

New Goods. NEW GOODS. New Goods.

JUST RECEIVED, AND NOW ON DISPLAY, AT

H. BUCHANAN'S,

The finest and most magnificent line of Dry Goods ever brought to the city of Hickman, consisting in part of Silks, Satins, Dress Goods, Velvets, Hosiery, White Goods, Linens, Laces, Embroideries, Lace Curtains, Handkerchiefs, Ribbons, Gloves, Jerseys, Corsets, Skirts, Dress Trimmings, Buttons, Swiss Embroidered Dresses, Fans, Yokings, Embroidered Skirts, &c. We offer our entire line of Goods at ten to twenty per cent. less than can be found elsewhere. Call and examine Goods and prices and be convinced that at Buchanan's you can get just what you want.

THE HICKMAN COURIER.

EXAMINING THE BOOKS

How They Are Progressing in the Work.

During the Presidential campaign, the Democrats made the argument continually and persistently that the Republicans had been keeping the books for 24 years, and that it was only fair to let the Democrats, constituting one-half the people of the country, have the opportunity to examine and see if there was anything wrong. This was no idle demand, and President Cleveland is taking steps to have it done. All the heads of the Departments now are Democrats, and the President has caused a committee of three in each Department, competent and expert book-keepers, to go over the books minutely and closely, to the end that any leakage may be discovered, the rascals found out, and a proper system of economy inaugurated. Who can object to this? Certainly not the Democrats who demanded it, and helped to elect Cleveland on this issue. And certainly honest Republicans ought not to object; and if the rascally ones do, let them wince, and the guilty be punished.

See and cheap stock of Lace Curtains and Carpets, at J. AMBERG'S SONS.

The Fultonian, in urging the claims of the Fulton county candidate for the Legislature, says: "According to the tradition of counties taking time about in sending representatives to the General Assembly, it is now Fulton county that has the reputation of being the better man than his opponent, see that he is elected; if not, don't. It is no time to stand on 'tradition.'"—[Paducah Standard.

Ab, verily, if Hickman county would abrogate the tradition is not the burden of proof on that county to show that her candidate is the better qualified for the position, and not on the Fultonian? We quite agree with the Standard that the test should be "capacity and qualification," but the "tradition courtesy" of alternating the member presumes that each county has equally competent material. The truth is the Democratic party is the responsible power in Kentucky, that party has to bear the censure of unwise and unhealthy legislation, and therefore that party ought to select its candidate or candidates in each and every county. The party cannot shirk the responsibility if it would, and should not if it could.

See the late Style Clothing and low prices at J. AMBERG'S SONS.

A KENTUCKY paper charges that the Tennessee Legislature adjourned in a body to New Orleans for the purpose of witnessing the sun in eclipse in that city. They laughed at the argument of the conservative members who contended that the same phenomenon would occur in Nashville on the same day.

JAS. H. BERRY has been elected by the Arkansas Legislature to succeed Garland in the U. S. Senate.

Economy has swept many useless employees from the White House and departments already, but the work has not yet fairly begun. The new heads of departments must first get acquainted with their duties and the real situation. To put in new men and sweep out at the same time is an arduous undertaking and must be done slowly to be done well.

Brother Burchard, of Rum, Romanism and Rebellion memory, has been retired from the ministry on account of old age, on a yearly stipend of $300. While every Democrat in the land wishes long years of peace and prosperity to Brother Burchard, the Louisville Times thinks it doubtful if all the Evangelists in the land could pump one prayer in his behalf from a Republican heart.

Great destitution exist in portions of West Virginia. In Jackson county an organization has been formed to forcibly compel a division of the food remaining in the neighborhood to preserve the life of man and beast.

Our Foreign Ministers.

President Cleveland has appointed the following foreign ministers:

To Great Britain, J. Phelps of Vermont, to Great Britain, J. Phelps of Vermont, to Germany, George H. Pendleton, of Ohio, to Mexico, Henry K. Jackson, of Georgia, to Ecuador, E. Benton, of Missouri, Attorney for the United States for the Western District of Missouri.

