line to obtain entrance most anywhere. The man seemed indifferent to his circumstances; in fact, many thought him not bright in mind and there was talk of a lunacy inquiry.

CELEBRATED FIFTH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Harry D. Frye entertained at her pretty home in the country Saturday afternoon from two to four in honor of her younger son, William Graham Frye, it being his fifth birthday. Many enjoyable games were played after which delicious ices and cakes were served. The house was beautifully decorated in lavender and white cosmos, the colors being carried out in the birthday cake. Mrs. Frye was assisted in entertaining by Misses Mary Lee and Elizabeth Givens, Miss Jennie Newland and Mrs. J. B. Fisher, of Lexington. The guests were: Dorothy Susan Newland, Lettie Elizabeth Newland, Verna Lutes, Cecil Beck, James Harris, Jr., Sidney Lloyd McBeath, James Bean, Jr., Ussery Lutes, Russell Lutes and Eugene Lutes. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Newland, Mrs. Alfred Easton, Mrs. James Harris, Mrs. Harvey McBeath, Mrs. James Bean, Mrs. B. G. Fox. Each guest departed wishing the little host many more happy years to come.

DANVILLE MAYOR DEAD

Within three weeks after the death of his wife, Mayor J. M. Wallace, 72 years old of Danville, died Sunday of heart disease. He was ill only a few days, and it is believed that the bereavement which befell him hastened the end. He had been Mayor for the past seven years. Mr. Wallace was a graduate of Center College. For forty-five years he was teller of the Boyle National Bank, but retired several years ago. He leaves no immediate relatives. L. R. and Samuel Burbank, of Louisville, are nephews. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, with burial in Bellevue cemetery.

BIG CROWD AT DANVILLE

Monday was court day at Danville and a big crowd was on hand. Quite a number of mules were on the market, but little cattle as Danville is not a live stock market. Mule colts sold up to $100, and aged mules which were in active demand, up to $210. The democratic speaking in the afternoon was very well attended and all left enthusiastic. Democrats of Boyle are wide-awake and under the leadership of Campaign Chairman J. W. Rawlings are leaving no stone unturned to give Woodrow Wilson a rousing old-time majority, which now seems very probable.
