Farmer of Lexington are visiting friends and relatives of this place for a few weeks.—Misses Jewell and Opa McGeorge of Ravenna are spending a few days with their grandmother, Mrs. George Amyx, of this place.—Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Welch have moved to the Martin Cook place.—Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Thomas spent Thursday with Mrs. Stephen Farmer.—Mrs. Mattie Simpson is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Frost.

Nathanon

Nathanon, Oct. 12.—The school fair that was held at this place recently was successful. The day was beautiful and the sun slightly shaded, by misty clouds, so the people suffered no great amount of heat. The fair was conducted in open fields. The music of the air was mostly produced by the hundreds of voices that rang forth from under those many school banners—the children singing their spirited songs and squalling their snappy yells. This was a great day for "Old Union School" at this place. She won $31.75. Rah, rah! for Union.—Mrs. F. D. Caudill has been visiting relatives at Brock, Ky., for the last week.—Miss Orga Caudill has been visiting relatives at Nathanon, Ky.—Charley McWhorter and family are visiting their many friends and relatives at this place.—Jeff Hoskins and his two daughters, Lena and Emma, of Conway, Ky., and his son, Leonard, of Middletown, O., have been visiting relatives and friends in Jackson county. They spent a few days with relatives at Nathanon, Ky.—T. H. Hurst has had typhoid fever for two weeks, but is on the mend now. Everybody else is well in this neighborhood at this writing.

Carico

Carico, Oct. 15.—Our singing school teacher failed to come today.—There was a box supper at Flat Top church house last night and the thirteen boxes brought $25.40, which will be put to the benefit of the church house.—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Branstetter a fine girl.—Mr. and Mrs. Elihu Roberts returned from Indiana last Friday.—All remember our regular meeting time, the first Sunday in November.—Robert Summers has purchased the John Shelton farm.—We are having fine weather at present.—Hurrah for The Citizen. Send us another good old pioneer story.

Bond

Bond, Oct. 10.—The long continued drought has at last been broken and we are having some good rains.—The Laurel River Association of Missionary Baptists met with the Green Hill Baptist church last Friday. The delegation was very large and the meeting progressed nicely.—Baldwin and Tinsler closed an eight weeks' successful singing at Pigeon Roost Sunday, October 1st. There was a large crowd present and the singing was splendid.—Mrs. Monroe Pennington died at her home in East Bernstadt, Sunday night. Her body was brought back to the old Nichols cemetery near here for burial. Mrs. Pennington was formerly of Pigeon Roost and her many friends and relatives of this community are sorry to hear of her death. She leaves a husband and three small children and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. We wish to express our heartfelt sympathy for her husband, her children, and her widowed mother in their sad bereavement.—A. P. Turner has just returned from a visit to Hazard.—Delbert Price is back home again after spending the summer in Indianapolis.—A new Baptist church, house and Masonic hall is being built at Annville, near here, by Henry Tinsler.

"Do you care for grand opera?"
"No," said Mr. Dubwaite. "I'm afraid I'm not equal to it. I know there must be times when grand opera stars express joyous emotions, but all I've ever heard sing seemed to be terribly sorry about something and I couldn't find out what it was."

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 22

JESUS TEMPTED

LESSON TEXT—Luke 4:1-13.
GOLDEN TEXT—For in that He Himself hath suffered being tempted, He is able to succor them that are tempted.
—Heb. 2:18.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Psa. 25:14; Heb. 2:16-18, 4:14-16.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Overcomes Temptation.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Tempted to Do Wrong.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Overcoming Temptation.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—What Christ's Victory Means to Us.

I. The Place of (v. 1).

The wilderness of Judea. The first man, Adam, was tempted in a garden with the most pleasant surroundings. The second man, Jesus Christ, was tempted in a barren wilderness surrounded by wild beasts (Mark 1:13).

II. The Purpose of (v. 1). He was led into a wilderness by the Spirit. Christ's temptation was Messianic. Though He was "tempted in all points like as we are," we are not tempted as He was in this instance, but the same methods are employed on us. During the eighteen years of retirement Satan surely tempted Christ as he tempts us. Satan, no doubt, would have gladly escaped this hour, but the time had come for the Redeemer to enter upon His mediatorial work; therefore He went from the place of anointing and heavenly recognition as the Son of God to meet and despoil the arch enemy (Heb. 2:4).

1. It was not a preparation for His work, but rather its first conflict. In baptism we have the symbolic act of dedication of himself to the work of redemption through the cross—the making full a righteousness. In the temptation, the strong man is spoiling the enemy.

2. It was not to see if Christ would stand fast—would fall under the most crucial test. Christ could not fail. To so postulate would make God's scheme of redemption to have been unsettled until after this temptation, and would have made God guilty of setting forth a scheme of redemption on the basis of a possible overthrow.

3. It was to show Christ as an object upon which we may rest our faith with unshaken confidence. He came as the second Man, the head of a new race, its very source and life. It was a demonstration of the inseparability of the divine and human natures in the incarnation.

III. The Method of (vv. 2-12). Christ as the world's Redeemer sustained a threefold relation—Son of Man; Son of God; and Messiah, therefore Satan made each one a ground of attack.

