The Week In Society.

EN ROUTE.

"What is the road to a maiden's heart?
Tell me the way,
Traveler gray,
Whither to journey and whence to start,
Answer me truly, pray!"

"Start from Life's beach, and climb the hill
That crowns the bay
Of childish play,
Skirt the Lake of Dreams and cross the Hill
Of Laughter ere you stay.

Turn to the right by the trusting stile
In the meadows gay
With scented hay
That is made 'neath the sun of a maiden's smile
Of sweet and transient ray.

And tho' it rains, yet must you not Let fond dismay
Your quest betray,
For love will mope will she ensnare,
And her face is an April day."

"Then will you not lead me, pilgrim old,
Lest I should stray"
"Ah, stranger, nay!
My path lies in December cold,
Your path is thro' the May!"
—Edward Gilchrist.

Society Entertained for Visitors.

In honor of Mrs. Charles Q. C. Leigh, of Chicago, Mrs. Mildred Davis entertained the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Broadway Methodist church at her home, 629 Kentucky avenue, on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Leigh formerly was a member of the society, and she gave an interesting talk on the missionary work in her Chicago church. This was followed by a report from Mrs. Frank Dunn on the annual conference of the society. Ices and cakes were served for the refreshments.

Park Supper.

In compliment to their guests, Miss Stella Karges, of Evansville, and Miss Alice Baecoe, of Cairo, the Misses Marjorie and Florence Mammen, of South Fifth street entertained at Wallace park on Wednesday evening with a picnic supper. Boating and other attractions of the park were enjoyed. The party was composed of: Misses Stella Karges, Alice Baecoe, Ruth Kaebeg, Antoinette and Christy Kolb, Ethel Seamon, Rubie Kolb, Katherine Rock, Dora Vogel, Katherine Steinhauer, Marjorie and Florence Mammen; Messrs. John Rinkliffe, Alvin and Frank Petter, Harry List, Chester Kerth. The party was chaperoned by Misses Pauline Roth and Rosa Kolb.

German Thursday Evening.

The German club gave the second summer dance at Wallace park pavilion on Thursday evening. It was a delightful evening, the German being danced and led by Mr. James Langstaff. Hillman's band played. Attending the dance were Messrs. and Mesdames Victor Voria, Will Webb, Edward Bringham, John Barringer; Mesdames O. L. Gregory, C. B. Hatfield, L. S. Gueves; Misses Faith Langstaff, Jeanette Petter, Robie Loving, Nella Hatfield, Lillian Gregory, Gene Morris, Hazel McCandless, Dorothy Langstaff, Mary Cave, Philipe Hughes, Elsie Hodge, Helen Hills, Henri Alcott, Willie May Rascoe, Elizabeth Sebre, Florence Loeb, Majorie Loving and Garnett Buckner; Messrs. Charles K. Hay, of Danville, Ky.; Warren Sights, Clay Kidd, James Langstaff, Chas. Rieke, Sam Hughes, Roscoe Reed, A. Y. Martin, Philo Alcott, Will Rudy, Milton Wallerstein, Will Baker, Robert Guthrie, Charles DeWorthen, J. B. Wenger, Stuart Sinnott, J. W. Thomas, Robert Wallace, Will Rinkliffe, Douglas Bagby, H. C. Foss and Dr. I. B. Howell.

Surprise Wedding Announced.

After keeping their wedding a secret for nearly nine months, Miss Christine Peterson, of Minden, Neb., and Mr. James Adam Murray, of this city, announced their marriage to friends today, which took place in Milwaukee last September 28. The announcement came as a complete surprise to their friends, as the news had not leaked out. Mr. Murray's mother and sister did not know of the marriage until two weeks ago.

Miss Peterson was on a visit to relatives in Chicago last summer, while Mr. Murray was engaged on construction work. On Saturday afternoon, September 28, they quietly went to Milwaukee and were married at 1:45 o'clock in the Cavalry Presbyterian church by the pastor, the Rev.

William E. Graham. The witnesses were sworn to secrecy, and the couple returned to Chicago. Mr. Murray returned from Chicago in January, and he and his bride will reside in Paducah.

The bride is a petite blonde, and a splendid type of the western girl. She is well educated and her happy disposition has endeared her to a wide circle of friends. She will find a hearty welcome in her new home. When married she wore a becoming traveling suit of blue.

Mr. Murray is one of Paducah's best young business men, and socially he is one of the most popular. He is the secretary and treasurer of the Paducah Brick and Tile company, and a trustworthy young man. He is the son of Mrs. John Murray, of South Seventh street.

