ANNOUNCEMENTS.
The Sun is authorized to announce D. A. Cross as a candidate for Police Judge of the Paducah Police Court, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, Thursday, September 20.

The Sun is authorized to announce E. H. Puryear as a candidate for Police Judge of the Paducah Police Court, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, Thursday September 20.

THE PARENTS' DUTY.
An early morning rap at bedroom doors that have been undisturbed all summer long; a hasty word of warning; suppressed excitement in the home; an unwonted stir on the streets; war-whoops and childish laughter at the noon hour, and the presence of a multitude around a grim-looking building, that has stood silent and lonesome since late in June—school has opened.

The September procession has begun. Sad looking boys with "shining morning faces"; long-legged girls with new ribbons in their hair; first termers with big red apples for teacher; pleasant faced school ma'ams, fresh and bright from their summer studies—all go up to the school house.

Father goes down into his pocket. But he does it with, perhaps, the most commendable expression of any of them. He doesn't count. He is supporting the school and the teacher and the boy and the whole system; but he is only glad that after the clash of personal desires and the wrangle of factional discord, the Paducah schools are open with a full complement of teachers.

The question is now, after they have seen who will teach their children this year and have purchased the books and sent the children off in the morning, will the parents take any further interest in the schools? How many will visit the rooms where their children spend half their childhood, the work-shop where their children's minds are shaped, and make the acquaintance of the instructor, investigate the sanitary conditions under which their children exist during these school hours; meet the superintendent and principal and show to everybody connected with the schools that they take as much interest in the care and keeping of their children as they do in the care of their horse? No man in Paducah would turn his horses over to a livery stable keeper without frequently making personal investigation of the condition of the stable.

There are many ways in which the parents can help the teacher. In the first place they can train the children properly before sending them to school. They can see to it that the children study, and by interesting themselves just a trifle in those studies, ascertain how the children are getting along.

There should be complete harmony between the home and the school room, and the reasonable demands of the teacher should be enforced at home. This can only be perfected by the parents meeting the teacher, superintendent and principal often and acquainting themselves with the system of teaching.

There is no doubt that the parents will be met more than half way.

COL. WATTERSON ON DREAMS.
The Courier-Journal likens Bryan's "public ownership fad" to Tom Johnson's "amiable fancy" about single tax—a flock on the disk of a most luminous and practical intellect, and adds that, "Tom Johnson would make a first-class president." "Iridescent dream" is another description of this monumental folly of the "Peerless," given by Henry Watterson, who continues with, "Imprudent but impractical, a real threat to no living thing, a needless superfluity, hurtful, perhaps, to Bryan, as a candidate, and to the Democratic party."

At the end of his side-step, Col. Watterson regains his feet and says something. Bryan's "public ownership fad is hurtful to no living thing," because—it is hurtful to Bryan as a candidate and to the Democratic party. So hurtful is it that Bryan never will have a chance to use the influence and power of the executive department to foist this "iridescent dream," this "amiable fancy," this "fleck on his intellect," this "imprudent but impractical" scheme on the United States.

Editors all over the country delight in a rough and tumble exchange of blows with the doughty editor of the Courier-Journal, and Col. Watterson probably never before in his career stationed himself so fairly in front of an antagonist with his guard down, as he did when he endorsed Bryan before the "Peerless" had made a speech. Col. Watterson's reach is long, but his legs are short. He is accustomed to standing squarely up to his antagonist, exchanging blow for blow. When he side-stepped this time he lost his balance. It was not necessary for him to go to the length of endorsing Tom Johnson for president in order to square Bryan.

The executive chair of this great nation is not a comfortable thing to dream in.

Again the Sun finds itself on the winning side. The Sun took sides with no party in the unfortunate factional fight in the school board, except the side of the Paducah public schools, and spoke only when it was apparent that the interests of the schools were being lost sight of in the desire to triumph. The Sun all along has called on the members of the board to get together, elect teachers for other positions and arrange some plan for settling the English department muddle. That finally was done, but it might have been done sooner.