1. As Son of Man (vv. 2-4). Satan made his first assault upon Him as a man by appealing to the instinct of hunger. Satan urged Him to use His divine power and convert a stone into bread. Hunger is natural and sinless. The temptation was in satisfying a right hunger in a wrong way. To have yielded in this case would have been to renounce the human limitations which He had taken for our sakes. To use divine power to satisfy human needs would have been to fail as Saviour and Redeemer.

2. As Messiah (vv. 5-8). Here the temptation was to grasp His rightful dominion by false means. The devil offered to surrender unto Him the world if He would worship him. The force of this temptation was in the fact that the kingdoms of the world are Christ's by God's covenant with Him. God's method by which Jesus was to possess the world was the cross. The temptation Satan is pressing upon the church today is to get possession of the world by other means than the cross.

3. As Son of God (vv. 9-12). Here Satan tries to induce Christ to presume upon God's care. He quotes a Messianic Psalm to induce Him to so act. To do the spectacular thing in order to get notice is to fall into Satan's temptation. For Jesus to have placed himself in danger in order to get God's special help in delivering Him would have been to sin. To put one's self in moral and spiritual peril in order to test God's faithfulness is to sin. Satan is never quite so dangerous as when he quotes Scripture.

IV. Christ's Defense (vv. 4, 8, 12). It was the Word of God. He met and repulsed the enemy with "It is written." Our defense is God's Word. May every Sunday school teacher know how to use it!

V. The Issue (v. 13). Satan is vanquished. If we will but trust God and use His Word we too can overcome.

Superior and Inferior. You may fail to shine in the opinion of others, both in your conversation and actions, from being superior, as well as inferior to them.—Greville.

Faith. Now faith is the substance of things to be hoped for, the evidence of things that appear not.—Hebrews 2:1.

The Lord's Day. Ye shall keep my Sabbaths and reverence my sanctuary; I am the Lord.—Leviticus 19:30.

RED CROSS PUTS UP $9,739,872

Year's Budget Stresses Relief and Services at Home and Overseas.

MILLIONS FOR VETERAN AID

Over $3,000,000 Allotted to the Disabled—Foreign Work Lessens.

Washington.—Expenditures totaling $9,739,872.47 for carrying through its program of services and relief during the fiscal year in the United States and overseas are authorized in the budget of the American Red Cross, effective July 1, 1922. This total is $2,735,975 less than the expenditures for the last fiscal year, when disbursements reached $12,475,847.69, it is announced at National Headquarters in a statement emphasizing the necessity of continued support of the organization by enrollment during the annual Roll Call, November 11-November 30 inclusive. This total for the budget is exclusive of the large financial operations of the 3,300 active Red Cross Chapters, which, it is estimated, will more than double the total.

War Veterans Have First Call

First call on Red Cross funds is for the disabled ex-service men, of whom 27,487 were receiving treatment from the Government on June 1 last. This work for veterans and their families in a wide variety of service that the Government is not authorized to render and for which it has neither funds nor facilities has the call on $3,030,692.90 during the current year, or about $366,000 more than was expended last year for soldier service. Adding the funds disbursed in this humanitarian work of physical reconstruction following the World War by the Chapters throughout the country will approximate a total for the current year approaching $10,000,000. This work, in the opinion of the Surgeon General's office, will not reach its peak before 1926.

Through its Chapters the American Red Cross is equipped to find the individual ex-service man, help him in his problems and difficulties, provide immediately for his necessities, and open the way for him to the Government compensation and aid to which he is entitled. The extension of this work to the families of such men proves to them that the Red Cross has lost none of its sympathy nor will to service manifested in wartime. Similarly the service goes out to the men still in the Army and Navy, 11,087 of whom were under treatment in Government hospitals on June 1, 1922.

Greater Domestic Program

This year—after five years of constructive effort during the war and after the armistice—brings with it a greater responsibility for domestic service to the American Red Cross. The budget for foreign operations, however, totals $5,404,000, but of this amount $1,834,000 is for medical relief and hospital supplies for Russia, which is a part of the gift made by the American Red Cross in 1921 to the Russian famine relief work of the American Relief Administration program. The child health service in Europe continues, moreover, and $654,000 is appropriated for this work undertaken in 1920. Other items in the stringently diminished foreign program include $200,000 to support the League of Red Cross Societies, $22,000 for nurses' training schools instituted by the Red Cross abroad, and $600,000 for liquidation of the general Red Cross foreign relief program.

Prepared for Emergencies

For disaster relief the Red Cross has set aside $750,000, and for emergencies in Chapter work $500,000 to be available for domestic, insular and foreign demands. This is more than $395,000 above last year's expenditures. For service and assistance to the 3,300 Chapters and their branches $1,233,000 is provided by the National organization.

Other budget items of importance in the domestic program include $200,000 for assistance to other organizations and education institutions for training Red Cross nurses and workers; $180,000 for Roll Call assistance furnished to Chapters; $100,000 for unforeseen contingencies.

Of the total budget less than $500,000 is allotted for management in the National organization. No cash estimate, of course, is possible to weigh the value of the service by volunteers in the Chapters.
