FEW DESERTIONS FROM THE SCHOOL

Plan by Which Great Trouble is Overcom in Paducah

Majority of Grammar Graduates Enter High School and Continue Course.

BY A SIMPLE EXPEDIENT.

A problem which has been bothering school men in cities had been overcome by the Paducah school authorities. It is the question of how to keep pupils from leaving the schools after grammar grades have been finished and the pupils promoted to the High School.

The year we have few to leave the grammar grades and not go into the High School. It is a result, that we feel proud of, and for which we have worked hard.

This afternoon the trial of John Curd against the Louisville and Evansville Packet company is on trial. He sues for $340 damages to a printing outfit he claims was roughly handled by the company in transporting it from Louisville to Paducah.

People and Pleasant Events

Kentuckian at Washington.

Mrs. Piles the handsome young wife of the senator from Washington, both Kentuckians, after a return from a visit to her old home in Henderson, has left with her three children for her present home in Seattle. Mrs. Piles was Miss Sarah Bernard of Henderson, which calls to mind the fact that there are five native Kentuckians in the United States senate—Senators Blackburn and McCreary, Senators Piles, of Washington, Stone of Missouri, Cullom, of Illinois. Also, there are five living ex-governors of various states whose native place is Madison county, Kentucky.

Senator Sam Piles is a Smithland boy and is closely identified with Paducah, he went West, however, before his father Mr. S. H. Piles, and family moved to this city.