Paducah finished the Kitty league season four numbers from the pennant and three numbers from the consolation prize. Early season games robbed the home team of any chance to figure in the race for last place. Perhaps a post season series with Mattoon might settle some doubt, or would it be post-mortem.

If Deboe et al had dared the fates and not headed off the nomination of a Republican candidate for congress, we, of the First district, might at least have enjoyed the fun of smoking out Ollie James on the question of government ownership of railroads.

Governor Folk, of Missouri, is reported to be too ill of slow fever to participate in political demonstrations, but in view of Bryan's approaching visit to St. Louis, his disease has more the appearance of a chill.

The Cuban congress has been called in extra session to meet the present crisis in the republic. This call will necessitate the presence of most of the insurgent generals at the capitol.

According to the government report the only wages that have not been relatively increased in proportion to the number of hours employed in the last decade are the wages of sin.

Bryan got back at those Illinois Democrats by repudiating their endorsement, but he didn't score them any harder than they scored him by sustaining Sullivan.

Elevator Allowance.
A hearing on the matter of elevator allowances by various railroads will be held in Chicago on the 17th instant by the interstate commerce commission. The hearing is likely to develop some important features.

Mr. H. A. Peiter went to Eddyville and Kuttawa today on business.

HELPING HIM OUT.

"It lacks something, somehow," said the artist. "Seems to me it would look better with a figure in it somewhere!"

"Right you are," said the bull; "that's what I was thinking!" (And he put a figure in it.)

WIFE'S FALSITY

KEPT SECRET BY HUSBAND FOR SAKE OF CHILDREN.

Now Files a Suit for Alienation of Affections to Recover $50,000 Damages.

New York, Sept. 10.—William P. Rivers, proprietor and manager of the Knap mansion, Brooklyn, brought suit today to recover $50,000 damages against Everett E. Wheeler, a wealthy horseman of Williamsburg, for the alleged alienation of Mrs. Rivers' affections. According to Rivers, there was for eight years an agreement between the two families to keep secret, for the sake of their children, the true relations that existed, while appearances of happy domestic life were kept up.

Mrs. Rivers for five years has occupied apartments in one side of the Knapp mansion, while her husband had rooms in another part of the building. Although they seldom spoke to each other in private, they frequently went to dinners and theater parties together, Wheeler accompanying them.

Wheeler has been a daily visitor at the Knapp mansion for more than five years, Rivers said, and several times each week took Mrs. Rivers out to dinner and to theaters. Accompanied by friends they took trips to various sections of the country. In order to keep the family secret hidden, Rivers said he often went driving with Wheeler and Mrs. Rivers, although he never spoke to either of them when they were out together.

North Atlantic Fleet.
When the North Atlantic fleet completes its target practice and maneuvers it will be sent south for a winter cruise, prior to which, however, the ships will rendezvous at Hampton Roads for repairs.

An Assistant of Nature.
One of the most interesting things of this day of interesting things is the great success being achieved by osteopathy.

There is hardly a day that some cure which is deserving of attracting much attention, is not made by this new science, and the more it is studied, and the better it is known, the easier it is to see why it is so.

Osteopathy merely aids nature to cure.

It is a system of healing built upon demonstrable facts.

It discovers the cause of disease, and treats it by scientific manipulations in order to correct disorders and bring about a natural condition. Nearly all diseases yield to the treatment, and the diseases local to Paducah do so most readily.

In rheumatism, liver and bowel, or stomach troubles, chronic headaches tired-out, run-down conditions, nervousness, its success has been very marked.

I should like to have you call to discuss your particular case at any time, and not only will I tell you frankly what osteopathy will do for you, but refer you to well-known Paducah people whom it has done much for.

BIGGER HALE

SENT TO REFORM SCHOOL FOR STEALING WHEEL.