SKETCHES OF THE NEW MINISTERS.

Edward J. Phelps is a prominent lawyer of Burlington, Vt. He is about 60 years of age and the possessor of a moderate fortune. He is ex-President of the American Bar Association and has practiced before the Supreme Court at Washington, and is now highly esteemed as a lawyer and man of culture. He has several times been the Democratic candidate for Governor of Vermont, but so far as known here he has never held public office. For two years past he has delivered lectures on law to the graduating class at Yale College. He is the son of ex-Senator Phelps of Vermont, and Senator Edmunds was his legal preceptor.

Mr. Phelps is a personal friend of Justice Field of the Supreme Court, who speaks in the highest terms of his learning.

Robt. M. McLane is the present Governor of Maryland.

Henry Rootes Jackson is a native of Georgia, and 64 years of age. He graduated at Yale College in 1839, and was shortly afterwards admitted to the bar. He was Colonel of a Georgia regiment in the Mexican War, and for four succeeding years he was a Judge in the eastern circuit in Georgia. In 1853 he was sent to represent the United States at Vienna, Austria, where he remained five years, and he has since held various positions. Since the war Jackson has practiced law in Georgia. He has of late years held no public office, and is a man of independent fortune, and highly honored and prominent men of his State. Mr. Jackson is the author of several poems, "Tallulah" being among them.

Mrs. Blaine and the Cleavelands.

The event and the sensation of Miss Cleveland's reception last Saturday afternoon was the call of Mrs. Blaine. The fact that Mrs. Blaine had called on the President the day before, and her strange smiles to people's faces, and all who read the campaign literature wondered how either one could consent to speak to such a man as their own newspapers and orators had been denouncing. Mrs. Blaine made his call quietly at an hour when no one else was likely to be at the White House, but Mrs. Blaine came in the thick of a crowded reception and immediately centered all eyes upon her and raised people on tip-toe to see her. She advanced straight toward Miss Cleveland, was presented to her and to Mrs. Hoy, and with a few words passed on. She declined the invitation to go back of the line in the Blue Parlor to chat with the court circle, and went immediately out and to her carriage. She wore the stern and lofty air of one who does a solemn duty, and the whole two minute act held the audience breathless. When she had disappeared through the doorway, each woman looked at her bewildered and asked, "What does it mean?" The Democrats took it jubilantly as a sign that Mrs. Blaine had "come down," as they expressed it, others believed that Mrs. Blaine had used extraordinary eloquence to bring it about, and the third explanation was that the call was made chiefly as a taunt to President Arthur and his sister, to whom she has not spoken since November.

Peddlers Licenses.

FRANKFORT, March 19.—The Court of Appeals today decided the very important case of Rash vs. Holloway, which in substance requires all peddlers of wares and merchandise regardless of citizenship, to take out a State license. The amount of the license is $100 for the State-at-large or 65 cents for each 100 voters when only one or more counties are asked for. Peddlers of hardware, stoneware, tin, carpenter, lamp, sewing machines and portable mills are exempt.

Russia is occupying important posts in Asia, and threatens India. England is alarmed and there is talk of war between the two countries. If England and Russia were to lock horns, it would be a lively fight.

Cleveland and the Office-Seekers.

The Cleveland saying is quoted as having a striking resemblance to some of Mr. Lincoln's. For instance, the other day half a dozen good and true Democrats from a Western State went to the White House to see the President about certain offices they had come for. There was perfect agreement among themselves and all they wanted was to have Mr. Cleveland agree with them. Of his doing so they had little doubt when he heard them State their case. They were admitted and a hearty hand-shaking followed. Then the spokesman of the party spoke up:

"You see," said he, "we're all Democrats, hard workers for the party and have concluded that these offices would be about the fair thing. We're all agreed about the business, and would like to have it done up right soon."

