

All Next Week the Sale Goes On

It holds sway, and only the lowest prices prevail all during the time at LEVY'S, 317 Broadway.

The prices on black or gray or plaid skirts are much lower than they can be had at another time. The prices of Linen Suits, Skirts, Spring or Summer Coats are less than we paid for them by far, and the way we are selling White Mohair Skirts is a caution.

This is our last summer sale and all next week will be one of good things and rare bargains at

ALFRED BEIT'S WILL

Gives Much to Government—Famous Pictures Are Bequeathed.

London, July 21.—It was announced today that the will of the late Alfred Beit, the South African millionaire, leaves property known as Borslers, Jager, near Hamburg, to the city of Hamburg, to be held for the people. If this is not practical, the city is authorized to realize on the property twenty years after Mr. Beit's death and apply the proceeds to charitable purposes in the state of Hamburg, the maintenance of the property to be defrayed by the revenue from the hotel on the property. The proceeds of the sale of surplus timber, is to be devoted to charitable or educational purposes. The picture, by Sir Joshua Reynolds, of "Lady Cockburn and Her Children" is left to the British National Gallery, and Reynolds' picture "Mistress Hoone and Her Daughter," and other art treasures are left to Berlin and Hamburg, and to the College of Technology, connected with the London University the sum of $250,000 and 1,000 $12.50 shares in the DeBeers company are bequeathed.

IMPROVE INDIAN SYSTEM.

Time Is Ripe for Such a Move, Says Secretary Morley.

London, July 21.—In introducing the Indian budget in the house of commons today Indian Secretary Morley sounded a warning note on the necessity of excluding India from the field of party politics. The most engrossing of Great Britain's foreign relations, he declared, were the Asiatic those involving this country with China, Japan and Russia, which was a great Asiatic as well as European power. Any false step in India would send Great Britain in a confusion infinitely more dire and more disastrous than had the false step taken in South Africa. "India's case in the free trade controversy can be put in a nut shell," he declared, "Her prosperity and comfort, the growth of her trade and commerce, the solvency of India hang upon her exports. The United Kingdom takes 25 per cent. of her exports while Europe and the far east take 5 per cent."

WORK OF TRAMPS.

Wagons Perforated With Holes and Two Bodies Found in Wyoming.

Cheyenne, Wyo., July 21.—The mystery of the finding of two deserted wagons perforated with bullet holes and stained with blood, with the mangled remains of a man and a boy, has been partially cleared by the identification of the victims as Archie Irvine of Cestos, Okla., and his son, Thomas, who were traveling from Baker City, Ore. The murders, it is believed, were committed by tramps. Mrs. Irvine shortly before the murders were committed left the party and went by train to Oklahoma.

GROUND BROKEN.

For Independence Hall on Site of the Jamestown Exposition.

Norfolk, Va., July 21.—Ground was broken today for the new independence hall at the site of the Jamestown exposition. The building will be an exact reproduction of Independence Hall at Philadelphia, and will be Pennsylvania's building at the exposition. It costs $22,800, and is constructed as a permanent building, that probably will be presented to Virginia at the close of the exposition.

Malicious Shooting Charge.

William Morgan, residing near the Illinois Central incline, was arrested today on a warrant charging malicious shooting with intent to kill. J. H. Oisup alleges that Morgan shot at him with a shotgun, but missed because his wife knocked the gun up. Patrolmen Hill and Long made the arrest, and Morgan is in jail unable to give bond.