Circuit Court Still Engaged in Grid of Criminal Docket—New Suit Is Filed.

Bigger Hale, 15 years old, colored, was this morning in circuit court sentenced to two years in the penitentiary for obtaining money by false pretenses, but the court on account of his youth made it three years in the reform school. Hale took a bicycle and sold it. He had been in jail several weeks pending the sitting of the last grand jury, and when the grand jury convened he pretended to eat a lot of glass. The county physician said he had taken no glass.

Frank Crane, a well-known young man of the south side, has to stand trial for desertion from the United States navy. This action was taken in circuit court this morning when United States Deputy Marshal Wade Brown appeared with the necessary papers. Crane has been out of the navy for several months, and it was only after he was arrested on a felony charge that the government took the matter up.

Crane is alleged to have assaulted George Bayne, steward on the steamer Charles Turner, and robbed him of about $14. The evidence is purely circumstantial, but it is a strong case. Crane was here to attend the bedside of his mother, who has been precariously ill, and was out of the navy on a furlough. He wore his service uniform during his trial in the examining court before he was held over. The grand jury indicted him but Commonwealth Attorney John G. Lovett agreed to surrender him to the government, his furlough having expired. Marshal Wade Brown will take the prisoner to Norfolk, Va., today. Crane is of the Franklin.

D. Grace, colored, was given three months in the county jail for assault and battery today. He was alleged to have struck Will Arnold in the face with a fence rail. He was originally charged with mayhem.

F. E. Graves, an attorney, was fined $5 for contempt of court. He arrived late and delayed the court.

Will Wilkerson and Gene Cecil, colored, are on trial this afternoon charged with robbing Will Smith of clothes. They are the negroes who are alleged to have taken a suit of clothes from the boy, the boy being a delivery messenger for the Pantorium, a clothes pressing concern.

Edward Engert's Will.
The will of the late Edward Engert was filed for probate today in county court. The deceased held an insurance policy in the Michigan Mutual Life Insurance company for $1,000 and this is the only item specified in the instrument. He leaves it to his daughter, Mary Engert, and appoints Mrs. Mary Trantham and Will Engert, sister and brother, executors. In event of the death of his daughter before her majority, the amount of policy is to go to the brother and sister.

Suit for Divorce.
George W. Allman filed suit against Elsie G. Allman for divorce. They were married in October, 1900, and separated in August. They went back together after a former divorce suit but separated again.

Court Notes.
G. W. Murphy and J. T. Hill were excused as petit jurors and H. W. Hills and J. Q. Thompson substituted.

J. H. Derrington, C. A. Coleman, S. B. Gholson, T. E. Ashby were excused this morning as petit jurors and J. W. Katterjohn, C. C. Lee, J. M. Pryor and J. M. Engert appointed to succeed them.

Will Smith and Isaac Morion, witnesses, were fined $2 this morning for failing to be at court on time.

Miss Irene Fowler, stenographer for County Judge R. T. Lightfoot, was this morning made an examiner.

BURTON DEFEATS DICK FORCES

Gains on the Senator in the Ohio County Fight.
Cleveland, Sept. 10.—Indications based upon returns from all counties that today chose delegates to the Republican state convention to be held at Dayton next week point to an interesting fight between the forces of Senator Burton, Burton routed the Dick Element in Cuyahoga county and secured the adoption of a platform that will be submitted to the state convention, declaring for the retirement of Senator Dick as chairman of the state executive committee. Burton claims he will have the support of Cuyahoga, Franklin, Montgomery, Summit, Erie and enough other counties to give him encouragement in the outcome of the fight for the dethronement of Dick.

Dick lost Summit, his own county. The convention, held at Akron, Burton's home, refused to endorse either him or Senator Foraker. Dick, himself, led the fight for endorsement on the floor of the convention. Dick's defeat in Summit and Cuyahoga counties was the most notable development of the day.

HELD UP BY MEXICAN.

Galveston Fisher Makes Complaint to State Department.

