

THE BELLE OF DULUTH.

The Brilliant Nuptials of S. J. Schackelford and Miss Marianne Magoffin a Great Social Event.

Senator Goebel Was Best Man, The Bridal Party Will Come Straight to Their Owensboro Home.

Duluth, Minn., Nov. 11.—Yesterday afternoon, at the First Presbyterian church, Miss Marianne Magoffin, daughter of Beriah Magoffin, and Hon. Samuel J. Schackelford, of Owensboro, Ky., were married. The wedding was the most conspicuous social event that Duluth has seen in a number of years. The bride is a granddaughter of Beriah Magoffin, the war governor of Kentucky, and one of the belles of Duluth. She is a tall brunette, queenly in carriage and with great beauty of face, and her social conquests have extended far beyond Duluth.

The wedding was a quiet and simple one, owing to a recent bereavement in the family of the groom, but the church was filled with friends. The wedding party entered to the music of the Lohengrin wedding march, played by Mrs. James N. McKinley. First came the little flower girls, Miss Lulu Magoffin and Miss May Cleland; then the ushers, Urey Woodson, of Owensboro; A. W. Hartman, W. R. Peyton, A. M. Miller, Jr., H. F. Williamson, Jr., E. Jacob, H. B. Fryberger, O. C. Hartman and Heber Hartley, all of Duluth. Miss Virginia Magoffin, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor and her only attendant.

The bride was with her father, Beriah Magoffin, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Hon. William Goebel, of Covington, Ky. The ceremony was performed by Dr. T. H. Cleland, pastor of the church and an uncle of the bride. Before the ceremony Miss Elizabeth Spencer sang "The Lovers Lullaby." As the wedding party left the church the organ played a beautiful march arrangement of "My Old Kentucky Home."

The bride wore a handsome tailor-made gown, tan colored and very simply made. The jacket matched the suit and was laid in with gold. Her hat was a handsome brown creation, large in size, with brown feathers, and in perfect accord with the gown, as were also the gloves. She carried pink chrysanthemums.

After the ceremony the party drove immediately to the Owensboro depot and left for Chicago, and from there will go to Owensboro, Ky., where they will make their home. They will take a wedding trip in January, going to Florida for two months. Mr. Schackelford was accompanied to Duluth by Senator William Goebel, of Covington; Urey Woodson, of the Owensboro Messenger, and C. L. Nelson, of Louisville.

MIDDLESBOROUGH'S HARD LUCK.

Mammoth Foundry and Machine Works Wiped Out By Fire Yesterday.

Middlesborough, Ky., Nov. 10.—The worst calamity that has ever befallen ill-fated Middlesborough since the destructive fire which wiped out the basis of the city seven years ago, occurred today in the total destruction of the Middlesborough Foundry and Machine Works. Fire was discovered in the foundry department at 9 o'clock, and the mammoth plant was burned to the ground in less than two hours. The building was erected at a cost of $110,000.00 and was filled with fine iron-working machinery at a cost of nearly half a million dollars. No fire protection was provided in the building or vicinity, and nothing could be done toward saving any of the property. The industry was owned and operated by English capital and had been running for about fourteen months. Contracts had been received to construct the machinery for Arbuckle Brothers' sugar refinery, besides numerous other contracts from large Eastern syndicates, which would have kept the foundry steadily employed for more than a year. The loss is felt by all classes in this city, for it is not probable that it will be rebuilt. The estimated loss is $500,000; insurance held in London, $100,000.

CAPT. JOHNSON WORSE.

Mrs. Holly's Condition is Unimproved.

Capt. Wm. Johnson, of the Paducah Ice Company, who was stricken Saturday evening with something similar to apoplexy, suffered a relapse this morning and was today considered in a dangerous condition. He was getting along nicely until today when the change came.

The condition of Supt. W. H. Holly, of the Paducah Water Company, is a bit critical. He is suffering from congestion of the brain, and his condition is such that relatives have been telegraphed to come at once.

Mr. Charlie Eaker is better today than his friends will learn with pleasure.

NINE WERE KILLED.

Horrible Wreck on the L. H. & St. L. Railroad Near Lewisport.—Train Derailed By a Tree.

All the Train Burned Except One Coach.—One of the Worst Wrecks Ever Known in Kentucky.

Owensboro, Ky., Nov. 11.—The passenger train on the L. H. & St. L. R. R. was wrecked last night at Lewisport, and the whole train was burned except a special coach in which was a fishing party from Louisville headed by Emmet Logan. Nine persons were killed in the wreck and a number more were severely injured. The cause of the wreck was a tree fallen across the track.

CAPT. JACK LAWSON

Removed as Engineer at the Custom House

On Account of Old Age. Mr. Walter Mercer Succeeds Him.

Mr. Walter Mercer was today appointed engineer at the government building to succeed Captain Jack Lawson, who was retired on account of his age. He is over 80 years old.

Mr. Mercer is the well known coal man, and will be sworn in about the 15th, if not sooner.

