Atlanta, Ga., March 14.—Colonel John Temple Graves, editor of the Georgian, was assaulted in the street today by J. H. Crutchfield, who recently was tried here for attempted assassination of Mrs. Crutchfield. Crutchfield, reaching for his hip pocket, warned pursuers not to follow, and escaped. He was arrested later. Graves was not seriously hurt.

HILL WOULD SELL TO NATION.

Declares Willingness to Have Government Take Great Northwestern.
Minneapolis, March 14.—President James J. Hill, of the Great Northern railroad, declared before the Sunday legislative committee today with out qualification that he would be only too willing to have the United States government take over his road. He stated further that if the government should go into the railroad business it would be nothing short of a lottery and the country would, as a matter of fact, have an "elephant" on its hands.
"Then," said he, "the government would be obliged to engage in another lottery to get rid of the elephant."
"If the government had charge of all the railroads in the country," he said, "congress would be kept busy making appropriations night and day and the districts with poor representation and sparse population would be left in the lurch."
Attorney Manahan asked what it would cost the government to secure control of the Great Northern. Mr. Hill replied that it would cost upwards of $40,000 per mile to "reproduce" the Great Northern, not counting expensive terminals, docks and other property. Counting all of the property, he said, it would be about $60,000 per mile.

SALT LAKE CHIEF OF POLICE HELD TO CRIMINAL COURT.

Salt Lake City, Utah, March 14.—Judge Whittaker today held Chief of Police George G. Sheets to answer to the criminal division of the district court on charges of conspiring to defraud tourists by protecting gamblers.
Chief Sheets was arrested about two weeks ago with Detective George Raleigh, and both were charged with accepting protection money from a band of gamblers. W. H. Parrent, who confessed that he and his associates had made a practice of entangling men into card games and then swindling them, was the chief witness against Sheets. Parrent declared that he and his associates had paid to Chief Sheets $100 a week for the privilege of operating their games in Salt Lake City. The case that brought matters to a crisis was the complaint of Alexander and William McWhirter, who charged that they had been robbed of nearly $10,000 in a card game.
Besides Chief of Police Sheets and Detective Raleigh seven other men are charged with complicity in the conspiracy.
"And how," she asked, "did you know that I had never been married?"
"I heard you discoursing so eloquently on the rearing of children," —Chicago Record-Herald.

Interest in Professor Clark's Coming.
The Woman's club is meeting with much encouragement in the sale of tickets for the dramatic recital of Professor S. H. Clark, of the University of Chicago, here on March 20. It is being recognized as the distinct literary event so far in Paducah annals, and many accustomed to keep Lent most strictly are allowing themselves latitude in attending the occasion that they would not for theatrical events.
Prof. Clark in January gave five studies of the drama based on "King Lear" to the members of the Noonday Rest club of Chicago, which is composed of working women. A review of the lectures says in part:
"Professor Clark is a great reader. He is not an elocutionist. He reads understandingly and his voice, with its rich, mellow and sympathetic cadences, puts his audience at once in harmony with the theme."

Come and hear 'Dixie,' 'The Bonnie Blue Flag,' 'Maryland, My Maryland,' and one of the best features will be Joe Manigram's 'Mocking Bird.' Guy Freeman as a grand seignior, Ernest Fall as a Spanish don, N. G. Cooke and Rob Caldwell in their particular stunts will be well worth seeing."
