THE BOARD OF HEALTH.
Finally Decides the Dr. Bernheim Matter.
He Cannot Practice in Kentucky Without an American Diploma.

Dr. Albert Bernheim, late of Hamburg, Germany, will not practice medicine until he secures an American diploma. This was definitely and finally settled this morning by a letter from Dr. J. N. McCormick, secretary of the state board of health, to acting chairman of the county board, Dr. J. Q. Taylor. The letter is as follows:
 BOWLING GREEN, Ky., Nov. 16.
 Dr. J. Q. Taylor, Paducah, Ky.: DEAR DOCTOR:—Your letter of inquiry received and contents noted.
 My record book is in Louisville, but your information is entirely correct as to the action of the board in regard to foreign diplomas. We have no means of ascertaining the standing of European colleges, and have been forced to adopt this course in order to protect our people from the numerous bogus diplomas coming from that side. Their authorities have long held to the same course in regard to all American diplomas.
 Very respectfully,
 (Signed) J. N. McCORMICK, Secretary.

This is of course no reflection on Dr. Bernheim, but it shows that the State Board of Health will adhere to its resolves. Its action is based on and authorized by the following Kentucky statute:
 "Sec. 2613. Certificate from State Board of Health.—Authority to Practice.—To Whom Issued.— Fee.—Authority to practice medicine under this law shall be a certificate from the State Board of Health, and said board shall, upon application, issue a certificate to any reputable physician who is practicing, or who desires to begin the practice of medicine in this State, who possesses any of the following qualifications:
 1. A diploma from a reputable medical college legally chartered under the laws of this State.
 2. A diploma from a reputable and legally chartered medical college of some other state or country, indorsed as such by the state board of health.
 3. Satisfactory evidence from the person claiming the same that such person was reputedly and honorably engaged in the practice of medicine in this state prior to February 23, 1864.
 4. Satisfactory evidence from any person who was reputedly and honorably engaged in the practice of medicine in this state prior to Feb.
 23, 1864, who has passed a satisfactory practical examination before said board. Applicants may present their credentials by mail or proxy, and the board shall issue its certificate to such applicants as are entitled thereto as though the applicanwas present. All certificates shall be signed by the president and secretary and attested by seal of board, and not more than $2 shall be charged for any certificate."
 It is said that Dr. Bernheim will go to Louisville and take a several months' course of lectures in one of the colleges.

MARKET ORDINANCES.
Warrants Now being Issued Under them.
Judge Sanders Dismisses Two Cases This Morning.

The market house ordinance are just now occasioning the police authorities a great deal of trouble.
 There is one ordinance which prohibits goods of any description being taken from a retail business house and exposed for sale in the market house.
 Ed. F. Kirksey, a Second street merchant, was charged with this offense this morning and was a very loquacious defendant. He insisted on making speeches and finally asked for a few days time to secure witnesses to prove that they had been doing the same thing that he had done, and said he was going to have every man on the market house to testify in his behalf. Judge Sanders informed him that it wouldn't make any difference how many men did the same thing, it wouldn't in any way excuse the defendant and he would issue warrants against all of them. The case was continued.
 Bennett Bros. and Frank Chaney were charged with similar offenses and admitted that they had acted as charged in the warrant, but claimed that they wanted to do right and had asked the market master to inform them whenever they went astray.
 The warrants were dismissed.

TWO STORIES.
The Woman Says She Didn't and the Watchman Says
 "Yes."
 The case against Mary Givens, colored, charged with stealing coal from Baroes & Elliott's yard, was continued in Judge Judge Sanders' court this morning until tomorrow.
 The woman claims that she picked the coal from the ground while the watchman swears that he saw her take it from the car. She wants an opportunity to prove her story and it was accorded her by Judge Sanders.

Funeral of Judge Marshall.
 The funeral of Judge C. S. Marshall took place this afternoon at Oak Grove. A number of prominent lawyers met the remains at the depot. Mr. Tom Marshall, son of the deceased, arrived this morning from Montana.
 The pall bearers were: Hous,
 W. S. Bishop, Q. Q. Quigley, E.
 W. Bagley, L. D. Humbards, J. D.
 White, J. W. Bloomfield, J. H.
 Ashcraft and T. E. Moss. Rev. H.
 L. Calhoun conducted the services.

 Louisville division of the I. C. yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock. A work train drawn by engine 558 and an extra freight drawn by engine 609 collided at Horton, near Beaver Dam.
 The tank on the work train was demolished and the pilot on the extra freight was knocked off. No one was hurt.

HORSE THIEF CAPTURED.
Had Stolen a Horse From His Brother.
Captured in Calloway County by Deputy Sheriff Fulton.
 Chas. Cole was placed in the Marshall county jail at Benton yesterday evening upon the charge of stealing a horse from his brother, J. J. Cole, of the same county. He had started to Tennessee and tried to sell the horse in Calloway county where he was captured by Deputy Sheriff Fulton of that county and taken to Benton yesterday where he was lodged in the county jail. His examining trial will come up Friday before County Judge Dupriest.

"An Important Legal Decision." It has been decided by the supreme court of New York state that all life insurance policies upon which a rebate of any portion of the premium has been given are null and void.
 The decision is based upon the well known principle that any contract made in violation of law is inoperative and cannot be enforced.
 Persons who are holding policies upon which they received a rebate from the agent should carefully consider this decision, as almost every state in the Union, including New York, has a law against rebating. n1713.