Mr. Murray will leave this evening at 6:15 o'clock for Chicago to meet his bride, and they will return Tuesday to Paducah to reside. They will make their home at 1433 South Tenth street.

Card Party for Visitors.

For the pleasure of Miss Hazelle Johnson, the attractive guest of Miss Saidee Smith, Mrs. Roy W. McKinney entertained at cards on Wednesday evening at her home, 1912 Jefferson street. Field dainties were featured in the decorations, which carried out a color scheme of yellow and white. Orange ice and white cake continuing the idea, were served. Postcards suggesting Cupid were used for the rally cards and the prize was a bunch of white carnations. Invited to meet Miss Johnson were: Miss Hazelle Johnson, Hickman; Misses Helen Van Meter, Mary Cave, Elizabeth Boswell, Saidee Smith, Margaret Carnegie, Martha Cope, Gladys Coburn, Catherine Donovan, Dorothy Langstaff, Catherine Quigley, Lucia Powell, Elizabeth Kirkland, Rebecca Smith; Messrs. Jim McGinnis, Frank Donovan, Robert Fisher, Reuben Bagby, Gregory Harth, Gus Elliott, John Donovan, Will Powell, Clyde Warren, George Wallace, Will Bell, James Langstaff, Edwin Randle and Master Cooper Weeks.

Summer Outing.

Several society boys and girls planned and carried out one of the most pleasant summer diversions this week in a trip up the Tennessee river on the steamer Clyde. They left Wednesday evening and will return Monday evening. The girls are members of the "Sewing Bee" and carried material with them for fancy and plain sewing. Mrs. R. Coleman, of 1625 Jefferson street, chaperoned the party which included: Misses Blanche Hills, Belle Cave, Ethel Brooks, Lillie Cole and Winstead, May Owen, Bella Coleman and Fannie Coleman; Messrs. David Koger, John Brooks, H. C. Foss, Fred Wade, Hank Dewey, Frank Boone, Walter Iverson and Wallace Well.

Taylor-Blackburn.

For beauty of detail the wedding of Miss Audrey Gertrude Taylor and Mr. Clifford Blackburn on last Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. M. E. Ham, 313 North Sixth street, was notable. The Rev. G. T. Sullivan, of the "Broadway" Methodist church, performed the ceremony.

The house was elaborately decorated for the occasion. Preceding the ceremony Mr. Frank Cheek sang "Because," and Miss Ruby Lamb played the Mendelssohn wedding march for the processional. Miss Taylor wore white chiffon over taffeta made with a train, and trimmed in lace and satin bands. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Caroline Ham, the maid of honor, was attractive in pink Japanese silk embroidered in pansies. She carried a bouquet. Mr. Ross Bell was best man, and the bride's brother, Mr. J. W. Taylor, gave her away.

Little Miss Dorothy Thomas assisted Dr. Sullivan in the ring ceremony. She was dressed in white with pink sash, bows, shoes and stockings. After the ceremony the bride and groom were assisted in receiving line by Mrs. Fannie Taylor, mother of the bride, Mrs. Charles Frederick and Miss Kate Grogan. Misses Claire St. John and May Fredrick served punch and Mr. Roy Gresham kept the guest book, assisted by Miss May Frederick. A reception was given later at the Palmer House, and the couple left at 1:20 o'clock over the Illinois Central for Louisville and Cincinnati, and upon their return will live at 919 Clay street.

Beautiful Home Wedding.

In a home wedding of much charm, Miss Jeannette Campbell, daughter of Judge and Mrs. James Campbell, of 219 North Seventh street, was married last Monday morning at 11 o'clock to Mr. Horace W. Shinn, by the Rev. W. E. Cave, of the First Presbyterian church.

Miss Campbell wore a gown of white muslin trimmed in lace, and was married without a veil. The only attendants were Mr. James Campbell, Jr. and Mrs. Campbell, who acted as best man and matron of honor. The relatives of the couple and intimate friends witnessed the ceremony.

Following the ceremony a course luncheon was served to the bridal party and invited guests. The decorations carried out a beautiful color scheme. At 6:10 o'clock in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Shinn left over the Illinois Central railroad for Chicago on a wedding trip, and on their return they will live with Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell, Jr., at their country home in Arendia.

Flag Day Party.

