WAWCO SPECIAL SELF-FILLING FOUNTAIN PEN

Wawco Pens are made by skilled workmen from high grade material. The pen points are solid 14K gold, tipped with hard iridium. They are hand tempered, hand buffed and smooth writers. The scientific construction of the feed or ink conductor carries the ink to the point in just the proper amount. The subcapillary ducts retain moisture at the pen point and prevent the ink from flooding. The automatic filling device is of the visible compression button style. The direct button controlled pressure upon the bar, gets a full supply of ink by simply dipping the point in the ink, depressing the button and releasing—no muss, no fuss, or soiled fingers—simplicity, convenience and cleanliness. The most practical and reliable pen ever offered to the public. Every pen has the "Wawco" unlimited guarantee in the box with the pen.

BEREA BOYS IN EUROPE

Messrs. Karnosh and Sellers, recent graduates of the college, are traveling in Europe this summer according to a card received from them postmarked Sittard, a town on the boundary between Holland and Germany.

Both of these boys were interested students of Prof. Robertson's class in Modern European History and now have an opportunity to observe events at first hand.

Mr. Karnosh comes of an Austrian family and has relatives living there, whom he probably intended to visit, if the critical condition of affairs permits.

UNION CHURCH NEWS

Next Sunday the Pastor will preach on "The Crime of War."

Mr. Hudson will preach at Harts next Sunday.

The topic for Christian Endeavor is "Who is Free." John 8:31-36.

Next Sunday Mrs. Roberts will speak at Blue Lick.

The members of the Union Church have taken up the prayer meeting Thursday night to attend the revival services at the Methodist church.

BEREA FRIENDS IN GERMANY

Travel abroad is not all pleasure this summer. Perils and inconveniences spring from the European war. Miss Lucy Roberts with Miss Beach, who spent last August with Dr. and Mrs. Roberts are in Germany with a party from the University of Wisconsin, studying. No news has come from them since the outbreak of the war.

Other friends in Germany are Jos. Elkinton and wife, who were in Berea a year ago. Also Messrs. Sellers and Karnosh who has relatives in Austria.

BEREA FAIR A GRAND SUCCESS

The fine weather; the intense interest; the good will of the people; the excellent display and amusements all together made Berea Fair this year the best in its history.

The show rings were well filled and but little time lost between because of the promptness of judges and participants.

The Colt Futurity Ring was an interesting one it being the second year for this.

The poultry show was new for this year and much interest was taken in it.

Another, year it is hoped there will be suitable quarters for floral hall, and poultry show.

It is being advocated that the grandstand and show ring be moved without the race course making it far better for viewing the races and rings.

Good order prevailed throughout the entire fair. Premiums were awarded to the entire satisfaction of all. The races were all well filled and fine.

FOR SALE

Two lots on Jefferson Street, Berea; would consider an exchange for other values. Address, L. F. Davoll, Cedar Bluff, Va.

for some uncompleted work would have been graduated in June. After a summer of hard work he appeared to have grown almost "weary of well-doing" and it was with much pleasure that his friends witnessed his final reward in the reception of a diploma. Instead of delivering the usual "oration" Mr. Bowman read two of his own poems of which much complimentary might be said. In order that the program might not seem unusually short, Dr. Raine, in answer to request, read several selections from Browning. The Berea Summer school was highly praised and thoroughly discussed in a short talk by Mr. Victor Raphael. Mrs. Roberts gave a very interesting narrative on the Bahama Islands. Two beautiful and appropriate solos were well rendered by Mr. Gordon Imrie. Quite a number of students and townfolks attended.
