

WE MUST MOVE ACROSS STREET NEXT WEEK

OUR increasing business demands larger and handsome quarters. We have placed contract for a new building on our present location, 327 Broadway, which will be especially arranged to meet the requirements of our constantly increasing trade. And we believe when completed we will have one of the handsomest and most completely arranged Jewellery Stores in the state. We will temporarily occupy the Rieke Building, across the street, until the completion of our new building.

On account of the fragile nature of our stock we want to move just as little as possible, and will on

KENTUCKY NEWSLETS

A Sudden Death.

Cadiz, Ky., June 23.—Mrs. Sallie Sanders, wife of W. Dudley Sanders, of Wallonia, died suddenly of heart disease. Mrs. Sanders was about 65 years of age, and was before her marriage a Miss Mitchell. Besides a husband, she is survived by seven children: James, William and Miss Lula Sanders, of Texas; Mrs. Gus Lacey, Caldwell county, and Mrs. Hop Bridges, Mrs. Lewis Sanders and Miss Zona Sanders, of Trigg county.

Died in Asylum.

Princeton, Ky., June 23.—Hicks Van Auglin died at the asylum at Hopkinsville, where he had been for the past twelve years. He was popular and leading saddler and harness-maker for years, and married Miss Suda George, from which union three children were born, Mrs. A. C. Wilson and Hiawatha Auglin surviving their father.

Big Sale of Lands.

Cadiz, Ky., June 23.—The sale of the Cumberland River Land estates in Stewart county to the Cumberland River Land company means much to the future of that county. The property contains 40,000 acres, 8,000 of 10,000 of which is fine Cumberland river and creek bottom land. Many thousand acres are hill land suitable for raising tobacco, corn and other agricultural products. There are two charcoal furnaces on the property, the Bear Spring and Dover furnaces, the latter being in operation. Iron has been manufactured there for 63 years. The purchasers are prominent Memphis parties, and H. H. Leech, of Clarksville. The policy of the company will be to develop the property with all possible haste.

School Teacher Fined.

Mayfield, Ky., June 23.—The most interesting trial so far during the present term of circuit court, was the case of the Commonwealth against Prof. H. T. Durbin, who was charged with shooting a young man named Jim Hayden a son of Esquire Joe Hayden, at Oakland school house near Wheel, on November 19, 1904.

The shooting created much feeling and excitement in the community and as a result over 100 witnesses were summoned to testify in the case.

The case was not given to the jury until Thursday morning. It was not very long before it returned a verdict fining the defendant $125.

Monomaniac Shoots Himself.

Owensboro, Ky., June 23.—As the result of a religious mania Henry Ewing, 22 years old, shot and almost instantly killed himself at his home at Ramsey. Ewing had always been a moral youth, but for sometime he had been possessed of the idea that he had committed unpardonable sins. A few days ago he was discovered in a barn loft with a rope around a rafter. He was arranging a box from which to jump and strangle himself. He was closely guarded after this, but succeeded in getting a shotgun and shooting himself in the breast today.

Killed in Arkansas.

Princeton, Ky., June 23.—James Lane, who lives five miles north of here, was called to Greenwood, Arkansas, on account of the accidental killing of his son, James, by a friend. Sunday morning the two young men were in their room preparing to go out for the day, when an old revolver was discovered in one of the trunks which was supposed not to be loaded and in a playful way was pointed and snapped at young Lane with the above result.

The young man was 23 years old. The father intended to bring the body home, but it was in such a condition that it was impossible.

Body Recovered.

Bradenburg, Ky., June 23.—Miss Anna Booth daughter of Dr. Grant Booth, who with her two sisters, was drowned in the Ohio, a week ago while bathing, was found by the crew of the Tarascon. The bodies of Misses Mattie and Hallie Booth were recovered soon after the accident.

Says He Is Innocent.

Hopkinsville, Ky., June 23.—Geo. Johnson, colored, who was charged by the coroner's jury yesterday with the murder of Carrie Cushmanberry, or Lewis, night before last, surrendered in the circuit court here this morning and was placed in jail. He claims to be innocent of the charge and says he knew nothing of it until told last night. Johnson is the divorced husband of the dead woman, but they had been living together since the divorce, and he spent the evening with her night before last, but claims to have left before the killing occurred.

Ivey-Cartwright.

Louisville Ky., June 23.—C. B. Ivey, one of the best known tobacco planters in Southern Kentucky, and Miss E. L. Cartwright, a trained nurse at Norton Infirmary here, were married in the county clerk's office and left for Allensville.

Married Near Hoptown.

Hopkinsville, Ky., June 23.—Jas. B. Browder, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Mary L. Potter, daughter of the late James A. McKenzie, were married at the home of the bride's mother at Oak Grove, this county, yesterday. Mr. Browder occupies a chair in a Philadelphia College and is a prominent educator. His bride is a beautiful and accomplished young woman.

Argument Docket Made Up.

Frankfort, Ky., June 23.—The argument docket for the September term of the court of appeals has been made up by Clerk Chinn. It comprises about 50 cases. The first argument will be heard on Tuesday, October 3, and the last is fixed for Wednesday, December 13. The docket is subject to changes before the opening of the fall term.

CREDIT AND INFLUENCE

Are best promoted by a bank account. It lends a stability and dignity to your cash transactions that can be gotten in no other way. A check is both a receipt and a record of your money affairs. The young man, especially, is raised in the estimation of the business world by paying his bills with checks. Not so much for what it is as for what it indicates. It indicates the right business principles.