Flag day was appropriately remembered in a party given on Monday afternoon by Miss Lettie Smith and Mrs. Clarence Bennett to the members of their primary department classes of the Broadway Methodist church. Miss Smith's lawn and house were decorated in cut flowers and potted plants with red, white and blue bunting, and United States flags in profusion. A real cherry tree was on the lawn with a hatchet illustrating the well-known Washington incident. The children were served with ices and cakes for refreshments.

Mrs. Bennett read a selection, "Our American Flag." Misses Mary and Anna Smith sang a pretty duet, followed by Miss Lucy Moore, who told "The Story of the Flag." Miss Lucyette Soule sang a solo, "Hail to Old Glory," and Miss Mary Byrd played a piano solo composed of a medley of national airs. A recitation, "The Flag of Betsy Doss," was given by Miss Ruth Johnson and the children joined in a chorus, singing, "America." Souvenirs of small flags were given to each guest.

Evening Party.

For the pleasure of the young people in their neighborhood, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leeder, 924 Clay street, entertained on Wednesday evening with a delightful party. The house was decorated in green and white and refreshing ices and cake were served. The guests were: Misses Hallie Ross, Nola Hall, Stella Ross, Bessie Lou Watts, Lizzie Moore, S. L. Jackson, Myrtle Adams and Messrs. Mac Brogan, Charles Heardy, Rupert Robinson, Athol Robertson, Joseph Goureloux, Will Kenzie, Mrs. L. Snyder was chaperone.

Miss Smith Entertained Club.

The A. B. C. club was the guest of Miss Saidee Smith on Tuesday afternoon at her home, Fourth and Harrison streets, in a party given in honor of Miss Hazelle Johnson, of Hickman. It was a lawn party with green and white decorations, in which the popular daisy predominated. Summer refreshments of ices and cakes were served. Attending the party were: Misses Catherine Quigley, Martha Cope, Helen Van Meter, Mary Bondurant, Lucycette Soule, Irma Yelzer, Florence Loeb, Dorothy Langstaff, Mary Cave, Helen Hills, Helen Powell, Lillian Abbott, Gladys Coburn, Catherine Donovan, Elizabeth Boswell, Julia Dabney, Mamie Bauer, Ethel Sights, Margarethe Carnegie and Mrs. W. K. Coolidge, of Memphis.

Off to Shiloh.

Another pleasant river trip was arranged by Mrs. John Dorian for a number of the pupils of her school. The party left Wednesday evening on the steamer Clyde for the Tennessee river trip, and will make the Shiloh national park and battlefield their special destination. In this they will study historically. In the party were: Misses Marcelline Budde, Margaret Lydon, Jessie Gourieux, Avery Gourieux, Elizabeth Robinson, Nellie Grogan, Emma Creemeens, Mary Dorian, and Mesdames B. B. Bradley, Katie Weltlauf, Lulu Bright, Kate Grogan, and Messrs. Pat Edward Grogan, Conroy Dorian, Charles Dorian, Will Isaman, Fowler Post and Radford Campbell.

Casino Concert Tonight.

Mr. Richard Scott and a company of Paducah musical talent will be seen in an entertainment at the Casino, Wallace park, this evening for the benefit of the First Christian church. The evening will be featured by an original vaudeville sketch by Mr. Scott and Mrs. David Flournoy.

Soloists With Band.

Accompanying Innes' band will be several prominent soloists who make the concert more interesting by their work. They are: Miss Virginia Listemann, soprano, heard with the band last year; Blaine De Sellem, contralto; Signor Zara, baritone; Signor Pezzetti, tenor, and H. J. Williams, harpist.

Cairo Wedding.

Miss Grace Sutherland and Mr. Raymond Irvine were married in Cairo at the Presbyterian church in a wedding of much beauty. Both are well known in Paducah, where they have visited frequently.

United Fruit company.

All have been ordered to appear June 20.

Asked about the summons, Mr. Vaccaro said: "I have not the slightest idea what evidence the federal grand jury could expect me to give regarding either the fruit or steamship business."

It is reported here, however, that an inquiry is to be made into the relationship of the United Fruit company and the Illinois Central railroad.

Several fruit men here believe charges of rebating or violation of the Sherman law will be the outcome of the ### Investigation.

"I do not know of any reason for calling these witnesses unless there is to be an investigation into the practice of certain roads of granting passes to men accompanying cars of fruit from southern ports," said Assistant District Attorney James H. Wilkerson last night. "There was an investigation some time ago, along this line, but nothing came of it."

If the innocent bystander had been attending to his own business it probably wouldn't have happened.