On the 15th H. B. Davis, colored, the new janitor, will go into office.

THE COURTS.

A Short Session of the Police Tribunal.

The Allard Will Case Taking Up Time in the Circuit Court.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The Allard will case will likely not be finished for several days. There have been a number of witnesses examined today.

Johann Stuck today filed suit against W. C. Lewis, of Texas, for $150 on a note and the foreclosure of a mortgage.

Henry Wood was granted a divorce from Minerva Wood.

COUNTY COURT.

Mr. Desner Thompson, aged 21, of Graves county, and Miss Lonella Hall, of Lovelockville, were licensed to marry today.

Today's session of the police court was very brief. Chas. Rice, colored, charged with cutting a girl accidentally at Old Fellow's Hall night before last, was arraigned on a charge of malicious cutting, but the warrant was dismissed and he was fined $25 and costs for a breach of the peace.

In the breach of the peace case between Aaron Hurley and Merchant's Policeman Luffen, the former was fined $5 and costs and the latter $3 and costs.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL NEWS.

The Conductors all Sent Back to Fulton.

Quarantine Raised on the Entire Fulton District.

Today the quarantine was raised in the entire Fulton district.

The Southbound passenger, No. 221, which came in at 6:05 last evening, ran over Rastus Baize at Horse Branch yesterday afternoon. The boy was at the station waiting for an uncle, and lived in the country.

Engineers Joe Randall and W. S. Edwards left this morning to resume their runs on the main line between Fulton via Memphis, and New Orleans.

The passenger conductors who have been making Paducah a terminal since yellow fever struck Memphis, were today ordered to begin stopping at Fulton again. They are consequently passing through Paducah again, instead of stopping here.

Local railroad men expect the first copies of the new time card tomorrow, or Saturday, at the most. There is a great deal of interest manifested in the proposed schedule.

The Illinois Central has adopted the Brown's system of (i) clips on the Freeport, Dubuque and Cherokee divisions. This system is in use on many lines, and if it proves satisfactory will be adopted all over the Illinois Central's system. The Brown system consists in posting the mistakes of employes on a bulletin board or in a book which can be examined by all.

The Illinois Central R. R. Co. has purchased the Gale farm, about two miles above Thebes on the Mississippi river and opposite Gray's Point, paying for it the sum of $8,043.00. The deeds were filed for record yesterday. Something of a town will grow up on that place, and the Illinois Central will recoup its investment, and more besides, by the sale of lots. Such portion of the land it has purchased there as the Central Co. does not need will be platted into lots and blocks. The future town has already been named, and its name is Gale. The location there on both sides of the river is admirable for building a bridge, the shores being high and rocky, and doubtless the Central will build one there as soon as practicable. The Thebes people are excited over the proximity of the new town in prospect, and are wondering how it will affect their burg.

COMING.

Yale's "Twelve Temptations" to Appear at Morton's Monday Night.

It goes without saying that the opera house will be packed to its utmost capacity during the engagement of Chas. H. Pale's magnificent production, "The Twelve Temptations," which will be seen at Morton's Monday night.

Manager Yale's name is known far and wide in connection with spectacular productions, and is everywhere justly regarded as a guaranty of surpassing excellence. Its association with "The Twelve Temptations" has proven no exception to the rule, and the colossal show piece has created the biggest kind of a sensation everywhere it has been presented; besides the play is entirely new in every particular and literally overflows with genuine and astounding novelties, while its scenic beauties, which are legion, invariably carry the audience by storm and call forth thunders of applause.

More heat, less fuel—Moore's Air Tight Heater.

Just received—Salt water fish at Bockman's, Phone 259.

Used Bad Words.

Will Shaw, colored, was warranted last night by Judge Sanders on a charge of using insulting language towards Emma Force, and making an effort to strike her.

DEATH'S SUDDEN CALL.

A Stranger Expires on Lodging House Steps.—His Name Believed to be Sammory.

Came Over From Illinois Very Ill Yesterday.—Had Relatives in Webster County, It is Supposed.

A strange man dropped dead last evening at the restaurant of "Catfish" Jones, one South Second street. All efforts to determine his identity beyond a question of a doubt have been unsuccessful. It is thought, however, that he is J. W. Sammory, of Webster county, Ky.

The stranger came here yesterday and went to "Catfish" Jones' restaurant on South Second street. He said he had been at work for Henry Linn, of near Stringtown, Ill., and was ill. His physical condition, in fact, was what prompted him to give up work. He asked for a room and was directed up a stairway, Wm. McClane, an employe, following him up to show him the room. The stranger fell on the stairs and expired before he could be carried down.

An inquest was held and developed the fact that he came to his death from heart failure superinduced by congestion.

He had a shoe box with the name "Jas. W. Smith, Dexter, Mo.," on it, and in his pocket was a note-book containing the name of "J. W. Sammory," dated November 3rd, and in which was an entry that the writer was out of money and trying to get back to his home in Webster county. On the inside cover the words "J. W. Sammory's Day Book" were found. Two other entries indicated that he had picked forty-three pounds of cotton for a man named Henry Frazier, and that he had "paid John Dye one dollar."

