NOTE THE DAY!

The Fall Term of Berea College Begins Sept. 11.

The time to start is in the fall.

New Arrangement with College Treasurer.

The Treasurer announces a slight but important change in his arrangements. Instead of settling for board, and pay for labor done by students, by the month, he will hereafter settle "by the half term." This makes one less day of settlement, saving his time and the time of the student. And this means that on the opening day students must pay for half a term's board (7 weeks in the fall) instead of five weeks board. See College advertisement in another column.

Who is W. A. Cope?

Mr. Cope, one of the candidates for the Republican nomination for state representative, was born April 13th, 1879, in a log cabin in Jackson county. His home has been a log cabin all his life. He was left an orphan at the age of eleven, but was determined to get a good education. When eighteen years of age he walked five miles to school every day to save board and at ten in the winter. At twenty-two he obtained a second grade certificate and taught two years, then obtaining a first grade certificate, which he now holds both in Madison and Jackson counties. He and his sister, whom he assisted in getting her education, have both been students of Berea College. He is a personal friend and fellow student in Berea of Mr. Dean, the other candidate, and does not expect that friendship to be lessened, whichever wins the nomination.

Mr. Cope says: "I realize that the next legislature will be one of great importance and if nominated and elected I shall do all I can for the mountain people and especially for the man between the plow handles."

MAPS HELP A MAN SLEEP.

Mental Geography the Best Soporific. According to a Drug Clerk.

A haggard-looking man strolled into a drug store the other day and asked the druggist for help. He said he had trouble in getting to sleep when he retired. No matter how sleepy he might be during the day or how much sleep he might have lost, the moment his head touched the pillow he was wide awake and lay thus for several hours. Once asleep, he was hard to waken, but he had to be up at a certain hour, and in consequence of his peculiar affliction he was losing more sleep than he could stand. The drug clerk regarded him quizzically a few moments and then replied: "My dear man, you don't need medicine. What you want is something to change the trend of your thoughts. Do as a friend of mine did. He was troubled the same way and found that the old folks' plan of imagining sheep passing a barrier and counting them was out of date. So he began trying to name all the states in the union. He soon got them so he could classify them alphabetically. Then when they no longer interested him he started on the counties of this state. He now has them at his tongue's end, classified up to the fourth letter. Now he is starting on state capitals and their locations; then he will take up county seats. A moment's glance at an atlas during the day shows him when he is wrong, and the beauty of the plan is that he rarely has to think along these lines longer than ten minutes before he is sound asleep. To make it short, the study of geography is a good narcotic."

POINT HAD BEEN PROVED.

No Need for Young Man to Carry Experiment Further.

A young man who had inherited a large fortune from a rich but very economical relative decided to live on a scale commensurate with his greatly increased income, and was making arrangements to build a fine mansion, buy an automobile and invest in other expensive luxuries, when an elderly friend who had always been one of his advisers undertook to remonstrate with him. "What's this I hear about your squandering the money your uncle left you, Harry?" said the elderly friend. "I am not going to squander it," he answered, "but I'm going to get some good out of it." "It's enough to make him turn over in his grave. Didn't your uncle prove in his own case that a man could live on a personal expenditure of less than $1,000 a year?" "Yes." "Well?" "Well, he proved it so thoroughly that I accept it as demonstrated. What is the use of my continuing the experiment?"—Youth's Companion.

To Encourage Thrift.

A New York man has just patented a device for the encouragement of thrift. It consists of a toy savings bank with a clock attachment. The clock is set in the face of the bank and cannot be wound unless a dime is dropped in the slot. As winding causes the time to fall into the vault and the clock will run but 24 hours without rewinding the contrivance assures an accumulation of 70 cents a week. The theory is that the necessity of depositing a dime every day will lead to slipping in other coins at odd moments and thus establish a habit of saving.

THE CITIZEN, Berea, Ky.

TO NEW FRIENDS.

