—West's Minstrels, in all its glory, will be here tomorrow. From the advance sale of seats the indications are that the house will be packed. The Paducah people like minstrels, and will show their appreciation of the greatest of them tomorrow night.

—Money loaned on diamonds, pistols and guns by Cohen. 106 Second street. 1mo

—The shanty boat of a man residing in Dogtown was swamped yesterday afternoon, and the owner's child came near drowning in the river before it could be reached. The cause of the accident was a heavy wave which struck the boat. It did not sink far, as it was tied near the bank.

—COHEN, the only licensed pawn broker in the city. Five per cent charged on all loans over $100 after Feb. 1st. 106 Second street. 1mo

—The prayer meeting service at the Broadway Methodist church tonight will be of special interest. Dr. Briggs will be assisted by George T. Houser, the Y. M. C. A. worker from Chicago, who is a fine singer and a capital speaker. Let all the members be present. Visitors welcome.

—Friday night Manager English will offer at The Kentucky "The Casino Girl," the newest trans-continental extravaganza success issuing from the annual output of George W. Lederer. People who think it worth while to note the doings of the theatre will recall this as the latest joint effort of Harry B. Smith and Ludwig Englander, the former writing the book and lyrics and the latter the score. The frolic had a long prosperous run in New York, after which it was taken to London, where it duplicated its success there of the half dozen Lederer shows that traveled the Atlantic ocean to remain for lengthy periods in English playhouses. Seats are now on sale.

—The highly realistic and successful melodrama, "The Span of Life," will be seen at The Kentucky tonight. The story of the play is familiar to theatre goers. While all the scenery of the original production was duplicated, the popular piece will be seen this year with all its mechanical effects new. The company is a strong one, and contains many well known artists. The famous Donazzettas will form the wonderful human bridge. The scene represents a rocky gorge in the heart of Africa. The heroine, who is pursued by a band of Arabs, reaches the gorge, finding the bridge gone. Three of her friends appear on the opposite side of the chasm, and fling their interlocked bodies across the ravine, thus forming a living bridge, over which the heroine passes to safety.

—Will West, colored, was arrested this afternoon at Geo. C. Wallace's office by Officer Emil Goureaux for using insulting language.

SOCIAL NOTES

Quite a large and delightful party went to Cairo today on the Dick Fowler, the guests of Mr. Will Sanders.

The party was in compliment to the many attractive visitors now in the city. They will return about 11 o'clock tonight.

Those composing the party were: Mr. and Mrs. James A. Rudy, Mrs. Mildred Davis, Mrs. W. G. Whitefield, Mrs. Robert B. Phillips, Mrs. A. J. Decker, Mrs. Cook Husbands, Mrs. T. C. Leech, Mrs. Frank Boyd, Mrs. Lillard Sanders, Mrs. W. B. McPherson, Mrs. Charles Kiger, Mrs. George Flournoy, Mrs. J. S. Cabanne, of Louisville; Mrs. Gus Thomas, of Mayfield; Mrs. Will Ross, of Madisonville; Mrs. Herman Boswell, of Union City; Mrs. Anne Berryman, of Clarksville; Miss Georgia Walker, of St. Louis; Miss Evelyn Willis, of Columbus, Mo.; Miss Ida Taylor, of Toledo, O.; Miss Eunice Evans, of Youngstown, O.; Miss Anne Louise Lee, of Columbus, Miss.; Miss Ella Hay, of Danville; Miss Sally Leonard, of Eldysville; Misses Birdie Woolfolk, Gerald Sanders, Laura Sanders, Marie Noble, Lillian Rudy, Martha Davis, Susanne Jorgenson, Mabel Rickle, Ethel Morrow, Minnie Terrell, Hattie Terrell, Anne Reed, Carlisle Sowell, Faith Langstaff, Emma Reed, Anna Mary Yeiser, Florence Yeiser, Mary K. Siver, J. J. Livers, Myrtle Decker, Hattie Hisey, Martha Leech, Mary Boswell, Anne Boswell, Myra Du Bois; Messrs. Will Sanders, David Sanders, Edward Mumford, Tom Sanders, Charles Kiger, Will Bradshaw, Jr., Frank Davis.

One of the most artistic affairs of the season as well as the largest card party ever given in Paducah was Mrs. Victor Voris' entertainment on yesterday afternoon complimentary to Miss Anne Berryman, of Clarksville; Miss Georgia Walker, of St. Louis; Miss Evelyn Willis, of Columbus, Mo.; Mrs. Leslie Samuels, of Bardstown, and the brides of the season. The party was an original and charming conceit of the hostess and was a beautiful symphony in every detail. "Hearts" was played, and the decorations were hearts, and pink the color-scheme. The tables were arranged both up-stairs and down-stairs, and there were 23 in all. The tally cards were hand-painted hearts, each one having a duplicate which matched the partners for the game. The prizes were won by: Mrs. Wilson for the married ladies; Miss Myrtle Greer, for the young ladies; and Mrs. Herman Boswell of Union City, the guest of the Misses Yeiser, who cut with Miss Evans, of Ohio, Miss Faith Langstaff's guest, for the visitors.

