

The Week In Society.

THE LOVER AND THE MAID.

"Oh, come with me and be my love,"
In pleading tones he said:
"Oh, come with me and we will rove
Where birds sing overhead,
Through rosy ways we'll gladly fare,
'Neath skies of cloudless blue,
And, having bid adieu to care,
Love all the seasons through."

"Oh, I would gladly go," said she,
"To be your love, to stroll
Through Paradise you leading me,
Each yielding soul to soul;
But if your love I were, we'd stray
Through no such realm as that.
I'd find myself cooped up all day
In some cheap little flat."

Man and the Social Calendar.

The January social calendar closes with some especially pleasant events. For, while not overwhelmingly gay, the week has been featured by more than the usual "evening affairs," and the men have had their innings.

With the many afternoon parties, it would sometimes seem that the masculine sex has gone into "innocuous desuetude" socially. So the week just closing has been especially appreciated by them. They were veritable "guests of honor" at the "conscience dance" given by the girls. And one "afternoon club" recognized them as "social" equals at a very well evening occasion, literary, at that.

Wedding Announced of Interest Here

Announcement is made today of the approaching wedding of the Rev. E. H. Cunningham, of Cadiz, who has accepted a call to the Second Baptist church this city, to Miss Bertha Thomas, of Trigg county. The marriage will take place on Wednesday, February 1, at the bride's home, near Cadiz. Rev. J. T. Cunningham, of Canton, Ky., a brother of the groom, will perform the ceremony.

Rev. E. H. Cunningham is a talented young minister of the Southern Baptist church and is a son of Mrs. A. G. Cunningham, of 626 North Sixth street, this city. He is a brother of Mrs. Dudley A. Meacham, of Paducah, and has other sisters and relatives here. He recently filled the pulpit of the Second Baptist church on Sunday and so pleased the congregation, which has been without a pastor for several months, that he was called to the charge.

Miss Thomas is the daughter of Mr. F. M. Thomas, a prominent and influential resident of Trigg county. She is a very attractive young lady with a wide circle of friends and is well fitted for the position she will occupy.

The couple will arrive in the city on the Saturday following the wedding, and Mr. Cunningham will take charge of his church on Sunday.

The Second Baptist congregation is prepared to welcome their new minister and his bride most cordially.

Wedding Anniversary Celebrated.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sugars, of North Seventh street, entertained the Polleuela club and other guests on Tuesday evening in celebration of the twenty-fourth anniversary of their marriage. It was one of the most elaborate and effective entertainments of the winter, and was beautiful in its appointments. The house was artistically decorated with a profusion of American flags and the colors red, white and blue.

The host and hostess were assisted in receiving by: Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hills, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Dugger, of Jackson; Misses Mary Owen Murray, Fannie Murray, Lillian Abbott, Willie Willis, Mr.

Charles Sugars, Maurice Lagerwahl and William Hills, Jr.

A guessing contest of the flags of the nations was a cleverly arranged feature of entertainment. Miss Blanche Buckner won the first prize for ladies, an embroidered center piece, and graciously presented it to Mrs. F. M. Dugger, of Jackson, Tenn., the guest of Mrs. Sugars. Prof. Harry Gilbert and Mr. Duff Grouse tied for the gentlemen's first prize, a Japanese tobacco jar, and Mr. Grouse won in the cut. Mrs. Charles Abbott captured the ladies' consolation prize, a Dresden china cup and saucer, and Mr. M. B. Austin the gentlemen's booby prize, a tiny wine glass. Throughout the contest Deal's Orchestral band played the national airs of the various countries giving quite a charming touch.

The elaborate course-luncheon attractively emphasized the red, white and blue idea, both in its menu and setting. Tiny flags were the name-cards at each guest's place, and the napkins were pretty effects in flags. The ices were served in candy cups of red, white and blue, and the cake was in layers of the same colors.

Mr. and Mrs. Sugars were beautifully remembered with many handsome pieces of cut glass and silver. Among the guests were:
Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Duley, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Faust, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilhoite, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hills, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hills, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lagerwahl, Mr. and Mrs. Duff Grouse, Mr. and Mrs. Gridley, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Dugger, Jackson, Tenn.; Mrs. Emma Rehkopf, Mrs. Kitty Willis; Misses Mary Owen Murray, Fannie Murray, Esther Smith, Blanche Buckner, Birdie Woolfolk, Mildred Maxwell; Mr. I. O. Walker, Mr. Will Deakins, Prof. Harry Gilbert.

Dance to the Young Men.