Mr. Cleveland listened attentively as they all spoke around. When they had done he spoke. "Are the men in the offices not of good character?"

They all said they were, and added: "But they are Republicans and we're Democrats. We think fair about would be the fair thing."

"Are you prepared to charge them with anything wrong in office? Do they administer the offices satisfactorily?"

They said they had nothing to charge against them, only they were Republicans.

"You see," said one, perceiving where the thing was drifting, "we all worked hard for the party last fall and our district gave a larger majority than ever. We thought the offices would go with the election and so we've come for them."

"When will the terms of the incumbents expire?" asked the President.

"They all spoke up: 'Two years.'"

"Two years," repeated the President, musingly, immediately another party of office-seekers appeared at the White House and stated their case in the same way as the others. They were Democrats and had agreed among themselves who should have certain offices, the terms of the incumbents of which would not expire for some time.

Mr. Cleveland heard them through and then said nothing, he saw anything between you and the offices except the law and my promises to see it executed."

To another company on a similar errand he said: "There is a law bearing on the question and I have had something to say myself about removals and appointments which you will find in my letter to Mr. Curtis. Neither seems to have received your attention and I will be glad to send you copies of both."

STARVING TO DEATH.

A Dreadful Tale of the Suffering of People in the Back Counties of West Virginia.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., March 23.—Reports of great suffering from several back counties among the people and stock for want of food have been extant for some time, but not until today were the reports confirmed. A gentleman who has traveled through Braxter, Gilmer and Calhoun counties, says a few days travel in the counties named has proven the destitution and suffering to be indescribable. In many localities the people are on the verge of death by starvation. The stock are no better off than the people, and are dying for want of food. The suffering is great in Boone and Jackson counties. In some sections of the stricken districts the people are subsisting on beans and a gruel made from wheat ground in coffee-mills. The greatest suffering exists in the parts isolated from towns and railroads, where supplies cannot be gotten for miles. A store cannot be found, and those that are kept have scarcely enough on hand for the use of the proprietors' families. The low state of wells and springs during the drought last summer and fall sowed the seed of disease. Many people are sick. The difficulty in getting medicine adds to the terror of the situation. All through the section named the crops were cut short last year, and suffering is beyond the comprehension of those who have not traveled through the mountainous regions. The wheat crop is short and farmers in the stricken section are unable to procure seed corn.

Gen. Grant continues to get worse, and his physicians say he cannot last much longer. It surely ought to be a lesson to constant smokers, that in so short a time three of the greatest men of this country have been killed by smoking to excess. B. H. Hill, of Georgia; Matt Carpenter, of Michigan, and Gen. Grant.

THE UNION CITY HANGING.

They Did Not Commit Murder.

The tap of the eleven o'clock bell was the signal, and promptly at that hour the prisoners were taken from their guards. They were carried to the Fair Ground, an open place under a guard. Frank Freeman was taken to one side and his examination was commenced thus:

"What are the names of the white men who have been concerned in the robbery of houses in your town?"

"Fayette Reinhart and Will Olive."

"No one else?"

"No."

"What had you to do in, or what do you know about, the murder of Mr. Moore?"

"I know nothing of it."

At this stage of the game a little persuasion was brought to bear on the witness in the following way: A rope was placed around his temples, and in the slack of this, at the end of a head a stick was twisted. A strong man turned this stick, and at each turn the victim was asked the same and last question. No confession on the point was elicited from him. He was reminded, and taken to one side. Charles Reinhart was taken up. On being asked if he knew anything about the robberies, he confessed having been concerned in them. When asked if there were white men connected with the business he said "No." The same gentle means of persuasion were used until he faintly. On his recovery he said "Yes." He was then asked, "Were not Fayette Reinhart and Will Olive the men who were in with you and these other men in your burglaries?" A little comment squeezed out the answer, "Yes."

But why go through the sickening details. The facts are these: All five negroes confessed to participating in the robberies. None of them do with the murder of Moore. Freeman alone suggested the names of the white men as given above.