The note was torn from the book, and said the writer was forced to beg for the first time in his life, and that he was 39 years old, and had always tried to read everybody right.

The note said further, that he was endeavoring to reach relatives in Webster county, Ky., and if he ever got there he would remain.

John Dye, who lives in Mechanicsburg, viewed the remains today for the purpose of identifying the man, but stated that he did not know him.

There is another John Dye in Illinois, and as that is where the man came from, the Dye in Illinois is doubtless the one meant.

Coroner Nance today embalmed the remains and will hold them until the relatives of the deceased can be found and heard from. He has written one or two persons in Webster county, and is confident the man's name is Sammory.

SCALDING STEAM.

Wharf Boat Clerk Wayne Turner Burned.

Water Glass on the "Nigger Boiler" Burst This Morning.

About 10 o'clock this morning the water glass to the "nigger boiler" in the wharf boat was blown out, and Col. Wayne Turner, the wharfboat clerk, who happened to be standing nearby, was severely scalded by the boiling water. The hot fluid drenched him, and although it soaked through his coat, vest and shirt, he was not painfully burned anywhere except on the hand. The accident made quite a great deal of noise.

A WHILOM PADUCAHAN.

Is Now President of the Louisville Council.

Mr. S. S. Blitz is the Man So Honored.

Mr. S. S. Blitz, the newly elected president of the council at Louisville, was formerly a resident of Paducah.

He is a son of Mr. I. Blitz, who kept a clothing store on Broadway a few years ago, and was a fine violinist. He now has a large music academy in Louisville, and his son, who has been honored with one of the largest offices within the gift of the people, is a prominent lawyer. The whole family is well known here.

ROUGH HARBOR.

The Wind Plays Havoc With the Boats.

The harbor was very rough and windy today, and as a result there was little navigation.

The W. K. Phillips, for Cairo, did not leave, but remained at her moorings all day.

The ferry-boat went down to Brooklyn, being unable to make the turns in the shallow channel on account of the wind, and was there delayed several hours.

The transfer boat could hardly effect a landing at the I. C. incline, although it did not encounter much difficulty in running.

THEY ARE ALL RIGHT.

The Paducah Building and Loan Associations.

All Associations Are of the Same Nature and What Is True of One is so of Another

In reference to the decision of the court of appeals in regard to the building and loan associations, the following from Mr. C. M. Phillips and Mr. Hutchinson is of great interest. Paducah associations are on the same basis as the National. The statement is as follows:

The decision of the court of appeals rendered today is all we have claimed as necessary for the welfare of the building and loan associations, following from Mr. C. M. Phillips and Mr. Hutchinson is of great interest. Paducah associations are on the same basis as the National. The statement is as follows:

Phillips and Mr. Hutchinson is of great interest. Paducah associations are on the same basis as the National. The statement is as follows:

HIS SECOND MARRIAGE.

Hon. S. J. Schackelford Was Married Once Before.

His First Wife Was a Miss Wright, of Madisonville, Ky.

It does not seem to be generally known in the state that the marriage yesterday of Mr. Sam J. Schackelford, at Duluth, Minn., to Miss Magoffin, was not his first matrimonial venture.

Mr. Schackelford, who is now clerk of the court of appeals, was married in Madisonville twelve or fifteen years ago to a Miss Wright, who lived but a few years.

This was before Mr. Schackelford made the race for sheriff of Hopkins county. Mr. Schackelford is a personal friend of many people in Paducah, and has been friends for many years.

IS NOW WELL.

The Boy W was Hurt on the Coal Dock Recovered.

Joe Ross, the boy who was found in an unconscious condition on a coal dock three or four weeks ago, and who was taken home in a precarious condition, was in the city last evening. He returned to the city with a blanket loaned his step-father when he was carried home. The boy is now almost well, although it was thought when he was taken away that he could not possibly recover. He had congestion of the brain.

HAMMOND IN THE HOSPITAL.

Was Taken There for Treatment Last Evening.

Charlie Hammond, who was poisoned Sunday by an overdose of anti-febrine, was removed to the city hospital for treatment late yesterday afternoon.

Hammond was almost dead when found, and the doctor who attended him said he must have been given thirty grains of the drug, at least. It was given to him in a saloon. Today Hammond was better.

DOING THE RIGHT THING.

Plan of a Middlesborough Man Whose Employee's Legs Were Cut Off.

Middlesborough News: Red Scott who had his legs cut off two weeks ago, at the steam shovel, is getting along very nicely. We are told that as soon as he is able Manager Hoefler, of the Steam Shovel Company, will take him to Chicago to have artificial legs put on him, and then put him in college for a couple of years, after which he will be given a position in the office of the company. Scott had only been married about a month when the accident happened. His wife came up from her home at Artemus and has been with him ever since.
