

HOW GAME SHOULD NEVER BE PLAYED

Demonstrated at Wallace Park Yesterday Afternoon.

Fine Exhibition of Errors, Fumbling and Dumbness Puts Paducah Fourth.

LEADERS COME HERE TODAY

Team Standing table with columns for Team, W, L, and Pct.

Yesterday's Results. Jacksonville 6, Paducah 2. Danville 6, Vincennes 5. Cairo 2, Mattoon 2.

Today's Schedule. Danville at Paducah. Jacksonville at Mattoon. Vincennes at Cairo.

An exhibition of perfect fumbling, booting and error making in general was given at Wallace park yesterday afternoon between the hours of 3:30 and 5:15 o'clock.

The groans and moans were audible to the corporate limits of the city, many squares away, and fans in town knew what was happening even from the action of the little birds in the air.

The exhibition was systematically worked up, and while little was seen in the first few innings, the inevitable came and had the contest not been called early—before it was finished—the error column might have gained a little more in weight.

The story is too long to tell, but began by McCauley, a new-comer to the reservation, letting a grounder go by him. McClain seemed to have suddenly contracted the same disease and the leather sphere went sailing to the fence.

McClain returned it as fast as he could and McCauley took the throw. He placed the ball square into the back of Tommy Copeland, the runner, and the throw helped knock the runner onto home plate.

Paducah players always were generous, and the compliment and unexpected service was highly appreciated by the Belittes. We heard them say so.

There were one or two other innings in which erroneous playing featured, but the story can be told in the summary.

The summary: Jacksonville ab r bh po a e Copeland, lf . . . 5 2 0 2 0 0 Livingston, rf . . . 4 9 1 2 0 0 Ebright, 2b . . . 4 0 0 0 2 0 Hughes, 1b . . . 4 1 0 11 0 0 Goutshaw, cf . . . 4 1 1 1 0 0 Engel, 3b . . . 2 1 1 1 3 1

A Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and anti-ferment.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherrybark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system.

Sick people, especially those suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held strictly private and sacredly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound copy.

*The game was called in the eighth inning with two men out, the visitors having to catch the 6:45 o'clock train.

Cairo Takes Third Place. Cairo, Ill., June 8.—In a sixteen inning contest yesterday with Hostlers the locals won out. It was done with two hits and two errors.

The locals made hits enough to win several games, but the team work of the Hostlers kept the locals from winning in the early stages. Cairo ran bases like dummies, too, and this helped some.

The score: R H E Mattoon . . . 2 5 8 Cairo . . . 3 16 5 Batteries—Dowell and Schissell; Bergyhill, Wagner and Searles. Umpire—Wilkinson.

Danville Wins—Veach Discharged. Vincennes, Ind., June 8.—The visitors made it three straight from the Hoosiers. Holycross did the work for Danville by making a scratch hit with two down. Both pitchers worked slowly and were easily found as will be seen by the hits. Veach was discharged the day before and Fleming, the pitcher, held the indicator.

The score: R H E Danville . . . 6 12 1 Vincennes . . . 5 11 1 Batteries—Selby and Quless; Whitley and Matteson.

Oh Me, Oh My! We expected to hear something go off in Cairo when the Barons took third place, but King Jaggs was rather mild today. Maybe he forgot the Indians altogether in his ecstasy, but anyway we expected to receive more attention from the welder of the "facile, strenuous pen." He says only this: "Cairo now occupies third place, her side partner, the Dog Eaters being tumbled off the perch yesterday by Belt's Lunatics."

Groans and Wailing. Tadlock will work for the Indians today and Christman for the Danville bunch.

Lloyd says that he has several deals on for players who can hit. The fact that the Indians are hitting the toboggan so fast is causing the fans a great deal of worry. The game yesterday in which several of the players seemed to "lay down," is bothering Lloyd. As a general rule the Indians work together and play hard ball, but something seems to have gone wrong. It "is not to kick," but the fans do wish some one would do something.

Is This Balm for Wounds. "The Old Soldiers open at Paducah tomorrow and Chief Lloyd is preparing to pull them from first place. If the Indians can get the start to winning there is no telling what they will do. Those who are counting Lloyd's men out of the race will have another think coming before the month is at an end.—Vincennes Capital."