Polygamists' Death-Knell.

SALT LAKE, March 19.—The church organ breaks the silence to-night for the first time since the rumor of the coming abrogation of polygamy at the spring conference. It argues against it, but does not absolutely deny it, admitting that the church has been on the board of health reported 33 cases, all colored excepting two, these being two young children of John Schuler's. An official order has been issued by the authorities requiring all persons to give proof of successful vaccination within the past seven years. The schools have been dismissed, all public assemblages, whether church or secular, are prohibited, and the skating rink has been discontinued. The people are excited with reports, many believing there are more cases than those reported to the board of health, and the disease has sprung into its formidable proportions so rapidly a much further spread of it is feared.

Democrats Appointed.

James D. Porter, of Tennessee, Assistant Secretary of State. John D. C. Atkins, of Tennessee, Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Martin V. Montgomery, of Michigan, Commissioner of Patents.

Milton J. Durham, of Kentucky, First Comptroller of the Treasury. Malcolm Hay, of Pennsylvania, First Assistant Postmaster General.

Joseph R. Ryan, of Nevada, Commissioner of the Mint at Carson City, Nev.

Wm. C. Girard, of Nevada, Superintendent of the Mint at Carson City, Nev.

Henry L. Muldrow, of Mississippi, Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

Wm. A. J. Sparks, of Illinois, Commissioner General of the Land Office.

Daniel McConville, of Ohio, Auditor of the Treasury for the Postoffice Department.

A Clean Sweep in the South.

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 22.—Mr. Edgar S. Wilson, editor of the New Mississippiian, at Jackson, Miss., is in the city en route home from Washington. He has for a long time been Senator Lamar's confidential secretary, and is undoubtedly on the inside of the administration. He says that there will be a general sweeping out of office-holders throughout the South in a very short time, and the places will be filled with Democrats. He thinks the Senate will probably adjourn next Tuesday. The Southern people, he says, are so far delighted with Cleveland's administration.

Our Next Governor.

Capt. T. C. Allen, of the Princeton Banner, is mentioned by the Livingston Sentinel as a favorite for the next governor of Kentucky. Why not? Capt. Allen is a polished, educated gentleman and would do honor to the position. Besides, he is a true representative and a western Kentucky man and as thorough a democrat as "rod in shoe leather." The democracy can go farther and fare worse in making a selection.

An Anecdote.

"I was once riding in the cars through Kansas," remarked a gentleman, "and suffering excruciating pains from a pricking, irritating little pony. The wash-staff, such as a careless landlady will sometimes leave on a shirt band. I pulled, and rubbed, and tried to smooth it down; but the plaguey thing hung there, and I was fast losing all interest in life. At Topeka a gentleman got on board having on a fresh shirt, I saw him rub his sleeve once or twice with an air of annoyance. Ah! I thought I, a fellow-sufferer. And I felt somewhat comforted. But suddenly he walked to the water tank, wet his fingers, ran them up his shirt-sleeve, and returned to his seat with the air of a wise man made perfectly happy. It was a revelation to me! He had wet down the starch crick. Years of happiness have been added to my life by that man."

Why He Didn't Fail.

Last spring an Indiana man started a bank in a town in Dakota, and about the 1st of October, having secured deposits to the extent of $25,000, a notice was one morning posted on the doors of the bank reading: "Temporarily closed—how to pay the depositors in full." The banker wanted to test the temper of the public previous to a big scoop. In the course of half an hour the door was kicked in, the office gutted, the banker stepped on until he was fifteen feet long and only two inches thick, and the checker had held a revolver to his ear jovially remarked: "Now, then, my friend, we give you just five minutes to unlock that safe and count out the slugs to depositors in full." The depositors have been dismissed, all public assemblages, whether church or secular, are prohibited, and the skating rink has been discontinued. The people are excited with reports, many believing there are more cases than those reported to the board of health, and the disease has sprung into its formidable proportions so rapidly a much further spread of it is feared.

