MEMOIR.

In Memoriam of our mother Mrs. Mary Davis. The reaper has once more visited the home of Richard Davis, cutting down the ripened grain, and removed his wife, Mary Davis. She was born Jan. 28, 1845 and in May 24, 1862 she was married to Richard Davis. Together they traveled life's pathway hand in hand sharing its sorrows and joys for forty-seven years. To them were given five children, two boys and three girls, one little one having passed on to the better land while only a baby.

In 1843 she became converted and united with the Baptist church, ever after keeping in touch with her Saviour and striving to live before her family and friends a life worthy of imitation. Bravely and cheerfully she bore her affliction showing forth in her last hours the true spirit that carried her through the trials and troubles of a long and useful life. Just at the morning of March 25 with her loved ones gathered around her, her spirit went back to the God who gave it not alone for the Saviour has said, "I will never leave thee nor forsake thee." The singing at the funeral was exceptionally sweet and appropriate. The casket was tenderly borne to the grave followed by a large number of friends and relatives and the body laid to rest there to wait the resurrection morn.

CALL MAN LIAR SAME AS FIGHT.

Georgia Court of Appeals Makes Official Ruling in Damage Suit. Atlanta, Ga., March 16.—To call a man a liar in the State of Georgia is a breach of the peace and means a fight, declares the state Court of Appeals in a decision handed down today. The lower court, which refused damages to W. M. Rumsey, who sued

Absolutely Pure

W. A. Bullard for $100 damages for breach of the peace for calling him a liar, is reversed, the opinion by Judge Powell concluding:

"Being to the manor born, the judgment of this court take judicial cognizance of the fact that in Georgia to call a man a liar, even without threatening him with a weapon, most generally means a fight. There may be exceptions to this rule, but they are exotics and find little nourishment on Georgia soil and under southern skies."

Speaking of volcanoes, earthquakes and other great convulsions of Nature, it may be well to remember that there are some things even more destructive; witness a tale that is told of an occurrence during the earthquake in Charleston, South Carolina, several years ago.

A resident of the shaken city, while he felt that his duties required him to remain there and do what he might for the sufferers, sent his six-year-old son out of the danger and confusion to the youngster's grandfather in New York. Three days after the boy's arrival the Charleston man received this telegram from his father: "Send us your earthquake and take back your boy."

Ordinary hard luck never ruins people. It puts them in a mood to learn a thing or two. Everybody makes mistakes. With some it is a regular occupation; but to make a mistake and wall about it is to make two.
