

BUT ONE DAY REMAINS OF THE BONUS VOTE OFFER

This Week Fraught With Big Possibilities for Contestants.

Greatest Chance of Entire Contest is Passing.

TIME TO GET INTO THE GAME.

VOTING LIMIT.

From this time, until further notice, no candidate will be permitted to cast more than enough certificates, or pink slip votes, to place him more than 5,000 ahead of the leader at the preceding publication of scores.

But one more day, twenty-four hours, remains of the period in which candidates in The Sun and Associate Newspapers' Great $10,000 Voting Contest have an opportunity to get in on the magnificent bonus vote offer.

Yesterday, this department tried to say that there was but one kind of time in this life—that's the present. The wiser contestants are not overlooking that fact. The bonus vote offer this week is the largest that will be made during the life of this big voting affair.

That is why this week is the most important for YOU. You are also to remember that the scores appearing in each day's paper do not represent the exact standing of all candidates. Many of them have decided that it is not good policy to vote their full strength all the time.

Fasten Ballots Together. The contest department would also like to urge on all candidates the necessity for fastening their daily ballots together. Sometimes as many as five hundred coupons come to this office loosely, and they become mixed up with the scores of other ballots that have been turned in.

WON'T MIX.

Had Food and Good Health Won't Mix.

The human stomach stands much abuse but it won't return good health if you give it bad food.

If you feed right you will feel right, for proper food and a good mind is the sure road to health.

"A year ago I became much alarmed about my health for I began to suffer after each meal no matter how little I ate," says a Denver woman.

"I lost my appetite and the very thought of food grew distasteful, with the result that I was not nourished and got weak and thin."

"My home cares were very heavy, for beside a large family of my own I have also to look out for an aged mother. There was no one to shoulder my household burdens, and come what might I must bear them, and this thought nearly drove me frantic when I realized that my health was breaking down."

"I read an article in the paper about some one with trouble just like mine being cured on Grape-Nuts food and acting on this suggestion I gave Grape-Nuts a trial. The first dish of this delicious food proved that I had struck the right thing."

"My uncomfortable feelings in stomach and brain disappeared as if by magic and in an incredibly short space of time I was again myself. Since then I have gained 12 pounds in weight through a summer of hard work and realize I am a very different woman, all due to the splendid food, Grape-Nuts."

"There's a Reason." Trial will prove. Read the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

member that all subscriptions to The Sun, when taken in counties where a newspaper is associated, must be "matched." That is if a subscription is taken for one year to one paper, it must be taken for a similar period for both. A one year and a six month's subscription do not "match," and there is no schedule of votes for such a combination.

Big Opportunity Here.

Tonight and tomorrow are fraught with great possibilities for active, alert, candidates. There is no reason why another bonus or two cannot be gathered in before the end of the present period. Remember, you get 35,000 extra votes for every $25 worth of NEW business turned in up to midnight Saturday, June 26, and 15,000 extra votes for every $25 worth of OLD business. It isn't an opportunity to be overlooked. Here is your chance. What are you going to do about it?

If your score in today's paper does not suit you, it is up to you to change it.

[Standing of contestants at noon, June 24.]

Of course you know the reason for our clearance sale—the mild weather and all that sort of thing. But the sale would have been held just the same. It is held every year. It is a fixed event.