A very delightful occasion was the dance given by a number of the society girls on Thursday evening at the Palmer house in compliment to the young men. The crowd was a large and very representative one. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Muscoe Burnett, Mrs. J. G. Brooks, Mrs. W. J. Hills, Miss Virginia Kinnie, of New York; Miss Louise McNamara, of Wichita, Kan.; Misses Myrtle Decker, Helen Decker, Ethel Brooks, Mary Lee Clarke, Beulah Rogers, Louise Cox, Minnie Terrell, Hattie Terrell, Frances Terrell, Nell Holland, Rubie Corbett, Faith Langstaff, Ethel Morrow, Elizabeth Sinnott, Carline Sowell, May Davis, Mabel McNichols, Robbie Loving, Rella Coleman, Fannie Coleman, May Owen, Lillie May Winstead; Messrs. C.; Louis Rieke, Herbert Hawkins, Roy Culley, Horace Sowell, Dow Wilcox, Henry Rudy, Frank Bourne, Pat McElrath, Stewart Sinnott, John Sherwin, Anthony Long, Herbert Wallerstein, Charles Allcott, Grover Jackson, Henry Cave, Cade Davis, Fred Wade, Arthur Everett, Frank Judge, Harry Gilbert, Ben Frank, Tom Harrison, Morton Hand, Harry Splain, Philo Allcott, John Brooks, Arthur Martin, Douglass Bagby, Will Bradshaw, Walter Iverson, Blanton Allen, Edwin J. Paxton, I. B. Howell, Dr. C. R. Lightfoot.

Silver Wedding Celebrated.

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Dreyfus of North Eighth street yesterday celebrated their silver wedding anniversary. It was a very quiet affair and no invitations were issued, but the host of friends of this very popular couple remembered it in many pleasant ways. Several dozen handsome pieces of solid silver were received, and over fifty telegrams of congratulations and good wishes came from various parts of the country. Last night after the service at Temple Israel, a large number of friends called at the Dreyfus home and an informal reception was enjoyed.

Entre Nous Club.

Miss Louise Cox was hostess to the Entre Nous club and other guests on Friday afternoon, entertaining very delightfully at cards at her home on Fountain avenue. There were ten tables, the club prize was won by Miss Fannie Coleman, and the guest prize by Mrs. Clara Culley. An attractive course-luncheon was served at the close, and an informal musicale was enjoyed. Miss Blanche Buckner sang several selections very charmingly and Prof. Harry Gilbert accompanied her.

Miss Cox's guests included Mesdames Victor Voris, Robert Phillips, Clarence Sherrill, W. B. McPherson, Henry Grace, James English, Clara Culley, David Stuart, Charles Kiger, Harris Rankin, J. C. Flournoy; Misses Virginia Kinney, of New York; Louise McNamara, of Wichita; Blanche Buckner, Ethel Morrow, Susie Jorgenson, Rubie Corbett, Clara Thompson, Manie Cobb, Myrtle Decker, Faith Langstaff, Hattie and Minnie Terrell, Susie Thompson, Lillie May Winstead, Ethel Brooks, Marjorie Bagby, Fannie and Rella Coleman, Beulah Rogers, Helen Decker, Retta Hatfield, Frances Terrell, May Owen, Robbie Loving, Nell Alexander, Bruce Wearan, and Prof. Harry Gilbert.

Pit Party to Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Eugene Stutz gave a pretty party on Tuesday evening at their home on Jefferson street in compliment to their guest, Miss Jennie Anderson, of Memphis, Tenn. Pit was played. At the close of the game a delightful two-course luncheon was served in the dining room. The long table was attractively decorated with smilax and pink carnations. The pink and green color-motif was effectively carried out in the ices, cakes, mints and Malaga grapes of the pretty luncheon.

The guests were:
Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Baker, Claude Baker, Fred Ashton, Robert Martin, J. S. Ross, George Warfield, Ben Billings; Mrs. Oscar Reifel, of Rogers, Ark.; Misses Jennie Anderson, of Memphis; Addie Byrd, Jessie Byrd, Mary Gray Cummins, Jennie Young; Messrs. Floyd Harris, of Mayfield; Frank Moore, Donald Kennedy, Melvill Byrd, Leon Houston, Russell Long, Albert Hawkins.

In Honor of 25th Wedding Anniversary.

The Misses Unrath entertained their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Unrath, with a surprise party at their home on South Fifth street last evening, in honor of the 25th wedding anniversary. A very pleasant evening was spent and refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Unrath were the recipients of many handsome presents.

Those present were Rev. and Mrs. Alfred Ilten, Messrs. and Mesdames George Beyer, Fred Kamleiter, Henry Kamleiter, O. D. Schmidt, Jake Seamon, Adam Hovenden, Mrs. Harry Dalton, Mrs. H. Schmidt, Mrs. William Rouff, Misses Alice Maurer, Elizabeth Beyer, Bernice Schmidt, Ethel Seamon; Mr. John M. Birth, Mr. Willie Schmidt.

A Pleasant Surprise Party.

Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Perryman of the First Baptist church, were pleasantly surprised last evening by the members of their congregation. A "Linen Shower" was given them by the ladies of the church, and many beautiful and useful linen pieces were presented. The deacons of the church also gave a handsome set of China.

