1840 FELLOWS

WILL MEET TOMORROW NIGHT TO CONSIDER CELEBRATION.

There Have Been Three Deaths in the Society Since Last Year.

Judge D. L. Sanders, chairman of the 1840 Fellows has called the members of the organization to meet tomorrow night for the purpose of deciding if a celebration is to be held this year.

The 1840 Fellows is an organization of Paducah men who were born in that year and since the last celebration held one year ago, there have been three deaths in the ranks. They are Col. T. E. Moss, W. R. Peal and L. P. Raser. There have been many celebrations in Paducah this year, and are more to come, but it seems that most of the members of this organization want a dance and picnic at the park as is the usual custom of entertainment.

If it is decided that no celebration will be held this year then resolutions of respect and honor to the three members who died since the last meeting, will be passed.

HURLED ON HIS HEAD

EMPLOYE OF BASKET FACTORY RUNS INTO ROPE WHILE AFTER CAR.

Lives at Dover, Tenn., and May Be Fatally Injured.

Lois Scarborough, an employe of the Mergenthaler-Horton Basket company, is seriously if not fatally injured as a result of an accident early Saturday night on Broad street.

The young man started after a moving street car. He was running fast when he ran against a rope stretched across the street, not seeing the rope in time to avoid it.

The rope struck him under the chin and set him back several feet throwing him on his head and back. The injured man was picked up and carried to the office of Dr. J. S. Troutman, where an examination was made. No bones were broken, but it is thought that he is internally injured. It will be several days before the extent of the injuries will be known.

Scarborough lived in Dover, Tenn., and his people hearing of the accident telegraphed here to ascertain the extent of his injuries.

GOING TO WORK

Supt. Williams, of the Ways, Says a Few Union Men Are Coming Back.

Capt. Mike Williams, superintendent of the marine ways, stated today that the union men were returning to work at the ways a few at a time. He said three caulkers went back to work this morning and a couple of ship carpenters will go to work tomorrow. He is running what is known as an "open shop," which means that union and non-union men are worked. Capt. Williams said he would not sign up with the unions again and would not recognize them again.

Several months ago the caulkers struck at the marine ways because the management would not agree to their spinning their own oakum. Later the ship carpenters went out in sympathy.

With the Sick. Mr. Hugh Burrows, the shoemaker, is out after a several days' illness of chills and fever.

IN THE COURTS

Circuit Court. The regular October term of civil circuit court began here this morning. Judge Reed was occupied this morning and afternoon in calling the ordinary docket and the calling of his docket, setting of cases, and hearing of motions, will take up the first week.

There was little done today in the line of judgments being filed: The following judgments were filed today: Englert & Bryant against Flournoy and Teevan, Judgment $82; Hendrick & Miller against Bernice Winters, $75; Chamblin & Murray against W. C. Turk, $100; The Holcomb-Lobb Tie Co., against L. Cowan, $275.

Police Court. Police Judge D. L. Sanders had a light Monday-morning docket today.

Joe Smith, colored, who came from Mayfield to spend the Sabbath in Paducah, was fined $25 and costs and given ten days in jail for "toting" a pistol. He said that he "didn't aim to do no harm," but this did not excuse him.

Other cases were: John Thomas, colored, breach of the peace $10; Oscar Demick, white, violating the Sabbath, continued; Geo. Frazier, colored, breach of ordinance, $5 and costs; English Pitman, colored, malicious cutting, fled away; Charles Williams, colored, obtaining money by false pretenses, held to answer and a warrant for petty larceny filed away. He sold stolen books and is accused of having stolen some clothes.

Held to Answer. William Morris, charged with cutting Herbert Foster at the Methodist church near Massac about a week ago, was tried before Justice Gholson Saturday afternoon at the county court house and held to answer, going to jail in default of a $300 bond. The two boys had a quarrel at the church door and Foster was stabbed. He is now able to be out.

To Hold Bankruptcy Court. Attorney E. W. Bagby, referee in bankruptcy, went to Murray this morning to attend a meeting of creditors in the bankrupt cases of Calvin and Walter Duncan for the purpose of electing a trustee and also to hear exceptions in the case of Will and L. C. Linn, of Murray.

Must Give Bond. Mrs. Bertie Wilbur was ruled to appear in county court the first day of the next term and show why she should not give good security as executrix of the estate of the late Mrs. M. J. Thompson.

Sold Fixtures. Deputy Sheriff W. H. Lyon this morning sold the office fixtures and furniture of the Home Purchasing company to satisfy a debt to Arthur Jones. The stuff was sold piece by piece and went to many purchasers. The amount will fully cover the debt.

Deeds. James D. Porteous and others deed to the Big Ten Improvement Co., for $365, property on West Tumble street.

J. C. Farley and Gip Husbands deed to Albert Miller, for $75, property in the Tully addition. Johann Sayre and others to L. R. Barnes, for $267, property in the Sowell addition.

Annie L. Wilson to Amanda Barnes for $237, property on Veiser avenue. J. C. Farley to Amanda Barnes, for $160, property in the Hayes subdivision.

E. W. Whittemore to L. R. Barnes, for $200, property in the Hayes subdivision. J. D. Downing to L. R. Barnes, for $15, property in the county.

Licensed to Marry. E. Hunter, aged 22, and Florence Miller, aged 22, colored, of the city, were this morning licensed to wed. Novel Tyler, age 23, and Ivy Stewart, age 20, of Rowlandtown, were today licensed to wed. They are colored.

Sues for Divorce. Johnnie Tilley Saturday filed a suit in circuit court against her husband R. K. Tilley for divorce on the grounds that he is serving a term in the state penitentiary for a felony. They married in June, 1903 and separated in March 1905. He was given a year in the penitentiary for false swearing. She asks that her maiden name Johnnie Smith be restored.

Master Commissioner's Sale. Master Commissioner Cecil Reed today filed in circuit court reports of two sales, one in the suit of Catherine Bradley against John McNamara, and Allie McChord against Harry Augustus.

Has Sold an Interest. Henry Urquhart, colored, who recently patented a valuable brake shoe for railroads, has not sold his patent. He has disposed of a one-tenth interest to Mr. James Weille, but still owns nine-tenths himself. Tests of the device already made have been very successful.

Shine 'Em Up LIQUID VENEER MAKES OLD THINGS NEW

Liquid Veneer is a wonder! It will make the whole interior of your house shine like new, making re-finishing or re-varnishing entirely unnecessary. It is not a varnish, but a surface food and cleaner, building up the original finish and making it brighter than ever. It is applied with a piece of cheese cloth and no experience is necessary. No drying to wait for. Removes all scratches, stains, dirt, dullness. It can be applied to any finish with beneficial results. Natural wood, as well as any color of paint, will be better for an application of Liquid Veneer.

Liquid Veneer will improve even the most beautiful furniture. It will take that smoky look from the Piano and other Mahogany, and is highly beneficial to Golden Oak, White Enamel, Gilt, Silver and other finishes. Liquid Veneer sells at 50 cents a bottle, and a bottle is enough to renovate the ordinary home. Try it and you will always buy it. A few trial bottles at 10c each.
