TAKE NOTICE.

These Conversation Club will meet this week Friday night at Mr. and Mrs. Cartmell's house. The subject for discussion is "The Progress of the Negro Since the War."

Last Lyceum Entertainment.

Next Monday night, March 11th, at 7:30, the last number of the Winter Lyceum Course will be given in the College Chapel. It will be a dramatic recital of Shakespeare's "Macbeth" by Prof. James Watt Raine. This recital was arranged for about a year ago when it was expected that Prof. Raine would have to come from his home in Riverhead, New York, to give it. All lovers of good literature, of Shakespeare or of real dramatic art will want to make use of this rare opportunity. It is sure to be one of the finest entertainments of the year. Single admission 35 cents, children 20 cents.

Mrs. R. M. Moore returned to Hamilton, Ohio, Sunday, after an extended visit with her mother, Mrs. L. C. Gabbard.

Miss Allie Fowler returned from Cincinnati last Saturday.

Ask Your Own Doctor

If he tells you to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for your severe cough or bronchial trouble, then take it. If he has anything better, then take that. But we know what he will say; for doctors have used this cough medicine over 60 years.

"I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for hard colds, bad coughs, and influenza. It has done me great good, and I believe it is the best cough medicine in the world for all throat and lung troubles."—ELI C. STUART, Albany, Oregon.

Edna Jeanette Maupin, daughter of F. C. Maupin of Berea, Ky., was a nurse in the Long Cliff Hospital in Logansport, Ind., where, Tuesday, February 19th, she was married to Mr. Stearns of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Coddington wish to express their sincere thanks to friends and neighbors for their kind sympathy and assistance in connection with the final sickness and death of their mother, Mrs. Blazer.

Appreciations of Professor Raine.

Mr. Raine rendered selections from Shakespeare which met with the heartiest appreciation; showed unusual versatility on the part of the reader and a wide departure from the ordinary work of this kind.—Republic Times, Springfield, Ohio.

Our community enjoyed a rich treat in the rendering of Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice" by James W. Raine. It was so nearly a reproduction of the entire play that omissions would not be noticed. If Mr. Raine visits us again there will be a rush to hear him.—The Pantagraph, Richmond, Ky.

Passing of Mrs. Blazer.

Mrs. Anna Maria Blazer, the eldest daughter of Rev. Samuel Mains, died last Saturday night in her 77th year. She was married in August, 1852 to Mr. John Blazer, united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1854 in Ross county, Ohio, and afterwards, January 3, 1904, with the Union Church in Berea.

Two brothers and one sister survive her: Dr. L. M. Mains of Seymour, Ind., Maxwell Mains of Wyoming and Mrs. M. E. Coddington of Roanoke, Va. Eight children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Blazer, seven of whom are living.

New Mail Route.

We are glad to state that a new mail route has been approved and service on it will commence the 16th of this month. In an examination held in Richmond some time ago, Buritt Gabbard received the highest grade and he will be appointed carrier.

A great many people will receive excellent service by this route. The mail will leave at 6 a. m. and it is hoped the carrier will get back in time to catch the noon mails on the trains. The route is about 23 1/2 miles long.

Collection for Colored Baptist Church.

The First Baptist Church (colored) of Berea held their regular monthly meeting Sunday, March 4, with a grand baby rally. Thirty babies were represented by the different families. Both Thomas Palmer's baby was the champion baby and collected $9.00; the second baby, of Brother M. Ballard's family, $8.17; the third baby, Mr. B. Rice's, $5.01; the fourth baby, Mr. J. Walker's, $4.66. The thirty babies raised a collection of $63.60; general collection, $5.12; total collection, $68.72. REV. H. C. BAKER, Pastor. JAMES A. WEST, Clerk.

All Sea Food Good to Chinese. The Chinese will eat anything that comes out of the sea. All the fishes are good to their taste, and are caught with great skill. Seaweeds are used to thicken soups, gravies and puddings, and are highly prized because they give the relishing flavor of salt, which is a luxury to most Chinese peasants.

The Nerve of Him.

Junior Clerk—Young Jenkins, our invoice clerk, is the cheekiest beggar ever I came across. He was a quarter of an hour late in coming in this morning, and our governor held up his watch as a hint, you know, but Jenkins merely said: "What a beautiful watch, sir; I wish I had one like it."—Short Stories.

Don't Be a Rainbow Chaser!

"How did you get your bag of gold, my friend?
To me your wealth is truly quite surprising."
"I did not chase it at the rainbow's end;
No, sir—it came through constant ADVERTISING.
Success will be a dream, a bunch of vapor,
Unless you patronize your local paper."
