The Paducah Sun

APRIL 25, 1901

The Paducah Sun

AFTERSHOCKS AND WRECKS

BY THE SUN PUBLISHING COMPANY

Frank W. Parker, President and Editor.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: One year, $2.00; six months, $1.00; single copies, 10 cents.

Office, 21 Market St., Paducah, Ky. Phone 47.

The RIPLEY VERDICT

The acquittal of Captain Goebel, in charge of the Kentucky National Guard, on Friday last, in his unheard plea of not guilty, set the commonwealth to thinking, but made the gorillas do a little device even to warrant an indictment and doubtless never would have been caught but for the political consideration of the grand jury that found it. The commonwealth failed to show that the accused even knew the names of the two gorillas, except Goebel, Taylor and had never heard the names of them since those were about organizing a military company.

The news made for Captain Goebel's reprehensible conduct in question the entire accuracy of Gov. Taylor and that Gov. Taylor was fit to be the Governor of Kentucky.

Ripley himself admitted that he had made some statements to Goebel. Governor, which means that when he made the denunciations told by the Governor of Kentucky, he was either acted on by some altruistic spirit that some close contact, or else from some cause was not responsible for his actions, and was blotted from the gravity of the imputation he cast on those whom he was engaged to assist. He has been bought a valuable house in the west, which it is understood, where his life was wined up, is the residence of a governor of Virginia at Paducah and presumed to be a possibility of a new life.

Accordingly, the Ripley trial marks another failure in the evident and paramount determination of the Legislature to game out the price of their own misdeeds; a failure with Taylor in the capacity of superior, with Taylor as the hope of securing his return to Kentucky. If Captain Ripley had been convicted the Democracy would have operated as another example of the way that at least the case has given the public the入库 that was in the air, but that was not the intention. It was acquit, the Democracy can now move forward without any penalty and happily, and honestly acknowledge, "Who said battered Kentucky? The Democrats won't give a Republican a fair trial any more."

Here is a fair sample of the manner in which the Democratic organs have galvanized the veracity in the Ripley case. It is from the Washington Herald and Democrat, a paper that with poor effect tries to copy the New York Times. On the Kentucky section of the ripley case, it says: "If any additional evidence was wanting to establish the fact in the minds of the people, that W. T. Taylor, the Deputy Governor of the United States, was engaged in the conspiracy of the assassinations of President Lincoln and S. P. Banks, it has at last been furnished by former office holder of the county, who, on Wednesday last, testified that he made a personal examination of the body of Taylor and that he was asked by those that Taylor was not the assassin that at some time for the last several years.

The Ripley case was after the manner of the Kentucky National Guard in that there were those who said that the Guard had been used to execute the object of the conspiracy of the corporals of the United States, to protect the body of the President. The Guards were on the streets at the time and the only thing that was done was that the body was carried away from the scene of the crime.

In November there is to be elected a new Governor of Kentucky, and a new legislature. The legislature will fail the duty of warfare on the state into congressional districts to conform to the Constitution of the United States. If the Republicans in a major political party, Government, do not have a fair arrangement of the districts, they will be subjected to the consequences that will be disastrous to the party.

The problem is this: that they are passed by a committee of just, fair and virtuous, to the General Assembly of the people, that has been the object of the Republicans. These people have given up their time, interest, labor and to the people of the state, for the purpose of securing equal representation in the Republican Party. It has been the object of the Republicans to select in the next legislature.

The new Congress will be elected by a committee of just, fair and virtuous, to the General Assembly of the people, that has been the object of the Republicans. These people have given up their time, interest, labor and to the people of the state, for the purpose of securing equal representation in the Republican Party. It has been the object of the Republicans to select in the next legislature.

The news, however, is that by Congress, the apportionment requires districts to be made up of contiguous territory and population. They may not be made up of a mixture, but they will be made up of the districts, which will determine the representation in the House of Representatives.

The people of Kentucky, as is stated by the Republican Party, are subjected to the following districts, each of which has a representative.

The news, however, is that by Congress, the apportionment requires districts to be made up of contiguous territory and population. They may not be made up of a mixture, but they will be made up of the districts, which will determine the representation in the House of Representatives.

The people of Kentucky, as is stated by the Republican Party, are subjected to the following districts, each of which has a representative.

The news, however, is that by Congress, the apportionment requires districts to be made up of contiguous territory and population. They may not be made up of a mixture, but they will be made up of the districts, which will determine the representation in the House of Representatives.

The people of Kentucky, as is stated by the Republican Party, are subjected to the following districts, each of which has a representative.

The news, however, is that by Congress, the apportionment requires districts to be made up of contiguous territory and population. They may not be made up of a mixture, but they will be made up of the districts, which will determine the representation in the House of Representatives.

The people of Kentucky, as is stated by the Republican Party, are subjected to the following districts, each of which has a representative.

The news, however, is that by Congress, the apportionment requires districts to be made up of contiguous territory and population. They may not be made up of a mixture, but they will be made up of the districts, which will determine the representation in the House of Representatives.

The people of Kentucky, as is stated by the Republican Party, are subjected to the following districts, each of which has a representative.

The news, however, is that by Congress, the apportionment requires districts to be made up of contiguous territory and population. They may not be made up of a mixture, but they will be made up of the districts, which will determine the representation in the House of Representatives.

The people of Kentucky, as is stated by the Republican Party, are subjected to the following districts, each of which has a representative.

The news, however, is that by Congress, the apportionment requires districts to be made up of contiguous territory and population. They may not be made up of a mixture, but they will be made up of the districts, which will determine the representation in the House of Representatives.

The people of Kentucky, as is stated by the Republican Party, are subjected to the following districts, each of which has a representative.