Indianapolis Animal Keeper Makes a Serious Mistake and Loses His Life Thereby.

DENVER WANTS JEFFRIES AND RUBLIN

Newport, Ky., Feb. 15.—A rapidly moving street car on the Dayton line plunged over a fifty foot embankment, fatally injuring two passengers, seriously wounded fifteen and hurting ten others. The car was demolished and that there were not many deaths is most surprising.

Indianapolis, Feb. 15.—Jack Neilson, the animal keeper at the Zoo, went into a tiger's cage by mistake. He was attacked by the beast and chewed and clawed to death after a desperate struggle.

Madrid, Feb. 15.—Quiet reigns today in the city. Yesterday there were indications of a revolution, but this has all blown over. Elsewhere there were some disturbances, but none of a serious character.

Denver, Col., Feb. 15.—The Athletic association offers $10,000 for the Jeffries-Rublin fight, to be pulled off any date in March.

Cincinnati, Feb. 15.—The Jeffries-Rublin fight has been declared off. The sports are leaving. Brady, Jeffries' manager, says he will quit the business. It is rumored the fight may go to Louisville.

Berlin, Feb. 15.—The Emperor Frederick is hopelessly ill. His physicians now only hope to prolong life.

Chicago, Feb. 15.—Inventories fired both the Palmer house and Great Northern hotel last night. The fire was the object and several robberies occurred.

London, Feb. 15.—John Redmond, speaking for Ireland, says it will fight the new king, as a man, not longer being restrained by the chivalry shown the queen.

London, Feb. 15.—King Edward and Queen Alexandra are preparing to soon visit Germany. The trip is to be made right away.

THEY KICKED.

THE PRETTY PATROL WAGON ROUGHLY USED BY THE HORSES LAST NIGHT.

The patrol wagon needs repairs already. Last night while it was making a run, one of the horses took a notion to ring the gong up under the dash board, and proceeded to do it. The gong is about all that is now left worth mentioning of the dash board, and one of the horse's hoofs went entirely through the front of the vehicle, making quite a hole. Fortunately Driver Ed Clark was not struck by the reckless display of equine feet. While the damage to the wagon is not great, its beauty is temporarily marred. It is said the patrol wagon horses are "no account," and that Street Inspector Utterback refused to give his little mule and $15 to boot for both of them before they were traded to the city.

TO BE SOLD OUT.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE ON LOUISVILLE DISPATCH PENDING.

Louisville, Feb. 15.—The Columbia Finance and Trust Co., which holds $50,000 mortgage bonds on the Dispatch newspaper plant, have filed suit for foreclosure. Following a finding of the court and order for sale, the plant, it is likely, will be sold. It is rumored the Republicans will buy the Dispatch and convert it into a party organ.

THERE WAS NO LYNCHING.

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 15.—That lynching at Guntersville, Ga., expected last night, didn't occur. Two attempts were made, but finally cooler counsel prevailed. The accused was secured and taken to a tree, but no one would tie the noose and the prisoner was returned to the jail.

PROMINENT MANU.

FACTURER HERE. Mr. L. E. Brevard, of Huntington, Tenn., proprietor of the implement works he desires to locate in Paducah, is in the city. There will be a meeting of the directors of the Commercial club tonight to consider the matter.

MR. APPEGATE HERE

Mr. C. L. Applegate, the Owensboro distiller, is at the Palmer. He arrived this morning on business connected with the new bonded warehouse authorized by the government.

SMALL MORNING BLAZE.

The fire department was called to the home of Alex Payne, near the Benton road, at 11 o'clock this forenoon. A blaze near the stove was extinguished before any damage of consequence resulted.

ONE RECRUIT

Milas Sinnott, a New England blacksmith, who was tired tramping about, enlisted in the army at the local recruiting office this morning and left at noon for Louisville to be assigned.

THERE ISN'T ANY QUESTION

But what Bockmon's collection for good, clean edibles for Saturday are unmatchable, both in price and quality. Phone 259.

Will See the Antarctic.

Dr. Otto Nordenskjold has purchased the ship Antarctic, used by Lieut. Andrup in his recent East Greenland explorations. Dr. Nordenskjold intends using her in his proposed Antarctic expedition. She is the same ship that Prof. Nathorst used in two Antarctic expeditions.

Effects Misunderstood.

A Brooklyn woman wants a divorce because her husband flirted with the servants. No wonder the servant question remains unsolved when the efforts of the head of the house to interest the "help" in their occupations are so woefully misconstrued.—Baltimore American.

BIG MARKET

At Bockmon's tomorrow. Phone 259.

FRANK BALDRIDGE GETS ON A TEAR AND WINDS UP IN Durance Vile—Had Brass Knuckles—"Brownie" Hale Charged With Fighting His Wife.

Frank Baldrige, a well known young man who had never been arrested before, was arrested last night near the South Side fire department. He was taken to the city hall in the patrol wagon, and had to be pretty roughly handled before he could be gotten under control.

He had a pair of brass knuckles in one pocket when arrested, and this morning stated to Judge Sanders that he didn't know how they got there, but supposed he must have taken them from the wall at home. He was let off with a fine of $25 and ten days in jail for carrying concealed a deadly weapon.