Small-Pox at Mound City.

Mound City is in a panic. An epidemic of small-pox has broken out here, and health reported 33 cases, all colored excepting two, these being two young children of John Schuler's. An official order has been issued by the authorities requiring all persons to give proof of successful vaccination within the past seven years. The schools have been dismissed, all public assemblages, whether church or secular, are prohibited, and the skating rink has been discontinued. The people are excited with reports, many believing there are more cases than those reported to the board of health, and the disease has sprung into its formidable proportions so rapidly a much further spread of it is feared.

Small-Pox at Mound City.

Mound City is in a panic. An epidemic of small-pox has broken out here, and health reported 33 cases, all colored excepting two, these being two young children of John Schuler's. An official order has been issued by the authorities requiring all persons to give proof of successful vaccination within the past seven years. The schools have been dismissed, all public assemblages, whether church or secular, are prohibited, and the skating rink has been discontinued. The people are excited with reports, many believing there are more cases than those reported to the board of health, and the disease has sprung into its formidable proportions so rapidly a much further spread of it is feared.

Small-Pox at Mound City.

Mound City is in a panic. An epidemic of small-pox has broken out here, and health reported 33 cases, all colored excepting two, these being two young children of John Schuler's. An official order has been issued by the authorities requiring all persons to give proof of successful vaccination within the past seven years. The schools have been dismissed, all public assemblages, whether church or secular, are prohibited, and the skating rink has been discontinued. The people are excited with reports, many believing there are more cases than those reported to the board of health, and the disease has sprung into its formidable proportions so rapidly a much further spread of it is feared.

Small-Pox at Mound City.

Mound City is in a panic. An epidemic of small-pox has broken out here, and health reported 33 cases, all colored excepting two, these being two young children of John Schuler's. An official order has been issued by the authorities requiring all persons to give proof of successful vaccination within the past seven years. The schools have been dismissed, all public assemblages, whether church or secular, are prohibited, and the skating rink has been discontinued. The people are excited with reports, many believing there are more cases than those reported to the board of health, and the disease has sprung into its formidable proportions so rapidly a much further spread of it is feared.

Small-Pox at Mound City.

Mound City is in a panic. An epidemic of small-pox has broken out here, and health reported 33 cases, all colored excepting two, these being two young children of John Schuler's. An official order has been issued by the authorities requiring all persons to give proof of successful vaccination within the past seven years. The schools have been dismissed, all public assemblages, whether church or secular, are prohibited, and the skating rink has been discontinued. The people are excited with reports, many believing there are more cases than those reported to the board of health, and the disease has sprung into its formidable proportions so rapidly a much further spread of it is feared.

Small-Pox at Mound City.

Mound City is in a panic. An epidemic of small-pox has broken out here, and health reported 33 cases, all colored excepting two, these being two young children of John Schuler's. An official order has been issued by the authorities requiring all persons to give proof of successful vaccination within the past seven years. The schools have been dismissed, all public assemblages, whether church or secular, are prohibited, and the skating rink has been discontinued. The people are excited with reports, many believing there are more cases than those reported to the board of health, and the disease has sprung into its formidable proportions so rapidly a much further spread of it is feared.

Small-Pox at Mound City.

Mound City is in a panic. An epidemic of small-pox has broken out here, and health reported 33 cases, all colored excepting two, these being two young children of John Schuler's. An official order has been issued by the authorities requiring all persons to give proof of successful vaccination within the past seven years. The schools have been dismissed, all public assemblages, whether church or secular, are prohibited, and the skating rink has been discontinued. The people are excited with reports, many believing there are more cases than those reported to the board of health, and the disease has sprung into its formidable proportions so rapidly a much further spread of it is feared.

Small-Pox at Mound City.