The Citizen wants you for a subscriber. If you had been reading it a few months, you would not be willing to be without it. But we are so sure that after you have had it a year you will keep on taking it, that we will give you the first year almost for nothing. That is we will give you a splendid 75-cent "Trapper" two-bladed, razor-keen pocket knife and the paper, one year for $1.00. Or if you will send us $1.50 we will send you the book "The Mountain People of Kentucky" by Wm. B. Haney, and the Citizen for one year. The price of this book alone is $1.50. Or, we will send the life of Christ, called "Jesus of Nazareth" by Dr. Wm. E. Barton, a splendid book with over 300 pictures, which would cost you $2.50 at any book store.—This large beautifully bound book we will mail to any new subscriber or to The Citizen and send The Citizen one year for only $1.75. The postage alone on this book costs us 30 cents.

TO OLD FRIENDS.

We expect you to keep on taking The Citizen because you like it so well.—because you can't do without it.—But as some of our old friends say: "We have never had any of those fine premiums you are giving to new subscribers—you ought to let us have a share of them," so we give old subscribers, who pay for a year ahead any time before their subscription runs out, or not more than one month after it runs out, one copy of The Good News Testament (authorized version) 120 of the best known and finest gospel byrons, 12 secular songs for home and social and patriotic occasions and over thirty scripture lessons especially good for convert or responsive reading in home or church.—Or if you want to get one of the premiums we offer to new subscribers, send $1.75 if you want the knife, $1.50 if you want The Mountain People of Kentucky or $1.90 if you want Barton's Life of Christ.

HOW TO PAY FOR THE CITIZEN.

The price of The Citizen is $1.00 a year in advance, 60 cents for six months and 35 cents for three months. Have a check on a bank or a money order at the Post Office made out to The Citizen, Berea, Ky., or send the money in a registered letter. If it is sent in other ways it may be lost.

WHEN YOUR TIME RUNS OUT.

If you will look at the address on your paper itself or on the paper in which it is wrapped you will see below a date printed like this: 1 JULY 07

That means that your paper is paid for up to July 1, 1907, or whatever the date is. When the time runs out, we plan to send a renewal blank to each subscriber to remind him that his time is out and save him time in sending us his money for the next year. But no one needs to wait for this. After you have sent money for another year, see if the date on your paper is changed to a year ahead. If it is, that means we have received your money and marked you paid for another year. If it is not changed please write us after two or three weeks so we can find out what is the matter.

HARD TASK FOR TRANSLATORS

Much Ingenuity Called For in Compiling Bible into Zulu.

In the words of the Reverend C. W. Kilbon, the true missionary aims to repeat the saying of his Master, "The words which thou gavest me I have given unto them." He may preach and explain, but the people must be able to search for themselves. Utimately he must leave the Bible in the language of the people to whom he has been sent as the foundation upon which his work must rest. Strongly convinced of this, the Bible Society, working in Natal, South Africa, began the translation of the New Testament into Zulu. It was almost a task of despair. The mental capacity of the Zulus was of the lowest order, and they had practically no terms to express spiritual truths. There was no proper word for "God," and, of course, none for such abstract terms as "faith," "holiness," "worship," "conscience," "honesty," etc. A spiritual vocabulary had to be created and existing words applied to material things had gradually to be twisted around with an ingenuity truly amazing. But at last the Zulus possessed a complete Zulu Bible in one volume which was available for the millions of African savages who ranged from the borders of Cape Colony on the south to the shores of Lake Nyassa on the north, and from the Indian ocean on the east to the western borders of the Transvaal, and into Rhodesia on the west.—William George Fitz Gerald in the Circle Magazine.

Wise Uncle Eben.

"I ain't got no patience," said Uncle Eben, "wif de kind o' patience dat consists in jes' sittin' down comf'able an' waitin' foh good luck to strike you."

Always Had Kick Coming.

This old lady was a hypochondriac. Her various diseases interested her, and she talked of nothing else. One day a visitor found her eating heartily and inquired as to her health. The invalid sighed and answered: "I feel very well, ma'am, but I always feel bad when I feel well, because I know I am going to feel worse afterward."
