DEATH OF THE GEN. QUITMAN.—The loss of the Vicksburg General Quitman, has, unhappily, proved to be too true. On the 23rd inst., at noon, the steamer, while landing at New Orleans, was struck by a torpedo, and in a few minutes set to the boiler deck. The buoyancy of the cotton kept her afloat long enough to enable all on board to save their lives...

A HUNDRED YEARS IN PRISON.—A certain housebreaker was condemned, in the latter part of the last century, in France, and under peculiar circumstances, to a hundred years in the galleys, and strange to relate, this man recently made his appearance in his own native province, at the advanced age of 120 years, he being about twenty years of age when the sentence which condemned him to such a dreadful punishment was passed.

It is difficult to conceive what the feeling must have been with which he returned, as soon as emancipated from the shackles which had entrained him for a century, to breathe once more the cherished air of the scene of his infancy.

GOOD NEWS.—If you want cheap home-made Furniture, call on Charles Oswald, at his new Furniture store.

GEN. FORREST CHALLENGES GEN. KILPATRICK.

GEN. FORREST, in a letter to E. H. Shackelford, of New Haven, Connecticut, which appears in the Memphis papers, denounces General, Judson Kilpatrick in unmeasured terms, and refers him to Gen. Basil Duke, of Louisville, who will receive any communication which he, Kilpatrick, may deem proper. The letter refers to some remarks made by Gen. Kilpatrick.

SPECIAL NOTICES

"How Chilly the Evenings in October." There is a common remark, yet how few think of the danger of exposing themselves to its influence? In all low, marshy localities Ague and Fever prevail at this season of the year. In this disease there is invariably more or less derangement of the liver and digestive organs. The remedies usually resorted to have reference to preventing the paroxysm or breaking up the chills. If this is effected without removing the cause, a relapse is inevitable. HOSZETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS directly at the foundation of the evil, by acting on the liver and correcting digestion. The cause being removed, the paroxysm will cease, and the chills cannot return. When the patient is weak and debilitated, the BITTERS should be resorted to, as they will strengthen and tone the stomach, allay all nervous irritation, and infuse renewed vitality into the hitherto drooping system.