Mound City is in a panic. An epidemic of small-pox has broken out here, and health reported 33 cases, all colored excepting two, these being two young children of John Schuler's. An official order has been issued by the authorities requiring all persons to give proof of successful vaccination within the past seven years. The schools have been dismissed, all public assemblages, whether church or secular, are prohibited, and the skating rink has been discontinued. The people are excited with reports, many believing there are more cases than those reported to the board of health, and the disease has sprung into its formidable proportions so rapidly a much further spread of it is feared.

Small-Pox at Mound City.

Mound City is in a panic. An epidemic of small-pox has broken out here, and health reported 33 cases, all colored excepting two, these being two young children of John Schuler's. An official order has been issued by the authorities requiring all persons to give proof of successful vaccination within the past seven years. The schools have been dismissed, all public assemblages, whether church or secular, are prohibited, and the skating rink has been discontinued. The people are excited with reports, many believing there are more cases than those reported to the board of health, and the disease has sprung into its formidable proportions so rapidly a much further spread of it is feared.

Small-Pox at Mound City.

Mound City is in a panic. An epidemic of small-pox has broken out here, and health reported 33 cases, all colored excepting two, these being two young children of John Schuler's. An official order has been issued by the authorities requiring all persons to give proof of successful vaccination within the past seven years. The schools have been dismissed, all public assemblages, whether church or secular, are prohibited, and the skating rink has been discontinued. The people are excited with reports, many believing there are more cases than those reported to the board of health, and the disease has sprung into its formidable proportions so rapidly a much further spread of it is feared.

Small-Pox at Mound City.

Mound City is in a panic. An epidemic of small-pox has broken out here, and health reported 33 cases, all colored excepting two, these being two young children of John Schuler's. An official order has been issued by the authorities requiring all persons to give proof of successful vaccination within the past seven years. The schools have been dismissed, all public assemblages, whether church or secular, are prohibited, and the skating rink has been discontinued. The people are excited with reports, many believing there are more cases than those reported to the board of health, and the disease has sprung into its formidable proportions so rapidly a much further spread of it is feared.

A KENTUCKY WRANGLE.

SCARTERBERRY BLOCKS THE WAY.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Kentucky has come to the front, with another sensation to-day. It has been stated as a positive fact for some days that Mr. R. Boyd would be appointed as Minister to Chili. Secretary Bayard had recommended him to the President. It was understood, and the thing had been settled. Mr. Boyd was strongly indorsed by Senators Blackburn and Beck, and had the rest of the State delegation on his papers. His name was to have gone in with the batch sent to the Senate this morning, but on Saturday ex-Congressman Oscar Taylor laid before Attorney General Garland the history of Mr. Boyd's troubles at Paducah three or four years ago, and the appointment was held up, so the story goes. It is all the talk this evening. Mr. Boyd has been telegraphed for and will reach Washington tomorrow night. The matter is causing considerable mortification among the Kentuckians here, as they say it throws the delegation on the defensive and adds another defeat.

For State Senator.

We are authorized to announce JACOB WHITE of Hickman county, as a candidate to represent the counties of Hickman, Madison and Lee, in the State Senate, to fill the unexpired term of the late M. C. Vaughan.

For the Legislature.

We are authorized to announce J. F. REYNOLDS as a candidate to represent Hickman and Fulton counties in the Lower House of the next General Assembly of Kentucky.

For Jailer.

We are authorized to announce THOS. W. WALLACE, as a candidate for the office of Jailer of Fulton County. Election in August next.

For State Senator.

We are authorized to announce JAMES P. TAYLOR as a candidate for the office of Jailer of Fulton county. Election 1st Monday in August next.

For Jailer.

We are authorized to announce THOS. W. WALLACE, as a candidate for the office of Jailer of Fulton County. Election in August next.

For State Senator.

We are authorized to announce JAMES P. TAYLOR as a candidate for the office of Jailer of Fulton county. Election 1st Monday in August next.

For Jailer.

We are authorized to announce THOS. W. WALLACE, as a candidate for the office of Jailer of Fulton County. Election in August next.

