Handsome Nashville Dinner Party.
 Tuesday's Nashville American has the following notice of an entertainment to Rear Admiral J. V. B. Bleeker and Mrs. Bleeker, who will arrive in Paducah today to visit Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Friedman at "The Pines."

"Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Parks gave a handsome dinner Monday evening, complimentary to their guests, Rear Admiral J. V. B. Bleeker and Mrs. Bleeker, John S. Bleeker, who is to wed Miss Anna Parks on July 3, was present, and with his fiancée received cordial congratulations from the guests.

"The party included, in addition to the honorees: Mrs. Robert Phillips, of Paducah, Ky.; Mrs. Houston Fall, of El Paso, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Eastman, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Watts and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Montgomery.

"The table, in yellow and green, was decorated after an artistic and original plan, with nasturtiums, filling six cut-glass receptacles. They were placed in an octagon, alternating tall brass candlesticks, with yellow candles. The confections and all the table accessories were in yellow, and bouquets of ferns tied with yellow ribbon were on the side-board. The menu was in eight courses. Decorations of pink cannas and pink roses were used in the drawing room.

"Mrs. Parks received in ivory crepe flowered in lavender and trimmed with pointe de Alencon.
 "Mrs. Bleeker wore a handsome imported toilette of black silk net over white chiffon satin, trimmed with insertions of lace and jets.
 "Miss Parks wore becomingly, a pink silk mull princess gown, combined elaborately with lace; and her sister, Mrs. Fall, wore a rich gown of Colonial yellow embroidered chiffon over white silk.

"Mrs. Phillips, of Paducah, wore white chiffon mull and Val lace, with a white silk sash."
Start On Their Honeymoon.
 Miss Ada Stephon, the charming daughter of Phil Stephon, of Broadway street, the well known grocer, and Jacob Henry Petter, son of Frank Petter of Broad street, were married Tuesday evening at Paris, Tenn., by the Rev. William Bourquin, of this city, and started this morning on their honeymoon trip, which will consume several weeks. The young couple went to Paris Tuesday morning, accompanied by the minister and the ceremony was performed in the Caldwell house. They returned to Paducah that night. Their trip will include visits in Louisville, Cincinnati, French Lick, Owensboro and Henderson.

Parks-Bleeker Wedding Invitations.
 Invitations have been received in Paducah today as follows:
 "Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Parks will give in marriage their daughter, Anna Webb, to Mr. John Stearnes Bleeker on the evening of Tuesday, July the 2d, 1906, at half past seven o'clock, 1718 West End avenue, Nashville, Tenn. The honor of your presence is requested."
Enjoyable Evening.
 A very pleasant boating party was enjoyed last evening. After a trip around the island with lunch on the sand-bar, the party returned to town and the evening was finished with music at the Hills home on North Ninth street.

Theatrical Notes

At the Casino.
 Manager William Malone, of the Casino, announces that he will continue the bill of the past few nights all this week. It is "Life for Life," a clever comedy-drama. Its reception the fore part of the week, notwithstanding the weather, and the counter attractions, has been good and Mr. Malone has had a number of requests to continue it the balance of the week. The stock company at the Casino this year is above the average and the class of plays being put on are good. While the attendance has not been as good as it would have been, but for the unseasonable weather, the patronage has been very fair.

Manager Malone's other attractions at the park have been receiving fair patronage, and Wallace park rapidly is becoming a great amusement resort. Since the many improvements, the attendance has increased and is doing so all the time. Every afternoon there are a number of picnic parties out for supper and the theater afterwards and this feature, too, is growing in favor.

Mr. George Crouse, of Gettysburg, Pa., has accepted a position as prescription clerk at McPherson's drug store. Mr. Crouse is a classmate of Mr. George Du Bois, graduating this year from the Philadelphia School of Pharmacy.

Maj. M. Bloom, who was stricken with paralysis in St. Louis, while visiting his daughter several weeks ago, is reported no better.