Washington, Sept. 10.—The state department has received a dispatch from the manager of the Gulf Fisheries company, seeking protection for American vessels fishing in the Gulf of Mexico. This is caused by the fact that the Hatteras, a fishing smack belonging to the Gulf Fisheries company, upon her arrival at Galveston yesterday from Mexican waters, reported being held up by a Mexican gunboat on August 25. Armed Mexican marines boarded his vessel, says the captain required him to show his papers and to display a part of his cargo of fish, which he said had been caught in the open sea. Subsequently the department will investigate.

AFTER ASSAILANT.

Of Two Women Wilmington Mob Is Searching County.

Wilmington, Del., Sept. 10.—Brutally beaten by a negro, Mrs. Beatrice Franklin and her daughter are seriously ill, while an armed mob is scouring the country for the assailant. Mrs. Franklin and her daughter were driving last evening when a negro sprang from behind a clump of trees and with a rock rained blows in the women. He dragged the daughter from the carriage and threw her into bushes. Miss Franklin fought desperately and finally the negro fled.

Chicagoan Kills Himself.
Chicago, Sept. 10.—Clarence K. Webster, vice president of the People's Gaslight and Coke company, and prominent in club and social circles, committed suicide today at his home in this city by cutting his throat with a razor. Mr. Webster is supposed to have been insane. About three weeks ago he suffered from heat prostration.

Mrs. M. J. Han and Mr. William Hall, of Bloomington, Ill., left today for eastern Kentucky, after a visit to relatives here.

GROWER MURDERED

IN TOBACCO BARN

Shot Through Head and Body By Persons Unknown.

Body Discovered by Family Late Saturday Afternoon—Robbery Not Motive.

CALLOWAY COUNTY EXCITED.

Murdered by some mysterious enemy who emptied a revolver into his body, Richard Knight, a prominent tobacco grower of Calloway county, was found Sunday afternoon lying stark dead in his tobacco barn, several hundred yards from his home, near Sharon, on the Tennessee river. Little is known of the tragedy, except that the money and valuables on the person of the dead man were undisturbed, showing that robbery was not the motive of the assassin or assassins.

Mr. Knight went to his tobacco barn about 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Two hours later members of his family went in search of him and found his body. One bullet had gone through the man's head and four through his body. They were all fired from a large caliber revolver. Knight was 35 years old and married.

The murder has created great excitement in the county and bloodhounds may be placed on the trail of the murderers. Calloway county has a great deal of trouble over tobacco and this is not attributed to these disturbances, the fact that he was a tobacco grower has heightened the excitement.

DEATHS OF A DAY

Mrs. Martha Gray.

Mrs. Martha Gray, 86 years old, died at the home of her son, Mr. J. J. Gray, four miles from Paducah on the Mayfield road, Saturday. She had been gradually declining for several weeks. She was born in Clarksville, Tenn. and had resided here about one year. She is survived by seven children: Samuel, F. L. and Ira Gray, Clarksville; J. J. Gray and Eugene Gray, this county; Mrs. Elizabeth Ramage, of Smithland, and Mrs. Sophia McVellus, of Nashville. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, burial in the Munyon cemetery.

Rudolph Thomas Streit.

Rudolph Thomas Streit, the three-months-old son of Mr. Rudolph Streit, of Tyler, died this morning of inflammation of the bowels. The funeral will be conducted this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the St. Francis de Sales church. The interment will be in Mt. Carmel cemetery.

NO DOUBT ABOUT IT.

Independence League Will Nominate Hearst.

New York, Sept. 10.—W. J. Connors, proprietor of the Buffalo Courier and the Buffalo Enquirer, today said he had been circulating a letter addressed to the Independence League, asking that organization to postpone action at its coming convention. Bosses have been knocked out in many Democratic conventions, said Mr. Connors, and there is no doubt now that Mr. Hearst will be nominated by the Buffalo convention on September 25.