For State Senator.

We are authorized to announce JAMES P. TAYLOR as a candidate for the office of Jailer of Fulton county. Election 1st Monday in August next.

For Jailer.

We are authorized to announce THOS. W. WALLACE, as a candidate for the office of Jailer of Fulton County. Election in August next.

For State Senator.

We are authorized to announce JAMES P. TAYLOR as a candidate for the office of Jailer of Fulton county. Election 1st Monday in August next.

For Jailer.

We are authorized to announce THOS. W. WALLACE, as a candidate for the office of Jailer of Fulton County. Election in August next.

For State Senator.

We are authorized to announce JAMES P. TAYLOR as a candidate for the office of Jailer of Fulton county. Election 1st Monday in August next.

For Jailer.

We are authorized to announce THOS. W. WALLACE, as a candidate for the office of Jailer of Fulton County. Election in August next.

For State Senator.

We are authorized to announce JAMES P. TAYLOR as a candidate for the office of Jailer of Fulton county. Election 1st Monday in August next.

For Jailer.

We are authorized to announce THOS. W. WALLACE, as a candidate for the office of Jailer of Fulton County. Election in August next.

Professional Cards.

H. A. & R. T. Tyler, Attorneys at Law, HICKMAN, KENTUCKY

WILL ATTEND TO ALL BUSINESS entrusted to their care. Office—Furniture Factory, 2nd St. 2nd

DR. A. A. FARIS, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, HICKMAN, KENTUCKY

OFFERS his Professional Services to the citizens of Hickman and vicinity 12nd St. 2nd

SALE AND LIVERY STABLE FARIS & PARKER, KENTUCKY STREET, HICKMAN, KY.

KEEP constantly on hand for hire and sale HORSES, BUGGIES and HACKS. Having purchased the stable, horse and carriage of W. B. Plummer we propose to continue the business, and solicit patronage

W. DIESTELBRINK Family Groceries.

No space to name all articles, but no trouble to show goods. 12nd and 3rd, at the corner of Troy and Moscow Avenue, East Hickman, Ky

FAMILY GROCERY H. C. JUDGE, (DAVIS OLD STAND.)

All kinds of OFFICE AND TANGY GROCERIES usually kept in a large class house, at low prices.

FANCY CANDIES, TEA, MINCE-WEAAT, PICKLES, CRANBERRIES, HONEY, GRITS

LIQUORS, Sugar, Coffee, Soaps, &c. Will not be undersold. Will pay full price for Butter, Eggs, &c.

M. L. ENOBER, (Hickman, Ky., Clinton Str.)

GROCERIES

WANDY CONFECTIONERIES.

F. E. CASE, DEALER IN

Nete, Seines, Lines, Hooks, and all kinds of Fishing Tackle and Supplies, at a large Grocery and Family Supplies generally.

LOWER and LOWER. All kinds of Groceries—hams, sides, &c. as cheap as the cheapest. I will not be undersold. JOHN WITTING

HICKMAN MARBLE WORKS HICKMAN, KY.

M. C. Hamage, DEALER IN ITALIAN AND AMERICAN MARBLE MONUMENTS, TOMB AND GRAVE STONES.

HAVING received a fine lot of American and Italian Marble, I am prepared to fill all orders. Call and examine our work. Orders from the country promptly may 23

Groceries. 25cts Lower than the Lowest

I have no clerk expense—No Store rent and pay cash for all my Groceries, and therefore can sell as cheap as the cheap est. Best brands of Whiteberg and Long Star Flour, 25 cents cheaper than the low est. JOHN WITTING.

FINE HORSES FOR SALE! I HAVE one thoroughbred Stallion, horse, which I will sell at a reasonable price for cash. Call on or address, DEE REED, Hickman, Ky. Feb. 27, 1885, 4w.

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale directed to me, which issued from the Clerk's office of the Eastern Circuit Court, in favor of Kinney, McLaughlin & Co., et al., against J. B