A number of ladies and gentlemen came after the game to the delightful four-course luncheon which was most attractively served. Especially effective was the brides' table which had a cover of pink satin with a bridal veil and a center decoration of pink carnations.

Commodore Given Fowler gave a box party last night at The Kentucky. In it were: Mr. E. J. Knickerbocker, of Mt. Vernon, Ill., passenger agent of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois; Editor Martin, of Benton, Ill.; Sheriff J. E. Moore, of Franklin county, Ill.; W. S. Cantrell, former railroad commissioner of Illinois, and Mr. C. W. Pratt, of Detroit, Mich.

There will be a dance at the Craig house, corner of Sixth and Monroe streets, tonight, in honor of the Misses Stone and Mrs. Sue Hart, visitors. The dance is given by the boarders, and will be one of the most delightful dances of the season.

MARRIED THIS MORNING.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING AT MRS. R. B. CRAIG'S THIS FORENOON.

The marriage of Miss Mary Stone, of Paducah, to Mr. Chris Betteiger, of Madisonville, took place this morning at the home of Mrs. R. B. Craig, sister of the bride, at Sixth and Monroe streets, in the presence of quite a crowd of friends, Rev. J. C. Reil, of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, officiating. It was a white and green wedding, and a pretty one.

The bride wore Paris muslin over silk, and the lady attendants, Mrs. Mattie Wilkerson, and Misses Helen Stone and Dot Connolly, wore white.

The male attendants were Messrs. Tom Hall, R. C. Brenner and Zach Bryant. Miss Cattie Stone played the wedding march.

The bride formerly resided in Booneville, Ind., and Mr. Betteiger is a merchant of Madisonville, Ky. The couple left at noon for Evansville on a visit and from there go to Chicago. They will reside in Madisonville, and be at home after March 1.

SMALL-POX IN LOVELACEVILLE

IT IS CLAIMED NO QUARANTINE HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED.

Dr. Horace Rivers received a long distance telephone message from Lovelaceville this afternoon, relative to the small pox in that section. There were five cases discovered there several days ago, and the matter was reported to the proper authorities, but no action taken in the matter. There had been no quarantine placed on the houses where the disease has made its appearance, and nothing done toward protecting the public. The county judge, to whom the report should be made is out of the city, and there is no one here who has the authority to do anything, unless it is the health officer.

THE HOWARD CASE.

THE DEFENSE CLOSED TODAY.

REWARD COMMISSION PROCEEDINGS SECRET.

Fankfort, Jan. 22.—The defense rested in the Howard case this morning, and the prosecution began its rebuttal. Arguments begin tomorrow, and the case goes to the jury Friday.

The defense yesterday began a fight for making public the records of the Geibel reward commission, and their submission to the jury. The commonwealth resisted, and while the matter was being discussed, before Judge Cantrell the hour of adjournment arrived. The defense was that they first allowed to scan the records, and then determine whether or not to introduce them. Commonwealth Attorney Franklin insisted that the defense call members of the commission to the stand to get the information it desires. It was refused.

CIVIC FEDERATION THIS MORNING

The Civic Federation met at the Palmer house this morning at 10:30 o'clock in special called meeting. It was for the purpose of completing arrangements for the charity concert, and to distribute the tickets among the membership to sell.

AT THE KENTUCKY.

"Florola," with its pretty girls, attractive singers and actors, magnificent scenery and superb staging, was witnessed by another record-breaking house at The Kentucky last night.

Standing room was all that could be had after the box office opened for the evening. The audience was stylish and critical, and enjoyed the performance very much. The production was artistic and refined, and there was something doing all the time. The spectators were charmed with the elaborate mountings and the catchy music.

The principals are all given good parts, and they are all capably suited to them. Miss Grace Dudley, as "Lily Holywood," the aristocratic, dainty, jolly and lively widow, was especially fine, and her songs were well received, especially the intangible "Tact." Miss Maude Lambert as "Dolores" is pretty and has a sweet voice, while Miss Francis Gordon as "Angela Gilfain" made a favorable impression because of her beauty and attractiveness. Mr. W. T. Carleton as "Cyrus W. Gilfain," was one of the principals, and sang several good songs. Mr. Thomas A. Kirman, as "Captain Arthur Donegal," as "Frank Abercrombie," appeared to advantage, and Mr. Bowers has by far the finest voice in the company. His rendition of the celebrated "Under the Shade of the Palms" evoked storms of applause.

No review would be complete without special mention of Mr. Alf C. Whelan as "Anthony Tweedle-punch," and phrenologist and showman. His was the principal comedy role, and he filled it in a way that kept the audience in continual good humor. Sometimes they went into convulsions. He is a genius, and no comedy part has given such satisfaction since that of the "Folie Luntic" in the "Belle of New York."

The "Toll Me, Pretty Maiden," by the double sextette, was encored several times, and, of course, was one of the features of the performance. The most attractive numbers were: "Somebody," a duet by Miss Lambert and Mr. Bowers; "When I Leave Town," by Miss Dudley, "Queen of the Philippine Islands," by Miss Lambert, and the closing chorus, "I Want to Be a Military Man."
