A BULL DOG.

IS EASIER TO SHAKE OFF THAN THE COFFEE GRIP.

A lady of St. Paul, Minn., never drank anything but cold water until she was married and then commenced to drink coffee.

She says: "About one year after our marriage, my husband began to complain of a distress in his stomach and I had such a dizzy spells after each meal, that we had to see a doctor. We drank coffee three times a day, but did not imagine that coffee was causing all this distress. The doctor said both our livers were out of order, gave us some medicine, and told us that we ought to break off drinking coffee. We stopped it for a while, but missed the hot drink so much we went back to coffee. In five years' time I lost a complexion that was faultless and gained a very bad stomach, and my husband's stomach was ruined. He thought he had cancer of the stomach, or something worse, but we had formed the habit of coffee drinking and like drunkards found it no easy matter to break off, although we knew it was killing both of us.

"We kept a grocery store at the time, and a lady called one day and asked for Postum Food Coffee, saying, 'My children like it; will not drink anything else, and I know it is good for them because they never have any trouble with their stomachs.' This interested me, and I told her about my bad stomach. She told me how to make Postum and we began its use ourselves.

"After drinking it three times a day for a week, I felt much better and my husband declared that he felt like a new man. We have drunk Postum for four years and have never had one particle of stomach trouble since, and I have lost that sallow, yellow color I so much disliked, and the whites of my eyes are as clear as ever again. I know it is because we left off drinking coffee and drank Postum. I can eat anything and everything, and never know I have a stomach. My husband used to say I would ruin our

CHILD'S MEDICINE— WHY?

Because Scott's Emulsion relieves such an extraordinary variety of children's diseases all the way from slight colds to the serious hip disease.

Because Scott's Emulsion is as harmless as milk. Well borne even by the delicate stomachs of babies.

Because children respond so quickly to its action. A medicine peculiarly suited to their sensitive nature. It is wonderful how rapidly delicate children improve in every way while taking Scott's Emulsion.

Because children like the taste. Most of them like Scott's Emulsion at once. The rest soon learn to like it. Little daily doses bring the results.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl street, New York.

THEATRICAL NEWS.

"Held by the Enemy" was presented last night at The Kentucky by the Van Dyke-Eaton company to a large crowd, and gave general satisfaction. The performance was not so smooth as the company could make it with Mr. Deming, one of their leading men, who was again unable to appear in his proper place, but it was a fair performance, and the company deserves credit for the manner in which it was put on, with so many difficulties to surmount. On account of the necessary changes made in the cast, in which even the pianist had to be pressed into service on the stage, there were a few hitches, but the crowd seemed pleased. The specialties were much better than on the first night and pleased everybody. Tonight the indications are for another large audience.

TO SEE THE SIGHTS

BUT THE POLICE INTERFERED AND MADE THEM GO BACK.

Some little excitement was last night created in the "Red Light" district by two farmers who with their wives and daughters were presumably on their way home in wagons.

At Ninth and Court the husbands and fathers got down and told their better halves to wait until they had made a tour of the district and seen the sights, but a couple of police officers who happened to overhear interfered and after a fight made the farmers get back into the wagon and continue their homeward journey. The only thing that can be said in mitigation of the farmers' depraved action was that they were about half drunk.

THAT BIG SHOOT.

IT WILL BE FULLY DISCUSSED BY THE GUN CLUB THIS EVENING.

The Paducah Gun club meets this evening to discuss the advisability of holding a four days' shoot here in April in place of the American handicap, which has been declared off for next year.

Such a shoot would cost something like a thousand dollars, but the club can get it up without asking anyone for a cent except those interested.

It seems from expressions heard that there is a strong probability that the club will act favorably on the project.

A PRETTY WEDDING

Miss Emma Kirchoff to Mr. John Warren, of Aurora, Ind.

Only Relatives Witnessed the Ceremony—A Reception Afterwards

One of the prettiest marriages performed in Paducah in some time was that of Mr. J. L. Warner, a prominent young jeweler of Aurora, Ind., to Miss Emma Kirchoff, the daughter of Mr. Frank Kirchoff, the well known aldermen elect last night.

The ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock by Rev. Rupprecht in the presence of relatives only, at the residence of the bride at 118 South Second street. The parlors were prettily decorated and the bride wore a white silk dress and the groom a Tuxedo. Mr. Ray Massengale, of St. Louis, acted as best man and was also attired in a Tuxedo while Miss Louise Kirchoff, the bride's sister, who acted as bridesmaid, was dressed in a silk Grenadine.

After the ceremony had been performed the guests repaired to the dining room where an elegant supper was served. After the supper many friends came in giving the couple a surprise and at midnight they departed. Another surprise was given the bride and groom at the depot when they left for Aurora. The young friends had secretly chartered a street car and were at the depot awaiting the newly married couple's arrival. The train was late and the party made things lively on the platform for more than an hour.

The groom is a young man of sterling business qualities and his bride is a young lady very popular in the city and who can count her friends and admirers by the hundreds. They have gone to Aurora to live.

PASTOR'S PICTURES FOR A DIME

Mrs. Wright's Scheme for Keeping Her Husband's Memory Green.

Mrs. William L. Wright, widow of the pastor of a Richmond (Va.) Baptist church, has evolved a novel way of perpetuating her husband's memory. She sent several of his photographs, taken at different times, to a local photographer and had them mounted on cardboard, with brief comments of his life and work and tributes from contemporary preachers sketched in between the pictures.

These cards were then taken to the dead pastor's church, says the New York Mail and Express and offered for sale among the congregation at ten cents a card to cover the expense of production. In a very short while after the people of the congregation knew that these cards could be had they were all bought up.