Quite a large number of guests were present at the parsonage on North Fifth street, and the occasion was most enjoyable and evidenced the great popularity of Dr. Perryman and Mrs. Perryman with their people.

The Delphic club met on Tuesday morning at the Carnegie library. Mrs. Alonzo R. Meyers gave an interesting account of "The Paintings of the Salle des Primitifs." Mrs. C. B. Austin told of "The Gems of the Salon Carre," with a reading from Walter Pater on "Mona Lisa." It was a most pleasant morning.

Informal Evening.

Miss Anna Harlan entertained a few friends informally at euchre on Thursday night at her home on South Fourth street. There were two tables. The ladies' prize was captured by Miss Fannie Clark, and Mr. Albert Roth won the gentlemen's prize. A delightful luncheon was served after the game.

Columbia Club.

Mrs. Henry Metzler entertained the Columbia club on Wednesday afternoon on the Mayfield road. The time was pleasantly spent with embroidery and fancy work, and an elaborate luncheon was served by the hostess. Their club is a neighborhood affair composed of prominent ladies living on the Mayfield road.

Y. M. C. A. Musicales.

The concert given in the Y. M. C. A. parlors on Thursday evening under the auspices of the women's committee was a most pleasant affair. The program included some of Paducah's most delightful talent and was well rendered. Mrs. F. M. Dugger, of Jackson, Tenn., assisted very charmingly. A large crowd was in attendance.

Entre Nous Matinee Party.

Miss Bruce Wearan and Miss Marjorie Bagby are entertaining the Entre Nous club this afternoon with a theatre party at The Kentucky to see "His Majesty and the Maid."

To Hear Grand Opera.

A number of Paducahans are planning to go to Memphis next week to hear the Grand Opera which will be given there in English. It promises to be a very attractive thing and several parties may be made up to attend during it.

Announcements.

The Delphic club meets on Tuesday morning at the Carnegie library.

Mrs. Henry H. Duley will entertain the Polleuela club on Tuesday afternoon at her home on Broadway.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rudolph will entertain the Kaiserine club on Wednesday evening at their home on North Thirteenth street. The meeting for last week was postponed on account of the extreme cold.

The ladies of the Eastern Star will have ladies' night at the Masonic room of the Fraternity building on Monday evening. The reception will be a very delightful affair, and a fine musical program will be given.

The Magazine club will meet Thursday afternoon with Miss Henrietta Koger on Jefferson street. Balzac will be the study and Harper's, North American Review, Atlantic Monthly, Outlook, Hubbard's Journeys and McClure's are the magazines to be discussed.

About People.

Miss Kitty Hayes, of Dyersburg, Tenn., is the guest of Miss May Hayes, at Seventh and Broadway.

Miss Bessie Powell, of Princeton, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Marble, at Jefferson and Fifth streets.

Miss Celeste Levy, of Jackson, Tenn., has returned home after a pleasant visit to Mrs. Adolph Weil, on Broadway.

Mrs. F. M. Dugger, of Jackson, Tenn., is the guest of Mrs. Samuel Sugars, of North Sixth street. Mrs. Dugger is a talented musician and sang very delightfully at the Y. M. C. A. musicale on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Gustave H. Warneken, of Clarksville, Tenn., who has been the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Mildred Davis, of Kentucky avenue, for a few days, returned home today, being called back by the illness of Mr. Warneken.

Miss Lillie May Winstead has returned from a several weeks' visit to her friend, Miss Laura Jobe, of Jackson, Tenn. Miss Winstead is very popular in Jackson society and her stay was one round of pleasure.

Miss Hattie Hisey returned home on Thursday from an extended visit in Central Kentucky. She was the guest at a delightful house-party given by Miss Helen Ripy, of Lawrenceburg, while she was gone. Miss Hisey attended college in Harrodsburg and has many friends in that section of "God's country."

Little Miss Sarah Corbett, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hal S. Corbett, of North Sixth street, had a little story in the children's corner of last Sunday's Courier-Journal. It is a very promising effort, and indicates she has inherited her bright mother's gift for writing cleverly. Another daughter, Hannah, received honorable mention for a drawing sent for that page.

Miss Aline Bagby, of the city, who is starring in "The Simple Life," is playing a two-days' engagement in Richmond, Va., where the charming southern girl is certain to receive an ovation. Miss Bagby has recently played Newport News and Norfolk, Va., and before that was in Elizabeth, Orange and other New Jersey cities. The date of her appearance here has not been fixed, though the company has turned its face southward.

Secretary Rodney C. Davis, of the Carnival company, has received various additional carnival companies letters asking for a chance to bid on attractions, the last two to write being the big Robinson Carnival company, and the Witt company. It is probable that the contract will be let the coming month.