Jacob Weber, a white man who went to Dr. Whayne's last night and when refused a hand out said, "he'd get one anyhow" and started in, was fined $1 and costs for a plain drunk.

John Hale, colored, porter in a barber shop, was charged with beating his wife. They live near the city hall, and she was heard last night calling for the police and he was arrested. He claimed she got jealous at the Old Fellows hall because she was told he

DEFENDANTS WON

THE FARMER vs. ETHRIDGE AND OTHERS; CASE DECIDED TODAY

In Circuit Court—Quite a Sum of Money Involved—Other Proceedings of Circuit Court.

An important suit was decided today in the circuit court. It was that of J. W. Farmer against C. L. Ethridge and Gill & Turnley, the latter tobacco warehousemen, of Clarksville, Tenn., for dissolution of partnership, $15,000, and attaching about 110 hogsheads of tobacco stored in the Farmer & Ethridge warehouse, on money alleged to have been advanced personally by Mr. Farmer to Mr. Ethridge.

The Clarksville warehousemen held warehouse receipts signed by the firm for some of the tobacco, as security for $5,000 advanced Ethridge at Paris, Tenn. The firm's name was signed by Mr. Ethridge, then a partner in it.

The court decided the case in favor of the defendants, Ethridge and Gill & Turnley. The following cases were stricken from the docket: Zou L. Sutherland vs E. E. Sutherland; Geo. Langstaff vs R. E. Ashbrook and Victor Guetch vs James Coyle.

The following cases were continued: J. H. Rogers vs Jane Campbell; Mary B. E. Greif vs H. Michael; Katin Grady vs R. H. Frailley; Ida C. Gibson vs George Ivey; L. B. Frulich vs O. J. Frulich; E. Terrell vs Sallie Dalton; Emma Davis vs W. E. Davis; L. A. Nall vs Q. V. Nance, and the Columbia Finance and Trust company against R. Rowland.

Mr. W. C. Kidd qualified as special auditor in the case of J. C. Farley against T. W. Allen.

In the case of Dora B. Fortson against W. F. Fortson, motion was made for alimony and maintenance until trial. Set for the forty-second day of the term.

The case of W. A. Eubanks, assignee, against Mrs. Emma Byng, is on trial today.

THE WEATHER.

Indications for today and tomorrow, fair and warmer.

DANIEL FLANAGAN DEAD.

Kenton, O., Feb. 15.—Daniel Flanagan, editor and manager of the Daily Democrat, died yesterday. He was a prominent Democratic politician and was widely known throughout Ohio. He was assistant journal clerk of the national house of representatives in 1876.

TEAMSTERS STRIKE IS TRAINMASTER.

THEY SAID, THEY COULDN'T EARN ENOUGH AND QUIT WORK.

Nearly all of Mr. Will Yancy's teamsters, who were hauling gravel from his pit near Eden's hill to the tan yard fill, struck this morning. They are white men and were paid by the load, and claiming that they couldn't earn enough they simply quit, and Mr. Yancy was left with practically no force.

He expects tomorrow to get others to do the work. Today very little gravel was hauled, or the tan yard fill would have been completed.

DID YOU SEE

Bockmon's market list for Saturday? It's what you want.

BRIEF OBSERVATIONS.

Don't run if you want to catch your breath. An event is a circumstance that seldom happens. Exemplifying duty is better than explaining it. In order to live long it is necessary to live slowly. A girl's lover is a poor suitor if he does not suit her. No matter how tall a man is he is not above criticism. After nine days of wonder the puppy gets his eyes opened. The job of police court judge is certainly a trying situation. Many a man starts out to gather wool and gets fleeced himself. The average man thinks other people need church more than he does. No man ever expects his wife to make as many mistakes as he does. A woman is never satisfied so long as there is anything she can't get. When a woman is really reasonable, she can never give any reason for it. It is a sin to steal a pin—especially if it has a diamond attached to it.

MR. H. E. CRAFT, FORMERLY OF THE CITY, GETS A GOOD

Position at Vicksburg—Big Mardi Gras Travel—Other Railroad Notes of General Interest.

Mr. H. E. Craft, formerly chief dispatcher of the Illinois Central here, and subsequently a conductor on the Memphis division, has been appointed trainmaster on the Vicksburg division of the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley road, effective today, February 15.

Mr. Craft will be pleasantly remembered by his many friends here who will be pleased to hear of his promotion.

Second Vice President J. T. Harahan, of Chicago, was in Fulton this morning en route to New Orleans to attend the Mardi Gras.

Trainmaster J. A. Frates, of the Memphis division, is in the city today.

Acting Assistant Superintendent J. J. Flynn, of the Evansville district, was in the city today, but left for Evansville.

The depot at Mayfield is to be repaired by the Illinois Central. A slate roof will be put on, and a twenty-five foot addition built to the tobacco shed, all to cost about $3,000.

The Illinois Central's gross earnings for January show an increase of $152,332.

Freight traffic representatives of the L. and N., Illinois Central, Southern and other lines are holding a conference on rates on whiskey in carloads and less than carloads from Louisville and Cincinnati to the Pacific coast.
